WALL OF HONOR

The Frostburg State University Wall of Honor, located in front of the Performing Arts Center, allows our loved ones to be etched in our hearts forever. There are three (3) walls:

- In Memory of Students and Alumni
- In Memory of Faculty, Staff and Friends
- In Honor of Students, Alumni, Faculty, Staff and Friends

To honor a loved one, close friend or long-time mentor, a contribution of $500 is required for each name. Your donation is restricted to the Wall of Honor Fund, used for campus beautification.

Please check one:

- Faculty
 - Staff
 - Friend of the University
 - Alumni
 - Student

Lewis J. Ort, Friend of the University

Virtual Web Wall of Honor:

The Wall of Honor has a display of names on the “Virtual Wall of Honor” found on the FSU Web site. You can view photographs of the wall, the names of the individuals listed and many include a link to see a photograph and/or personal information (can be an obituary, a poem, personal thoughts, or words that best describe the spirit of the individual).

To have this information included, we ask that you submit it to Shannon Gribble, Director of Alumni Programs, at slgribble@frostburg.edu or at the address listed above.
