THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS

Philly Hip Hop Group The Roots to Perform

FSU presents The Roots at 8 p.m. on Oct. 14, in the Cordts Center Main Arena.

The Roots are an influential Philadelphia-based hip hop group, known for original lyrics and live instrumentation. Originally composed of Black

The Roots

Thought (MC vocals) and Questlove (drums). The Roots soon added Kamal (keyboard), Hub (bass guitar) and Rahzel (beatboxing) and earned themselves a respectable fan base in Philadelphia.

Since 2004, the brilliance of The Roots is not that they are real musicians or that they make insightful literary references in their album titles, but the shifts they constantly make, which make them similar to time—always moving. It's the list of what the band has yet to explore. The real secret in watching The Roots progress is in what you think they will do versus what they do. It's the gap, the space between things that they bridge—tried/not tried, expected/unexpected—like the silence between beats which make music.

Doors open at 7 p.m. Tickets are $5 for students, $15 for the general public. This event is sponsored by CES Concert Commission, Black Student Alliance and Student Government Association.

Music Dept. Mounts Festive Faculty Gala

Music faculty members take to the stage in Pealer Recital Hall at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 15, to highlight their diverse talents. Tickets will be available at the door and are $5 for the general public and $3 for children under 16.

The Gala, presented every two years, will feature works that are rarely performed: compositions for eight pianos and a good-natured musical spoof featuring faculty “playing” rubber hoses and tubes filled with water. Instrumentalists and singers will present compositions in both jazz and classical genres.

Participants in the recital include: Ellen Grolman, Joan Dixon, Fanny Witmer, Betty Jane Phillips, Judith Wood, Chris McCabe, Jane Kobert and Mark Steiner, piano; Brian Plitnik, trombone; Mark Gallagher, clarinet; Steve McKnight, trumpet; Marissa Ulmer, French horn; Kristin Bacchiocchi-Stewart, flute; Ron Horner, marimba; and Tim Powell, saxophone. Jonathan Hodel and Karen Soderberg will sing.

All proceeds go toward Music Scholarship funds. Contact Ellen Grolman for more information at x4117.

UT Presentation of ‘Urinetown’ Continues

“Urinetown,” the musical, will open the 2006-2007 University Theatre Main Stage season. With music and lyrics by Mark Hollmann and book and lyrics by Greg Kotis, performances will take place on Oct. 12, 13 and 14 at 7:30 p.m. and Oct. 14 at 2 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center’s Drama Theatre. Please note that evening performances for the University Theatre season now begin at 7:30 p.m.

Don’t let the title of this hit scare you off! If you love musical theatre, possess an off-beat sense of humor and have a taste for something a bit daring, this show is for you. Inspired by the works of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill, this boy-meets-girl romance takes place during a revolutionary time in the near future when private toilets are banned and water is worth its weight in gold. Love, snarling evil, comic mayhem and a relentless stream of puns all come together to make “Urinetown” a witty, irreverent and completely original play that both satirizes and honors the rich traditions of musical theatre, touching on everything from “West Side Story” to “Les Miserables.”

Tickets are $10 for the general public and $5 for students. Season Discount Flex Cards are also on sale until Oct. 14. For $30 you receive four Main Stage tickets—a $10 savings. Spread the tickets throughout the Main Stage season, or use all four tickets at one show.

For reservations, call x7465 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The box office opens one hour prior to curtain. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Maryland Symphony Returns to FSU

Residents of Allegany County have much to look forward to during the fall: the spectacular showcase of trees changing color, cool, sunny days in the mountains—and the annual performance of Hagerstown’s acclaimed Maryland Symphony Orchestra, a concert that draws classical music enthusiasts from throughout the region.

Elizabeth Schulze

Under the exuberant baton of music director and conductor Elizabeth Schulze, the Maryland Symphony Orchestra will perform its much-anticipated annual fall concert at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, in the FSU Performing Arts Center’s Pealer Recital Hall. The performance, part of the ensemble’s Silver Anniversary Season, features guest artist and virtuoso violinist Nicolas Kendall and includes three major works by Shostakovich, Tchaikovsky and Sibelius.

Entertainment

Humor Healer Comedian René Hicks to Perform

Comedian René Hicks will perform at 9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Hicks is an internationally known comedian who has performed at over 600 colleges. She is determined to use her comedy to make a difference, using comedy as a form of activism. Her goal is always to provide entertainment that is hilarious but also helps lead to the breakdown of barriers that contribute to social and cultural isolation and intolerance.

Before she was a comedian, inspirational speaker, cancer survivor and humor healer, Hicks grew up as the daughter of a Pentecostal preacher, was a nationally ranked distance runner, graduated college with a degree in accounting and worked for one of the largest international firms. Hicks promotes the power of laughter as a healing, coping, life enhancement and enrichment tool.

This event is sponsored by FSU's Black Student Alliance, Residence Hall Association, SAFE Office and University Programming Council. For more information, call the Lane University Center information desk at x4411.

Film

Int'l Films Continue with 'East-West'

FSU's 2006-2007 International Film Series continues at 7 p.m. Oct. 12 with "East-West." This film is free and open to the public and is in French with English subtitles. "East-West" follows the struggle of a Russian emigrant living in France with his young family as he returns to Russia, only to be devastated by Stalin's newest campaign. For more information, contact the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

Art

Five Artists Combine Creativity in Exhibition

What happens when five distinct artists combine their talents in a series of creative collaborations? An exhibition at FSU titled "In Violation of ..." intends to find out. Featuring both individual and group works by Suzanne Donazetti, Maggy Wagner, Dotti Heimert, Larry Imes and Bob Corrigan, "In Violation of ..." will be on view through Oct. 29 at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery.

"Artists are generally quite solitary when they work, and have full control of the creative process," explained group spokesperson Donazetti. "When working collaboratively, these general rules are shattered. That's why we titled our show 'In Violation of...'"

In addition to five individual works from each artist, the show features several large pieces done in a group fashion.

The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery has free admission and is open to the public Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For information, call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Speakers

Bobby Petrocelli Returns for 10th Year

Bobby Petrocelli will return to FSU to present his motivational speech, "10 Seconds Can Change Your Life," at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Petrocelli has traveled the country sharing his inspirational message and life experiences to motivate and empower crowds all over the United States. The title of his speech comes from the 10 seconds that changed his own life: the night he awoke to a drunken driver who had driven a truck through his bedroom wall, killing his wife. The driver's blood alcohol level was twice the legal limit. Since then, Petrocelli has taken this dreadful event and turned it into an inspiring speech on life and its fragility.

This will be Petrocelli's 10th appearance at FSU. It is sponsored by the BURG Peer Education Network.

Petrocelli's speech is free and open to the public. For more information, call the SAFE office at x4761.

Appalachian Lab

The University of Maryland Center for Environmental Science Appalachian Laboratory will offer a series of seminars during the fall semester. The next seminar is:

- Oct. 19: Dr. Timothy King – USGS-BRD, "Contemporary Molecular Genetics: A Dynamic Array of Tools for Assessing Phylogeography, Population Structure and Captive Breeding Management"

All seminars are held in AL Room 109 at 3:30 p.m. Refreshments follow in the lobby. For more information, visit www.al.umces.edu/facseminars.htm.

Theatre

UT's Season Too! Presents 'Earth and Sky'

University Theatre's Season Too! Series will present Douglas Post's award-winning play "Earth and Sky" at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 27 and 28 in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

This poetic thriller follows Sara McKeon, a poet and librarian who turns investigator when confronted with the brutal murder of her lover, a man who may have been secretly involved in several illicit activities, including kidnapping, rape and murder. Unwilling to believe that her lover was capable of such deeds, Sara begins to investigate, and ventures deeper through the urban labyrinth into the contemporary underworld. A haunting mystery, infused with humor, poetry and urban grit, "Earth and Sky" is a true case of film noir on stage.

"Earth and Sky" is directed by senior Danielle Young, with performances by Shannon Huber, Steve Custer, Sean Jeffries, Tekle Ghebremeschel, Calee McCauley, Richard Scott, Philip Hopf, Kathryn Lansinger and Michael Weaver.

All tickets are $5. For reservations and information, please call the theatre box office at x7462. Please note that evening performances now begin at 7:30 p.m.

Take Note

Help is Here for Students on Probation

Do you have questions about your academic status for the fall 2006 semester? You might ask: "May I take a course at another institution to get off probation? Can I be dismissed at the end of the fall semester?" These questions and more can be addressed at an academic probation meeting. Invest one hour of your time in order to ensure you are able to return to FSU for the spring 2007 semester. This meeting could make a difference! The meeting dates are as follows:

- Monday, Oct. 9, 7 p.m., Compton Science Center 226
- Tuesday, Oct. 10, 2 p.m., Compton Science Center 226
- Thursday, Oct. 12, 3:30 p.m., Compton Science Center 224

If you have questions or concerns, call the Provost's Office at x4212.

Disney Information Sessions Scheduled

The Advising Center will host Walt Disney World College Program information sessions at 7 p.m. Oct. 17 and 18 in Lane Center 207-208. All students interested in participating in the program next semester are encouraged to attend one of the sessions. Students will have an opportunity to ask FSU Disney Program alumni questions and view a video describing this paid, highly respected, semester-long, credit-bearing internship. For more information, contact Elaine Barry in the Advising Center, 126 Hitchins, x3132.

Take a Health Survey, Win Gift Certificates

Brady Health Center is sponsoring the National College Health Assessment survey starting in mid-October. This is the first time FSU has participated in this premier student health survey from the American College Health Association. The survey covers a wide range of health issues including:

- Alcohol, tobacco and other drug use
- Sexual health
- Weight, nutrition and exercise
- Mental health
- Personal safety and violence

Information from the survey will help focus health and prevention services here at Frostburg. Three thousand randomly selected full-time students will be invited to complete the Web-based survey by receiving an e-mail with the subject line "WIN PRIZES: TAKE THE SURVEY (National College Health Assessment)." Out of those who complete the survey, 15 participants will win gift certificates ranging from $25 to $100 from area merchants. For more information, call Brady Health at x4310.

News for Grad Students

International Fellowships for Spring 2007

Applications for an International Fellowship position beginning with the spring 2007 semester are currently available. The position will offer paid tuition (up to 30 hours year) and a $6,650 cash stipend per year (fall and spring semesters), in exchange for 20 hours of service each week.

This position represents an academic honor for an international student, and thus requires the applicant to have been accepted to a graduate program in good academic standing and remain in good academic standing for the duration of the award. The application is available at the Office of Graduate Services, 141 Pullen Hall (x7053) or on the Web at www.frostburg.edu/grad/forms.htm.

The deadline for completed applications is Oct. 15.

Master of Arts in Teaching: Secondary, K-12

Dr. William Childs, MAT-S, K-12 Graduate Program Coordinator, will host an Information Meeting for prospective applicants for the summer 2007 cohort, a program offered both in Frostburg and USM-Hagerstown.

A meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 10, and Tuesday, Nov. 7. Both meetings are in the Leake Room, Cordts PE Center. The deadline for summer 2007 cohort applications is April 1, 2007.

For information, please call Dr. Childs at x4216 or the Graduate Services Office at x7053.

Master of Arts in Teaching – Elementary

Dr. Kim Rotruck, MAT-E Graduate Program Coordinator, will host an information meeting for prospective applicants for the summer 2007 cohort of the program offered at USM-Hagerstown.

Meetings will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the University System of Maryland

Hagerstown Center (USMH) on the following evenings: Thursday, Oct. 12; Monday, Nov. 13; and Thursday, Dec. 14, at the USM-H, 32 West Washington St., Hagerstown.

The deadline for summer 2007 cohort applications is May 1. The summer 2007 applicant fall admissions interviews will be scheduled for the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 28, at the USMH Center, by appointment. To interview, students must have filed a Graduate Application Form and have a completed portfolio, and have preferably successfully completed the Praxis I examination.

For information, please call Dr. Rotruck at (240) 527-2736/2741 or the Graduate Services Office at x7053.

MBA Applicants for Spring 2007

Students entering the MBA Program must complete the GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) or the GRE (Graduate Record Examination). GRE testing registration information is available through the Educational Testing Services Web site at www.ets.org or by calling the FSU Counseling Center, at x7990.

For information regarding the GMAT, please review the Web site at www.gmac.com/gmac.

Points of Pride

FSU senior Emily Gosnell was chosen as the ambassador for the Congressional District 6 in the Relay for Life Celebration in Washington, D.C., on Sept. 20. A celebration ambassador is a volunteer who partners with American Cancer Society advocacy staff to implement and/or manage local, state or federal advocacy activity. Chosen through a competitive process, celebration ambassadors have a number of service responsibilities.

Get Involved

DZ, BURG, Promote Alcohol Awareness

Delta Zeta National Sorority invites the campus community to participate in activities promoting National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week Oct. 15-21. This program spans across more than 3,000 college and universities to ask students, faculty, staff and the local Frostburg community to stand and take ownership of a healthy lifestyle free from the abuse or illegal use of alcohol. During NCAAW, students, faculty, staff, and Frostburg community members will have the opportunity to attend an educational program co-sponsored by BURG Peer Education Network and demonstrate their support by signing a proclamation. Activities and events include a table stationed in the Lane University Center to distribute royal blue ribbons in support of alcohol awareness week, providing pledge stickers to all people who sign the IATF Proclamation to not abuse alcohol or other substances for the weekend of Oct. 19-21, and an educational program featuring speaker Bobby Petrocelli Oct. 18.

All of the programs for National Alcohol Awareness Week were designed to reinforce personal responsibility and awareness for current state laws and university policies relating to the consumption of alcohol beverages and other substance use and abuse. These programs help promote responsibility by informing the FSU community and the local community that part of making healthy choices and exhibiting responsible behavior is first established by changing the attitudes and actions of each individual. For more information, contact x4761.

United Campus Ministry

Community Service at Nursing Care Center

Individuals and student organizations interested in community service are cordially invited to help at the Frostburg Village Nursing Home at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 26. Students will play bingo and visit residents. If musicians want to perform, that can be arranged. Participants will leave at 6:30 p.m. from behind the Lewis J. Ort Library. For more info, please contact Larry Neumark, Protestant chaplain, at x7490.

Fall Retreat: 'Honoring the Earth'

Do you enjoy the beauty of waterfalls, the grace of swans, hiking trails, open fields and starry nights? Maybe you would like to get away for a retreat at beautiful Camp Living Waters in Schellsburg, Pa. The event is Nov. 3-5. Only an hour away from campus, people will enjoy these amenities including a modern lodge with a roaring fireplace and comfortable rooms. The theme will be "Honoring the Earth."

In addition to relaxation and fun, there will also be opportunities to share our feelings and views about conserving and honoring the fragile beauty of the planet and learning to live in healthy ways. The cost is only $15. Please call the UCM office x7490 or e-mail Larry Neumark at l.neumark@frostburg.edu.

Catholic Campus Ministry

CCM is hosting a "CCM Movie and Discussion Night" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, in the Osborne Newman Center. Watch a movie and discuss the film afterward.

Candlelight Labyrinth Walk at ACM

Want to relieve some stress? Enjoy the beauty of candlelight? Relax and breathe? Come to the Candlelight Labyrinth Walk at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 12, at Allegany College of Maryland. ACM is only 20 minutes away from FSU. Interested in going? Contact UCM Ministry office at x7490. Please reserve your spot as soon as possible. Those from the FSU campus will meet to leave behind the Ort Library at 7 p.m. This event is open to students, faculty and staff.

University Neighbors Meeting Scheduled

University Neighbors, an association of off-campus students, year-round residents, and landlords who live and/or own property in the neighborhood adjacent to the FSU campus, will hold its regular meeting at 7 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 15 at City Place (corner of Water and Mechanic Streets in Frostburg). Agenda items include a neighborhood beautification project, an adopt-a-family project and planning for future neighborhood social activities. Why not come and help to build a stronger neighborhood in which all people can live? All people who live or own property in the neighborhood are encouraged to attend. For more information, contact any member of the association's Leadership Team: Maxine Bond (301) 689-5464; Lois Deasy (301) 689-8082; or Eleanor Miller (301) 689-3572.

'Toxic Terror' Subject of Lecture

The Western Maryland chapter of the American Chemical Society will present a public lecture on "Toxicological Chemistry and Toxic Terror" featuring guest speaker and chemistry professor Stanley Manahan at 7:15 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12, at the Ponderosa Steakhouse, 12107 Winchester Road in LaVale. The talk is free and open to the public. Participants are invited to meet at 6:30 p.m. prior to the presentation for dinner at the restaurant.

Toxicology is concerned with the effect of poisons upon living organisms. The talk will focus on information about toxic substances in the environment, basic toxicology, toxicological chemistry as a specific discipline and various chemical classes of toxic substances. The role of toxicological chemistry in dealing with terrorist threats will also be part of the lecture.

Manahan is a professor of chemistry at the University of Missouri-Columbia. His primary research and professional activities have been in environmental chemistry, with recent emphasis on hazardous waste treatment.

For information on the event and to register to attend the dinner, please contact Don Weser, professor of chemistry at FSU, at x4157, or e-mail dweser@frostburg.edu.

Sierra Student Coalition Meets Weekly

FSU's Sierra Student Coalition is holding weekly meetings at 7:30 p.m. on Thursdays in Lane Center 207. For more information, contact Patrick O'Brien at x7598.

County Accepting Tires, Hazardous Wastes

The Allegany County Solid Waste Management Board will have two recycling events this month on Saturday, Oct. 21, and Saturday, Oct. 28. From 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Oct. 21, Allegany county residents can get rid of old scrap tires of any size free of charge at the Allegany Fairgrounds, 11400 Moss Ave., Cumberland. You can drop off 10 tires per vehicle, and there is only one visit per resident and vehicle. Commercial vehicles and business tires are prohibited. Only passenger and light truck tires and off-rim tires will be accepted.

There will be a household hazardous waste day from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Oct. 28, at the Allegany County Office Complex, 701 Kelly Road, Cumberland. Hazardous wastes include: household chemicals used in cleaning and gardening; gas mixtures; pool chemicals; pesticides; insecticides; dry-cell batteries (flashlights) and mercury thermometers. Residents are asked not to bring paint, ammunition, explosives, radioactive materials or poisonous gas compounds. Paint, once dried, can be disposed of in the landfill and will not be accepted. This event is free to all Allegany county residents only. By law, businesses cannot participate.

For more information on the drop-off day, call (301) 777-5933 x210. The household hazardous waste day is sponsored by Allegany County Commissioners, Solid Waste Management Board. For more information, call (301) 759-5045.

Volunteers

Walk a Fund-raiser for Education

The tri-state chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, a professional education organization, is sponsoring a Walk for Education October 18 on the FSU campus. Allegany County Teachers Association and the Maryland Student Education Association are co-sponsoring the event. The groups are raising money for Educational Out-Reach programs (Toys for Happiness and After School Programs). Folks who plan to walk should meet at 7:25 p.m. in the Framptom Hall parking lot. A short course around the campus is planned, with entertainment as well as refreshments following the walk. It will be a great opportunity to greet fellow educators and make new friends.

Each person walking is encouraged to raise funds by asking friends and family to make donations. Phi Delta Kappa's goal is $50.00 per person or per team, but to be realistic, the group welcomes all funds! T-shirts will be available for top teams and/or individual earners. For more info, call Joyce Wheaton, professor of educational professions, at x4362, or e-mail jwheaton@frostburg.edu.

Oct. 15: Study Abroad Scholarship Deadline

Students who are applying to, or have been accepted to, a study abroad program for either the intersession or spring semester 2007 are invited to submit an application for a CIE scholarship. Students must have a 3.0 GPA or higher and be matriculating students at the time of their overseas study, planning to return to FSU. Scholarships are awarded in the amounts of $500 and

$1,000, and are based on merit, financial need and quality of application. Scholarship applications and more information about other study abroad scholarships are available from either the CIE office or the Web site: www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/fin-schol.htm

CEA Spring Scholarship Deadline Extended

Cultural Experiences Abroad has decided to extend its scholarship deadline until Oct. 15 to allow students ample time to complete their scholarship applications and to maximize their potential scholarship award money. Eligible students who have been accepted to CEA programs are encouraged to apply. Likewise, as affiliated partners, you have special scholarship options. Contact Bill Hartley, Sr. Regional Consultant, to ask any questions about scholarships or available CEA programs. For more information, visit www.GoWithCEA.com

Oct. 20 Deadline for Md. Study Abroad Scholarship

The Maryland International Education Association (MIEA) Fall Scholarship deadline is Friday, Oct. 20. In order for students to qualify for this merit-based scholarship, they must have at least a 3.2 GPA. The application is an interactive document which can be found at the following link:

Weekly Info Sessions for Study Abroad

All students are welcome to attend a general information meeting on study abroad options at FSU held each week. The meetings take place at the CIE in the Fuller House on Wednesday afternoons at 4 p.m. For more information, contact the CIE at x4714.

Intercession in New Zealand and Australia

FSU affiliate, AustralLearn (www.australearn.org), is introducing two new short-term programs for January 2007. Leadership Development will be offered the first three weeks of January in the north island of New Zealand. Cultural Studies will be held in various locations in Australia January 3-24. Both programs provide students with field excursions, practical experience, and transfer credit. Deadline for applying is Nov. 1.

Spend a Semester in Cyprus

FSU students can take advantage of a new affiliation with Global Learning Semesters (GLS), an organization that specializes in programs for students interested in learning about politics, business and cultural studies in Europe. The semester program in Cyprus is one of the most reasonably priced study abroad programs available. Students pay $7,650 for all program costs except meals and airfare. Scholarships are available, and all financial aid will transfer. Visit the GLS Web site at www.globalsemesters.com/program/Semcyprus/semcyprus1.html.
