Ivonne Hernandez to Appear ‘Live at the Loft’

Ivonne Hernandez, fiddler and versatile musician, will appear Live at the Loft on Friday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m. in the Lane University Center. Her performance is free and open to the public.

A consummate entertainer, Hernandez is in constant motion, whether dancing, fiddling or singing with an energy she conveys to her audience. Her style reflects her father’s Chilean roots and her mother’s East Coast background, combined with her own contemporary sound.

Alisa Garneer of “City Life” calls Hernandez “...one big wave in the pool of up-and-coming musical acts.” For information, call x4411.

Nai-Ni Chen Company to Perform Chinese Festival

Parents’ Weekend festivities will feature a performance of the Chinese Festival with the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company on Saturday, Oct. 5, at 8:30 p.m. in the Cordts Center Main Arena.

Blending tradition with innovation, the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company fuses the power and elegance of Chinese art forms with the dynamic and liberated world of contemporary dance. Choreographer Nai-Ni Chen uses a unique dance vocabulary inspired by Chinese and Zen calligraphy, ceremonies, folk rituals and nature to create a new model for Asian dance in the United States.

Many of her works use themes from ancient Chinese poetic drama to reflect and explore contemporary issues. Her dances explore the common ground between tradition and innovation, freedom and discipline, spirit and form. Now a world-renowned performer, master teacher and choreographer, Chen immigrated to the United States from Taiwan in 1982 with dreams of creating a new style of dance to represent her distinctive vision. She entered New York University as a professional dancer after having toured with a Chinese Performing Arts troupe that brought her native land’s culture and dance to 26 countries.

Since its formation in 1988, the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company has received fellowships, awards and commissions from the National Endowment for the Arts, Mid-Atlantic Arts Foundation, Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation and the Jih-Sun Foundation, among others, for its creative new works and contributions to the preservation of tradition. In addition to its active performance schedule, the Company offers education outreach to schools throughout the country.

This Asian-American dance company celebrates the heritage and achievement of community by exploring issues of identity, authenticity and equality. An evening with the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company promises to be an elegant and enchanting experience for all ages.

For ticket information and purchases, call or visit the CES Box Office, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Office is located at FSU in the Lane University Center, Room 235, and can be reached at x3137 or toll-free at 1-866 TIXX CES. Online ticketing powered by CyberSeats is available at the FSU’s Cultural Events Series Web site at http://ces.frostburg.edu.

Lecture Set on Hawaii’s Mystery and Volcanoes

Dr. Don B. Weser, professor of chemistry at FSU, will present a lecture on “Hawaii, Land of Mystery, Enchantment and Volcanoes,” Thursday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the PE Center Leake Room.

Hawaii is a land of great mystery, intrigue and astounding diversity of cultures and peoples. Its history is rooted in legends and stories that have been passed from one generation to another, and much of that interest and superstition still resides there. Weser’s presentation will focus on Hawaii’s fascination both underwater and far above sea level, from its sea life to its volcanoes, which leads to a realm vastly different from that encountered in the continental United States.

Weser was given the opportunity to explore many facets of the islands through the Chautauqua program, sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

Volcanic samples and artifacts will be on display following the lecture. Refreshments will be served prior to the talk. For more information, contact Weser at x4157.

Faculty Authors to Discuss Publishing

Faculty members in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences who have published books will speak at a panel discussion about the book publication process on Wednesday, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Manicur Hall at Lane University Center.

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be available.

Philip Allen, also a published author, will moderate the discussion. Authors/ faculty members scheduled to appear include Brad Barkley, George White, Paul Charney, Robert Moore, Judy Pula, Frank Parks, Thomas Maples and Barbara Hurd.

For information, contact Pula at x2440.

Literacy Expert to Present Workshop

Literacy expert Dr. Barbara McDonald will present a workshop on “Signign on for Change: Engagement in the Learning Process for Adults,” Friday, Oct. 4, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the PE Center Leake Room.

The workshop will share research on adult literacy and personality and social outcomes, as well as the effect the adult learner’s literacy has on their children. It is designed for those interested in adult literacy, teachers, tutors, researchers and psychologists. Continuing education credits are available for psychologists.

McDonald is co-director of Project FULFILL, a three-year study of California State Library adult learners and their tutors. She has conducted research studies in the areas of adult learning, motivation and learning strategies for more than 20 years.

For more information, contact Dr. Ann Barkley in the Department of Psychol- ogy, at x4446.

Cyclophonica Cycles its Way from Brazil to FSU

In its first demonstration in the United States, “Cyclophonica” is coming to FSU. Cyclophonica is musicians on bicycles, some bearing homemade instruments — and in many cases, the bikes make music, too — pedaling around the FSU campus and the city of Frost- burg performing a variety of music in a variety of styles. The music can include everything from a siren to a cell phone, to a bird call to individual organ pipes, removed from their organs.

The creator of Cyclophonica is Dr. Leonardo Fuks, a professor of Music and Acoustics at the Federal University in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He is an active researcher in the physics of musical instruments with particular interest in developing new technologies for improv- ing instruments, as well as new instru- ments with novel sounds. He’s also an accomplished performer on the oboe.

The Brazilian tour of the “bicycle orchestra” received considerable atten- tion, including on international televi- sion news. This will be Dr. Fuks’ first performance in the United States.

Dr. Fuks’ visit to Frostburg will include two performances from the bicycle orchestra on Friday afternoon on campus and Saturday morning in town, a workshop on creating or adapting instruments for bicycle orchestra on Friday afternoon, and a scientific lecture, “Product Acoustics — Designing the Sound Qualities of a Manufactured World” on Thursday afternoon.

More details will be forthcoming. All events are free and open to the public.

The lecture will propose the creation of a new, multi-faceted discipline, Product Acoustics, to deal with the problems and possibilities that objects, devices and systems create when functioning or interacting with other objects. For example, acousticians may try to suppress undesirable “by-product sounds,” but sounds may also provide useful information about the operation of the system. A multidisciplinary approach — involving psychoacoustics (the study of how the human brain processes sound), musical acoustics, vibration, material science and indus- trial design — would be required.

For more information, contact Dr. George Pitnik in the Physics Department at x4159.

Chapter 6 to Perform A-Cappella Music

Chapter 6, an a-cappella vocal ensemble from Chicago, will perform in the Lane University Center’s Alice R. Manicur Hall at 9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 4, as part of FSU’s Parents’ Weekend. This concert is free and open to the public.

Composed of six singers and one arranger, Chapter 6 has created a medley of original arrangements from jazz to gospel, rock and classical renais- sance. What began as a class in 1995 became Millikin University’s premiere, a-cappella ensemble. The group was discontinued in 1998; since then it has been an independent organization, directed by students.

Shortly after releasing their first CD, “A cappella 101,” Chapter 6 won The Chicago Harmony Sweepstakes, becom- ing the youngest group to ever qualify for the National Harmony Sweepstakes.

For information, contact the Lane University Center’s Information Desk at x4411.

Neal Corwell to Present Euphonium Recital

Dr. Neal Corwell will present a recital on Thursday, Oct. 3, in Pealer Recital Hall at 8 p.m. The recital is free and open to the public.

Corwell, having served with The U.S. Army in Washington, D.C. as “Pershing’s Own,” from 1981 to 1989, recently rejoined that organization and is now again playing euphonium as a member of the armed services. During the intervening years, Neal earned his doctorate in music from the University of Maryland and made his living as a freelance musician, appearing in Europe, Asia, and all across the United States as a solo euphonium soloist and composer.

He also was an adjunct faculty member at both FSU and Shepherd College, teaching low brass and electronic music.

Over 40 of Corwell’s original works and arrangements are published, and several have been included on recent recordings. His solo CDs include “Distant Images” (1994), “Heart of a Wolf” (2000), and the soon to be released “Out Sitting in his Field” (2002).

Music Department Faculty Gala Oct. 18

Reserve Friday, Oct. 18, for the Music Department Faculty Gala: “Classic, Contemporary and all that Jazz.”

Department of Music faculty present a diverse offering of musical selections on a concert which is a scholarship fund-raiser ($10/$5 for students) preceded by a dessert reception. You can RSVP to Joan Holloway for tickets at x4145. For information, contact Ellen Grolman Schlegel in the Music Department at x4117.

‘South Pacific’ Opens Theatre Season

The Rodgers and Hammerstein hit musical “South Pacific” opens the Universi- ty Theatre season on Friday, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center’s Drama Theatre. Additional evening performances are set for Oct. 12, 17, 18 and 19. Two Saturday matinees have been set for Oct. 12 and 19 at 2 p.m.

Based on two short stories from James Michener’s wartime collection “Tales of the South Pacific,” the classic musical focuses on two love stories.

The lush score, including such hits as “Some Enchanted Evening,” “Younger than Springtime” and “There is Nothing Like a Dame,” combined with the serious themes of racial prejudice, hate and the effects of war on a formerly pristine paradise, made “South Pacific” the second musical to win the Pulitzer Prize in Drama for 1949.

For information and reservations, call x4662 between 1 and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Season Discount Cards, available to the general public for $30, allow cardholders to attend “South Pacific” for free. Tickets for individual performances are $10 for the general public. Student tickets are $4.

Regents Cup is Nov. 16 at Towson Stadium

The Fourth Annual Regents Cup Game – putting Frostburg State's Bobcat football team against the Salisbury Seagulls – will be Saturday, Nov. 16, at 1:30 p.m. at Towson Stadium, Towson University. For those keeping track, FSU has won two of the first three Regents Cup Games, including last year’s 30-27 OT victory at RFK Stadium.

Monday Mornings, Muffins and Honors Info

The Honors Program is offering a series of Monday morning information sessions for students and faculty members participating in the program and those who are interested in it.

The first session, “What are the Requirements for Graduating with Honors in General Education?” will be Sept. 23. On Sept. 30, the topic is “What are Honors Course Enhancements?” On Oct. 7, the session is in preparation for a trip to New York City for those who have registered and paid their deposits.

On Oct. 28, the session will be on Honors Seminars. The Nov. 11 session is titled “Honors Housing – How to Get it and Keep it.” Dec. 9’s session will address unfinished business.

All sessions are at 9 a.m. in the Fuller House, home of the Honors Program/Center for International Education at 19 Braddock Road. As promised, there will be muffins, as well as other continental breakfast items.

Looking for Experts on Medicinal Herbs, Plants

Researchers at FSU are trying to locate area residents who are knowledgeable about herbs and medicinal plants in the Western Maryland and nearby West Virginia and Pennsylvania areas. The researchers are looking at ways in which the University can help to expand knowledge and further community understanding of medicinal herbs. Individuals who respond will be sent a short questionnaire asking about their knowledge and interest in herbs and herbal medicine. Some who return the questionnaire will be interviewed to gain more detailed information.

Contact Dr. Michael Olson, Department of Sociology, 101 Braddock Road, Frostburg, MD 21532. You can call x7965 or contact him by e-mail at molson@frostburg.edu.

Faculty & Staff Authors Invited to Participate

The FSU Alumni Association and Office of Alumni Programs invite faculty and staff who have authored books to participate in The Authors Corner during Homecoming. A special corner in Lane University Center or Lewis J. Ort Library (site dependent upon participation) will be reserved for alumni, faculty and staff to showcase their books Saturday, Oct. 26, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Authors Corner is new to the traditional Homecoming events and will serve to reflect the creative and academic climate of FSU. Contact Colleen Peterson at cpeterson@frostburg.edu or x4068 by Oct. 9.

Bobcat Discount Card

The $10 Bobcat Discount Card valued at over $300 at area restaurants and stores is available for purchase at the FSU Athletic Department. The card features 26 merchants for food and service discounts and savings. Proceeds from the sale of the card benefit FSU athletic programs. To purchase a card, contact Chris Starke, sports information director, x4371.

Points of Pride

Dr. Tom Serfass, associate professor of Wildlife Ecology, Department of Biology received the following grants to continue his work with reintroduced river otter populations in Pennsylvania:

1. The College of Business participated in the Allegany County Chamber of Commerce Business Expo on Sept. 10, at the Rocky Gap Lodge and Resort.
2. The College was represented by the following faculty: Connie Groer, acting dean; Paul Lyons, associate dean; Thomas Sigerstad, chair, Business management Department; Carol Gaumer, assistant chair, Business Management; Sudhir Singh, Business Management and co-director of the Financial Planning Certificate Program; Jacqueline McLellan, Business management and co-director of FPC; Shakil Rahman, Business Management.
3. The group fielded questions about FSU College of Business programs and the new Financial Planning Certificate program, as well as general information about FSU.
4. The Activities for Life Center is offering the Youth and Advanced Swimming Lessons for construction at the Savage Tunnel, so it is smoother and more comfortable to ride than ever.
5. The group will ride from the Frostburg Depot to the Big Savage Tunnel along the proposed route of the AHTM. This ride will cover six miles up a gentle grade of 1 to 2 percent. A significant portion of this route has been graded as an access road for construction at the Savage Tunnel, so it is smoother and more comfortable to ride than ever.
ride is $10 per person. This includes lunch and a trail map poster. A helmet and signed waiver will be required. You can make reservations by contacting Nick Cluee at (301) 759-3562, by e-mail ncluee@charter.net or by sending a check to AHATM Trail- Annual Ride F.O. Box 26, Cumberland, Md. 21502.

Career, Internship Fair
The Office of Career Services will host a Fall Career & Internship Fair Thursday, Oct. 3, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Maricur Assembly Hall in the LUC. All students are welcome to attend this fair and meet several employers. Students are also encouraged to register for and visit www.collegecentral.com/frostburg for more details and other events.

Internships
Md. General Assembly Intern Program
The Maryland General Assembly Intern Program was created to introduce college students to the unique challenges and rewards of working in the General Assembly. This program will run from Jan. 8 through April 7, 2003. Applicants must be either juniors or seniors, with a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher. Interns are selected on the basis of their leadership skills, academic achievement, and competency in college composition. A stipend is awarded for participation. All majors are encouraged to apply. The deadline to apply is Friday, Oct. 18.

Financial Aid for Overseas Study
Students planning to study overseas during the 2003 intersession or spring semester should note that the application deadline for most scholarships, including the CIE scholarship, is Oct. 15. Scholarships are available from a number of sources, both on campus and off. Most financial aid will transfer overseas, and students on the Pell Grant may qualify for the Gilman scholarship, which will cover up to $5,000 for overseas study.

Upcoming Study Abroad Info. Sessions Set
Students who are interested in studying overseas during the intersession or spring semester should attend one of the following information sessions to pick up an application form and find out more about specific programs.

Sessions will be held at the Center for Int’l Education on:

- Wednesday, Sept. 25, 4:30 p.m.
- Thursday, Sept. 26, 4 p.m.
- Monday, Sept. 30, 4:30 p.m.
- Tuesday, Oct. 1, 4 p.m.

Volunteers
Read to Succeed! Volunteers Sought
Want to earn volunteer hours? Want to work with children? “Read to Succeed,” an AmeriCorps literacy program based out of FSU needs tutors for two after school programs. One will be Wednesdays from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. at St. Michael’s School. Tutors will work with children in grades K-5, tutoring one-on-one and working in small groups. A second opportunity will be at FSU Ott Library Tuesdays and Thursdays from 5 to 7 p.m. Tutors will work with K-8 student in math, science and literature. All volunteers will be trained. Call Lamel Moore at x7598.

Study Abroad Programs
The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships

a semester, year or summer at one of more housing, and then study overseas for a Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to a fantastic opportunity for students who would like to spend a semester, year or summer off the beaten track.

Financial Aid for Studying Overseas
FSU students are able to transfer all federal financial aid overseas to help pay for study abroad programs, along with state and institutional aid for most FSU sponsored programs. The CIE also awards study abroad scholarships of $500 and $1,000 to qualifying students. Scholarship deadline for intercession and spring programs is Oct. 15. Many other state and national scholarships are also available to help cover overseas costs.

Study in Limerick, Ireland, Spring 2003
Students interested in taking part in the Ireland Exchange Program in Limerick during spring 2003 are encourgaged to pick up an application at the CIE. Participants study at Mary Immaculate College and take one FSU class and three MIC classes. Next spring, Dr. Kenneth Wittmer, Educational Professions, will accompany the group and teach three classes. All financial aid will transfer and scholarships are available.

Study Down Under
FSU is affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, an orientation program on the Great Barrier Reef, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a broad range of courses at campuses in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustraLearn. Applications for spring 2003 are now being accepted.

Study in Newcastle, England
Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for spring 2003 semester. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam, and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Courses are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost of the program is about the same as one semester at FSU (in-state) and all financial aid will transfer.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU
The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of more than 140 locations. Students may take financial aid with them and may apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught either in English or other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit toward your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture.

Apply now for spring or fall 2003.
