Welcome Week Events

Tuesday, August 30

(Rain date: Wednesday, August 31)

Frostburg Block Party

6 to 10 p.m.

Main Street, City of Frostburg

Frostburg's Main Street will come alive as local businesses welcome FSU students, faculty and staff and the greater Frostburg community to the annual "Block Party."

Enjoy music, fun, and food at this great Frostburg tradition. Get to know local businesses, churches, community members, services, and resources in Frostburg. Inexpensive food and other items are on sale. The University Programming Council will be providing the "Balloon Man on Campus", Louis Paul and the opportunity to make tubes of Sandy Candy. Free shuttles from campus to Main Street will be offered.

This event is sponsored by the Frostburg Business and Professional Association, in cooperation with FSU and the City of Frostburg, as a way to bring together the campus and city communities and to familiarize FSU's students with the businesses in Frostburg.

Wednesday, Aug. 31, to Friday, Sept. 2

Beyond the Wall Poster Sale

10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Lane University Center, 201

Creative Couples Come Together for Exhibition

FSU Department of Visual Arts will present the exhibition "Birds of a Feather" from Friday, Sept. 2 through 25 in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the campus Fine Arts Building. An opening reception will be held on Sept. 2 from 6 to 9 p.m.

"Birds of a Feather" brings together the works of area couples who are artists. The featured couples include Ann Bristow and Kenny Braitman, Judy Dehart Davis and Dustin Davis, Suzanne Donazetti and Kenneth Payne, Carolyn and James Groves, Penny Knobel-Besa and Hilmar Gottesthal, Deborah and Jim Odgers, Margaret and Dave Romero and Colleen and Chuck Stump. The exhibition will showcase photography, paintings, sculptures and other mediums.

The Roper Gallery hours are Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For information, call the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Entertainment

Fabulous Hubcaps to Perform for Cruisin'

The Fabulous Hubcaps will bring a mix of Oldies and Classic Rock n' Roll to FSU for a concert on Thursday, Sept. 1, from 9 to 11 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center Main Arena. Dance the night away with the sounds of one of the greatest "oldies" show bands in the country.

Tickets are $15 and can be purchased from the office of Crystal Satterfield, PE Center Administrative Assistant in PEC 283, at any Susquehanna bank location, the Frostburg Freeze or online @ www.cruisinmainstreetfrostburg.com.

The Fabulous Hubcaps cap off the events of Cruisin' Main Street, in which Frostburg relives those days of rock n' roll, cruisin' Main Street and boppin at the malt shop. Classic cars will join an "American Graffiti" style cruise up and down Main Street.

For more information, Michael Shockey at (301) 687-0343 or Richard Dunn at (301) 689-2192.

CES Features Broad Range of Performers

38 Special, Eddie Money, Circus Nexus, Vienna Choir Boys, Aquila Theatre, MSO

The 2005-2006 FSU Cultural Events Series launches this September with its broadest range of artistic performances to date. With two series, Main Stage and Jazz Club, CES will feature events ranging from orchestral music to jazz to classic rock, musical comedy to serious drama, and ancient and traditional works to contemporary multi-media collaborations.

The CES Jazz Club gets the season rolling with John Fedchock New York Sextet on Saturday, Sept. 17, at 8 p.m. in FSU's Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall. Fedchock established his career as a jazz trombonist in 1980 when he joined the legendary Woody Herman Orchestra. He now leads a 16-piece New York Big Band, comprising alumni from major big bands and stars from New York's jazz scene.

The Main Stage Series begins on Saturday, Oct. 1, with Circus Nexus, at 8 p.m. in FSU's Cordts Center Main Arena. This highly theatrical production is considered the "new circus" with international, award-winning dancers and acrobats, accompanied by an exciting score and evocative décor, costumes and lighting.

What is a CES season without a captivating performance by the Maryland Symphony Orchestra? This year, on Friday, Oct. 14, at 8 p.m. in FSU's Pealer Recital Hall, under the baton of critically acclaimed conductor Elizabeth Schulze. The program features the works of Carl Maria Von Weber, Johannes Brahms and Anton Dvorak and will include a performance by award-winning guest violinist Rachel Barton-Pine.

FSU's 2005 Homecoming will rock with the songs of the 1980s, as 38 Special and Eddie Money, take to the stage on Saturday, Oct. 22, at 9 p.m. in FSU's Cordts Center Main Arena. 38 Special's Southern-rock style gained attention in the early 1980s with two breakthrough numbers, "Rockin' into the Night" and "Hold on Loosely." A string of hits followed including "Fantasy Girl," "If I'd Been the One," "Back Where You Belong," "Like No Other Night" and "Chain Lightnin'." Straight-up rock and roll icon Eddie Money has been making music since the mid 1970s. With hits like "Two Tickets to Paradise," "Baby Hold On," "Walk on Water," "Think I'm in Love" and "Shakin'," Money continues to be one of the hardest working men in rock and roll.

Windwood Theatricals presents a new musical, based on the international best-seller by Stuart Hample, "Children's Letters to God," on Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in FSU's Pealer Recital Hall. Taken directly from the letters of young people writing to God, the work is humorous and serious and reflects the directness of youth and the challenges of childhood.

Drummer, vocalist, composer/arranger T.S. Monk comes to FSU's Manicur Assembly Hall on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Monk, chairman of the Thelonius Monk Institute of Jazz named in honor of his father, is known for his spectrum of styles from R&B to traditional jazz.

The holiday season will feature Vienna Choir Boys "Christmas in Vienna," on Tuesday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in FSU's Pealer Recital Hall. Founded in 1498, the choir performed exclusively for the Austrian royal court. Today there are about 100 choristers between the ages of 10 and 14, divided into four touring choirs.

Windwood Theatricals presents the stage version of the 1949 Marilyn Monroe musical "Gentleman Prefer Blondes" on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Jan. 25, 26 and 27, in FSU's

Drama Theatre. Set in the roaring '20s, the story focuses on two ex-chorus girls as they chase men, get into trouble, and sing a bevy of hit songs including "A Little Girl From Little Rock," "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" and, of course, "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend."

The David Leonhardt Jazz Group will wow audiences on Friday, March 10, for two shows at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., at Cumberland's newest performance venue, Windsor Hall, at 39 Baltimore Street. This critically acclaimed acoustic ensemble plays a blend of mainstream and modern jazz, including both standards and original compositions.

Aquila Theatre Company will present "Hamlet" on Tuesday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. in FSU's Drama Theatre. William Shakespeare's classic tragedy of familial discord, personal ambition, love and revenge is directed by Robert Richmond.

On Thursday, March 30, at 7:30 p.m. in Pealer Recital Hall, audiences will experience Andean music, one of the few authentic prehistoric culture forms to survive the 500 years of European occupation of South America. "Andes Manta" features the Lopez brothers from Ecuador who play more than 35 traditional instruments.

The multi-media dance company "BodyVox" will grace the FSU Drama Theatre stage on Monday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m. Visionary founders and co-directors Jamey Hampton and Ashley Roland have created choreography for The Academy Awards, for music videos for Sting, U2, Pat Metheny, John Fogerty and David Bowie's concert production, "The Glass Spider."

The CES season wraps up on Saturday, May 6, with jazz from Chris Vadala. Two performances, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., will be held at Windsor Hall in Cumberland. One of the country's foremost woodwind artists, fluent on both clarinet and saxophone, Vadala has performed and recorded with jazz greats including Chuck Mangione, Dizzy Gillespie, Quincy Jones, B.B. King, Chick Corea, Ella Fitzgerald, Aretha Franklin and Sarah Vaughn.

Discounts are available for both the Main Stage and Jazz series. Purchasing series subscriptions guarantees the best seats in the house at a discount off individual event tickets. For tickets or information, call the FSU Cultural Events Box Office at x3137 or toll free at 1-866-TIXX-CES, or visit online at ces.frostburg.edu.

Speakers

Panel, Displays to Mark Constitution Day 2005

In honor of Constitution Day, a national initiative to increase awareness of the U.S. Constitution among federal government employees and students, FSU will present the panel discussion "The Supreme Court, the Constitution and America's Future" on Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 7 p.m. on the fourth floor of the Lewis J. Ort Library on the FSU campus.

The moderator for the evening's talk will be Dr. John Bowman, FSU associate provost. Panel members will include University political science faculty Dr. Stephen Hartlaub, Dr. Scott Johnson, Dr. David Lewis and Dr. Stephen Simpson, FSU provost. The discussion, which is open to the public, is sponsored by the Beall Institute for Public Affairs and the FSU Department of Political Science.

In addition to the educational discussion, the FSU Ort Library will feature several Constitution-related displays and exhibits throughout the month. Included will be information on three Marylanders – James McHenry, Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer and Daniel Carroll – who served as delegates to the Constitutional Convention in 1787. Original 18th century correspondence from James McHenry and Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer will be a featured part of the display from Sept. 9 to 23. From Sept. 9 through 19, interactive Web sites will exhibit the State of Maryland's role during this most significant time in U.S. history. The audio/visual slideshow presentation, "Maryland's Founding Fathers and the Constitution," will highlight the three delegates and their contributions to the state, both prior to and after the signing of the Constitution. All displays will be on the third (main) floor of the Ort Library.

For more information on all Constitution Day events at FSU, contact Dr. John Bowman, associate provost, at x4211.

Forums in Honor of James Hadra Continue

FSU will continue its free weekly forums named for James Hadra, a long-time Frostburg State faculty member, volunteer at WFWM and community leader in the arts, to honor his positive influence on the community and his love of conversation and ideas.

All the talks will be Mondays at noon in Ort Library room 237 and are free and open to the public. Each program will last 50 minutes. Attendees are encouraged to bring a bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

This semester's programs are:

- Sept. 12, Sally Stephenson, "Jim Hadra: Mentor."
- Sept. 19, James Saku, "Ethnic Conflict in Sub-Saharan Africa."
- Sept. 26, Jenny Davis, Deputy Field Director, and Preetmohan Singh, Senior Policy Analyst, Interfaith Alliance, "Hate As an American Value."
- Oct. 3, Kara Rogers-Thomas, "Mining the Folklore of Maryland's Mountains."
- Oct. 10, Spencer Deakin, "Alcohol and Drug Issues."
- Oct. 17, Wayne Yoder, "Prison Ministry through Horticulture."
- Oct. 24, Greg Latta, "A Live Performance of Acoustic Music."
- Oct. 31, Harry Stegmaier, "In Search of Trains: 1966-2000."
- Nov. 7, Steve Simpson, "George W. Bush and the Modern Presidency."
- Nov. 14, Gene Harris, "How to be a Smart Auto/Home Insurance Consumer."
- Nov. 21, Bob Doyle, "Absenteeism and Inattention: Two Sides of the Same Coin."
- Nov. 28, Judy Dieruf, "Creativity and the Visual Arts: What Is It and How Is It Developed?"

- Dec. 5, Ken Braitman, "Forging Ahead: The Creative Process."

The forum is sponsored by Catholic Campus Ministries, United Campus Ministries and Hillel. For more information, contact Rev. Larry Neumark at x7490.

CoB Receives Prestigious Coleman Grant

FSU's College of Business has received a Coleman Foundation Grant under the Entrepreneurship Excellence in Teaching Colleges Program. The grant proposal, entitled "The Trident Initiative: Pathways to Entrepreneurship Education," was submitted in November last year by FSU professors Keramat Poorsoltan and Sudhir Singh. The award of $150,000, over a period of three years, will be used for the expansion of entrepreneurship education programs.

Entrepreneurship Excellence in Teaching Colleges is a national program supporting entrepreneurship education in colleges and universities with underserved populations. The foundation is focused on the creation of cutting edge programs, the education of young people and building a foundation for economic growth and development.

The funds are going to be used for the development and implementation of the entrepreneurship program expansions on the FSU campus. FSU will engage in opportunities for professional development and the furthering of entrepreneurship education through sharing lessons learned through other programs, including participation in the United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship (USASBE) membership and its annual conference.

According to Poorsoltan, "The Trident Initiative is an organic effort at simultaneously stimulating research into issues of importance to regional small businesses, kindling in students of all disciplines a spirit of entrepreneurship and enhancing practical entrepreneurship education, and showcasing the best ideas and practices."

"This initiative is far-reaching in scope and will draw upon the best talents of all sections of the region's population — students, faculty and businesses," adds Singh.

This highly competitive grant is awarded only to schools with existing entrepreneurship programs who have strong plans for program expansion, cross-campus outreach and community involvement.

For more information, call Dr. Keramat Poorsoltan at x7498.

FSU Logs-On with Ruckus Digital Media

Ruckus Brings Digital Media and Community Network to FSU Students with the addition of FSU to its digital media network.

By signing with Ruckus, all on-campus students at FSU will have free, unlimited access to a library of over 700,000 songs, a huge collection of blockbuster movies, a wide selection of on-demand hit television shows, and Ruckus' community and social networking applications that allow students to find friends through media, and media through friends. In addition, all off-campus students and faculty will be given the opportunity to experience Ruckus for a low monthly fee.

"We are pleased to provide Ruckus to the students of FSU," said Roger Bruszewski, vice president for administration and finance at FSU. "By signing with Ruckus, FSU is showing its dedication to improving student life on campus, and protecting students from lawsuits and fines. We feel that Ruckus' legal media offering, community features, ability to spotlight and distribute student media, and editorial content make it stand-out in the digital media market, and is a welcomed addition to campus life here at FSU."

Ruckus provides the most comprehensive digital media services available for colleges today. The Ruckus service offers movies, music, TV, community-building tools, original content and a self-publishing application. With this rich array of features, Ruckus helps unite campuses through common interests. Unlike some other digital media services, Ruckus is dedicated to the college market and works hard to design a digital media package specifically for each campus. Today, the Ruckus service is enjoyed by thousands of U.S. college students and is quickly becoming the brand of choice for higher education institutions nationwide.

Homecoming Seeks Charities for Fund-raiser

Attention all community organizations and charities: The FSU 2005 Homecoming Committee has announced a new procedure for crowning its Homecoming king and queen. Starting this year, student organizations will partner with local non-profit organizations and charities to help raise funds.

If your organization is interested in this unique fund-raising opportunity, please provide a letter signed by the agency or community group's executive director and board president. Your letter should include your organization's name, address, phone, fax and Web site (if available) and the primary contact for this project. Also include your organization's mission and describe which program the money will benefit. Attach to your letter a copy of your 501c3 certification and send them to Center for Volunteerism and National Programs, FSU, 20 Braddock Road, Frostburg, Md. 21532. Or call x4210 for information. Deadline to submit is Wednesday, Aug. 31.

Points of Pride

Get Involved

Campus Involvement Fair at Delaney Plaza

The Campus Involvement Fair will be Wednesday, Sept. 7, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Delaney Plaza (the Clock Tower Quad) outside of the Lane University Center. If it rains, the Fair will be moved to the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall in the Lane Center.

All recognized student organizations and campus departments are invited to have a table to promote their office or programs, recruit members, advertise employment opportunities or leadership positions, or conduct fundraisers. All organizations that participate will be eligible for a drawing for $100 towards catering for a future event or meeting. All groups will receive an 8-foot table and two chairs. Organizations that need additional chairs must bring their own. Contact Tammi Wiley, Director of Student Activities, to obtain a registration form. All registration forms are due to the Lane University Center Information Desk by 4:30 pm on Friday, Sept. 2. Late forms will not be accepted.

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship

It might sound like IV is about sports, but they've got a different sort of goal in mind. They're a bunch of students getting together to hang out, study the Bible, talk about Jesus and get to know each other. They'd like to get to know you. You can get in touch by calling Heidi (x5588) or e-mailing intervarsity@walla.com. You can snoop around the Web site at www.geocities.com/ivcfweb.

Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha is planning two back-to-school events that are open to all students.

- Brother 2 Sister, with Delta Sigma Theta, Wednesday, Aug. 31, in the PE Center Leake Room starting at 7 p.m. Freshmen are encouraged to come.

- Back 2 School Party, Saturday, Sept. 3, in the Lane University Center Manicur Assembly Hall from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m.

For more information, call Esayas Wureta at (301) 437-0151.

Want to Know More about TV3?

TV3 is an Educational Access channel that provides student and professionally produced programming to the campus and the City of Frostburg five days a week on channel 3. TV3's message board will help you find out about campus activities and its daily programming schedule. Stay tuned for coverage of FSU football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, new lectures, concerts and Frostburg City Council meetings.

TV3 also has many opportunities for students to become involved. These include the taping of FSU sports, graphic design, public relations work and other activities. Log onto their website to find out more information about these opportunities at www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/index.htm

For other questions about Channel 3's programming, contact Cable Channel Manager, Melanie Lombardi at x3011 or mlombardi@frostburg.edu.

Want Your Info on TV3's Message Board?

If you have an announcement about an activity that you would like to advertise on the TV3 message board, use the following URL and it will take you directly to the automated message request form: www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/messreqform.htm. Then enter your information and click submit. It's as easy as that.

If possible, submit your requests the minimum of one week in advance to make sure your requests are able to be designed and posted in a timely fashion.

If you would like to submit your request with a hard copy and need the form, contact Melanie Lombardi at x3011, mlombardi@frostburg.edu or stop by Old Main Room 201.

Quick Facts about the Annual Fund Phonathon

This year, the FSU Annual Fund Phonathon enters a new era!

- Year-round calling to Alumni soliciting contributions to the FSU Annual Fund. Students make calls.
- This year, we will utilize an automated dialing system.
- Generous pay scale, with incentives.
- Student callers raised over $118,000 during 2004-2005.
- Calls are made Sunday through Thursdays from 6 to 9 p.m., and Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m.

- Flexible hours to coincide with class/study time

- Chance for advancement, since we usually hire our supervisors from our current staff of agents.

- Incredible work experience, since you will be dealing with the public on a daily basis. A semester on the phonathon, we feel, is the equivalent of a hands-on course in marketing and public relations.

As a phonathon agent, you will work in a friendly, positive, energetic environment. You will experience the personal satisfaction in helping to gain another contributor to the FSU Annual Fund. This will also increase your confidence and self-esteem. You will also receive excellent coaching, which will markedly increase your communication skills.

Qualifications/requirements to join our telemarketing team:

- Previous Telemarketing Experience
- Excellent Communications skills
- Strong computer skills
- Outstanding dependability
- Responsive to Supervision
- Team Player

International

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases, students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on programs or scholarships, contact Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, x3091, asimes@frostburg.edu or visit the CIE Web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm.

Apply Now For Winter, Spring 2006

The CIE is currently accepting applications for study abroad programs during the winter session (Ecuador, Quebec, Madagascar), and the spring semester (Ireland, the UK, Australia/New Zealand, and more). Hundreds of programs are available through our affiliates, including the American Institute of Foreign Study (www.aifsabroad.com), AustralLearn (www.australearn.org), the School for International Training (www.sit.edu/studyabroad/index.html), the International Student Exchange Program (www.isep.org), and our newest affiliate, Cultural Experiences Abroad (www.gowithcea.com). Application and scholarship deadlines are early October. For more information, visit the CIE Web site (www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie) or contact the CIE.

New Affiliate: Cultural Experiences Abroad

This summer FSU signed a new partnership agreement with Cultural Experiences Abroad (www.gowithcea.com), an independent study abroad program provider that sends U.S. students to locations in Europe, Australia and Latin America. CEA is headquartered in Tempe, Ariz., and has been providing quality study abroad experiences to North American students since 1996. With CEA as a new affiliate, FSU students will be able to take advantage of all their FSU financial aid along with special scholarship opportunities provided by CEA. Meet with CEA representative, Bill Hartley at the Study Abroad Fair on Sept. 6. For more information, contact the CIE.
