Parents' Weekend Activities On Tap

FSU has scheduled a full slate of events to celebrate Parents' Weekend, Friday to Sunday, Oct. 8 to 10.

Friday evening activities include screenings of the film "Patch Adams" at 6 and 10 p.m. in Lane Center, room 201; an opening reception for the art exhibition, "Watershed" at 7 p.m. in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery; casino games from 10 p.m. to midnight in the Lane Center multi-use room and "Game Mania" from midnight to 1 a.m. in the Lane Center game room.

In addition, Café Frostburg will present singer-songwriter Roger Day at 8 p.m. in the Lane Center Greenhouse.

On Saturday, registration begins at 8 a.m. in the Lane Center for numerous parents' activities including meetings, a reception and brunch. "Roger's Rock and Roll Rodeo," a show for kids of all ages, takes place at noon in the Lane Center Lounge. Enjoy a complimentary lunch of peanut butter and jelly and punch as Roger Day features tunes written especially for kids.

During the afternoon, plan to attend the women's field hockey game as FSU takes on Randolph Macon at 1 p.m. on the field or enjoy the University Theatre's production of "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" at 2 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

The planetarium show, "Native American Sky Stories," will be held at 2, 3 and 4 p.m. in Tawes Hall; "Patch Adams" will be shown again at 1 p.m. in Lane Center, room 201 and the art exhibit, "Water Shed" will be on display from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Roper Gallery.

A Parents' Weekend Reception with Dr. Catherine Gira, FSU president, is slated for 7:15 to 8:15 p.m. in the Lane Center multi-use room followed by "Flamenco Vivo," a performance by the Carlota Santana Spanish Dance Company at 8:30 p.m. in the Cordts Physical Education Main Arena.

Sunday morning, enjoy a brunch (tickets available on site) from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Chesapeake Dining Hall or take a ride on the Western Maryland Scenic Railroad leaving the Cumberland Station at 11 a.m. This event is by reservation only through the FSU Parents' Association, x7588.

At noon, the women's tennis team challenges Hood College on the tennis courts adjacent to the Cordts Physical Education Center, and from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., the Center for Service, Leadership and AmeriCorps will hold an open house at their new Braddock House location. Planetarium shows continue at 1:30 and 7 p.m., and the film "Patch Adams" will be shown a final time at 7 p.m.

For information, ticket reservations and a full schedule of activities, contact the Lane Center Information Desk, x4411.

"Watershed" Art Exhibit to Open Oct. 8

The FSU Department of Visual Arts presents the art exhibit "Watershed," which will be on display at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the Fine Arts Building from Friday, Oct. 8, to Tuesday, Nov. 2.

The Watershed exhibit was born of an "artists invite artists" grant that took 15 ceramic artists from around the country to the Watershed Center for the Ceramic Arts in the coast of Maine last year. They spent two weeks creating art, according to Jackie Brown, associate professor of Visual Arts at FSU, who organized both the Watershed event and exhibit. The work of those artists, both the ceramics they created in Maine and the art in various media they've done since then, will be on exhibit at FSU.

Artists to be featured include Brown, Cathy Babcock, Joe Campbell, Judith Cook, Lisa Doolan-Mickey, Patrick Faville, Tom Finke, Barry Glotfelty, Gary Greenberg, Glenn Grishkoff, Linda Kiepke, Ceil Leeper, Shane Mickey, Shane Sellers and Lisa Sheirer. Many of the artists are FSU alumni.

Gallery hours are Sundays to Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. The exhibit opening and Department of Visual Arts Award Night will be Friday, Oct. 8, at 7 p.m. In addition, the gallery will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. Oct. 9 and 10 for Parents' Weekend and Oct. 23 and 24 for Homecoming.

For information about the exhibit, call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Learn "How to Succeed ... Without Really Trying"

University Theatre will open its 1999-2000 season with "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" Friday and Saturday, Oct. 8 and 9, and Thursday to Saturday, Oct. 14, 15 and 16, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 10, at 2 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

Power, sex, ambition and greed ... it's just another day at the office. In this "delightfully irreverent" musical satire of big business and all it holds sacred, we follow the rise of J. Pierrepont Finch as he climbs the corporate ladder from lowly window washer to high-powered executive. On his way, Finch tackles such familiar dangers as the aggressively compliant "company man," the boss' whiny, nepotistic nephew, the office party, the backstabbing co-workers, caffeine addiction and, of course, true love.

For information and ticket reservations, contact the University Theatre Box Office, Mondays through Fridays, 1 to 4:30 p.m. You also can purchase tickets in room 303 of the Performing Arts Center from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily or you can make reservations by calling x4145.

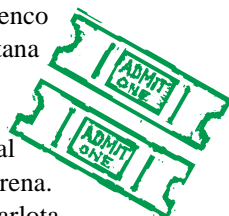

Student group rates and season discount cards are available.

Flamenco Comes to FSU

The FSU 1999-2000 Cultural Events Series will present "Flamenco Vivo" by the Carlota Santana Spanish Dance Company Saturday, Oct. 9, at 8:30 p.m. in the Cordts Physical Education Center Main Arena.

Founded in 1983 by Carlota Santana and the late Roberto Lorca, the company uses flamenco not only as an art form, but also as a device for breaking down cultural barriers. In each performance, the audience clearly feels the essences of Spanish, Judaic, North African and Gypsy influences on the creation of Spanish culture..

For information and ticket reservations, contact the CES Office in the Lane Center, Mondays through Fridays,

10 a.m. to 2 p.m., x4411. Based on availability, tickets may also be purchased the night of the performance at the box office one-hour prior to curtain.

Flamenco Vivo tickets are not required for FSU faculty, staff, students and family, but those people should bring ID to the performance on Saturday, Oct. 9. Tickets for the general public are $5 and $2 for age 17 younger.

Roger Day to Bring Acoustic Rock to Campus

Roger Day, a singer-songwriter who brings the energy of rock to his solo acoustic performances, will appear at Café Frostburg at Frostburg State University's Lane Center Lounge Friday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m.

The concert is sponsored by the FSU Lane Center and Campus Activities' Center Stage. The concert and refreshments in a café/coffeehouse setting are free and open to the public.

Day's voice is often described as a cross between R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe and James Taylor. His first CD, "Rich Man, Poor Man, Beggarman, Thief" was selected by Performing Songwriter magazine as one of 1994's top 10 independent releases.

"Songs of My People" Celebrates Contribution

The subject of the second program of the African American Studies Forum 2000 is African American spirituals and gospel songs: a lecture and performance by professors James Richardson of the Department of English at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Norma Blacke Bourdeau of the FSU departments of English and Philosophy and Pansye Atkinson, director of FSU AA/EEO. The group will be assisted by Professor Frank Fleckenstein from the FSU Philosophy Department.

The program is titled "Songs of My People" and is a celebration of the cultural - especially musical and religious - contribution of African Americans in the second millennium A.D.

The event will be Monday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall. It is free and open to the public.

This program is organized by the African American Studies Program and is co-sponsored by the President's Advisory Council on Diversity, the Center for International Education, the Office of Diversity, Black Student Alliance and Bryce Quarve, director of Arts Marketing and Outreach at FSU.

For information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, Coordinator of African American Studies at x3089 or Dunkle Hall 130.

International Film Series Presents "El Mariachi"

"El Mariachi," a film about a musician who stumbles into in love and a battle against evil, is the next offering of the FSU International Film Series. The Spanish film with English subtitles will be shown Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. in Lane Center 201.

In this film, directed by Robert Rodriguez, a lone Mariachi musician arrives in a small Mexican border town hoping to find work. As the story evolves, the Mariachi falls in love with a beautiful bar owner who befriends him after he is accidentally confused as the hitman for the town's revenge-crazed drug dealer. Soon, he finds himself ushered into the violent underworld, battling the world's evil until the film's final tragic moments.

This event is free and open to the public. For information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk, x4411.

Busted!

Sirens blare (quietly), (mock) arrests will be made. It's time again for Jail Bail.

From Oct. 4 to Oct. 7, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Lane Center, the BURG Peer Education Network will once again be mock-arresting staff, R.A.s, professors, student leaders and others for Jail Bail.

Mock-arrested and placed behind bars, the "prisoners" will be pleading for money, not mercy. Their bail starts at $15, which can be lowered by a generous soul or RAISED by those who want to see them sit there a little longer. A fun time for all. Just remember to bring some spare change.

Jail Bail is an annual event held by BURG to raise awareness about issues surrounding drinking and driving. The money raised will be used for future programs and events, including attending various trainings at their annual international BACCHUS/GAMMA Peer Education Network conference in Orlando, Fla.

For more information, contact the S.A.F.E. office in 017 Compton Hall or call x7692. Slots are still open to sit in the jail.

Mark Sterner: "DUI — A Powerful Lesson"

Losing someone close to you can be difficult. What's worse is if you not only caused one death, but the death of a few of your close friends.

Mark Sterner presents "DUI: A Powerful Lesson" Tuesday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Recital Hall. Sterner was a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon at a Rhode Island college when he and four fraternity brothers took off for Spring Break.

The group also took a video camera and recorded the fateful series of events up until 15 minutes before the fatal crash. Sterner was sentenced to 23 months in a Florida prison for the deaths of three of his fraternity brothers.

Sterner doesn't appear odd in any way. Many are struck by how "normal" he was (and is). Sterner focuses on how careless choices can make such an impact, leaving many students to walk away with a new sense of reality.

For more information, contact the S.A.F.E. office at 017 Compton Hall, x7692.

The event is sponsored by the Western Maryland Regional Safe Community Center, the National Panhellenic Council and the International Fraternal Council.

Vaccinations Available at Lane Center Oct. 7

VACCESSHealth, a full-service provider of adult immunization programs, in cooperation with Frostburg State University's Brady Health Center will conduct a student immunization clinic from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 7, in the Lane Center Multi-use Room.

Three immunizations are available on the day of the clinic. Meningitis vaccine, at a cost of $75, Hepatitis B (the first in a series of three) for $45 and influenza for $10. The influenza vaccine is available to FSU faculty and staff as well.

No appointments are necessary. Walk-ins are welcome. For information, contact VACCESSHealth at 1-877-4-VACCESS or call the Brady Health Center at x4310.

"Stop the Hate" Vigil Set

The rise of hate groups and violent, senseless attacks on innocent people should be of grave concern to all. In response, a "Stop the Hate" vigil will be held outside the Lane Center by the Black Student Alliance fountain Thursday, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited to join this event.

Dr. Fred Yaffe, FSU's dean for the newly formed College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, will serve as the vigil speaker.

Greg Latta of the Department of Physics, Amy Harman of the Department of Biology and Norma Blacke Bourdeau of the Department of English will perform music.

Sponsors of the vigil include United Campus Ministry, Catholic Campus Ministry, Baptist Campus Ministry, the National Coalition Building Institute, the Diversity Center, Hillel, Student Government Association, Center for International Education, NAACP and University Police. The FSU event will be part of a national "Stop the Hate" day sponsored by the Interfaith Alliance and the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

For information, contact the Rev. Larry Neumark, x7490.

Get Involved ... Be a Part Of Homecoming 1999!

Student organizations are encouraged to participate in the many activities scheduled during Homecoming weekend, Oct. 21-24. Organizational competitions exist in the following categories:

parade car/float-decorating, fence-decorating, banner design, community window-decorating, residence hall decorating, and lip sync. To participate in any of these activities, student organizations must register by noon Oct. 8. Registration packets are available at the Lane Center information desk.

In addition to these competitions, 17 student organizations have sponsored candidates for the Homecoming Queen & King competition. The first round of balloting will take place Oct. 6 in the Lane Center, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and in Chesapeake Dining Hall from 5 to 7 p.m. This round of balloting will determine the 1999 Homecoming Court of four Queen and four King candidates. All students are encouraged to exercise their voting privilege.

For more information about AULD LANG SYNE 1999, FSU's Homecoming celebration, call the Office of Alumni Services at x4068 or visit our Web site at www.frostburg.edu.

Part of AIDS Quilt Coming to Campus

Thirty-eight panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt, a visible symbol of love and remembrance for those who have succumbed to the AIDS epidemic, will be on display in the Lane Center Multi-use Room from Monday, Oct. 11, to Friday, Oct. 15.

The quilt is returning to Western

Maryland thanks to the coordinating efforts of Frostburg State University and many regional educational, health care, community and business supporters, culminating months of planning by volunteers.

Opening ceremonies will be Oct. 11 at noon. The exhibit, titled, "See It and Understand," will be on display from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, with the exhibit closing Oct. 15 at 1 p.m. The display is free and open to the public. Numerous educational and promotional materials will be available for purchase.

New 12-by-12 panels will be accepted throughout the week.

Donations and proceeds from the display will be used by the AIDS Alliance of Allegany County and the Garrett County AIDS Council to support people living with HIV and AIDS in our communities.

Volunteers are needed to serve as quilt monitors, readers of names and for other activities. For information or to volunteer, please contact Patrick Deasy at x4234 or Sherri Schubert at x 7429.

Sarah Jester to Present Senior Recital

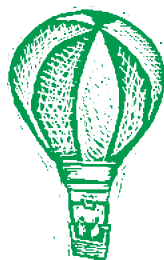

FSU senior Sarah Jester will present her voice recital Sunday, Oct. 10, at 3 p.m. in the PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The soprano will be accompanied by Nancy Witmer on piano.

Her program will include "Cantata — Si, Si, Luci Adorate" by Antonio Vivaldi, "Du Bist Die Ruh," "Seligkeit," "Auf Dem Wasser Zu Singen," and "Der Musensohn" by Franz Schubert, "Cuatro Madrigales Amatorios" by Joaquin Rodrigo, "Selections from Childhood Fables for Grownups" by Irving Fine, "Omio Babbino Caro" from Gianni Schiechi by Giacomo Puccini, "Laurie's Song" from the opera "The Tender 3 Land" by Aaron Copland and "Deh Vieni, Non Tardar" from "Le Nozze di Figaro" by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. She will be accompanied on the Vivaldi cantata by Dr. Ellen Grolman Schlegel on cello.

Study Abroad Opportunities

Spend the intersession in Ecuador

Students who would like to spend their intersession in Cuenca, Ecuador, should come by the CIE to fill out a study abroad application form. Courses will be offered in Spanish, Biology, Women's Studies and Latin American studies. Interested students should talk to the program coordinators, Dr. MacGregor O'Brien (x4287, Lowndes 204), or Dr. Gwen Brewer (x4306, 143 Tawes). Program participants will depart Dec. 26 and return Jan. 20 or 23. For information and an application form, contact Amy Simes at the Center for International Education, Fuller House, x3091.

Education Majors - Do you want to go to Denmark?

FSU is beginning a new exchange program with the KDAS Teaching College in Copenhagen. This semester we are hosting two students from KDAS, and spring semester 2000 we hope to send two FSU students to Copenhagen. Contact Amy Simes at the Center for International Education, x3091, asimes@frostburg.edu; or Dr. William Bingham in the Educational Professions Dept., x4420.

International Student Exchange Program Information Meeting

Students interested in taking part in any of the ISEP programs should attend an information meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 6 p.m. in the Ort Library, Room 210. There are still spaces left for spring semester 2000. ISEP has programs in over 200 locations worldwide. Students pay their normal tuition and room and board to FSU, and then spend a semester or a year overseas. Financial aid may be used to cover expenses. Credits earned are transferred back to FSU. Contact Amy Simes at the Center for International Education at x3091, or drop by the Fuller House on Braddock Road. Deadline for next academic year applications is Oct. 15.

Information Meeting for University of Northumbria in England

Students interested in taking part in FSU's new study abroad program at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle (UNN) spring semester should attend an information meeting Thursday, Oct. 7, at 5 p.m. in the Seminar Room of the Fuller House, Braddock Road. Application deadline for spring semester is Oct. 15. UNN offers courses in business, computer science, social sciences, theater, media and communications, the humanities, and many more. Newcastle is just three hours north of London by train, and one hour south of Edinburgh. The cost of spending one semester at UNN is approximately the same as in-state fees for one semester at FSU. Contact Amy Simes at the Center for International Education at x3091.

Snow and French in Quebec: Information Meeting

Students interested in attending the University of Quebec's intersession program at Chicoutimi should attend an information session on Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 5 p.m. in the Seminar Room of the Fuller House, Braddock Road. Contact Amy Simes, Center for International Education, x3091, or asimes@frostburg.edu.

Study Abroad Information Sessions

Students who are interested in studying abroad for a semester, intersession, summer session, or full academic year should attend an information session at the Center for International Education, now located at the Fuller House. Sessions will be each Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Fuller House library. Students will have access to overseas catalogues, online searching, financial aid information and travel information. Guidance will be provided for application to all study abroad programs. Contact Dr. Amy Simes, CIE Director, x3091, or by email at asimes@frostburg.edu.

Study Abroad Scholarships

Students who are planning to take part in an FSU-sponsored study abroad program may apply for a scholarship from the Center for International Education. Scholarships are awarded to students in amounts of $500 and $1000 for study overseas. The deadline for students applying for the spring and the intersession is Oct. 15. Application forms are available at the CIE Office in the Fuller House on Braddock Road. Contact Amy Simes at x3091 or asimes@frostburg.edu.

International Happy Hour/White Water Rafting

All international students are reminded that there will be a special 'Happy Hour' to celebrate the Oct. 8 Mid-Semester Warnings. Please get in touch with Allison Kiser at x4747 for further information, or come by the Fuller House between 9am and 2pm.

Also, international students should remember to sign up for a day of white water rafting. This event will be Sunday, Oct. 10, and is limited to 12 people, so sign up early. For further information, please contact Allison Kiser at x4747, (akiser@frostburg.edu) or come by the Center for International Education in the Fuller House on Braddock Road.

Department of Social Work Sets Info Sessions

The Department of Social Work will hold three information sessions Wednesday, Oct. 6, from noon to 2 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 16, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and Tuesday, Oct. 19, from 3 to 5 p.m. for persons interested in a career in social work. The meetings will include information on the curriculum requirements of the social work program. All meetings will be in room 029, Guild Center.

The sessions are designed for people who want to learn more about the social work profession and FSU's undergraduate social work program. For those who intend to apply, the sessions serve as orientation to the major and provide details about admissions criteria, course requirements, curriculum planning, social work licensing and continued study beyond the undergraduate level.

Those who plan to attend are asked to call the Department of Social Work at x7497 at least one day in advance. For information, contact Department Chair Kathleen H. Powell, M.S.W., at x4695.

Diverse Views on Abortion to Be Aired

United Campus Ministry will present "A Student Dialogue on Abortion" Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Library Room 237. Dr. Phoebe Wiley from the P.A.S.S. office will moderate this civil exploration of diverse views on this controversial subject. This is an ideal opportunity to learn about and listen to various anecdotes and ideas related to abortion. A student panel including Maggie Denny, Stacey Sharpe, Chris Wilson and Brian Sappington will entertain questions and share their diverse views on abortion.

Remove Your Incompletes

Reminder: The last day for removal of incomplete grades for undergraduate students for Spring 1999/ Summer 1999 semesters is Monday, Oct. 11.

Instructors may contact Marcy in the Registrar's Office at x4347 if they have questions or need "Change of Grade" forms.

Also, the last day to withdraw with a "W" in a course for the fall 1999 semester is Friday, Oct. 22.

Advice for Advisors

The Advice for Advisors series continues with two essential sessions planned just in time for spring registration:

University Baccalaureate Degree Requirements and the General Education Program

Friday, Oct. 8, 2 to 4 p.m., Leake Room, Cordts Physical Education Center

All advisors need to be knowledgeable about University-wide, as well as departmental, regulations. Come learn about the history and purposes of FSU's current requirements, review recent changes made in response to student needs, and join in brainstorming about future directions. Of course, we'll also talk about the nitty-gritty details and share some tips on how to keep on top of multi-layered requirements.

Interpreting and Using Student Records in Advising

Friday, Oct. 29, 2 to 4 p.m., Library 210

By popular request, we're repeating the September session. Learn about FSU's admission procedures and requirements for first-time college and transfer students, how to use admissions information in advising, and what are the placement procedures for building block courses. If you didn't attend on Sept. 10, call ahead to receive the common sample files for review, and come at 2 p.m. If you attended Sept. 10, come at 3 p.m. and we'll complete the sample file and case study reviews.

Please let us know if you plan to attend one or both of these workshops (so we can plan the other part: refreshments!) by calling the Office of the Provost, x4212.

Reminders: New Faculty and Staff:

- Check out the Career Day alumni presentations on Oct. 22, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., to hear some of our advising/mentoring success stories! For more information, contact Career Services, x4403.
- Morris Willey is filling his waiting list for another Student Information System (SIS) hands-on lab session. Sign up this week and we'll try to fit one in before registration. Call x4736 or e-mail mwilley@frostburg.edu.

Conference Features Distinguished Programs

Join colleagues from throughout the state to learn more about recent winners of the Maryland Association of Higher Education's (MAHE) Distinguished Programs Awards at the MAHE Fall Conference on Friday, Oct. 15. You will be able to select from concurrent presentations about programs in all four award categories (academic, student services, open, and community service) as well as being introduced to the 1999 Distinguished Program and Research Award winners. Featured presenters will include the 1998 Community Service Program Award winners, FSU's own Bill Mandicott, Cherie Krug and Lisa Glass, describing the Center for Community Service and Learning and A STAR! in Western Maryland. Dr. Rahim Ashkeboussi also won the 1998 Research Award of $3,000. All faculty, administrators, and graduate students interested in higher education careers are invited to join the FSU delegation. The conference is scheduled for October 15, 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., at Washington College, Chestertown, MD. The program fee is $40 for MAHE members, $50 for nonmembers, and $60 for the combined conference/99-00 membership fee. For registration information and to get on a list for shared, free transportation, please contact Mary Gartner in Hitchins 213, x4212.

Meeting for AmeriCorps Grants Slated

A Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) meeting for AmeriCorps State Grants will be from 1 to 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 7, in room 202 of the Lane Center.

This meeting is sponsored by the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism. Cole McMahon, Director of Training and Technical Assistance and Program Officer for the GOSV, will be present to provide information and answer questions.

Eligible applicants for AmeriCorps funding opportunities include 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, government agencies (state/county/city) and institutions of higher education. Concept papers are mandatory for applicants to be eligible for a grant and are due Nov. 5. Funding is subject to congressional approval.

If you plan to attending, RSVP at x7599 by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 5.

For more information, contact Drew Carberry at the GOSV at 1-800-321-VOLS or Keith Hart, Commissioner for the Governor's Commission on Service and Volunteerism, at x7599.

Fall Convocation

The University's Fall Convocation will be Tuesday, Oct. 12, at 3 p.m. in the PAC Recital Hall. All members of the University Community — faculty, staff and students — are invited.

We Want You(r Convertible)

Wanted: You and your convertible vehicle (car or jeep) to drive

FSU and Frostburg community dignitaries in the FSU Homecoming Parade Saturday, Oct. 23, 10:30 a.m.

Call x4020 (Office of Conferences and Events) to volunteer.

Positions Available

Students wanted (experience preferred) to work for the Cultural Events Series. Duties include loading and unloading, setting up and tearing down the stage, lights and sound equipment. Pay is $6 per hour, plus you can see the show for free. Workers will be guaranteed three hours.

The events are:

Oct. 9 for Flamenco Vivo. Twelve students are needed to work from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 or 1 a.m.

Oct. 23 for Celtic Rhythm. Four students are needed from 10:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., four students are needed from 7 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. and six students are needed from 10 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.
