President’s Open Dialogue with Students
FSU President Jonathan Gibralter will present his first in an ongoing series of open dialogues with students on Thursday, Oct. 5, at 5 p.m. in the Lane University Center’s Manicur Assembly Hall. President Gibralter will speak briefly, presenting information that will include FSU’s current situation and some short-term and long-term plans for the University. He will then open the floor to questions from students. All FSU students are encouraged to attend.

FAMILY WEEKEND FESTIVITIES

CES Presents ‘Spencers: Theatre of Illusion’
Audiences won’t believe their eyes when “The Spencers: Theatre of Illusion” comes to FSU’s Cordts P.E. Center Main Arena at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 7. Combining original theatrical elements with cutting-edge illusions, this popular high-tech show performed throughout the United States challenges reality with mind-bending magic and mystery.

This performance is part of FSU’s “Family Weekend” Festivities. Kevin and Cindy Spencer, a husband-and-wife team who have been described as “Modern Day Houdinis,” bring drama, comedy and suspense to elaborate stage illusions. Coinciding with FSU’s Family Weekend, “The Spencers: Theatre of Illusion” provides fun entertainment for the whole family to enjoy while visiting the University.

“Spencers: Theatre of Illusion” tickets are $15 for general public adults and $8 for general public youth. Special discounted pricing is available for all FSU students, family, staff and faculty.

For more information on ticket pricing and purchasing tickets, call the FSU Lane University Center Box Office at x3137 or toll free at 1-866-TIXX-CES, or visit online at ces.frostburg.edu. The performance is jointly sponsored by University Programming Council and FSU’s Cultural Events Series.

UT Launches Season with ‘Urinetown’

“Urinetown,” the musical, will open the 2006-2007 University Theatre Main Stage season. With music and lyrics by Mark Hollmann and book and lyrics by Greg Kotis, performances will take place on Oct. 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14 at 7:30 p.m. and Oct. 7 and 14 at 2 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center’s Drama Theatre.

Don’t let the title of this hit scare you off! If you love musical theatre, possess an off-beat sense of humor and have a taste for something a bit daring, this show is for you. Inspired by the works of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill, this boy-meets-girl romance takes place during a revolutionary time in the near future when private toilets are banned and water is worth its weight in gold. Love, snaring evil, comic mayhem and a relentless stream of puns all come together to make “Urinetown” a witty, irreverent and completely original play that both satirizes and honors the rich traditions of musical theatre, touching on everything from “West Side Story” to “Les Miserables.”

Tickets are $10 for the general public and $5 for students. Season Discount Flex Cards are also on sale until Oct. 14. For $30 you receive four Main Stage tickets—a $10 savings. Spread the tickets throughout the Main Stage season, or use all four tickets at one show.

For reservations, call x7465 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The box office opens one hour prior to curtain. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Science, Engineering & Technology Showcase
As part of its 2006 Family Weekend celebration, FSU will highlight student, faculty and staff achievements in technology through a Science, Engineering and Technology Showcase. The Showcase will be held in the Compton Science Center from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 7.

Through interactive demonstrations, FSU faculty invite students, families and staff to explore the research and creative output of students and faculty throughout the university.

Five Artists Combine Creativity in Exhibition

What happens when five distinct artists combine their talents in a series of creative collaborations? An exhibition at FSU titled “In Violation of …” intends to find out. Featuring both individual and group works by Suzanne Donazetti, Maggy Wagner, Dotti Heimert, Larry Ires and Bob Corrigan, “In Violation of …” will be on view Oct. 6 through Oct. 29 at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery, with a free, public reception from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6.

“Artists are generally quite solitary when they work, and have full control of the creative process,” explained group spokesperson Donazetti. “When working collaboratively, these general rules are shattered. That’s why we titled our show ‘In Violation of…”

In addition to five individual works from each artist, the show features several large pieces done in a group fashion. The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery has free admission and is open to the public Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For more information, call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

UPC Presents ComedySportz

University Programming Council will present Comedy Night featuring ComedySportz at 9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 6, in the Lane University Center’s Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall. The event is free and open to the public.

If you like the hit TV show “Whose Line Is It Anyway,” then you are going to love ComedySportz. ComedySportz is a fast-paced improvisational comedy show that’s fun for everyone. Two teams battle for laughs and points as they make up scenes and songs on the spot. The audience shouts out all the suggestions and votes for the winners, while the referee calls the fouls. ComedySportz is not a comedy about sports; it’s the comedy show that is a sport.

For information, call the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

‘Over the Hedge’ Features Wily Raccoon

The UPC will offer several screenings of “Over the Hedge” in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall. The film will be shown Friday, Oct. 6, at 2 and 8 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 7, at 2 and 8 p.m.; and Sunday, Oct. 8, at 2 and 6 p.m. “Over the Hedge” features a scheming raccoon who fools a mismatched family of forest creatures into helping him repay a debt of food by invading the new suburban sprawl that popped up while they were hibernating—and who learns a lesson about family himself. For more information, contact x4411.

Speakers

Bobby Petrocelli Returns for 10th Year

Bobby Petrocelli will return to FSU to present his motivational speech “10 Seconds Can Change Your Life” at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Petrocelli has traveled the country sharing his inspirational message and life experiences to motivate and empower crowds all over the United States. The title of his speech comes from the 10 seconds that changed his own life: the night he awoke to a drunken driver who had driven a truck through his bedroom wall, killing his wife. The driver’s blood alcohol level was twice the legal limit. Since then, Petrocelli has used this dreadful event and turned it into an inspiring speech on life and its fragility.

This will be Petrocelli’s 10th appearance at FSU. It is sponsored by the BURG Peer Education Network.

Petrocelli’s speech is free and open to the public. For more information, call the SAFE office at x4761.

Appalachian Lab

The University of Maryland Center for Environmental Science Appalachian Laboratory will offer a series of seminars during the fall semester. The next seminar is:

- Oct. 5: Dr. Peter Morin – Rutgers University, “Using Experimental Model Systems to Explore Environmental Issues: Insights from Small Worlds”

All seminars are held in AL Room 109 at 3:30 p.m. Refreshments follow in the lobby. For more information, visit www.al.umes.edu/facseminars.htm.

Entertainment

Humor Healer Comedian René Hicks to Perform

Comedian René Hicks will perform at 9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Hicks is an internationally known comedian who has performed at over 600 colleges. She is determined to use her comedy to make a difference, using comedy as a form of activism. Her goal is always to provide entertainment that is hilarious but also helps lead to the breaking down of barriers that contribute to social and cultural isolation and intolerance.

Before she was a comedian, inspirational speaker, cancer survivor and humor healer, Hicks grew up as the daughter of a Pentecostal preacher, was a nationally ranked distance runner, graduated college with a degree in accounting and worked for one of the largest international firms. Hicks promotes the power of laughter as a healing, coping, life enhancement and enrichment tool.

This event is sponsored by FSU’s Black Student Alliance, Residence Hall Association, SAFE Office and University Programming Council. For more information, call the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.
Test Your Talents with Open Mic Night

Aspiring artists will get to show off their talents to a large audience when Live at The Loft Open Mic Night is held at 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 5 in the Lane University Center Loft. Support local performing artists at this special event! This event is sponsored by University Programming Council. For more information, call x4151.

Music

UPC Presents Rock Band 'Alternate Routes'
The University Programming Council presents "Alternate Routes" at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 14 in the Alice R. McAnypsy Mercuri Assembly Hall in the Lane University Center. "Alternate Routes" is a young, dynamic rock band with a strong emphasis on songwriting and storytelling. The group, which recently released its debut album, "Good and Reckless and True," was formed in 2002 when vocalist/guitarist Tim Warren and guitarist/vocalist Eric Donnelly began collaborating and found that despite different respective styles and major influences, they shared a similar vision. Once bassist Chip Johnson came aboard, the nucleus of different respective styles and major influences, they shared a similar vision. Once bassist Chip Johnson came aboard, the nucleus of

Recycling Returns to Residence Halls

The Sierra Student Coalition would like to remind everyone that all downhill Residence Halls once again have recycling bins in them. Uphill Residence Halls will have bins this week. Recycling bins are located in selected lounges in the high rises and near the trash rooms for all other dorms. Thank you for doing your part to help recycle and keep FSU clean and beautiful.

Help is Here for Students on Probation

Do you have questions about your academic standing for the fall 2006 semester? You might ask: "May I take a course at another institution to get off probation? Can I be dismissed at the end of the fall semester?" These questions and more can be addressed at an academic probation meeting. Invest one hour of your time in order to ensure you are able to return to FSU for the spring 2007 semester. This meeting could make a difference! The meeting dates are as follows:

- Monday, Oct. 9, 7 p.m., Compton Science Center 226
- Tuesday, Oct. 10, 2 p.m., Compton Science Center 226
- Thursday, Oct. 12, 3:30 p.m., Compton Science Center 224

If you have questions or concerns, call the Provost’s Office at x4212.

Get Involved

UPC Board Meeting
The University Programming Council will hold a General Board Meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 3, in the Lane University Center room 201. Everyone is encouraged to attend. This month’s theme is “Celebrity Times,” and we will have a lot of fun activities based on the famous stars that we all gawk at every week in magazines and movies. For more information, contact x4151.

Annual Diversity Retreat
FSU students interested in diversity issues are invited to participate in the 8th Annual Diversity Retreat. The event is scheduled from 4 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 20, through 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 22. Offered by the Black Student Alliance and the Diversity Center, the retreat will include workshops on diversity and other related activities intended to promote student awareness and empowerment in diversity issues and coalition building.

We welcome the return of former participants; however, we strongly encourage the participation of new students. This is an excellent opportunity to spend quality time with students from various cultural, ethnic, racial, etc. groups to develop relationships and understandings that reach beyond the surface.

Applications are available at the Lane University Center Information Desk and in the Diversity Center, located in Hitchins 122. Completed applications must be submitted by Oct. 6. Participants will be asked to pay a $5 refundable deposit to hold their spaces. Those concerned with the cost are encouraged to speak with the retreat coordinator, Robin V. Wynder.

For more information about the retreat, contact Wynder at x4050.

United Campus Ministry
UCM will have a Mission Dinner on “Homelessness in Allegany County” at 6 p.m. Thursday Oct. 5, at Frostburg United Methodist Church. Kim Marker, director of the downtown YMCA, will speak from the heart regarding the ongoing crisis of homelessness in the county.
For more information, call x7490.

CROP Walk
Catholic Campus Ministry and United Campus Ministry are participating in the CROP Walk for the Hungry on Sunday, Oct. 8. Meet at the Frostburg Presbyterian Church, 33 Broadway, at 2 p.m. Participants will walk and raise money for the hungry around the world.
Call x7490 or (301) 689-5041 for more information.

The group departs Dec. 26 from Baltimore/Washington International Airport. For more information, contact MacGregor O’Brien at x4287 or mobrien@frostburg.edu.

Boren Scholarships for Study, Research

The Institute of International Education is accepting applications for the 2006-2007 David L. Boren Undergraduate Scholarships and graduate fellowships for study or research in regions of the world that are of critical interest to the US. NSEP Boren Scholarships provide up to $20,000 for an academic year’s study abroad. Boren Fellowships provide up to $30,000 for language study and international research. IIE encourages interested students to visit www.iie.org/nsep to learn more about the program and begin the application process. All applications must be completed online. The national deadline is Feb. 13 for scholarships, Jan. 30 for fellowships. More information is available from the Center for International Education.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases, students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on programs or scholarships, contact Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, x3091, asimes@frostburg.edu or visit the CIE Web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.

The Year of Study Abroad Continues

2006 has been designated by the U.S. Senate as the “Year of Study Abroad.” In support, many study abroad affiliates, such as AustraLearn, Cultural Experiences Abroad and the American Institute for Foreign Study will grant financial help to students accepted for programs overseas. A number of organizations will also award additional scholarships to qualifying students as part of this celebration. For information, visit the CIE Web site.

Study Abroad Scholarship Deadline Oct. 15

Students who are applying to, or have been accepted to, a study abroad program for either the intersession or spring semester 2007 are invited to submit an application for a CIE scholarship. Students must have a 3.0 GPA or higher and be matriculating students at the time of their overseas study, planning to return to FSU. Scholarships are awarded in the amounts of $500 and $1,000, and are based on merit, financial need and quality of application. Scholarship applications and more information about other study abroad scholarships are available from either the CIE office or the Web site: www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.schol.

Weekly Info Sessions for Study Abroad

All students are welcome to attend a general information meeting on study abroad options at FSU held each week. The meetings take place at the CIE in the Fuller House on Wednesday afternoons at 4 p.m. For more information, contact the CIE at x4714.

Intersession in New Zealand and Australia

FSU affiliate, AustraLearn (www.australearn.org), is introducing two new short-term programs for January 2007. Leadership Development will be offered the first three weeks of January in the north island of New Zealand. Cultural Studies will be held in various locations in Australia January 3-24. Both programs provide students with field excursions, practical experience, and transfer credit. Deadline for applying is Nov. 1.

Spend a Semester in Cyprus

FSU students can take advantage of a new affiliation with Global Learning Semesters (GLS), an organization that specializes in programs for students interested in learning about politics, business and cultural studies in Europe. The semester program in Cyprus is one of the most reasonably priced study abroad programs available. Students pay $7,650 for all program costs except meals and airfare. Scholarships are available, and all financial aid will transfer. Visit the GLS Web site at www.globalsemesters.com/program/semcyprus/semcyprus1.html.

Numerous Cultural Experiences Abroad

Cultural Experiences Abroad has programs in Buenos Aires, Argentina, as well as in Budapest, Hungary, and Prague, Czech Republic. They are also opening their second CEA Study Center in Barcelona. Also, in London they have added Goldsmiths University to their partner schools. For information, visit www.gowithceaa.com or the CIE Web site.

Safety Message

Motorcycle Awareness: Advice for Drivers, Riders

ADVICE TO DRIVERS:

Drivers tend to look for other cars, not motorcycles. Motorcycles are vehicles with the same privileges as any vehicle on the roadway. They are smaller profile vehicles that are harder to see and whose speeds are more difficult to estimate. Give the motorcyclist a full lane of travel. Look for motorcycles at intersections, especially before making a left turn. Check your blind spots frequently and before changing lanes. Always signal.

Traffic, weather and road conditions require motorcyclists to react and maneuver differently. Allow enough room for the motorcyclist to maneuver and enough time for you to adjust. Be courteous, non-aggressive and cooperative can go a long way in reducing crashes.

ADVICE TO MOTORCYCLISTS:

Choose riding gear that increases your visibility in traffic. Use bright colors and reflective strips or wear clothes that reflect light when you are slowing down and before stopping.

Evacuation Procedures

For staff, faculty and students:

• All employees and students shall be familiar with a primary and an alternate evacuation route from each area within the building where they work. The individual instructor shall be familiar with a primary and an alternate evacuation route from each area where he or she teaches. These procedures should be shared with students during the first meeting of each class and each time a fire alarm is sounded. Evacuation routes are any clear hallway that leads to the stairs and/or directly outside.

• Emergency evacuation from the building when the alarm is sounded applies to all faculty during teaching and non-teaching times.
• DO NOT USE THE ELEVATOR.
  • When an alarm sounds, immediately evacuate the building in a safe and orderly manner. The instructor shall immediately release the class, telling the students to proceed in a safe and orderly manner to the nearest clear stairs (exit). Be sure to remind them, “DO NOT USE THE ELEVATOR.” The instructor shall also evacuate immediately.
  • Take your books, coat and other personal items.
  • Assist any individual requiring additional help with directions to the stairs or directly outside.
  • Instruct all occupants that you may meet while evacuating to evacuate the building immediately.
  • When safely out of the building, contact the University Police at x4222 by cell phone or from another building.

When an alarm sounds, immediately evacuate the building in a safe and orderly manner. The instructor shall immediately release the class, telling the students to proceed in a safe and orderly manner to the nearest clear stairs (exit). Be sure to remind them, “DO NOT USE THE ELEVATOR.” The instructor shall also evacuate immediately.
