Frostburg Goes to Hollywood

Check out the premiere of the new CBS sitcom “Yes, Dear” in the Loft Monday, Oct. 2, at 8:30 p.m. “Yes, Dear” specials at the coffee bar will begin at 8 p.m.

In case you hadn’t heard, the show has both on- and off-screen ties to FSU. One of the main characters, Jimmy, portrayed by comedian Mike O’Malley, will be an FSU graduate.

“Yes, Dear” is about a pair of “odd couple” brothers-in-law and their different approaches to life and family. Jimmy, who is described as a “loud, but lovable guy,” moves to Southern California with his family to be closer to his generous in-laws, Greg and Kim, played by Anthony Clark and Jean Louisa Kelly.

The idea of creating a character who is a graduate of FSU is the brainchild of Frostburg State’s real-life alum Gregory Garcia, the series’ co-creator and co-executive producer. Jimmy will be dressed in appropriate FSU T-shirts, caps and sweatpants every week, Garcia says.

Garcia graduated in 1992 from FSU where he studied television writing. As a result, he was selected to participate in a writer development workshop hosted by Warner Bros. Television. His previous television experience involved behind-the-scenes work on such sitcoms as “Step by Step,” “Family Matters” and “Getting Personal.” He was co-creator of the ABC series “Built to Last” in 1997 starring comedian Royale Watkins.

Meningitis, Flu Shots to Be Offered Oct. 5

FSU and VACCESSHealth will again offer the meningitis vaccine to members of the FSU campus community. Flu shots will also be offered.

The cost will be $75 for the meningitis vaccine and $15 for the flu shot. The shots will be offered in the Lane Center Multi-Use room from 1 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 5.

A new Maryland law states that students living on campus must either have the meningitis vaccine or have signed a waiver saying they decided against it. That law doesn’t cover students living in off-campus housing who are still at risk.

More than half of the outbreaks from 1992 to 1996 occurred in schools, colleges, universities and similar settings. Studies have suggested that college students are more susceptible because they live and work close to one another in dormitories and classrooms. Behavior and social aspects of college life also appear to be risk factors, with smoking, exposure to second-hand smoke, excessive alcohol consumption and bar patronage all increasing the chance that you will contract meningitis from an infected individual.

Symptoms often mimic flu, including fever, severe headache, stiff neck, rash, nausea, vomiting and lethargy. The infection can lead to permanent disabilities or even death. The infection is spread by direct contact, for example from sharing a glass or cigarette or by kissing, or through the air when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

Extended Box Office Hours for Don McLean

Box office hours will be extended during Homecoming weekend for tickets for the Don McLean concert. On Friday, Oct. 6, tickets can be purchased from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Lane Center Box Office. This is the last chance to buy tickets at the advance ticket price. On Saturday, Oct. 7, from 1 p.m. to show time, tickets can be bought in the Leake Room of the Cordts Center.

Noted Poet to Present Reading Monday

Acclaimed poet James Harms will present a poetry reading at FSU on Monday, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

This event is sponsored by the FSU Western Maryland Writer’s Workshop and the Department of English.

Now director of the creative writing program at West Virginia University, Harms is a native of California. His two collections of poems, “Modern Ocean” (1992) and “The Joy Addict” (1998), are published by the Carnegie Mellon University Press. “The Joy Addict” won him a PEN/Revson Fellowship and the following praise from the judges: “James Harms has a real gift for engaging his reader with the palpability of loss and what he terms ‘the stillness that follows loss.’”

Harms’ poetry is heralded for “the dailiness of revelation,” the importance of small gestures and the need to see more clearly.

The reading is free and open to the public. A reception and book-signing will follow. For more information, call the FSU Department of English at x4221.

Nationally Known Counselor to Speak

Doc Robin, a nationally known counselor, will discuss relationships, drugs and life at Frostburg State University on Wednesday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Center Multi-Use Room. Her talk is free and open to the public.

By sharing her personal struggles and how she transformed them into strengths, Doc Robin, Dr. Robin E. Blake, explores the root causes of date rape, addictions as diseases and ways to build self-esteem in a positive, interactive style that is both provocative and humorous. She is known for facilitating open discussion on sensitive and sometimes painful issues affecting many of today’s college students.

She has been in private practice since 1983 as president of Innerglow Self-Discovery Wellness Center. A graduate of DePaul University and Harrington University, she holds a master’s degree in social work and doctorates in clinical psychology and in ministry and divinity. As a member of the International Association of Counselors and Therapists, Doc Robin is certified in clinical hypnotherapy, stress relaxation, medical massage and chemical dependency counseling. She is also known for her work with disabled and terminally ill patients.

An active volunteer, she is a member of the Red Cross Disaster Team and works with City of Hope, C.A.R.E., UNICEF, the American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, the Center for Disease Control, the National Hospice and AIDS Education Bureau, the National Suicide Prevention Hotline and the AA Al-Anon and Al-Ateen Hotline.

The sponsors for this event are the S.A.F.E. Office and BURG. For information, call the S.A.F.E. Office at x4761.

Simpson To Speak On Presidential Election

Dr. Stephen J. Simpson, professor and chair of the Political Science Department, will be the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Frostburg Branch of the Political Science Department. of the American Association of University Women (AAUW). Dr. Simpson will discuss the current presidential election, especially candidate strategies and the role of media in the campaign. This program is open to the public and will be held at the community room of the Frostburg Public Library on Main Street on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m.

“Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the PAC”

The hit musical comedy “A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum” opens the University Theatre’s 2000-2001 season at FSU on Friday, Oct. 6, at 8 p.m. Additional evening performances are Oct. 7, 12, 13 and 14 at 8 p.m. A Saturday matinee is set for Oct. 7, at 2 p.m. All performances will take place in FSU’s Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

With credits by the master of the modern musical Stephen Sondheim, along with television/radio greats Larry Gelbart and Barry Shevelove, this throwback to vaudeville is, according to The New York Times, a “glorious old-fashioned farce.”

Set in Rome, circa 200 B.C., we meet Pseudolus, the laziest slave in Rome, who will do anything to earn his freedom. The fun begins when he is left in charge of his owner’s young son, who has fallen madly in love with a beautiful young virgin in the house of Lysuc. The youth promises Pseudolus his freedom if the slave can arrange the boy’s marriage to the lovely virgin before his father returns. Of course, Pseudolus agrees and havoc ensues.

Information about and reservations for this and future productions can be obtained by calling x4145 between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Season Discount Cards are available for $21, a value of four shows for the price of three. Tickets are $7 for non-students and $3 for students.

International Film: “La Cage aux Folles”

FSU’s 2000-2001 International Film Series continues with “La Cage aux Folles” on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Center room 201. The series is sponsored by Center Stage and the Lane Center & Campus Activities.

Also known as “Birds of a Feather,” this 1978 French comedy inspired the hit movie “The Birdcage” starring Robin Williams. The original film features a variety of Tropical Beats, including Roots Reggae, Soca and Dance Hall. You can log on to the show at www.wfwm.org or lock your stations to 91.9 FM every Wednesday from 8 p.m. to midnight. Be sure to listen for contests, give-aways, call-ins and more.

“I Reggae”

Tune in to 91.9 WFWM for the “I Reggae Broadcast” with FSU graduate student DJ “Lady T.” The broadcast airs a variety of topics each week with hands-on training concerning e-mail, and computing resources for research and teaching in the Academic Computing Training Lab, Pullen 105A. Two sessions are scheduled. Space is limited, so reservations are required (x7090). Please join us on:
- Monday, Oct. 9, 2-3:30 p.m., or
- Thursday, Oct. 12, 2-3:30 p.m.

Fall Convocation

Dr. Gira’s Fall 2000 Convocation will be held on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 3:30 p.m. in the PAC Pealer Recital Hall. All members of the University community - faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend.

Royalty at FSU

On Wednesday, Sept. 27, students voted to determine the 2000 Homecoming Court. The results of the first-round vote are:

King Finalists
- Andrew Mangle, Pi Lambda Phi
- Jeremy McGuire, Residence Hall Association (RHA)
- Eddie Paton, Sigma Alpha Epsilon
- Gerry Washington, Campus Activities Board (CAB)

Queen Finalists
- Erin Evans, SPEED (Students Promoting Educating & Encouraging Diversity)
- Star Friday, Student Government Association (SGA)
- Megan Moore, Delta Zeta
- Renee Pone, Alpha Sigma Tau

Finalists will be interviewed by a panel made up of community, FSU staff and FSU Alumni volunteers Monday, Oct. 2. The second round of voting to determine the 2000 King & Queen will be Wednesday, Oct. 4.

All full-time current students with ID are eligible to vote. Ballots will be available in the Lane Center between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., and Chesapeake Hall between 5 and 7 p.m. The Homecoming Court will ride in the annual Homecoming Parade and will appear at the halftime show on Oct. 7 where the 2000 King & Queen will be announced. Congratulations and good luck to all of our candidates!

Attention Grad Students Who Get Federal Aid

Federal regulations require that institutions of higher education establish minimum standards of “Satisfactory Academic Progress” for students who receive federal financial aid, including the Federal Family Educational Loan Program (Stafford subsidized and unsubsidized loan programs). As a result, the FSU Financial Aid Office is required to evaluate all recipients’ progress toward obtaining a degree. Graduate students who are recipients of federal financial aid should stop by the Financial Aid Office in Pullen 114 to secure a copy of the satisfactory academic progress standards.

Faculty/Administrators’ Orientation Sessions

The New Faculty/Administrators Extended Orientation series continues next week with hands-on training concerning e-mail, and computing resources for research and teaching in the Academic Computing Training Lab, Pullen 105A. Two sessions are scheduled. Space is limited, so reservations are required (x7090). Please join us on:
- Monday, Oct. 9, 2-3:30 p.m., or
- Thursday, Oct. 12, 2-3:30 p.m.

Looking ahead:
- Monday, Oct. 16, 12-3 p.m.
- Student Information System and the Intranet, Nov. 6 and 9
- Research and Sponsored Programs, Nov. 27 and 30
- National Science Foundation, Dec. 4 and 5

While these sessions are primarily planned for new faculty and administrators, all interested faculty and administrators are welcome to attend.

Three to Receive Alumni Achievement Awards

The FSU Alumni Association will honor three alumni with its most prestigious award during this fall’s “All-American Homecoming” celebration. The recipients of the FSU Alumni Achievement Award include:
- Joel T. Kunkle, Williamsport, Md.;
- William Graves, LaPlata, Md.; and
- Eric Udler, Rockville, Md.

Criteria for this award include outstanding professional career growth; community involvement; demonstrated interest in FSU; special achievements, awards, honors and distinctions; and educational background which includes honors and involvement in special activities.
Since receiving his B.S. in music education from Frostburg State in 1966, Kunkle has maintained strong ties to FSU throughout his active career as choral and band director for several Washington County schools. His ties to the university extend to his personal life - his two daughters are also Frostburg alumnae. From 1987 to 1991 he was a member of the Alumni Association Board of Directors and, last year, of the Bobcat Club Executive Committee.

After graduating in 1965 with a B.S. in history, Graves taught social studies for five years at Robert Goddard Junior High School. In 1971, he earned an M.S. in Counseling & Guidance from FSU. Since then, he has served as a guidance counselor in several Prince George's County high schools; he is currently at High Point High School.

Throughout the course of his career, Graves has remained involved with FSU. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the FSU Alumni Association and currently serves as the chair of the Career Connections Committee. In addition, he has helped plan all of his class reunions and has served as a keynote speaker at FSU's Student Leadership Recognition Dinner. As a part of the University's Centennial Campaign, Graves successfully spearheaded an effort to raise funds for the Richard Sloop Leadership Program.

Eric Udler, class of 1990, represents a new breed of business professional - the entrepreneur, focused on providing excellent customer service and enthusiastic about the potential of emerging technologies. Less than 10 years after graduation, he felt ready to launch FSI, and his two daughters are also Frostburg alumnae. He cites Drs. Brooks Honeycutt and Judy Pula for helping him learn skills essential to survival in business.

Udler maintains ties with Sigma Tau Gamma, which, he says, “provided me with an opportunity to develop my leadership skills.”

The awards will be presented to the winners at the 2000 Career Day Luncheon on Friday, Oct. 6, in the Lane Center Multi-Use Room.

Dr. Tom Sefarsey, Assistant Professor of Wildlife Ecology, Department of Biology, was an invited participant at the Northeast Carnivore Workshop, Brookline, Maine, Sept. 7-8. The meeting focused on issues including, wolf recovery in northeastern North America and urban wolf territories and mind as indicators of environmental contamintes.

University Police won an award recently for its participation in the Maryland Chiefs Challenge Campaign, designed to boost use of seat belts, according to University Police Chief Brian Stanley. This was the first year FSU had participated. To launch the campaign, Challenge coordinators, Officers Scott Donahue and Jamie Winters, were joined by Western Maryland Regional Safe Communities director Jennifer Drees in posting signs throughout the campus that said, “Together We Can Save Lives. Buckle Up. It’s Our Law.” They served as proactive reminders to anyone traveling on campus.

In support of the Maryland Pacsetter’s program, three sites on campus were selected to conduct unannounced, observational safety belt use surveys. The FSU trends matched that of the state of Maryland, but the survey at the University Police lot revealed 100 percent compliance. There were numerous other educational programs throughout the drive.

Volunteers

Looking for Someone to Go to Jail for a Cause

October is National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Month (NCAAM). The S.A.F.E Office and BURG Peer Education Network are organizing a Jail Bail fund-raiser to promote awareness of what will happen if you drink and drive. Jail Bail is to be on Oct. 2 - 5 from 9am to 3pm. We are asking for volunteers to be placed in a jail set up in the Lane Center under the story line of being arrested for D.W.I. The “jailbirds” will then be entitled to make as many phone calls as necessary to raise their bail that is started at $20.00. People can donate money to either raise or lower the “jailbirds” bail. If you can’t raise your bail within a scheduled time, you will not be required to pay the remainder of your bail. However, we do ask you to make an honest effort to raise your bail.

All funds raised will be used to raise money for the Jail Bail Fund. All donations are tax deductible. If you are interested in volunteering, please respond IMMEDIATELY by e-mailing the BURG Office at fsu_burg@yahoo.com or by calling x4761. Thank you for your time, and hopefully we will be hearing from you soon.

American Red Cross Needs YOUR Blood

The American Red Cross will hold a blood drive Friday, Oct. 20, in the Lane Center from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Right now, the American Red Cross is experiencing its third emergency appeal for donors since January. Its inventories are just above a one-day supply, and it is really counting on this blood drive to help replenish the fragile stock. The American Red Cross is Stewart of one-half of the nation’s blood supply. The current shortage is one of the worst in its history. Hospitals in some of the hardest hit areas around the nation have been forced to postpone scheduled surgeries because of an inadequate blood supply. The nation’s blood supply is critically low.

To donate blood, you must be healthy, at least 17 years old and weigh 110 pounds or more.

Topless Drivers Wanted

Wanted: You and your convertible vehicle (car or jeep) to drive FSU and Frostburg community dignitaries in the FSU Homecoming Parade Saturday, Oct. 7, 10:30 a.m. Call x4020 (Office of Conferences and Events) to volunteer.

United Campus Ministry

“A Question of Forced Conversions” is the topic of the UCM meeting Wednesday, Oct. 4, at Ort Library room 237 at 7:30 p.m. View this controversial ABC video and decide for yourself.

Youth and Advanced Swimming Lessons

Youth and Advanced Swimming Lessons for children ages 5 to 12 will be offered on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays running from Oct. 9 to Oct. 25. The classes will be from 6 to 7 p.m. in the FSU Pool in the Gords Physical Education Center.

Youth swimming instruction is separated into skill levels. Advanced swimming lessons are for those youth interested in preparing for a swim team.
Scholarship Deadline Coming Soon!

Students who are planning to study abroad during the spring semester or the 2001 intersession may apply for scholarships from the CIE. The deadline is Oct. 15. Scholarships are awarded in the amounts of $500 and $1,000. Students must have already applied and been accepted on an FSU sponsored program in order to apply for a scholarship.

Snowboarding in Quebec!

Students interested in spending three weeks in Quebec this year are invited to attend an information session on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 3 p.m. in the Fuller House. Applications are being taken now for the intersession ‘French and Snow’ program at the Universite du Quebec at Chicoutimi. Students immerse themselves in a French-speaking culture and take one 3-credit course in French along with a 1 credit course in snow sports. French courses are offered at all levels - beginners, intermediate, and advanced. The application deadline is for students who want to apply for a scholarship is Oct. 10.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad, and can take all course credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asmies@fsu.edu.

Become One of the Locals

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) offers hundreds of study abroad programs around the world. Many places are still open for spring 2001. Programs are available for both English-speakers and for students who wish to immerse themselves in a foreign language. FSU students may register at FSU, transfer back all credit, and use all financial aid. Ask for an application form at the CIE.

Beaches, Barbecues, and Fosters

FSU is now affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at a variety of universities in Australia. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, a weeklong orientation program, pre-registration, and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a variety of Australian and New Zealand universities, all offering a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Deadline for spring semester is Oct. 15.

Internships

MD General Assembly Intern Program

The Maryland General Assembly Intern Program was created to introduce college students to the unique challenges and rewards of working in the General Assembly. This program will run from Jan. 10 through early April 2001. Applicants must be either college juniors or seniors, with a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher. Interns are selected on the basis of their leadership skills, academic achievement and competency in college composition. All majors are encouraged to apply. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, Oct. 11. For information and an application, contact John Bambacus, Department of Political Science, Guild Center 135, or call x4283 or e-mail jambabcus@frostburg.edu.

Pubs & Clubs in Newcastle, UK

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, during the spring semester 2001 should contact the CIE. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam, and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Course offerings are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost of the program is the same as one semester (in-state) at FSU, and all financial aid will transfer. Application deadline for spring 2001 is Oct. 10.

Many ways to experience Culture Shock

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS) which offers study abroad programs in a variety of locations at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Currently the CIE is taking applications for spring semester 2001 programs. Spaces are still available in many locations. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs.

Denmark for Future Teachers

FSU has established an exchange program for education majors at a Teacher’s College in Copenhagen. Students spend spring semester with other international students, taking part in practice teaching and other academic projects. Application deadline for spring 2001 is Oct. 10.

Octoberfest und Mayfest in Germany

FSU students who would like to take part in UMUC’s semester programs in Schwabisch Gmund in southern Germany are advised to apply to the CIE. The campus is part of the University of Maryland system, and all credits transfer back to FSU. Live in a beautiful village and study on a campus with international students from over 80 different countries. All teaching is in English. Application deadlines for the spring 2001 semester is Oct. 10.

Work/Volunteer Overseas - Enhance your resume!

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1-2 months) to longer experiences (4-12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Information Sessions Every Tuesday at the CIE

Each Tuesday, students are invited to come by the Fuller House for a free information session about study abroad. Sessions begin at 3 p.m. in the CIE library. Students may access catalogs, videos and the Internet. During the month of September as well, Students who want to attend the University of Northumbria or any of the ISEP or AIFS programs are encouraged to come to one of these sessions. Also, student who want to take part in the intersession programs should attend.

Listen to the World on WFWM

Every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m. listen to “Planet Frostburg” on WFWM, 91.9 on your FM dial. Amy Simes plays music from around the world and catches everyone up on the latest news in overseas study and international programs.

Planning to Graduate in December?

If you have received a notice from the Registrar’s Office indicating that there may be problems in meeting your degree requirements in order to graduate in December 2000, ACT NOW! The problem will not go away unless you do something about it. Contact the Associate Registrar at x4736, Pullen 144.

Some problems will require an appeal to the Academic Standards Subcommittee for an exception to academic regulations. Following are the remaining deadlines for receipt of your appeal letter and all supporting documentation. All materials must be received in the Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, x4212, by 4:30 p.m. on the date noted:

Thursday, October 12

Thursday, November 16

You cannot participate in the December 2000 commencement unless you are enrolled in all course work remaining to meet requirements during Fall 2000 and are fully cleared to graduate.
