Cambridge Troupe to Present 'Romeo & Juliet'

William Shakespeare's classic tale of star-crossed love, "Romeo and Juliet," will be performed by the Cambridge University American Stage Tour at FSU on Friday, Sept. 14, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

This performance, which is open to the public, marks the sixth year that the talented student actors from England's prestigious Cambridge University have returned to FSU.

Shakespeare's famous tale of young love and ancient hatred is set amidst the palaces and piazzas of courtly medieval Italy. The ancient feud between the powerful Montague and Capulet families divides the city of Verona and intensifies when passion arises between young Romeo Montague and Juliet Capulet. The comic and spectacular aspects of the play are as fundamental to the story as the tragedy and rich poetry. A unique edition of the text and an original live score help to bridge the gap between Shakespeare's era and the present, rendering this production painful, beautiful, funny and acutely resonant with a modern audience.

Cambridge University American State Tour (CAST), the University's newest dramatic society, was founded with the goal of staging an annual, top quality theatrical tour of the United States. Student troupes from Cambridge have delighted audiences since 1855, with former members including such famed actors as Emma Thompson, John Cleese and David Frost.

For ticket information, call the FSU Box Office at x4145. Tickets are $7 for adults and $3 for students.

'The Black 14' Film, Lecture Offered Sept. 6

The FSU African American Studies Lecture Series will present a film and lecture, "The Black 14," on the role played by African American football players during the struggle for civil rights during the 1960s. The presentation, which is free and open to the public, will be Thursday, Sept. 6, at 7 p.m. in the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall in the Lane Center.

The speaker, Dr. Niyi Coker Jr., professor of theatre and director of African American Studies at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, is the producer of "The Black 14." The film is not just a football story; it is the story of courage and commitment of Black athletes in the struggle for human dignity and racial equality in America. The film and lecture will be followed by a discussion.

For more information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, coordinator of African American Studies, at x3089 or e-mail jmakang@mail.frostburg.edu.

International Film Series Launches with 'Kippur'

FSU's 2000-2001 International Film Series begins with "Kippur" on Tuesday, Sept. 4 at 7 p.m. in Lane University Center room 201. The series is sponsored by Center Stage and the Department of Student & Community Involvement.

Sometimes called the Israeli version of "Saving Private Ryan," this film, released in 2000, offers a straightforward and realistic look at the Yom Kippur war from the unique perspective of an Israeli helicopter rescue team. Like many modern war films, it reveals the chaotic face of war. This film attempts to document a traumatic time in Israeli history through sights, sounds and emotions for posterity, free from rhetoric or patriotic flag waving. Director Amos Gitai actually fought in this war and almost died in a helicopter crash. In Hebrew with English subtitles, "Kippur" runs for about two hours.

The remaining films of this year's series include the following titles:

- "Who the Hell is Juliet?" - Tuesday, Oct. 2
- "The Ice Rink" - Tuesday, Nov. 6
- "Himalaya" - Tuesday, Feb. 5
- "Those Who Love Me Can Take the Train" - Tuesday, March 5
- "Rodrigo D: No Future" - Tuesday, April 2
- "The Legend of Rita" - Tuesday, May 7

All film showings are free and open to the public. For information, contact the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

'One Night' Explores Acquaintance Rape Issue

"PlayRights" will bring its educational theater back to FSU Thursday, Sept. 6, to help students and the community explore the issue of acquaintance rape. The performances will be at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m. in the FSU Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall. It is free and open to the public.

"One Night" is a play about what happens to four close friends during a night of partying, flirtation and joking around that ends in one friend accusing the other of rape. Performed by professional actors, the program is lively and comical through most of the plot. It culminates in a dramatically intense situation, which forces each character to confront his or her feelings about rape. At critical points, the actors will stop the action and allow audience members to "interview" the characters about what really happened, as well as what they are thinking and feeling.

The program provides practical information about victims' legal, medical and community options. It also covers how drugs and alcohol are often used to increase vulnerability and risk reduction techniques and ways for students of both genders to support victims and work to end rape.

PlayRights - "One Night" was created by Equality Inc.

The program is sponsored by the FSU S.A.F.E. Office. For more information, contact the S.A.F.E. Office at x4761.

Purchases can also be made by faxing requests to x7049; or by e-mailing CES@frostburg.edu. Based on availability, tickets may also be purchased at the venue box office one hour prior to curtain. Visit FSU's Cultural Events Series Web site at www.frostburg.edu/events/ces for more information.

Music

Tribute to Noted Composer Planned

The FSU Department of Music will celebrate the achievements of American composer Emma Lou Diemer in a special concert Saturday, Sept. 22 at 8 p.m. in the PAC's Pealer Recital Hall.

The composer will be in attendance. The event is free and open to the public.

Highlighting the evening will be the world premiere of Diemer's "Trio for Piano, Violin and Cello," commissioned for FSU's Chamberlain Trio, with Dr. Ellen Grolman Schlegel on cello, Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon on piano and Dr. Laura Kobayashi on violin. The Collegium Music, under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg, will perform "Three Madrigals" and "Kyrie." FSU percussionist Ron Horner will present "Toccatina for Marimba," and trombonist Bryan Anton will perform "Psalms 1 and 122 for Bass Trombone and Piano." The Laurel Brass, composed of Anton, Lori Anton and Sandra Woodward, will conclude the concert with the world premiere of the "Quartet for Trumpet, Horn, Trumpet and Piano."

Before the concert, at 7 p.m., Diemer will speak regarding her life in music and career as a composer. At the concert's conclusion, audience members will have the opportunity to speak with the composer and all participating musicians. During the week preceding the concert, Diemer will be composer-in-residence at FSU to speak with students, lecture in selected music classes and act as mentor and advisor to students interested in composition.

On Sunday, Sept. 23, at 4 p.m., Diemer will present an organ recital of her compositions at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Centre St., Cumberland.

Best known for her choral and keyboard works, Diemer has produced a diverse and sophisticated repertoire that also includes works for orchestra, symphonic band, chamber ensemble, voice, solo instruments and electronic instruments. More than 100 of her 350 compositions have been recorded, with many considered standard pieces.

Throughout her 50-year career, Diemer has considered communication with her audience as her highest musical priority. Her style is characterized by motoric, driving rhythms, along with lyrical, sweeping melodies and unusual, provocative harmonies.

Now in her mid-seventies, Diemer is busy with commissions, which include "Homage to Tchaikovsky" for the Santa Barbara Symphony. She is the subject of a 300-page biography written by FSU Department of Music faculty member Dr. Grolman Schlegel. The book was recently published by Greenwood Press.

For information, contact Grolman Schlegel at x4117.

Speakers

Personal Vision Seminar to be Presented Sept. 13

EmPowerX!, a nationally recognized educational development firm, will present the seminar "What College Forgets to Teach You about Personal Vision" on Thursday, Sept. 13 in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall. The seminar is free and open to the public.

Subtitled "Most People Die When They're 27, but They're Not Buried Until They're 77," this program is part of the FSU Campus Activities Board Lecture Series. In this high-energy, interactive seminar, participants will learn how to uncover the power of personal vision, apply clues to help clarify that vision and learn diverse stories of real life leaders and how they live their own visions.

Did you know that you become what you think about all day long? What is your vision for your life? At the center of each of us there is an ethical, authentic true sense of who we are and who we want to become. In this seminar you will learn how to:

- Uncover the power of personal vision
- Apply the five clues to help you clarify your vision
- Hear diverse stories of real life leaders and how they live their own vision.

EmPowerX! offers personal development seminars exclusively created for young adults, aged 18 to 28, who are interested in personal success beyond the classroom. Each multimedia-based seminar seeks to inspire, energize and educate participants in personal leadership and empowerment skills.

For more information, call the Campus Activities Board at x4411.

Exhibits

'The Storm is Passing Over' Presented at Roper

"The Storm is Passing Over," an exhibit celebrating the musical life of Maryland's African American Community from Emancipation to Civil Rights, will be presented in FSU's Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery from Monday, Sept. 10, to Wednesday, Oct. 3.

A public reception will be held Friday, Sept. 28, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

One of the most endangered resources in Maryland are materials documenting the musical history of the African-American community. Peabody Institute Archivist Elizabeth Schaaf has been interviewing musicians and their families, collecting oral histories, precious photographs, and other cherished memorabilia and has put together this dramatic exhibition of photographs, vintage recordings and documents.

"The Storm is Passing Over" shows much of the wealth of material that has been gathered together at Peabody. It is hoped that this exhibition will demonstrate the importance of continuing the search for lost materials and encourage the preservation of what we have.

Take Note

Think International: Visit Study Abroad Fair

All FSU students, faculty and staff are invited to attend the third annual study abroad fair in the Lane Center, Room 201 on Wednesday, Sept. 12. Program representatives, along with some returning students, will be available from all of FSU's study abroad programs to answer questions and provide information. There will also be representatives from non-FSU programs, such as Semester at Sea, InterStudy, Arcadia University (formerly Beaver College) and the Peace Corps. Students can find information about financial aid, scholarships, credit transfer, work opportunities abroad, internships and travel discounts.

This is a great opportunity to find out more about the many study abroad opportunities available at FSU. Students may take part in our free raffle, and there will be refreshments and music. For more information, contact the Center for International Education at x4714 or check out the CIE Web site at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm.

4th Service-Learning Colloquium Set

Mark your calendars! The FSU Institute of Service-Learning will be presenting the Fourth Annual Service-Learning Colloquium and Luncheon on Thursday, Sept. 6, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Edward Zlotkowski, English professor, founding director of Service-Learning at Bentley College, and senior associate at the American Association for Higher Education will be the keynote speaker. Workshops planned for the Colloquium include:

Service-Learning 101: In this workshop, the novice will be provided with everything that he/she needs to know to get started in service-learning.

Bridging the Gap: This workshop will focus on how to create Service-Learning links between university and K-12 communities.

Service-Learning on a Shoestring: Creative ideas for developing inexpensive, yet high-quality Service-Learning activities and potential funding sources will be discussed.

Time to Reflect: This workshop will explore ways to create quality reflection activities to complement instructional goals and aid the teacher in evaluating the success of the project.

Balancing Act: Achieving balance between resources given and received by students and community partners will be the focus of this workshop.

Creative Combinations: Developing innovative strategies for combining service opportunities with curriculum goals will be discussed.

Testing...1,2,3: This workshop will focus on developing ways to assess and evaluate the educational viability of service-learning projects.

Service-Learning's Legacy and Future: Service-Learning's impact on students, teachers, institutions and communities will be discussed.

Faculty, students, and local educators are invited to attend. For more information about the Colloquium or Service-Learning at FSU, contact Lori Senese or Cherie Krug at x4210 or e-mail lsenesef@frostburg.edu.

Community ESL Course to be Offered

A course in English conversation for non-native speakers of English in the Allegany County area will begin at the Carver Community Center in Cumberland in mid-September. This course is not intended for FSU students but is open to adult relatives of FSU students and faculty/staff. Anyone who needs instruction in English conversation, or who knows someone who does, may contact Dr. Martha R. Dolly, Department of English, at x4239 or mdolly@frostburg.edu

Collective Bargaining Definitions Established

Definitions of Managerial, Supervisory and Confidential employees were approved by the Board of Regents on Friday, Aug. 24. They can be found on FSU's Web site at www.frostburg.edu.

As soon as collective bargaining exclusions are finalized, all excluded employees will receive written notification from the Office of Human Resources. It is the goal of OHR to have this information disseminated no later than the end of September.

15-Passenger Van Driver Training Required

The Office of Human Resources, Safety Office has been given the responsibility to conduct training for all faculty, staff and students who may potentially drive a 15-passenger van during the fall semester. This training is required because of a statement received from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), which stated that 15-passenger vans are nearly three times more likely to roll over than other vans or passenger vehicles. A memorandum, dated Aug. 24, from Roger Bruszewski, VP for Administration and Finance, explains in detail the potential risk.

Each person who assumes he or she may be required to drive a 15-passenger van must attend the training by Oct. 15. To enroll in one of the four training sessions, please call the Safety Office at x4897. If you leave voice mail please give your name, department and phone number. The training consists of one four-hour session. For additional information, please call x4897.

Financial Aid

Stafford Loan Counseling for First-Time Borrowers

All students receiving a Stafford Loan for the first time should have recently received information regarding an entrance counseling requirement. The entrance counseling is mandatory for all first-time borrowers and must be completed before Stafford Loan money can be credited to a student's account.

Students who have borrowed through the Stafford Loan program in the past do not need to complete another entrance counseling session.

Students who are required to complete an entrance counseling session have two options:

1. Complete the entrance counseling on-line by visiting www.educaid.com. Choose the button for online seminars (standard entrance) located on the right side of the frame. From there, follow the directions to complete the online quiz. The results will be automatically e-mailed to the Financial Aid Office and the entrance counseling requirement is complete.

2. Attend an in-person entrance counseling session on Wednesday, Sept. 5, or Thursday, Sept. 6, in the John Leake Room, Cordts PE Center. Sessions will be offered at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. on both days. No RSVP required, simply show up PROMPTLY at the one session that is most convenient for you.

If you have questions regarding the entrance counseling requirements, please contact the Financial Aid Office at x4301.

Time to Sign Perkins Promissory Note

Students who have previously borrowed under the Perkins Loan program at FSU - and who have once again been awarded a Perkins Loan - are reminded of their obligation to sign a new promissory note. Continuing Perkins Loan borrowers must report to the Financial Aid Office between Sept. 4 and 7 to sign their promissory notes. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Continuing borrowers who do not sign their promissory notes at this time will have their loan cancelled.

The Financial Aid Office can be reached at x4301.

Attention First-Time Perkins Borrowers

If you have been awarded a Perkins Loan, and you are a first time borrower for the Perkins Loan, you must attend one of the sessions being held Sept. 10 and 11 at 9 or 10 a.m. or 1:30 or 2:30 p.m. All sessions are in Lane Center 201.

You are required to sign a Promissory Note that will make your loan credit official. Failure to attend will result in your loan being cancelled and the credit removed from your account. If you have any questions, please call the Perkins Loan Office at x3186.

Deadlines

Deadline Nearing for Phase III Teacher Ed.

Candidates in Teacher Education who plan to enter a teaching internship (Phase III) during the Spring 2002 semester, please secure an application for admission from Carol Abernathy in the Dept. of Educational Professions, Room 206-6 Framptom Hall by Sept. 14. Application deadline is Sept. 28.

Volunteers

Read to Succeed

Want to earn volunteer hours? Want to work with children? Read to Succeed, an AmeriCorps literacy program based out of FSU, is recruiting tutors for fall 2001. Designed to provide students in grades K-8 with free, one-on-one tutoring, Read to Succeed will offer tutoring at the FSU Ort Library on Tuesdays from 5 to 7 p.m. and Thursdays from 5 to 7 p.m. All volunteers will be trained. If you or someone you know is interested in volunteering with the program, please contact Rhonda Schwinabart at x4191.

Girl Scouts Seeking Volunteers

Do you have extra time on your hands? Need volunteer hours for community service work? If you enjoy working with children ages 5 to 18 years old and have a couple of hours to spare, please contact the local Girl Scouts of Shawnee Council office and leave a message at 301-777-1097 or 301-689-1505. In order to keep Girl Scouting alive in this area, we need to get more people interested in volunteering.

Join Community's Day of Caring and Sharing

Join our community-wide effort -- be part of a new tradition with the first Day of Caring and Sharing in Frostburg on Saturday, Sept. 8, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Coffee, donuts and lunch will be generously provided by Sodexo. This service event will kick off the Allegany County United Way campaign.

Form your team today! We are looking for campus-based teams to participate in this one day event to be held in Frostburg. Teams can consist of a least two or more people and team members must be at least 16 years of age. You can form a team in your area, your department, with students, faculty and staff!

The sites where your team can volunteer include:

- Beall High School
- Beall Elementary School
- Frostburg Museum
- St. Michael's School and
- At homes in Frostburg that are in need of various jobs done.

It is easy to be part of this event. Simply get your team together and e-mail ckrug@mail.frostburg.edu with the names, addresses and phone numbers of your team members. We will assign your team to a site, handle all the supplies that are needed for your team to volunteer and provide you with breakfast and lunch!

The registration fee for each team member is $10 and includes a T-shirt. Send your registration fee by check to Dr. Shakil Rahman, Framptom Hall 322B.

Opening ceremonies will take place in front of St. Michael's School on Main Street beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Points of Pride

Krista Livengood graduated from the Maryland Police Training Commission Entry Level Training Class on Aug. 24. She has already resumed her duties on the 4 to 12 shift. While at the Police Academy, Livengood distinguished herself in leadership roles and received special recognition at her graduation ceremony for being academically first in her class. Livengood is a 1993 graduate of FSU.

Activities for Life

Water Aerobics

Water Aerobics will be offered Tuesdays and Thursdays from Sept. 11 to Oct. 11 from 6 to 6:50 p.m. in the FSU pool in the Cordts P.E. Center.

This class is geared toward those who want to increase cardiovascular fitness, flexibility and body strength. It is the perfect activity for those with painful joints or other movement limitations. Water aerobics creates good muscle balance, making the muscles limber and strong.

Space is limited, so advance registration is required.

For information, call Center Coordinator Amy Nazelrod at x7934.

Modified Yoga

A modified yoga class will be offered Wednesdays from Sept. 12 to Dec. 19 from 7 to 8 p.m. in Room 165 of the Cordts P.E. Center. There will be no class Nov. 21.

Participants must supply their own mats for this class.

The class will focus on flexibility, strength and stress release of the body. It incorporates a full range of motion and static stretching for enhanced flexibility. The use of one's own body weight, resistant bands and light weights build strength. Class will finish with a guided relaxation that centers in on each individual to de-stress and re-energize the body, mind and spirit.

For information, call Center Coordinator Amy Nazelrod at x7934.

Ballet

Ballet classes will be offered under the direction of Susan Manger, who studied at the Washington School of Ballet on full scholarship. Classes will be held in the FSU dance studio on the first floor of the Cordts P.E. Center.

Pre Ballet will be offered for children ages 7 and 8 on Mondays from Sept. 10 to Dec. 10 from 4 to 5 p.m. There will be no class Oct. 29 and Nov. 19. Students will learn mechanics of dance technique and articulation of the body. Through imagery and action, children will explore movement and solve problems; learn about control and risk involved in movement; and learn perception of space, time and energy. Girls are required to wear a solid-colored, long-sleeved leotard (black, pink or dark blue), white socks and ballet slippers. Boys are required to wear a white T-shirt, black leggings, white socks and ballet slippers.

Ballet I will be offered to children ages 9 to 12 on Wednesday from 5 to 6 p.m. Classes will run from Sept. 12 to Dec. 12. There will be no class Oct. 31 or Nov. 21. This class is the beginning of formal ballet (barre, petit adagio, valse, allegro, etc., with floor work and supplementary exercises). Emphasis will be on placement and purity of movement and the intelligent use of energy and breath in movement. Students are also encouraged to continue exploration of time and space to cultivate freedom of movement. The required uniform for girls is a solid-colored, long-sleeved leotard (black, pink or dark blue), pink tights and ballet slippers. Boys are required to wear a white T-shirt, black leggings, white socks and ballet slippers.

Adult Intermediate Ballet will be offered for teens through adults with previous ballet training on Mondays from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Class will run from Sept. 10 to Dec. 10. No class will be held Oct. 29 and Nov. 19. This class is a formal ballet class (barre, petit adagio, valse, turns, petit allegro, batterie and grand allegro, etc., with floor work and supplementary exercises.) Elements from the Duncan technique will be included to explore the use of the solar plexus as the source of all movement. The suggested uniform for this class is, for women, a solid-colored leotard or unitard, pink or black tights and ballet slippers, and, for men, a T-shirt, close-fitting sweatpants or sweatshorts and ballet slippers.

Get Involved

UCM, CCM, BSM Welcome

UCM, Catholic Campus Ministry and Baptist Student Ministry will hold a Welcome/Welcome Back Coffee House at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 5, in the Lane Center Loft. Come and meet other students and just have a good time. Light refreshments will be available.

Catholic Campus Ministry

Tuesday, Sept. 4, will be the CCM Welcome Social for new and returning students. Meet in the Osborne Newman Center's Bishop Murphy Hall at 6 p.m.

Sociology Club

FSU Sociology Club's first meeting will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 5, from 5 p.m. to approximately 6 p.m. in Guild Center 029. New and diverse students are welcomed and encouraged to come. This first meeting will entail discussion of meeting times, ideas for group activities and election of officers. New students may run for any office. If you would like to provide a good service to our community, come to the meeting!

Community

September Meeting of AAUW Scheduled

The September meeting of the Frostburg Branch, American Association of University Women, will be Tuesday, Sept. 4, at Frostburg United Methodist Church. A covered dish dinner beginning at 6:30 p.m. will precede the general meeting. After dinner, local officers will present new ideas from their areas of expertise including a discussion of "Hostile Hallways" led by Ruth Ogden. For more information, call 301 689-6849 or x4386. The public is welcome to attend.

International

Peace Corps Information Meeting Sept. 11

A representative from the Peace Corps will be on campus Tuesday, Sept. 11, for an information meeting in Lane 202 from 7 to 8 p.m. All students are invited. The Peace Corps is a great way to get overseas work experience in locations overseas you might otherwise never visit.

Apply Now for Intersession Programs:

Spend New Year's in the Andes!

The intersession program in Ecuador will offer courses in Spanish, Latin American Women and Biology, presented at the Centro de Estudios Interamericanos for four weeks from late December through mid-January. Contact Dr. MacGregor O'Brien at x4287 or Dr. Gwen Brewer at x4306.

French, Quebec Culture and Snow Sports

Students can apply now for a three-week, intensive French language program at the University of Quebec in Chicoutimi. French classes are taught at all levels, and students can participate in snow sports and other cultural events during the afternoons. Scholarships are available from the CIE. Contact Tom Carr at x4747.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad, and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu. Students are also advised to visit the CIE Web page at: www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm.

Study Down Under: Australia, New Zealand

FSU is affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities to study at a variety of universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, an orientation program on the Great Barrier Reef, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustraLearn. Applications for spring 2002 are now being accepted.

Study in Newcastle, England

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for next spring semester. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Course offerings are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost of the program about the same as one semester at FSU and all financial aid will transfer.

Do Your Student Teaching in Copenhagen

Education majors who would like to earn a semester of FSU credits while studying in Denmark should apply now for next spring semester's exchange program with the KDAS School of Teacher Training in Copenhagen. Students complete projects and spend several weeks in Danish schools practicing student teaching skills. All courses are in English. Financial aid transfers and scholarships are available.

See Oktoberfest or Mayfest in Germany

FSU students who would like to take part in UMUC's semester programs in Schwabisch Gmund in southern Germany are advised to apply to the CIE. The campus is part of the University of Maryland system, and all credits transfer back to FSU. Live in a beautiful medieval village and study on a campus with students from over 100 countries. All teaching is in English, and German instruction is offered as well. Scholarships are available from both FSU and UMUC. Students may apply for fall or spring semester.

Study in Limerick - a Few Places Left!

Students who are interested in taking part in the Ireland Exchange Program in Limerick should come by the CIE for more information about the spring 2002 program. A few places are still open. Participants in the program study at Mary Immaculate College and take one FSU class and three MIC classes. Next spring Dr. Steve Hartlaub (Political Science) will accompany the group and offer three course options in political science, including POSC 211, "Introduction to World Politics." All financial aid will transfer and scholarships are available.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of over 200 foreign locations.

Students may take financial aid with them and may apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught in either

English or other languages.

For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit towards your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Apply now for summer and fall 2002.

Choose from over 20 Locations to Study

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS) which offers study abroad programs in a variety of locations at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Study in Prague, South Africa or Japan. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs. AIFS offers scholarships to qualified students. Apply now for spring 2002.

Scholarships Available for Overseas Study

In addition to taking financial aid overseas, students may apply for a variety of scholarships for study abroad programs. The CIE offers scholarships for all FSU programs in the amount of $500 and $1,000. Some departments also offer scholarships for overseas study. There are additional scholarships available from study abroad organizations, such as AustraLearn and ISEP, and there are two new scholarships available for residents of Maryland (MIEA) and for U.S. students on financial aid (Gilman). There are also national scholarships, such as the Rotary scholarship, the NSEP scholarship and the Fulbright.

Gain Work/Volunteer Experience Overseas

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1 to 2 months) to longer experiences (4 to 12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Learn More About Study Abroad

Students who would like to learn more about study abroad opportunities and how they fit into a degree program, may come to the Center for International Education in the Fuller House. The CIE staff will provide an overview of study abroad programs and requirements, and have application forms available. Scholarship and financial aid information will also be available. Students may use the CIE library and computer to search for programs. Many videos are also available.

Music From Around the World

Tune in to the university's commercial-free radio station, WFWM (91.9 FM), every Wednesday between 7 and 8 p.m. for "Planet Frostburg." Listen to both traditional and contemporary world music, and get the latest announcements from the Center for International Education about upcoming study abroad opportunities.

Drivers Needed for AmeriCorps Sites

The Allen HallSTARS! AmeriCorps Program located here at FSU is looking for five individuals who have the ability to drive 12- and 15-passenger vans. Our AmeriCorps members serve throughout the Cumberland, Frostburg and Lonaconing region, and we need responsible drivers to drive them to and from their service sites. The job pays $5.15 an hour and all drivers are assured at least 10 hours a week.

So if you are responsible, have a clean driving record with no points, are free on some weekends, punctual and want to have a regular paycheck, give us a call.
