FSU Presents Draft Strategic Plan

FSU's Strategic Planning Team will seek public input on FSU's Draft Strategic Plan on Monday, Dec. 1, and Tuesday, Dec. 2, in the Leake Room of the Cordts PE Center. The draft plan will be presented at 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 1.

Members of the FSU community, and others with an interest in the University, are invited to participate in a Planning Charrette, which is a final collaborative effort to obtain stakeholder input, anytime from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Dec. 2. Participants are encouraged to socialize, tour the steps of the planning process, discuss aspects of the draft plan and provide valuable input for the final Strategic Plan. The key elements of the Strategic Plan that will be presented include environmental analysis and planning assumptions, vision, mission, core values, master goals, themes, strategic directions, key performance indicators and potential action items. FSU Planning Units will learn how they can shape the final Strategic Plan. The team will also provide recommendations for long-term strategic management at FSU. Refreshments will be provided.

President Jonathan Gibraltar encouraged constituents to become involved in the planning process. "I have been extremely pleased with the collegiality and openness that has existed on the Strategic Planning Team. The group has worked for over a year and a half to develop a focused, strategic plan to move Frostburg State University into a strong and confident future. It is now time for faculty, staff, students, the local community and other stakeholders to react to the draft plan, and I hope everyone will take the time to honor the hard work of the Strategic Planning Team by becoming involved," Gibraltar said.

The Strategic Planning Team has been meeting since the fall of 2007 under the leadership of Dr. Danny Arnold, Dean of the College of Business, and Dr. Amit Shah, Professor of Management.

Those interested in previewing the Draft Strategic Plan before Dec. 1 may visit www.frostburg.edu/splanning.

FSU Dance Alums Return for Winter Dance Concert

The Department of Theatre and Dance at FSU will present the Winter Dance Concert on Friday, Dec. 5, and Saturday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center.

Featuring an array of styles from jazz and contemporary to hip-hop and musical theatre, the evening will highlight original choreography by FSU alums Nicole Frost, Kelley Jones and Jamie McGreevy, who is also serving as Dance Company Director. Additional pieces created by hip-hop choreographer Nicki Bailey and FSU Dance Company members will also be featured in the concert.

In addition to choreographing a modern duet to Colbie Caillat's "Magic," Nicole Frost will return to the Drama Theatre stage to perform a modern/contemporary piece titled "My Grandmother: My Angel" to music by Blessed Union of Souls. Frost, whose work has been featured in Paris and numerous parts of the U.S., holds her master's degree in performing arts, with a focus in dance education, from American University.

Director Jamie McGreevy will present two new pieces: one lyrical contemporary piece to "Slow Me Down" by Emmy Rossum and a modern jazz dance to "VooDoo" by the Massachusetts rock sensation, Godsmack. McGreevy holds a bachelor's degree in dance from FSU and has been dancing under the instruction of Frostburg Dance Academy for 22 years, where she also teaches. Audiences will also not want to miss Nicki Bailey's hip-hop jam to a mix of today's hottest songs, or a new contemporary work by Kelley Jones.

Tickets to the Winter Dance Concert are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. For reservations and information, please call the theatre box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

THIS WEEK

THURSDAY:

FSU Percussion Ensemble

Theatre

When Tragedy and Comedy Combine

FSU Theatre's Second Stage series will present the dark comedy "Recent Tragic Events" by Craig Wright on Thursday, Dec. 11, and Friday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith

Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

The scene is Sept. 12, 2001; the setting is the Minneapolis apartment of Waverly, a young advertising executive. Soon to venture on a blind date amid the media coverage of the 9/11 attacks, Waverly can't get through to her sister, Wendy, who may or may not have been in lower Manhattan at the World Trade Center. As the evening unfolds, she and her date, Andrew, discover a succession of connections to each other while her crazed-musician neighbor Ron and his girlfriend Nancy come over for pizza and to watch "Attack on America." Her great aunt, who is stranded at the airport and happens to be noted author Joyce Carol Oates, also drops in, bringing yet another startling perception of the day's events.

A simultaneously tragic, funny and serious take on the aftermath of 9/11,

"Recent Tragic Events" was among many in a series of plays written during the aftermath of 9/11.

For reservations and information, call the theatre box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. All tickets are $6.

Take Note

Forum on China Initiative

There will be a university-wide forum about FSU's China Initiative Wednesday, Dec. 10, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Lane Center ARMAH, Room 142. The purpose of the event is to communicate to the campus community what FSU is accomplishing in China and how FSU's work there is expanding opportunities in international education.

The panelists are Dr. Jonathan Gibraltar, President; Dr. John Bowman, Vice Provost; Dr. Henry Bullamore, Professor, Geography Department; Dr. Karen Soderberg-Sarnaker, Professor, Music Department; and Dr. Ken Witmer, Dean, College of Education. A PowerPoint of select images will be shown while the panelists talk about their respective China experiences and answer questions.

The forum is open to students, faculty and staff.

President's Holiday Reception

The Annual Holiday Reception will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 17, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Lobby. Faculty and staff are cordially invited to attend!

Environmental Photography Contest

The sixth Environmental Photography Contest sponsored by the Environmental Planning and Land Management Institute will begin accepting photographs on Friday, Jan. 2. If you work, live or attend school in Allegany or Garrett County, you are eligible to enter.

Last year, the contest awarded over $1,200 in cash, prizes and gifts to the winners. The theme of the contest is portraying the beauty and an appreciation of the Western Maryland environment. For more information concerning the contest, go to the Environmental Planning and Land Management Web site at www.frostburg.edu/dept/geog/einstitute/.

Intersession 2009

Take a course online or on campus during your winter break: Monday, Jan. 5, through Friday, Jan. 23.

Registration extends through Tuesday, Jan. 6.

Late fees are applied after Friday, Dec. 12.

For more information on specific course offerings, visit the Web site at www.frostburg.edu/intersession.

FSU, Frostburg Will Present Daylong Storybook Holiday

The City of Frostburg will again be transformed into a holiday winter wonderland, as the FSU Children's Literature Centre and Frostburg First come together to present the fifth annual Frostburg's Storybook Holiday, a daylong event of seasonal family activities, on Saturday, Dec. 6, running from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The opening celebration will occur at Failing's Historic Hotel Gunter on Main Street, where guests can enjoy "Breakfast With the Elves" for $5 a person at 8:30 or 9:15 a.m. The second annual Elf Olympics will begin at 9 a.m., followed by a performance from the Frostburg Dance Academy. The Frostburg Masonic Lodge will sponsor the Storybook Holiday Parade that will roll down Main Street at 10 a.m., ending with a 1K Jingle Run.

Restaurants will feature special holiday offerings, and showcase windows will display decorations created by local school children who were inspired by children's holiday stories.

The sidewalks of Frostburg will feature carolers and wandering elves, and Frostburg's City Place, located on Water Street, will host a variety of activities throughout the day, including free carriage rides from noon until 4 p.m. From 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. children may visit the "Elves Secret Workshop," and for $1 choose a craft to make and wrap as a "secret" gift. They may also visit the "Letter to Santa" station, where they can write and mail their letter to the North Pole. Children will also have the opportunity to have their picture taken with an elf for $2. During the same time, vendors will be selling various crafts and artwork, and lumps of coal will be available for $1 as a gift for that "special someone." Also, Daniel Kirk, author of "Library Mouse,"

"Snow Dude" and "Snow Families" will be at the Frostburg Community Library at noon to give a presentation. In addition to the presentation, visitors can come to City Place from 2 to 3 p.m. to purchase one of Kirk's books and have it autographed.

Take the time for holiday storybook readings at 1 p.m. at Main Street Books, Hotel Gunter, the Bobcat Store or Frostburg Community Library. Drawings for a free book will be held at all locations. Also, from 1 to 3 p.m. the Soroptomist Holiday Auction will take place at the Community Center. Once again, the Hotel Gunter will house the annual "Mountain City Cookies Contest," starting at 1 p.m.

The celebration will conclude with the lighting of the city Christmas tree at 6:30 p.m. Cookies, cocoa and a visit from Saint Nick will be part of the holiday program presented at City Place at 6:30 p.m. as well. The Palace Theatre will host an 8 p.m. showing of the 1983 holiday classic, "A Christmas Story." Tickets are $5 and are on sale at Main Street Books and the Children's Literature Centre at FSU.

For more information, contact the Children's Literature Centre at x3133 or clc@frostburg.edu.

The Elf Olympics will kick off a day of holiday storybook-themed events in downtown Frostburg on Dec. 6, as the FSU Children's Literature Centre and Frostburg First again host Frostburg's Storybook Holiday.

Calling All Bakers!

Enter your best holiday cookie in the Mountain City Cookie Contest, held as part of the Frostburg Storybook Holiday event on Saturday, Dec. 6. Cookie tastings and a free cookie-decorating activity will be held at the Gunter Hotel from 1 to 3 p.m.

Three awards will be given this year: Mountain City, People's Choice and Kid's Choice. The Mountain City winner will be determined by a panel of community judges. The People's Choice and Kid's Choice winners will be determined by the general public. For more information and an entry form, contact Jodi Welsch at x3096 or jwelsch@frostburg.edu.

Diehl Hall Renovations to Begin in December

Beginning Monday, Dec. 22, Diehl Hall will undergo extensive renovation of all bathrooms, student rooms and common areas. Similar to the scope of last year's renovations in Sowers Hall, this project will run through intersession and spring semester, with the hall scheduled to reopen in summer 2009.

Diehl Hall students will be displaced from their current rooms for the spring semester, and they will be given the opportunity to select another space on campus. Every effort will be made to assign students to a hall of their choice, and with a roommate of their choice; this includes the effort to place students with their current roommate(s) in an empty room. To make this possible, residents of other halls who do not have roommates will be required to consolidate with other such residents. All room changes will be completed before students leave for the winter break in December.

Students with concerns are encouraged to speak with their hall staff or contact the Residence Life Office at x4121.

News for Grad Students

MBA Applicants for Spring 2009

The MBA program requires that entering students complete the GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) or the GRE (Graduate Record Examination). GRE testing registration information is available through the Educational Testing Services Web site at www.ets.org or by calling x7990. For information about the GMAT, visit www.gmac.com/gmac. GRE and Praxis are both administered at the FSU testing center.

Planning to Graduate on Dec. 20?

The 132nd Commencement Ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 20, in the Harold J. Cordts Physical Education Center. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will hold its service at 10 a.m., while the College of Business and College of Education will present their graduates at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

There have been two mailings with commencement information sent to home and local addresses. These mailings are also posted on the Commencement Web site under "Information and Resources for Graduates."

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost to all graduates and may be picked up in the Bookstore. They will also be available in the auxiliary gym immediately before and after graduation rehearsal in the Cordts PE Center Main Arena on Friday, Dec. 19, at 4 p.m.

Full details about Commencement are on the University's Web site. Click on the Commencement icon in the bottom right corner of the homepage.

If you have any other questions about Commencement, please contact Brittini Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Points of Pride Board of Regents' USM Staff Awards

Nominations Being Accepted

The Council of University System Staff (CUSS) is again accepting nominations for the Board of Regents' University System of Maryland Staff Awards. These staff awards represent the highest honor bestowed by the Regents for achievements of exempt and nonexempt employees from USM institutions, and are presented to staff members who have demonstrated excellence in one of the following categories: (1) contribution to the institution and/or unit to which the person belongs, (2) service to students in an academic or residential environment or (3) public service to the university or to the greater community. Two employees are recognized in each category – one exempt and one nonexempt – for a total of six awards.

Nominations are first considered at an institutional level before being forwarded to the CUSS Awards Review Committee for final selection. An internal Staff Awards Review Committee made up of the following employees will select nominees from FSU:

- Kelly Durst, Office of Human Resources, x7487, kdurst@frostburg.edu
- Nancy Frost, Ort Library, x3058, nfrost@frostburg.edu
- Jay Hegeman, Student and Educational Services, x4738, jhegeman@frostburg.edu
- Jesse Ketterman, Student and Educational Services, x4311, jketterman@frostburg.edu
- Patrick McLane, Physical Plant, pmclane@frostburg.edu

Please contact any of these Committee members with the name of a potential candidate and why you believe that staff member to be worthy of an award nomination. The Committee members then will work with you to complete a competitive nomination packet. Nomination reviews will begin in mid-December, with FSU's selected nominees submitted to the CUSS Committee in early January.

Get Involved Pre-professional Med Society Hosts Holiday Blood Drive

It is that time of the year again: a season for love and thankfulness!

What would be better than to give someone the gift of life? FSU's Pre-professional Medical Society will be hosting this semester's second blood drive Tuesday, Dec. 2, at FSU's Lane Center in the ARMAH. The American Red Cross will begin taking blood at 10 a.m., and appointments and/or walk-in donors will be accepted through 4 p.m.

Appointments can be made on the second floor of Compton as well as the main lobby of the Lane Center. The appointment date is Monday, Dec. 1, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The society has a goal of obtaining 120 units of blood. There will also be the possibility at this blood drive to give single or double units. Some highly needed types of blood are types O+, O-, B- and A- but all types are gratefully accepted. Don't forget to bring your punch card if you have one. So come on down and give the greatest gift possible this holiday season! E-mail Mary Mumper at mmumper2@frostburg.edu as an alternate way to set up an appointment.

United Campus Ministry

True North – True North returns Sunday, Dec. 7, at 6 p.m. in the Lane Center, Room 140. This week the scripture conversation text is Mark 9:2-10, and the theme is "We don't have to be afraid to approach God." Dinner is free with ID. If you want to know more, contact Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott, Protestant Chaplain, at x7490 or e-mail c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

Heifer Ark of Animals Project – Interested in doing something about world hunger and economic independence for those living in hunger around the world? We are looking for students to help with a Heifer Ark of Animals project, Wednesday, Dec. 3, through Saturday, Dec. 6 - Multiple time slots are open. If you are interested in getting more information about the December project or other ways to purchase animals, please call the Protestant Chaplain's office at x7490 or e-mail c.zirlott@frostburg.edu. Or just drop by the office at Room 114, Sand Spring Hall. Chaplain Cindy will be glad to help you get involved in changing the world one family at a time.

Workday at Western Maryland Food Bank – Another Hunger project opportunity, Tuesday, Dec. 2, 5 to 6 p.m. We will meet at Sand Spring Hall to carpool to Cumberland. Free dinner after our work at the Food Bank. Please call or e-mail your intention to come for this service project.

Christian Meditation and Contemplative Prayer – Wednesdays, 12:10 to 12:45 p.m. and/or 5:15 to 5:50 p.m., Sand Spring Hall, Room 114. If you are interested in learning to practice various Christian Meditation or Contemplative

Prayer methods in small groups, two opportunities are available – a lunch meditative prayer break or after-work transition. Mark your calendars for Dec. 3 and

Dec. 10. This group experience is open to students, faculty and staff. Various Christian meditation methods will be introduced and used. Brief introductory instructions will be given, but the focus will always be on the practice of Christian meditation.

Christmas Caroling – Christmas caroling can be so much fun, and it can bring a sense of holiday spirit to the residents of Frostburg Village Nursing Care Center. UCM and CCM will be Christmas caroling, Tuesday, Dec. 9, at 5 p.m. If you would like to brighten the season for these residents and join us for cookies and hot chocolate afterward, please e-mail Dr. Zirlott with your plans to join us at c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

Catholic Campus Ministry

On Tuesday, Dec. 2, starting at 7:30 p.m., CCM will bake cookies and decorate the Osborne Newman Center for Christmas.

Advent Weekday Mass will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Osborne Newman Center.

On the Radio

Poet Stephen Dunn on 'Dialogues'

Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Stephen Dunn will be the featured guest for the latest edition of the "Dialogues" interview program on WFWM 91.9 FM, Public Radio from FSU. This edition of "Dialogues" will air on Thursday, Dec. 4., at 6:10 p.m.

Dunn is the author of 16 books, including "Different Hours," which won the 2001 Pulitzer Prize for poetry. Since 1974, he has taught at Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, where he is Distinguished Professor of Creative Writing. He has also been a Visiting Professor at the University of Washington, New York University, Columbia and the University of Michigan. In addition to his books, his work has appeared in "The Atlantic," "The Nation," the "New Republic," the "New Yorker," the "Georgia Review," and the "American Poetry Review," to name just a few.

Dialogues is hosted by Dr. Keith Schlegel, Professor Emeritus of the Department of English, and presents conversations with persons of note on significant topics of local, national or international interest. It is recorded and produced in the studios of WFWM Public Radio.

For questions, comments or suggestions regarding "Dialogues" or any other WFWM programming, please call x4143. To receive up-to-date information on programming at WFWM Public Radio, including notification of special programs, e-mail wfw2@frostburg.edu. WFWM can be heard at 91.9 FM, Frostburg, and 96.3 FM, Oakland.

Driving Safety Tips for Winter

Slow down, reduce your speed and follow the speed limits.

Use these three good-driving safety tips in bad weather!

Winter won't technically be here for another month, but the weather we associate with it has already arrived. That means it's time to slow down and use caution when driving on roads that may be snowy or icy. AAA Mid-Atlantic offers some tips for surviving on wintry roads:

- Clear any snow or ice from all windows, mirrors, lights, hood, roof and trunk of your vehicle.
 - Drive with your headlights on (old or newer vehicles).
 - Keep a shovel and some rock salt, sand or kitty litter in the car in case you need to get unstuck from the snow or ice.
 - Slow down - Stopping distances are longer in snowy and icy conditions than on dry roads. Increase your following distance.
 - If you have an antilock braking system, keep the pedal depressed and do not pump the brakes. If you do not have antilock brakes, pump the brakes gently at a rapid pace.
 - If you skid on a slick surface, keep your composure and do not panic. Take your foot off the brake or accelerator and steer into the direction the vehicle is traveling to gain traction. When you accelerate, do so slowly.
 - Use extra caution on bridges and overpasses - They freeze first and melt last.
 - Drive in cleared lanes - Changing lanes unnecessarily puts you at greater risk of hitting a patch of ice between lanes that may cause you to lose control of the vehicle. Also avoid passing snowplows or salt trucks unless it is absolutely necessary.
 - Never use cruise control on slick roads (snow or ice covered).
- Four-wheel-drive vehicles are great for initial traction and avoiding getting stuck, but when moving, they have the same difficulty keeping control and stopping as other vehicles.
- Have a safe trip coming and going from your place of work!
