Entertainment at FSU

Spend "An Evening with John Waters" Nov. 15

He has been called "the Baron of Bad Taste," "the Pope of Trash" and "the Sultan of Sleaze." Now acclaimed and campy moviemaker John Waters will discuss all forms of shock value in film at FSU.

John Waters

The FSU Campus Activities Board will present an evening lecture with Waters on Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m. in the Manicur Assembly Hall of the campus Lane Center. The event is free and open to the public.

Waters will discuss all forms of shock value in film - the beauty of "good bad taste," his crackpot obsessions and his vision of worldwide trashiness in all forms of entertainment.

From his notorious "Pink Flamingos" to "Polyester" in Odorama to the more mainstream "Hairspray," "Serial Mom" and "Cecil B. DeMented," Waters' films have spanned over three decades of "good bad taste." His views on censorship and society are hit upon in a unique way during his presentation that will make audiences laugh at the absurdity of what society has deemed as right vs. wrong.

For more information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411.

Collegium Musicum to Present Concert

The FSU Department of Music presents the FSU Collegium Musicum in concert Sunday, Nov. 19, at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall. The concert is free and open to the public.

Under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg, Collegium Musicum's performance will include "Juramento" by Miguel Matamoros, Arvo Pärt's "Magnificat," Henry Purcell's "Let My Prayer Come U," Alexandre Grechaninoff's "Niña otuschcháyeshi," Op 34, No.1, "Ave Maris Stella" by Xavier Busto, "Zol Shoyn Kumen Di Ge'uleh" arranged by Joshua Jacobson and "Zot Jerushalayim" arranged by Karen Sarnaker.

The performance will also include Pablo Casal's "Nigra Sum" for women's choir and the Irish Folksong "BykerHill" arranged by Mitchel Sandler for four-part men's chorus and "Laudate Dominum" from the "Vesperaes solennes de confessore" by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, performed by soprano Elizabeth Collins from Greenbelt, Md.

Accompanist Kimberly Andrews will play "Intermezzo in C Major" by Johannes Brahms and Frederic Chopin's "Nocturne in C-sharp minor."

Chamber Orchestra Kremlin to Perform

FSU's Cultural Events Series proudly presents the Chamber Orchestra Kremlin Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m., in the PAC Pealer Recital Hall.

The performance show will consist of Mozart's "Divertimento in D, K. 136," Shostakovich's "Chamber Symphony, Op. 110 bis," and Tchaikovsky's "Serenade for Strings, Op. 48."

As part of their appearance at FSU, the Orchestra welcomes the community to attend an open rehearsal on Tuesday, Nov. 14. The free event will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. in the Pealer Recital Hall. The open rehearsal, led by Music Director Misha Rachlevsky, will include audience interaction and a question-and-answer session.

Known for its distinctively Russian style of impassioned performance, Chamber Orchestra Kremlin has emerged as one of

University Theatre to Present Contemporary Fable, "Icarus"

University Theatre will present "Icarus," by Edwin Sanchez, a drama based on the famous Greek myth about a man whose efforts to fly fail because his artificial wings melt when he flies too close to the sun.

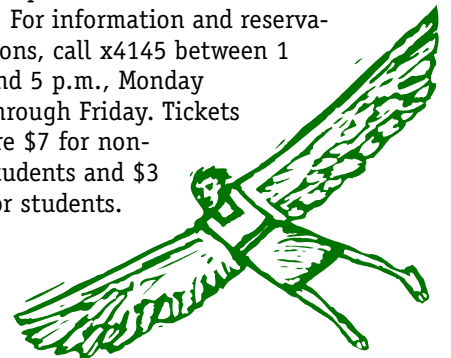

Performances are Nov. 17, 18, and 30, and Dec. 1 and 2 at 8 p.m. in the PAC's F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre. A matinee will be Nov. 18 at 2 p.m. It is recommended for mature audiences.

The New York Times describes the play as a "contemporary fable about the perceptions of beauty."

The central character is Primitivo, a disabled boy trying to rise above his physical limitations. With help from Mr. Ellis, a janitor of dubious sanity, his disfigured sister, Altagracia, rescues Primitivo from the hospital and brings him to a deserted beach. Primitivo dreams of becoming a famous swimmer who can swim so far and with such strength that he touches the sun. Across the boardwalk lives "the Gloria," an over-the-hill actress obsessed with her looks. Beau, a mysterious man who hides his own disfigurement and eventually falls in love with Altagracia, completes the cast.

For information and reservations, call x4145 between 1 and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Tickets are $7 for non-students and $3 for students.

KREMLIN

Russia's leading orchestras. Their CDs of Russian music on the Clave label have won critical praise and international awards, and an active touring schedule in Europe, the Far East and the U.S. has gained them an international following.

Trained as a violinist in the Russian tradition, Rachlevsky left Moscow in 1973 for a career taking him to three continents. Returning to Moscow, he was approached by Clave to record Russian works. He auditioned Moscow's finest young orchestral musicians, and Chamber Orchestra Kremlin was born.

For information on the open rehearsal, contact Susan Manger at x3163.

For tickets and information, call x4411 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. weekdays. Dinner theatre combinations with Guiseppe's are available. Call for information and menu selections.

Folksinger to Appear at Café Frostburg

Folksinger Terri Allard will bring her rootsy blend of folk, country and acoustic pop to FSU's Café Frostburg on Friday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. Gary Green will accompany Allard on the harmonica.

This performance, which is free and open to the public, will take place in the Lane Center Loft.

Appearing throughout the U.S. in clubs and coffeehouses, Allard has shared the stage with some of the finest performers in the business, including Nanci Griffith, John Prine and Tracy Nelson. "Her euphonious country pop dances with tender lyrics and homey melodies that make you feel as if she's playing in your living room," says the Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Green's harmonica prowess has also won critical praise. The Dispatch says, "With his jack-in-the-box stage presence and impeccable harmonica, Gary Green could be a musical event all by himself."

Allard won the 1999 WAMMIE (Washington Area Music Association Award) for Best Female Country Vocalist, after three previous nominations for this award from 1996-1998. Other WAMMIE nominations include Best Country Trio and Best Country Recording. Recently she was selected as a main stage showcase artist for the 1999 North American Folk and Dance Alliance Conference in Albuquerque. She has released three CDs, "Terri Allard," "Rough Lines" and "Loose Change & Spare Parts."

A resident of Charlottesville, Allard has joined with the Dave Matthews Band, Grammy nominee John McCutcheon, U.S. Poet Laureate Rita Dove and many other talented artists to help support the Shelter For Help In Emergency, Charlottesville's shelter for battered women and children.

Green, a New Hampshire native, has recently released a CD titled "Surrounded," an eclectic sampler of Green's harmonica skills honed during the past decade.

Coffee, tea and cookies will be served at the concert free of charge.

Flutist to Perform for Faculty Artist Series

The FSU Department of Music Faculty Artist Series will host flutist Jenny Menna in concert, Friday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Pealer Recital Hall of the Performing Arts Center.

This program will feature Bach's "Sonata in G minor, BWV 1020"; Ernst Bloch's "Suite Modale"; "Entr'Acte" by Jacques Ibert; Perschetti's "Serenade, No. 10"; "Haru No Umi" by Josef Molnar and a selection of Irish folk music. Pianist Kimberly Andrews, harpist Christine Mazza, Rachel Eddy and friends will assist her.

After completing a degree in jazz studies, Menna received her bachelor of music degree in flute performance from the University of Southern Maine. She then traveled to Switzerland where she was a scholarship student of flute professor Marianne Stucki at the Winterthur Conservatory of Music. She has recorded two jazz flute CDs and has performed chamber music and jazz extensively throughout Switzerland, Austria and Germany. Currently Menna makes her home in Morgantown, W.Va., where she is raising two children and teaching flute and general music, as well as teaching flute at FSU.

The concert is free and open to the public.

"Interracial Dating" Next African Am. Forum

In the eighth event in FSU's African American Studies Forum 2000, Dr. Robert Moore, from the Department of Sociology, will present "Interracial Dating on a College Campus: Non-Random Selection Processes" Tuesday, Nov. 28, at 7 p.m. the Ort Library, room 237. This event is free and open to the public.

The African American Studies Forum 2000 is a series of lectures and presentations sponsored by African American Studies, the Maryland State Arts Council, the Office of the Provost, the Office of University Advancement, the Center for International Education and the Black Student Alliance.

For more information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, Coordinator of African American Studies at x3089.

Appalachian Laboratory

Two seminars will be offered this week:

On Tuesday, Nov. 14, Alan R. Berkowitz of the Institute of Ecosystem Studies, Education Program, in Millbrook, N.Y. will present "Environmental Researchers and Educators: Partners in Fostering Ecological Literacy." The program will be at 4 p.m. in AL room 109.

On Thursday, Nov. 16, Lawrence P. Sanford of Horn Point Laboratory, University of Maryland Center for Environmental Science, Cambridge, Md., will present "Processes Controlling Variability of Suspended Sediment Transport in Northern Chesapeake Bay." That program will be at 3:30 p.m. in AL room 109.

Art

"Anansi" Comes to FSU's Roper Gallery

An African mythology boasts an ancient story of a spider named Anansi. Anansi gave the gift of communication to the world by spinning a web of silver that connected all peoples.

On Friday, Nov. 17, from 7 to 9 p.m., three FSU graphic design students will bring "Anansi" to the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The work of Brad Berline, Robert Coburn and Richard Gilbert captures the essence of Anansi by communicating unique perspectives.

While each of these designers has cultivated an individual style, the prominent influences of electronic music culture and urban technology can be seen in their works. Each piece successfully communicates with its target audience through innovative and progressive designs. Berline, Coburn and Gilbert will show their Web design, black and white photography, graphic design and visual imagery pieces collectively.

"Anansi" will be shown until Nov. 22 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

For more information, please call x4797 or visit the expo on the Web at www.anansiexpo.com.

Entertainment

"Raisin in the Sun" Next in African Am. Fest

The third film of the FSU African American Film Festival, "Raisin in the Sun," will be shown Thursday, Nov. 30, at 7 p.m. in the Atkinson Room, Lane Center room 201. Co-sponsored by the FSU Department of History, Center Stage and the African American Studies Program, this showing is free and open to the public.

Starring Sidney Poitier and Ruby Dee, this 1961 drama centers on the fortunes of the five-member Younger family, who share a tiny apartment on Chicago's south side. Members of the family – the widowed Ruth Younger, her daughter Beneatha, her son Walter Lee, and Walter's wife and son – eagerly await the delivery of a $10,000 check from the dead father's life insurance policy. Ruth wants to use the money to buy a house and pay for Beneatha's medical school tuition, but Walter has other ideas. When the money is entrusted to him, he invests it poorly. Yet, at a critical time in all of their lives, he redeems himself.

In just over two hours, the film touches on themes of race, class, gender, generational conflict and even Afrocentrism vs. assimilation. The end result is a moving drama and a sharply etched portrait of both a family and American society.

For more information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411.

Take Note

Telemarketing Alert

The University Advancement's Office of Annual Giving will be conducting its annual fall telemarketing campaign through Tuesday, Nov. 21. Students will be calling alumni Sundays through Thursdays from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Cordts Center Leake Room to ask for contributions to this year's Annual Fund.

The Annual Fund provides financial support through unrestricted contributions to the University's greatest needs, including student scholarships, classroom equipment, cultural events, athletic programs, faculty and staff development and alumni programs. For information, contact Chris Harmon, Director of Annual Giving, x4758.

Department of Social Work Sets Info. Session

The Department of Social Work at FSU will hold an information session Monday, Nov. 20, from 3 to 5 p.m.; at the Department of Social Work Offices in Guild Center 029, for persons interested in a career in social work. The meeting will include information on the curriculum requirements of the social work program at FSU.

Those who plan to attend are asked to call the Department of Social Work at x7497 at least one day in advance of the session.

For information, contact Kathleen H. Powell, M.S.W., at x4695.

Grad Fair for Graduating Seniors

The FSU Bookstore is sponsoring its first ever semi-annual Graduation Fair on Tuesday, Nov. 14 in Lane Center Room 142. ALL DECEMBER GRADUATES SHOULD PLAN TO ATTEND. Stop by for some refreshments and sign up to win some prizes! While you are there, take care of ordering your cap and gown and personalized announcements if you haven't already done that. Representatives will be displaying diploma frames and class rings. The Commencement Office, Career Services Office, Graduate Office and Alumni Office will also be available to answer any questions you may have. Stop by between the hours of 10a.m. and 2p.m. See you there!

Volunteers

Sleep-Out for Homeless

The Social Work Club will sponsor a Sleep-Out for the Homeless Tuesday, Nov. 14, in front of Ort Library. The sleep-out will run from 8 p.m. to 8 a.m. Participants don't have to sleep out all night.

Participants will be "panhandling" to raise money for the homeless in Allegany County. Clubs and organizations may advertise on a cardboard box for $25. Any donations will be accepted.

For more details, call Erin Sheridan or Beth Britton at (301) 687-0199.

Get Involved

United Campus Ministry

"Understanding the Bible" is the topic of the program to be offered Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Osborne Newman Center. Catholic chaplain Father Ed Hendricks and Protestant chaplain Larry Neumark will lead the program sponsored by Catholic Campus Ministry and UCM.

Points of Pride

According to Suzan Clemens of the American Red Cross, the blood drive held on campus Oct. 20 was a huge success. She said that previous FSU drives have not reached 80 units of blood collected.

However, that day, "your staff and students exceeded anything we could have hoped for," she said. The goal for the day was 100 units of blood. They left with 132 and had 173 people offer to donate, including 40 first-time donors. Those first-time donors made up 23 percent of the total, a number much higher than the national average.

The blood drive was sponsored by the Residence Hall Association, in conjunction with the Johnstown Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Collegium Musicum has been invited to present a lecture-demonstration performance on "Why Fly? Music From Many Cultures," presenting choral music from Sweden, Estonia, Russia, Latin America and Africa at the Maryland Music Educators Association Spring In-Service Conference, Feb. 16-18, 2001, in Baltimore.

Community

Victorian Christmas Tea

The Thrasher Carriage Museum is hosting a Victorian Christmas Tea on Sunday, Dec. 3, from 2 to 4 p.m. The event will feature both a guided museum Christmas tour and the hammered dulcimer music of Greg Latta. A variety of tea and traditional delicacies will be served. Tickets are $6 and can be purchased at the Allegany County Visitors Center/Western Maryland Station and the Thrasher Carriage Museum, 19 Depot St., Frostburg. Advance tickets are required. For more information, call 301-689-3380 or 301-777-5132.

International

Go International at Nov. 15 Dinner Buffet

Students, faculty and staff are all invited to a buffet of international cuisine Wednesday, Nov. 15, in Room 237 of the Ort Library from 6 to 8 p.m.. Students and faculty will prepare dishes and provide entertainment from their native countries. This is a rare opportunity to learn about the many cultures and countries represented here at FSU. This event is co-sponsored by Campus Ministry and the Center for International Education.

Prestigious Awards to Go to Exotic Locations

The National Security Education Program (NSEP) offers U.S. students an opportunity to strengthen international awareness and communication in countries deemed crucial to national security. Each year the NSEP awards a number of scholarships to students who want to take part in overseas study in countries worldwide except in Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Scholarships cover a semester, summer or year abroad and are substantial awards. Returning students benefit from employment opportunities with the U.S. Government. This year's FSU deadline for applications is Nov. 15.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of over 200 foreign locations. Students may take financial aid with them and may apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught in either English or in other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit towards your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Applications for the 2001-2 academic year and for summer 2001 are now being accepted. Deadline is Nov. 14.

Intersession in Quebec, Ecuador - Apply Now!

Students who want to spend a few weeks living, studying and traveling in either Quebec or Ecuador over the intersession should visit the CIE to find out more about these programs. Application deadlines are nearing! The best way to learn a language is to speak it every day.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad, and can take all financial aid with them and transfer course credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu.

Beaches, Barbecues and Kangaroos

FSU is now affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at a variety of universities in Australia. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, a weeklong orientation program, advance registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a variety of Australian and New Zealand universities, all offering a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings.

Pubs & Clubs in Newcastle, UK

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, during the spring semester 2001 should contact the CIE. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Courses are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost is the same as one semester (in-state) at FSU, and all financial aid will transfer. Applications are being accepted for fall 2001.

Many Ways to Experience Culture Shock

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS), which offers study abroad programs at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. The CIE is taking applications for spring semester 2001 programs. Spaces are still available in many locations. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs.

Denmark for Future Teachers

FSU has established an exchange program for education majors at a teacher's college in Copenhagen. Students spend spring semester with other international students, taking part in practice teaching and other academic projects.

Octoberfest und Mayfest in Germany

FSU students who would like to take part in UMUC's semester programs in Schwabisch Gmund in southern Germany are advised to apply to the CIE. The campus is part of the University of Maryland system, and all credits transfer back to FSU. Live in a beautiful village and study on a campus with international students from over 80 countries. All teaching is in English.

Work/Volunteer Overseas

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1-2 months) to longer experiences (4-12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Info. Sessions Every Tuesday at the CIE

Each Tuesday at 3 p.m., students are invited to come by the Fuller House library for a free information session about study abroad. Students may access catalogs, videos and the Internet.

Listen to the World on WFWM

Every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m., listen to "Planet Frostburg" on WFWM, 91.9 FM. Amy Simes plays music from around the world and catches everyone up on the latest news in overseas study and international programs.
