

StateLines

www.frostburg.edu/news/statelines.htm

For and about FSU people

Volume 34, Number 11, November 10, 2003

A publication of the FSU Office of Advancement

Copy deadline: noon Wednesday, 228 Hitchins or emedcalf@frostburg.edu

This Week on Campus

FSU Dance Company to Perform Fall Concert

The FSU Dance Company, under the artistic direction of Dr. Barry Fischer, will present its 2003 Fall Dance Concert Sunday through Tuesday, Nov. 16 to 18, in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre. Sunday's performance will be at 2 p.m., and Monday's and Tuesday's shows will be at 8 p.m.

The program's first act will consist of four works created by dance majors Amanda Swick and Cathie Llewellyn, members of Fischer's "Composition II" class this semester.

All of the works will include live piano accompaniment – on FSU's nine-foot Steinway – performed by guest artist and FSU Performing Arts faculty member Ellen Putnam. Putnam chose the four pieces, by Debussy, Ravel, Beethoven and Zezconfrey, and collaborated with the two students in creating the dance compositions.

The second act will open with two pieces by former FSU Dance Company member and Frostburg native Amy Derezhinski. The first will be a group work built on pirate and sailor motifs. The second will be the premiere of a duet, "Coming Home," based on her introspection of her life following her father's suicide when she was one year old. She will be joined in the duet by her stepfather, Joe Williams.

The closing piece of the second act will be the premiere of Fischer's group work, "Friends of the Heart," to the music of "Ashokan Farewell," a tune familiar to viewers of Ken Burns' "Civil War" series.

Tickets are $10 for the general public and $5 for students, senior citizens and children younger than 12. For information and reservations, call x4145.

University Theatre Presents 'Glory of Living'

FSU Theatre will present Rebecca Gilman's "The Glory of Living," a Pulitzer Prize runner-up, on Nov. 14, 15, 20, 21 and 22 at 8 p.m. and Nov. 15 at 2 p.m. The play will be performed in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

"The Glory of Living" focuses on 15-year-old Lisa, who tries to escape a miserable life with her prostitute mother by running away with, and eventually marrying, Clint, an ex-con. Through systematic abuse, Clint coerces Lisa into helping him commit crimes of varying magnitude, including procuring "disposable" young girls. In Lisa, playwright Gilman has created a riveting portrait of a young woman whose most striking quality is not her capacity for evil but the depth of her emptiness.

Gilman's several award-winning plays ("Spinning into Butter," "Boy Gets Girl" and "Blue Serge") are daring and controversial treatments of contemporary social issues like racism, class discrimination and stalking.

Tickets are for $5 students and $10 for non-students and can be reserved by calling x7462. This play contains strong language and adult themes. Parental guidance is strongly recommended.

Speaker to Discuss 'Brown vs. Board of Ed'

In commemoration of the upcoming 50th anniversary of the Supreme Court case outlawing the "separate but equal" standard decided May 17, 1954, FSU will host Dr. Lenneal J. Henderson's presentation on "Brown vs. Board of Education - Context and Legacy" on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 7 p.m. in the

Lenneal Henderson

Lane University Center's Manicur Assembly Hall.

Henderson will discuss the landmark case and its trail of cases leading up to today's controversies in educational equality. He will consider the effects of shifting demographics, the changing socioeconomic and educational context and content of school segregation, the shift from rights to resources, the quality of education with regard to issues of multiculturalism and diversity and a number of other related issues.

Henderson is distinguished professor of government and public administration and senior fellow at the William

Donald Schaefer Center for Public Policy and a senior fellow in the Hoffberger Center for Professional Ethics at the University of Baltimore. He has been a consultant for more than 30 years in a variety of areas including education policy, housing, energy management and environmental policy.

This event is free and open to the public and is sponsored by FSU's African American Studies Program, AA/EEO, Black Student Alliance, Diversity Office, NAACP and Delta Sigma Theta.

For more information, contact John O'Rourke at x4277.

Author Julianna Baggott to Give Reading

Novelist and poet Julianna Baggott will present a reading on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Atkinson Room 201 of the Lane University Center. The event is free and open to the public.

Baggott's most recent novel, "The Madam," based on the life of her grandmother, who was raised in a house of prostitution in the '20s and '30s, has just been published by Simon and Schuster. Her first novel, "Girl Talk," was published in February 2001 and later distributed by six publishing houses overseas. Her collection of poems, "This Country of Mothers," followed in April 2001. Her second novel, "The Miss America Family," was published in April 2002.

She will read from her work and will be available to answer questions and sign books following the reading. Her appearance is sponsored by the FSU Department of English and the Western Maryland Writers' Workshop.

For more information, contact Brad Barkley at x3092.

Julianna Baggott

'Yamaha Clavinova' Features Piano Faculty

The FSU piano faculty and guests will present a Yamaha Clavinova Festival at 3

Inside:

Film .....	2	Take Note .....	2-4	Community .....	5
Music .....	2	Points of Pride .....	4	International .....	5-6
Speakers .....	2	Volunteers .....	4	Calendar .....	6 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 16, in the Pealer Recital Hall of FSU's Performing Arts Center. The concert will feature 15 performers on 10 pianos – all performing at the same time.

Featured pianists from the Frostburg and Cumberland area will include Joan DeVee Dixon, Fanny Witmer, Laura Godfrey, Betty Jane Phillips, Ellen Putnam and Chris McCabe. The concert will also feature numerous teachers and students from the West Virginia Music Teachers Association in Morgantown, including Lya Cartwright, Keith Holtzclaw, Bob Kleeb and Jessica Cappellini.

Selections will include "Scaramouche" by Milhaud, "Scherzo" by Mendelssohn, "Canon in D" by Pachelbel, "Overture to Il Signor Bruschino" and the "William Tell Overture" by Rossini, "Finale for Strings" by Phillip Keveren, "Addams Family Mischief" by Joan Dixon, "The Entertainer" by Joplin, "Semper Fidelis," "Star Spangled Banner" and "America, the Beautiful." The ensemble from West Virginia will perform several original compositions by Susan Ogilvy: "Baroque Festival," "Simple Gifts," "Dual in the Desert," "Rev It Up," "Whoo-hoo," "Bartokian Dance" and Drumline Two.

The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call x4115.

Film

IFS Presents 'Times of Harvey Milk'

FSU Center Stage's International Film Series will present the movie "Times of Harvey Milk" on Tuesday, Nov. 18, in the Lane University Center Atkinson Room 201 at 7 p.m.

Repression is a personal problem that is also a public issue. Harvey Milk, the San Francisco city supervisor who was assassinated along with Mayor George Moscone in 1978, lived and worked in the hot and dangerous zone where the personal and the public intersect.

Consciously gay at age 14, Milk spent his adolescence and young adulthood in the usual social and institutional closets – a Long Island Jewish middle-class family, college, the Navy, a Wall Street job. Then, like the countless other homosexuals of his generation, he began a long escape from repression into the counterculture of the 1960s.

Long hair, protest politics, pot and loose lifestyle were easy exits. The hair and the flight were homosexual politics. He made the personal issue of gay legitimacy the basis of his supervisory seat. He joined his strong base in the Castro district with allies across the ethnic and supportive way, he demanded that gays come out and announce their sexual identity for the safety of the entire community.

Dan White crawled into City Hall through a basement window, shot and killed the Mayor, and did the same to Harvey Milk.

Robert Epstein and Richard Schmiechen have made a beautiful and powerful documentary around these events. Friends and political associates of Harvey Milk cry on camera, and it's hard to believe that their tears are not mirrored in the eyes of many in the audience.

The "Times of Harvey Milk" joins the short list of films and literary documents about their daily experience and political struggle of gay people in the modern age.

The film is free and open to the public. Call x4411 for more information.

Music

Reggie Wayne Morris Trio LIVE! at the Loft

The Reggie Wayne Morris Trio will perform on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at 7 p.m. as part of the FSU LIVE! at the Loft Series.

Reggie hails from Baltimore and he plays the blues with an infectious passion. Having spent a great deal of his childhood on his grandparent's farm outside of Charlottesville, Va., he was reared on gospel at their local Southern Baptist Church.

The blues were also a part of Reggie's family life, provided by guitar, piano and harmonica playing family members.

Over the years Reggie has developed an upbeat, rockin' style that pays homage to those who bore witness and spread the blues news from generation to generation.

While the music often reflects the moods and grooves of yesterday, his lyrics are also contemporary and often witty—as in the song "Virus Blues," a song about the phenomenon of cyber love.

Reggie has been a featured performer at the Baltimore Blues Festival for several years, a favorite on the Mid Atlantic club circuit and has toured France and Italy.

The event, which is held in the Lane University Center Loft, is free and open to the public. Call x4411 for more information.

Speakers

Seminar: Space Radiation and Solar Cells

The Department of Physics and Engineering will be hosting a seminar, "The Space Radiation Environment and its Effects on Spacecraft Solar Cells," presented by Jeff Warner, an FSU graduate and research physicist at the U.S. Naval Research Laboratory, on Monday, Nov. 10, from 2 to 3 p.m., in 234 Compton Science Center. The seminar is free and is open to the public.

Rep. Bartlett to Visit

The Honorable Roscoe G. Bartlett, U.S. Representative for Maryland's 6th District, will speak Monday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. in the Cordts Physical Education Center Leake Room. His appearance is sponsored by the FSU College Republicans and the Maryland General Assembly. For more information, call x7431.

Appalachian Laboratory

"Genetic Variation in Natural and Translocated Populations of the Delmarva Fox Squirrel" will be presented by Stacey L. Lance of Colby College in Maine on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 3:30 p.m. in Appalachian Laboratory Room 109, part of the AL fall seminar series. Refreshments will follow.

Take Note

Regents' Cup Returns

The Fifth Annual Regents' Cup Game — FSU vs. Salisbury, will be Saturday, Nov. 15, at Johnny Unitas Stadium, Towson University. See the FSU Bobcats take on the Salisbury Seagulls. Gametime is 7 p.m.

FSU alumni tailgating will be from 5 to 7 p.m., in the stadium parking lot, north side. (Towson University tailgating rules and regulations apply. Visit: www.towsontigers.com/info/traditions/tailgating.asp)

For more information, see the FSU Regents' Cup web page: <http://sports.frostburg.edu/teams/fall/football/regentscup2.htm>.

The Regents' Cup Kick-Off Golf Tournament, to benefit the FSU Annual Fund, will be Friday, Nov. 14, at Beaver Creek Country Club in Hagerstown, Md. Tee Time is 10 a.m., rain or shine. For more information, call x4758 or e-mail cjharmon@frostburg.edu.

FSU has won three out of four Regents' Cup games, but in the 30 years of games between Frostburg and Salisbury, Frostburg has won 15 and Salisbury has won 15.

Thanksgiving Service: Freedom and Hope

Amid the mood of national uncertainty, terrorist threats and international turmoil, students, faculty and staff will gather on Monday, Nov. 24, to celebrate our freedoms and blessings via the FSU Thanksgiving Service. It will take place in Cook Chapel (Frost Hall) at 7 p.m. All persons are welcome.

The FSU Chamber Choir will perform along with individual student musicians. There will also be special readings and an opportunity for personal sharing. Traditional Thanksgiving songs will be sung. We will also dedicate the money which has been raised by numerous campus organizations for the Heifer International Project, an organization which helps third world families to become more self-sufficient.

The service is sponsored by United Campus Ministry, Catholic Campus Ministry, Baptist Campus Ministry and Hillel.

Interested in Geography?

For Geography Awareness Week, the Department of Geography will host a welcoming event for new and potential majors on Tuesday, Nov. 18, in Gunter Hall 208 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Join faculty and current students to learn more about geography and the opportunities available to students within our program. For more information, contact Tracy Edwards, Gunter 210 (x7596).

Help Save Lives

The University System of Maryland is part of a new national initiative that is working to enroll one million new potential organ donors this year. Many of us have friends or family who have experienced the life-saving miracle of organ transplantation.

Choosing to become a potential organ donor is fast and easy. A single donor can save or enhance the lives of as many as 50 people. Some 82,000 people currently await organ donation, and 17 people on the waiting list die every day.

This is an extraordinary, life-saving initiative and a great way to contribute to the well being of our community.

To learn about organ donation and to download your own donor card (if you have a donor card log on and check that you have a card), please log onto www.WorkPlacePartnership4Life.org

FSU to Participate in Jazz Touring Network

The FSU Cultural Events Series is now included in the prestigious Mid Atlantic Jazz Touring Network, a program of the Mid-Atlantic Arts Foundation.

The Network is designed to increase the number of venues presenting jazz in the region, extend touring routes for jazz artists into underserved areas and enable presenters to create infrastructures in their communities that will support and sustain jazz programming. Each year, the Foundation selects six to eight presenters to participate in a comprehensive, three-year training process.

Bill Mandicott, CES advisory board chair and assistant vice president of Student and Educational Services, was selected to participate in this year's program. He will attend two sessions per year over a three-year period on topics that will assist FSU in advancing jazz programming in the local community. Session topics will include audience development, jazz programming, corporate sponsorship, promotion and partnerships with schools and community groups. Faculty for the sessions will be jazz artists, presenters, educators and representatives of the media, all working in the jazz industry.

The addition of recurrent jazz programming to the CES calendar has been an emergent goal throughout the past several seasons. The Mid-Atlantic Jazz Touring grant will help CES in reaching its goals with the opportunity for consistent jazz performance in conjunction with the ongoing efforts of local arts councils, the Cumberland Jazz Society, Tri-State Big Bands, the Potomac State Jazz Band, the FSU Jazz Ensemble and the Kauffman Guest Artist Jazz Series, as well as ongoing jazz programming on WFWM-FM, FSU's listener-supported radio station. Insight and information gained as part of the touring program will be shared with these and other regional presenters.

More information about the Mid-Atlantic Arts Foundation and the Jazz Touring Network can be found online at <http://www.midatlanticarts.org>. For more information about FSU's Cultural Events Series, visit the Web site at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

Flu Shots Available for Students at Brady

Flu vaccines will be available at the Brady Health Center for students. The supply is limited. The cost for a flu shot will be $17, payable by cash, check or Bobcat Express Card. Please call x4310 for an appointment.

AIG VALIC Rep on Campus Dec. 3

Bill Spencer, financial advisor from AIG VALIC, will be visiting the University on Wednesday, Dec. 3.

Spencer will be in Lane Center 207-208 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on both days to meet with FSU employees who currently are enrolled in a VALIC retirement plan and those who may be interested in enrolling. No appointment is necessary.

Computer, Grant Writing Workshops Offered

FSU's Center for Community Partnerships will offer workshops in November on a variety of Microsoft programs and on grant writing. The workshops are:

Microsoft PowerPoint I will be offered Monday, Nov. 17, from 5 to 8 p.m. in Framptom 208. Participants will be introduced to the presentation software wizard, which enables presentations to be constructed quickly and easily. Slide backgrounds, changes in master fonts, graphics and layout, importing pictures and sound, animating slides and images, as well as deleting and moving slides, will be covered.

Microsoft Word: Fundamentals I will be offered Tuesday, Nov. 18, from 5 to 8 p.m. in Framptom 208. Students will learn to use rulers and tabs and to establish simple tables for layout. Fonts, colors, highlighting and graphic features, as well as importing and manipulating a graphic, will also be covered.

Microsoft PowerPoint II will be offered Wednesday, Nov. 19, from 5 to 8 p.m. in Framptom 208. An introduction to the multimedia and interactive features of PowerPoint. Participants will work to build an animated/progressive slide to use to organize a group discussion or learning experience and will learn to import slides from another presentation, create hyperlinks to Web sites, other slides and other files.

Microsoft Word Fundamentals II: Advanced will be offered

Thursday, Nov. 20, from 5 to 8 p.m. in Framptom 208. Learn backgrounds, creating and manipulating text and using graphic boxes, layout and creating templates.

Grant Writing 101 will be offered Friday, Nov. 21, from 1 to 4 p.m. in Framptom 308. This course is designed to enhance the skills needed to identify and successfully compete for a variety of grant funding, including local, state and federal government dollars. Learn where to look for funds, tips on developing a quality application that gets you noticed, learn about who is looking at your application and what they want to see, and what you need to do after you are awarded funds.

To register, call x4008. The cost of the class is $25 per session. Make check payable to FSU-CCP.

Commencement Announcement

Any student planning to complete their studies during the current semester (December 2003) must file for graduation. Undergraduate students should contact the Registrar's Office (x4349, 144 Pullen Hall), while graduate students should submit all necessary paperwork to Graduate Services (x7053, 141 Pullen Hall). Notices regarding Commencement are sent only to those students who have completed all filings.

Caps and gowns are provided at no charge to all students cleared to participate in Commencement; however, each student is responsible for placing an order in advance. Orders should be submitted to the University Bookstore.

Advance information about Commencement is available on the University's Web site. Go to www.frostburg.edu, click on "current students," then on Commencement Information under the Academics heading. (www.frostburg.edu/events/commenc.htm.) This will connect you to full details on Commencement and related activities. For information, contact Beth Deatelhauser in Special Academic Services, x3130, 127 Performing Arts Center or bdeatelhauser@frostburg.edu.

Graduate Students - Dec. Commencement

Applications for graduation are available from the Office of Graduate Services, 141 Pullen Hall or by calling x7053. Applications are due in the Graduate Services Office by Nov. 15 to assure a listing in the Commencement Program. (Graduation Applications received after Nov. 15 will be processed, however, the names may not be listed in the fall 2003 Commencement Program.) The Application for Graduation is also on-line at www.frostburg.edu/grad/gadipl.htm, available on the display rack outside the Office of Graduate Services, 141 Pullen Hall, or by calling x7053.

MAT – Elementary Interviews Nov. 18

Early admission interviews for the Master of Arts in Teaching – Elementary will be conducted at the FSU Hagerstown Center on Tuesday, Nov. 18, for students who have applied to join the summer 2004 MAT-E Cohort. Contact Dr. Kim Rotruck, Hagerstown Center, at 301-791-4026 for additional information.

Points of Pride

On Saturday, Oct. 25, Make a Difference Day, 1,050 books were delivered to the Western Maryland Reading Center by A STAR! and HallSTARS! AmeriCorps members, the results of the annual Homecoming Make a Difference Day service project. In addition, the books were sorted by content area and shelved also for the Reading Center. Thanks to everyone who donated so generously.

Hang Deng-Luzader, Stephen Luzader, Oguz Soysal and Francis Tam of the Department of Physics & Engineering attended the Appalachian Section Annual Fall Meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT) Oct. 24-25 at WVU Institute of Technology, Montgomery, W.Va. Stephen Luzader gave a contributed paper, "Simple Heat Engine" and Tam gave a paper, "Some Foucault Pendulum Measurements."

Deng-Luzader was elected Representative of the Two-Year Colleges, and Tam, Section Representative to the national AAPT. Soysal was elected President-Elect of the Section. FSU will be the host for the fall meeting, Oct. 15-16, 2004.

On Oct. 26, Brad Barkley read from his fiction at the Writer's Center in Bethesda, Md., and also, later that evening, was one of 50 writers invited to participate in Book Bash 2003, held at Borders in Towson.

The mechanical engineering program at FSU has received national recognition:

In the design area, one of the projects undertaken by Matthew Brew,

Cliff Elliott, David Higgs, Chris Petrocelli, Derek Ruby and Dr. Chandrasekhar Thamire on mobility devices for the physically disabled has been published as a peer-reviewed article and is currently in the patent application phase. The project has been selected as one of the top five projects in the Student Competition at the International Mechanical Engineering Congress of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, among several entries received. Later this year, the team will be competing against teams including those from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University, Harvard University/Boston VA Medical Center, Cornell University, and State University of New York. Two other projects related to assistive devices of the bed-ridden and the physically disabled developed by the students in the program and Dr. Thamire have previously received national recognition and published.

In the heat transfer area, results from a study related to the laser treatment of the eye and associated studies of convection by John Fogle, a senior in the program, and Dr. Thamire will be presented at the Division of Fluid Dynamics of the American Physical Society later this month.

In the biomedical engineering area, a remote-controlled surgical device to control urinary incontinence has been developed by Bonnie Carr, Jason Paugh and Jason Vaughan, all seniors in the program, and Dr. Thamire, which will be published and presented soon in a biomedical engineering forum.

In the biofluid mechanics area, results from a research study related to the urinary flow mechanics by Carr and Dr. Thamire will be presented at Annual Conference of the American Urological Association and published. Carr has been nominated by the University of Maryland, College Park, to be the Commencement Speaker at University of Maryland's Graduation Ceremony and also as the Commencement Speaker at the Engineering Graduation Ceremony of the A.J. Clark School of Engineering at the University of Maryland.

Volunteers

NAACP Mentoring Program on Mondays

The NAACP has a mentoring program that goes to Cumberland every Monday at 3:45 p.m. A van will be available to pick up students in front of Annapolis Hall. If you would like to help children and better yourself, please don't hesitate to come. If you need more information, please contact Yonathon at x5481.

Auction to Benefit Women's Basketball

There will be an auction on Thursday, Nov. 13, starting at 5 p.m., in the Cordts PE Center Main Arena to benefit FSU

Women's Basketball Team. All new merchandise will be available: frozen foods, canned foods, snacks, cereals, boxed dinners, variety of breads, holiday candy, lots of toys (trucks, trains), games, angels, figurines, mixture of dolls, gift items, collectibles, Christmas items, plus much more. Bring your coolers. A food stand will be available. Call x4466 for more information.

Donate Your Old Cell Phones to Help Others

Do you have old cell phones hidden away that you no longer use? Did you get a new phone along with your new service contract? Why not donate it so others can benefit?

You can donate your functioning or non-functioning cell phones, with or without batteries or accessories, and make a difference in the lives of children and victims of domestic violence.

Donated phones that can be refurbished will be provided to victims of domestic violence through the Wireless Foundation's Donate a Phone program. In the hands of these victims, these phones are a lifeline in an emergency.

Remaining phones will be sold, with the proceeds of $3 to $10 per phone benefiting Give Kids the World, based in Kissimmee, Fla., a non-profit organization which exists to fulfill the wishes of children with life-threatening illnesses and their families from around the world. Give Kids the World allows them to experience a memorable, joyful, cost-free visit to the central Florida attractions and to enjoy the magic of the Give Kids the World Village for as long as there is a need.

Cell phones that cannot be refurbished or sold will be safely recycled in accordance with environmental regulations.

The donations are tax deductible.

Phones can be delivered through on-campus mail to Paula Vroman at the Center for Regional Program, FSU Department of Economics. For more information, call her at (301) 697-9979.

Get Involved

Catholic Campus Ministry

CCM will meet to plan events for spring semester on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the Osborne Newman Center.

Deadlines

Deadline for Graduation Exceptions Nov. 13

Are you planning a December 2003 graduation? If your official degree audit indicates you have not completed all requirements and you have a basis to request an exception, submit your written appeal letter and supporting letters and documentation to the Academic Standards Subcommittee, Office of the Provost, Hitchins Building, by 4 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 13 (last chance for graduation exceptions and inclusion in the Commencement Booklet). If you have questions or concerns, please call the Provost's Office at x4212.

On Channel 3

FSU TV 3 Schedule for Nov. 10- 14

Monday:

3 & 6 p.m. "News Notes"
3:05 & 6:05 p.m. "Eye On Frostburg" Episode 2
3:35 & 6:35 p.m. Joan Dixon Piano Concert
5:05 & 8:05 p.m. Live at the Loft: KJ James

Tuesday:

3 & 6 p.m. FSU Football vs. Waynesburg College

Wednesday:

3 & 6 p.m. "News Notes"
3:05 & 6:05 p.m. "Eye On Frostburg" Episode 2
3:35 & 6:35 p.m. AMCC Championship Game: FSU vs. Penn State Altoona
5 & 8 p.m. Urban Music Report

Thursday:

3 & 6 p.m. FSU Football vs. Waynesburg College

Friday:

3 & 6 p.m. Dr. Suzi Mills Lecture & Recital
4:10 & 7:10 p.m. Destination Tomorrow
4:40 & 7:40 CAB Lecture: Remember the Titans

Community

An Evening of Poetry

On Thursday, Nov. 20, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., the Allegany Arts Council and Main Street Books will present An Evening of Poetry. The event will be held at Main Street Books, located at 2 East Main Street in Downtown Frostburg and will feature four local poets, including Karen Zealand reading from X-Testaments, her first published collection. Her manuscript won the 2003 Elixir Press Chapbook Competition and will be available for purchase that evening. Friendly Fire, her full-length poetry collection, is a 2003 runner-up for the Maryland Artscape Emerging Voices Award.

Dr. Barbara Hurd, Wilson H. Elkins Professor at FSU, will be reading from The Singer's Temple, her recently published poetry collection which is 2003 winner of the Bright Hill Press poetry competition. Her nonfiction book, Stirring the Mud: On Swamps, Bogs and Human Imagination, was a Los Angeles Times Best Book of 2001.

Also on the program are Maggie Smith of LaVale, whose chapbook, The Gathering Bowl, received a Special Merit

Award in the 1998 Artscape poetry contest and Michael Hughes of Romney, W.Va., whose collection of poems, Family Chain, won second place in the 2002 West Virginia Writers Competition.

The reading is free and open to the public, and light refreshments will be available. For more information, please visit www.alleganyartscouncil.org or call (301) 777-ARTS(2787).

Artists' Studio Tours

The Allegany Arts Council proudly presents the Fall 2003 Artists' Studio Tours Saturday, Nov. 15, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 16, noon to 5 p.m.

Local artists welcome you into their studios this fall to watch the creative process and enjoy their unique creations. There is no charge to participate in this exciting event and everyone is welcome! The studios are conveniently within Allegany County and are "book-ended" by stops in Swanton, Md., and Springfield, W.Va. Original artwork is available for purchase at each studio. The artists are:

- Julie S. Turrentine, fused glass, 398 Snowbird Lane, Swanton.
- Nooshin Chitsaz, portrait paintings, 115-A Chestnut St. Frostburg.
- Jason Stakem, wheel thrown and altered pottery, 115-B Chestnut St. Frostburg.
- Kate Keely, paintings, 64 S. Broadway St. Frostburg.
- Trish Limbaugh, ceramics, 18 Greenbriar Ct., Frostburg.
- Josh Brown, stoneware and porcelain pottery, 18126 Mt. Savage Rd. (Md. 36) Frostburg.
- Karin Blizzard, pressed flowers, 6 N. Woodlawn Ave., LaVale.
- Joey D'Atri, black and white photography, 359 National Highway, LaVale (Fratelli's Restaurant).
- Sherri Loomis, custom glass mosaic panels and handmade wooden tables (in collaboration with woodworker Donald Dicken), Cumberland St., Cumberland.
- Margaret Romero, Bodacious Benches and Fanciful Footrests, 55 Baltimore St., Cumberland, (former Lazarus Building; enter through rear door.)
- Bev Walker, 232 Centre St., Cumberland, middle door.
- Anita Rickenberg, hand-built tiles, Wiley Ford.
- Larry Imes, painting, drawing, clay and mixed media, 11313 DeHaven Rd., Cumberland.
- Kenneth Payne, black and white sepia toned photography, and Suzanne Donazetti, abstract paintings of gilded, woven copper, 912 Bedford St., Cumberland.
- Hilmar Gottesthal, sculptures and paintings, and Penny Knobel-Besa, photography, 13910 Scofield Rd. NE, Flintstone.
- Charles Boland, Windsor chairs; Allen Carnahan, blacksmith who uses oils, watercolors and pastels; Shirley Carnahan, historical fabrics, Rt. 28, Springfield, W.Va.

For more information, contact the Allegany Arts Council at 301-777-2787 or online at www.alleganyartscouncil.org.

International

Boren Scholarships - Deadline Dec. 12

The Institute of International Education, a NAFSA Global Partner, is accepting applications for the 2004-05 National Security Education Program (NSEP) David L. Boren undergraduate scholarships for study abroad during summer 2004, fall 2004 and spring 2005. These scholarships provide funding for U.S. students to study abroad in Asia, Africa, Central and Eastern Europe, the NIS, Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East. Award amounts range from a maximum of $10,000 a semester to $20,000 for an academic year.

Application deadline for FSU students is Dec. 12. For details and an application form, access www.iie.org/nsep. Students must apply through the CIE and must be accepted on to a study abroad program by Feb. 12 to qualify.

Md. Sec. of State to Speak to Int'l Ed. Assoc.

Maryland's Secretary of State, Karl Aumann, will be keynote speaker at the fall meeting of the Maryland International Education Association in Annapolis on Friday, Nov. 14. Aumann is chair of the new Maryland Subcabinet for International Affairs and will talk about this in his address, "Developing a Global Workforce for Maryland." Following his address there will be a panel discussion consisting of Peter O'Neill, Director of the Office of International Business, Jean van Buskirk, former Director of the Maryland Sister State Program, and a representative of the World Trade Center Institute. The meeting will take place at the State House in Annapolis and will be attended by Amy Simes, Director of the FSU Center for International Education.

Baltimore: On the Global Stage

The World Trade Center Institute and the Regional Manufacturing Institute will present "Baltimore: On the Global Stage." During the evening of Nov. 12, area executives will benefit from a unique "inside look" at the City of Baltimore and how it has positioned itself on the Global Stage with Mayor Martin O'Malley. Similarly, this year's event is expected to draw some of the region's major business leaders with an interest in global trade, including maritime and manufacturing. The mayor will also highlight some of the recent and upcoming tourist attractions that continue to position Baltimore as a global city.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases, students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x4714 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu, or visit the CIE's Web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm or the newsletter at <http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/newsletter.htm>.

Snow and French Winter Term in Quebec

Students interested in studying at the University of Quebec in Chicoutimi can apply through the CIE for this three week program that includes French courses, snow sports, and an introduction to the unique quebecoise culture. Students take a placement exam and are placed in French courses accordingly (including introductory French). Lodging is with homestay families in the city of Chicoutimi. Cost is just $1,400. For further information, contact the CIE at x4714.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of more than 140 locations. Students may take financial aid with them and apply for scholarships from the CIE and from ISEP. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit toward your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Apply now for fall 2004.

Study in Non-Traditional Locations

FSU is affiliated with the School for International Training. This enables FSU students to study through SIT in over 50 locations while remaining registered at FSU. All financial aid will transfer. SIT offers programs in Africa, Asia, South America, Europe and Austral-asia. This is a fantastic opportunity for students who would like to spend a semester, year or summer off the beaten track.

Choose from Over 20 Locations to Study

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS), which offers study abroad programs in a variety of locations at universities around the world, including Richmond College in London. Programs are open to all majors. Study in Prague, South Africa or Japan. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs. AIFS offers scholarships to qualified students.

Gain Work/Volunteer Experience Overseas

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (one to two months) to longer experiences (four to 12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (one to three years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Financial Aid for Studying Overseas

FSU students are able to transfer all federal financial aid overseas to help pay for study abroad programs, along with most state and institutional aid for most FSU sponsored programs. The CIE also awards study abroad scholarships of $500 and $1,000 to qualifying students.

Many other state and national scholarships are also available to help cover overseas costs.

Learn More about Study Abroad

Students who would like to learn more about study abroad opportunities and how they fit into a degree program may come to the CIE for an advising session. The staff will provide an overview of programs and requirements and have applications available. Scholarship and financial aid information will also be available. Students may use the CIE library and computer to search for programs. Many videos are also available.

Music from Around the World

Tune in to the university radio station, WFWM (91.9 FM), every Wednesday between 7 and 8 p.m. for "Planet Frostburg." Listen to both traditional and contemporary world music and get the latest about study abroad.

FSU Events Calendar

Look for the FSU weekly events calendar on the Web at www.frostburg.edu/weekcal.htm

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10

* Physics & Engineering Seminar, "The Space Radiation Environment & Its Effects on Spacecraft Solar Cells"..... 2:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m. .... Compton 234

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11—Veteran's Day

* B.A.S.I.C. .... 7:30 p.m. .... BSM Center

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12

* RHA Meeting ..... 7:30 p.m. .... Dunkle Hall 218
* W.N.B.S. .... 9:30 p.m. .... BSM Center

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13

* BSM Luncheon ..... 11:45 a.m.-12:45 p.m. .... BSM Center
* English Dept. Reading, Julianna Baggott ..... 7:00 p.m. .... Lane Atkinson Room

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14

* Residence Hall Association Bloodmobile .. 11:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. .... Lane ARMAH
* BSA Movie, Popcorn & Discussion ..... 7:00 p.m. .... BSM Center
* University Theatre: The Glory of Living ..... 8:00 p.m. .... PAC Studio Theatre

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15

* Men's & Women's X-Country: NCAA III Mid-East Regional Championship . @ Dickinson
* PRAXIS Testing ..... 6:45 a.m.-5:00 p.m. .... Dunkle Hall
* Football: Regents Cup with Salisbury State University ..... @ Towson University
* Men's & Women's Swimming: W.Va. Wesleyan... 1:00 p.m. .... Away
* University Theatre: The Glory of Living ..... 2:00 p.m. & 8:00 p.m. . PAC Studio Theatre
* Phi Beta Sigma Black Light Party ..... 10:00 p.m.-2:00 a.m. .... Lane ARMAH

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16

* Yamaha Clavionova Festival ..... 3:00 p.m. .... PAC Pealer Recital Hall
* CCM Mass ..... Noon & 8:00 p.m. .... Cook Chapel
* Planetarium: "Chinese Skies, Our Sun & View from the Sun"
4:00 p.m. & 7:00 p.m. .... Tawes Hall

* Open to the public. Questions? – Call 301-687-4411. All information subject to change.

FSU is committed to making all of its programs, services, and activities accessible to persons with disabilities. You may request accommodations through the ADA Compliance Office, 302 Hitchins, 301-687-4102, TDD 301-687-7955.

Be Careful While You Work – The Life You Save May Be Your Own

