Welcome Back to the 'Burg!

Letter From President Gibraltar About the Flu

Dear students, faculty, staff and parents,

As you may know, flu can be spread easily from person to person – both seasonal flu and the new strain of H1N1 “swine” flu, which is infecting children and young adults more frequently. Therefore, we are taking steps to prevent the spread of flu at FSU for as long as possible, but we need your help to accomplish this.

We are working closely with the Allegany County Health Department to monitor flu conditions and make decisions about the best steps to take concerning our institution. We will keep you updated with new information as it becomes available.

For now, we are doing everything we can to keep our institution operating as usual. Here are a few things you can do to help:

Practice good hand hygiene by washing your hands with soap and water, especially after coughing or sneezing. Alcohol-based hand cleaners also are effective. Hand-sanitizer dispensers are being added to a number of public areas on campus, and soap dispensers and paper towel dispensers have been added to residence hall bathrooms.

Practice respiratory etiquette by covering your mouth and nose with a tissue when you cough or sneeze. If you don't have a tissue, cough or sneeze into your elbow or shoulder, not into your hands. Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth; germs are spread this way.

Know the signs and symptoms of the flu. A fever is a temperature taken with a thermometer that is equal to or greater than 100 degrees Fahrenheit or 38 degrees Celsius. Look for possible signs of fever: if the person feels very warm, has a flushed appearance or is sweating or shivering. Along with the fever, respiratory symptoms such as a sore throat or cough will commonly occur.

Stay home if you have the flu or a flu-like illness for at least 24 hours after you no longer have a or signs of a fever. This should be determined

Block Party!

The annual Welcome Back Block Party on Main Street in Frostburg will be on Wednesday, Sept. 9, from 6 to 9 p.m. The Block Party is a combined effort of the Frostburg Business and Professionals Association, the City of Frostburg and FSU. Events highlighted this year include games, the Western Maryland Chili Challenge and a pepper-eating contest. Shuttle services will run between Edgewood Commons, the Annapolis Lot, College Avenue Lot and Broadway.

Opportunities are still available to set up an information table. Groups representing FSU should contact Robert Cooper at mcoper@frostburg.edu. Groups not affiliated with FSU should contact Brian Vought at bvought@allconet.org.

CES Announces Exciting Season

The Best in Music, Theatre, Dance Coming to Western Maryland

Ensemble Galilei, Sept. 13

Once again, the FSU Cultural Events Series is bringing an exciting season of entertainment – music, theatre and dance – to Western Maryland's backyard. Performances range from Broadway-caliber productions, Grammy award-winning performers, international singing and dancing sensations to an American Idol or two. With 13 acts, the 2009-2010 FSU Cultural Events Series promises to bring top-notch and affordable entertainment to the tri-state region. It's the best of Broadway, world-class jazz, international music and high-energy performances.

FSU's two performance series, the Main Stage Series and the CES Jazz Club, along with some special events, provide the opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy quality performances at an affordable price and in easy-access venues.

The CES seasons starts with the music, poetry and breathtaking visuals of Ensemble Galilei's "Universe of Dreams" on Sunday, Sept. 13, 7:30 p.m., in FSU's Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall "They play with energy, splendid ensemble, good humor and imagination," wrote The Washington Post. The renowned Celtic/early music crossover group, along with Neal Conan, host of the popular NPR program "Talk of the Nation," and a backdrop featuring amazing celestial images captured from the Hubble Telescope will present a show blending both sight and sound, resulting in a powerful and sometimes spiritual event.

Experience the rich, meaningful music of the Kentucky Mountains as folk music sensation Jean Ritchie and Sons present the capstone performance of FSU's Appalachian Festival. The trio will perform at the Palace Theatre, Main Street, Frostburg, on Saturday, Sept. 19, at 8 p.m., the final event of the two-day cultural and educational festival.

World-class jazz violinist Regina Carter and her quintet bring their unique sounds to the CES Jazz Club on Thursday, Oct. 1, at 7:30 p.m. The first event in the CES Jazz Club, Carter and her quintet will bring music to life at the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall in FSU's Lane University Center; the event will include a Jazz Supper Club option.

Family Weekend at FSU brings three fun-filled days of events, culminating in a concert by country music singing sensation Sara Evans on Saturday, Oct. 3. The Sara Evans concert will be held in the Main Arena of FSU's Cordts Physical Education Center at 8 p.m.

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra, led by the highly regarded music director and conductor Elizabeth Schulze, returns to the Pealer Recital Hall on Friday, Oct. 9, at 8 p.m.

"Thank You, Gregory!" will dance across the Drama Theatre stage in the FSU Performing Arts Center on Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

without the use of fever-reducing medications (any medicine that contains ibuprofen or acetaminophen).

Don't go to class or work.

Talk with your health care providers about whether you should be vaccinated for seasonal flu. Brady Health will offer three clinics for seasonal flu in September, one for students only on Sept. 2 from 2 to 5 p.m.; and two for students, faculty and staff on Sept. 8 from 2 to 5 p.m. and Sept. 14 from 8 to 10 a.m. The cost is $20 for the flu shot and $25 for FluMist, payable by cash, check or Bobcat Express.

If you are at higher risk for flu complications from 2009 H1N1 flu, you should consider getting the H1N1 vaccine when it becomes available. People at higher risk for 2009 H1N1 flu complications include pregnant women and people with chronic medical conditions (such as asthma, heart disease or diabetes). Youth aged 24 and younger are also in the priority group. For more info about priority groups for vaccination, visit www.cdc.gov/hiniflu/vaccination/acip.htm.

Be part of the solution. This flu season will require more-than-average cooperation and care for one another. Students, consider delivering meals to room-bound friends or allowing a healthy friend with a sick roommate to crash at your place for a while. Parents, if your child gets sick, consider bringing them home to recuperate. Faculty and staff, look at your policies and see if they can be adjusted to reduce the spread of the flu, such as allowing students to submit assignments via Blackboard.

Parents, if your child is involved in a study-abroad program, keep in touch with the Center for International Education at x4714 or vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Students and parents both can get more info by visiting www.cdc.gov/travel.

If this year's flu season becomes more severe, we may take additional steps to prevent the spread of the virus. We will pass that information along as it becomes available.

For more info about flu in our community and what our institution is doing, check the Brady Health Alert link on the front page of the FSU Web site, or call Brady Health at x4310.

For the most up-to-date info on flu, visit www.flu.gov, or call 1-800-CDC-INFO (232-4636).

We will notify you by e-mail, StateLines, Blackboard and the front page of the Web site of any additional changes to our institution's strategy to prevent the spread of flu on our campus.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Gibraltar

The Montana Repertory Theatre presents Harper Lee's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, "To Kill A Mockingbird," at Frostburg's Mountain Ridge High School on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p.m.

"American Idol" brings its excitement to FSU on Sunday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall, Lane University Center.

"Cabaret," the musical preview presented with Windwood Theatricals Inc., brings the Kit Kat Club and its singer Sally Bowles to the FSU Drama Theatre stage on Friday, Jan. 15, at 8 p.m. and Saturday, Jan. 16, at 3 and 8 p.m.

"Druid: Featuring The Irish Tenors," comes to the FSU Pealer Recital Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

"Streb: RAW" will be Wednesday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the FSU Drama Theatre.

Cuban clarinetist and saxophone master Paquito D'Rivera and his quintet will perform Friday, April 9, at 8 p.m. in Windsor Hall at Town Centre, Downtown Cumberland.

New this season, the Pre-Performance Dinner Club offers an opportunity to add the Dinner Club to your ticket purchase for selected events. Pre-performance dinners are available for Ensemble Galilei "Universe of Dreams," Sept. 13; Maryland Symphony Orchestra, Oct. 9; and "Thank You, Gregory!" on Nov. 4. The dinners may be purchased individually or as a season package. Dinner Club meals include soup or salad, entrée with side dishes, dessert and coffee or iced tea. A cash bar is available throughout dinner. Dinner will be served in the Lane University Center in a private restaurant setting.

Tickets are available beginning at 9 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 24. Ticket packages and discounts are available, including the Build Your Own Series for those planning on attending several events throughout the year; Corporate Nights offering group pricing, priority seating and personalized service; and Group Sales with special rates for purchases of 15 or more tickets for a single performance. Tickets may be ordered by calling 1-866-849-9237 or 301-687-3137 or by visiting <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

'Two Gentlemen of Verona' Coming to FSU

FSU's Department of English will host the Cambridge American Stage Tour presentation of Shakespeare's "Two Gentlemen of Verona" on Wednesday, Sept. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall.

One of Shakespeare's early comedies, "Two Gentlemen of Verona" tells the story of Proteus, Valentine and their affections for Julia and Silvia. Over the course of the play, the meandering journeys of these lovers bring them into contact with several servants, two clowns, three forest-dwelling outlaws and a small dog. Above all, "Two Gentlemen of Verona" is a charming and carefree story about the universal experience of being young, confused and in love.

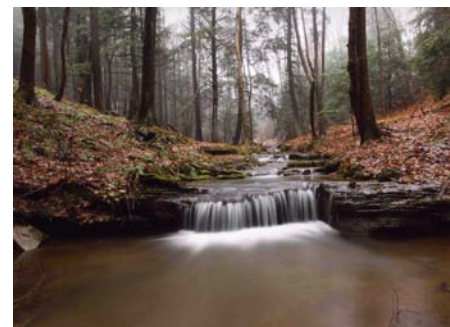

Founded in 2000, CAST is proud to be celebrating its 10th Anniversary Tour and continues to present Shakespeare with the finest talent from Cambridge University in England. This production, like the others before it, is directed and produced entirely by members of the Cambridge student body.

Ticket prices are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. For information or reservations, call x4145. For CAST information, visit www.castonline.org.

Winners Named in Photography Contest at FSU

James Holwager was the winner of the recent Environmental Photography Contest sponsored by the Environmental Planning and Land Management Institute at Frostburg State University. Holwager's photo was titled "Savage River Scene, Garrett County, Maryland." The theme of the contest was the environmental beauty of Western Maryland.

The awards ceremony was held April 23 in the Compton Science Center at FSU, a wonderful cap to the University's Earth Week. Over $1,000 in gifts, cash and certificates were awarded to the winners who included

Zach Quasny, second place; Josh Trott, third place; Wesley Gordon, honorable mention; Marcia Warnick, people's choice award; Nancy Frost, first place macro photography; and Connie Garlitz, honorable mention photography. The top 20 finalists also included Anna Marie Bowman, Dana Hannibal, Leaha Helmstetter, Tamela Hitchins, Ruth Johnson, Lori Krumpach, Wayne Lewis, Nicholas Pratt, MaryJo Price, Rosetta Resh, Rose Trimper, Amanda Truly and Erik Wood.

The contest was open to amateur photographers over age 11 that live, work or attend school in Allegany or Garrett County. Photos were of an environmental or natural habitat scene, especially those that depicted an interpretation of the natural environment that defines Western Maryland.

The Seventh Environmental Photography Contest will begin Jan. 1, 2010.

The Environmental Planning and Land Management Institute is a cooperative effort of the FSU Department of Geography and the Maryland Bureau of Mines, Maryland Department of the Environment. The cooperative effort between the FSU Department of Geography and the Maryland Bureau of Mines, MDE, began in 1983 and the Institute was formed in 1999 at FSU.

For info on the Institute, call x4721 or visit the Community section of the FSU Web site at www.frostburg.edu.

Body-Mapping Exhibit

"Body Mapping," a collection of paintings and drawings, will be on display in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The exhibition will open on Friday, Sept. 11, at 7 p.m. and will run through Sunday, Oct. 4. The gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact Dustin Davis at ddavis@frostburg.edu.

Music

'Live at the Depot'

WFWM 91.9 FM, Public Radio from FSU, in cooperation with the Western Maryland Scenic Railroad, will present "Live at the Depot," a series of live old-time radio shows at the historic Old Depot in Frostburg. The shows will feature 15-minute performances by local roots music bands and musicians. Chuck Dicken, WFWM station director, will serve as emcee. The performances will be recorded by WFWM for broadcast on the station at a later date. The Mass Communication Department will also videotape each show for use on the WFWM Web site and for possible television play.

"Live at the Depot" will take place each Friday in September between 12:30 to 2 p.m., while the Scenic Railroad's train is at the depot. Train passengers and the general public are invited to attend the recordings for free. New musicians participating in this year's "Live at the Depot" include 11-year-old fiddler Hanna Livingston from Frostburg, old-time Appalachian musicians Fritz Kessler and Jason Twigg and Amy Fabbri and Amanda Barger, as well as Bear Hill Bluegrass from Moorefield, W.Va. Returning performers include Highland Grass, Short Mountain String Band, Black Diamond and Greg Latta. The "Live at the Depot" shows are supported in part by the Allegany Arts Council and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. For info, call x4143. To receive up-to-date information on programming at WFWM, including notification of special programs, e-mail wfwfm2@frostburg.edu. WFWM can be heard at 91.9 FM, Frostburg and 96.3 FM, Oakland.

The schedule is as follows:

- Sept. 4: Short Mountain String Band (Old-Time Appalachian)
Black Diamond (Bluegrass)
- Sept. 11: Fritz Kessler & Jason Twigg (Old-Time Appalachian)
Hanna Livingston (Old-Time Fiddle)
- Sept. 18: Highland Grass (Bluegrass)
Bear Hill Bluegrass (Bluegrass)
- Sept. 25: Greg Latta (Folk)
Amy Fabbri & Amanda Barger (Old-Time Appalachian)

Staking Our Claim Days Inn Supports FSU Athletics

Days Inn of Frostburg owner David Patel, left, is thanked by FSU Athletic Director Troy Dell for the support the hotel has offered to FSU athletics over the past year in the form of scores of free and discounted rooms for visitors to Frostburg, serving visiting teams as well as Bobcat parents and fans. This in-kind gift to the Bobcat Club is in support of the FSU Foundation's $15 million comprehensive campaign, Staking Our Claim: The Campaign for Frostburg, supporting student enrichment, academic enrichment and regional and cultural enrichment. Contributions to the Bobcat Club support FSU athletics, which receives no state or tuition funding and is only supported by student fees and private giving. For info, call x4161 or 1-866-241-3296, or visit foundation.frostburg.edu.

Literature

FSU Announces Small and Regional Press Fair

The Center for Creative Writing at FSU in partnership with the Allegany County Library System, announces that the third annual Western Maryland Small and Regional Press Fair will be held Saturday, Sept. 19, from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Washington Street Branch of the Cumberland Library. The event, which features editors, publishers, writers and educators, includes panels on writing and getting published; writing the region; writing, kids, reading and teaching; and blogging and new media publishing. Roundtable discussions with published authors will also help aspiring writers work through practical matters of getting their work on the page. The event ends with a 5 p.m. poetry slam for high school students and a 6:30 p.m. poetry slam for adults. Cash prizes will be given.

Two new panels created for this year's event, "Teachers, Publishers and Students" and "Pick Up That Book – Getting Kids to Want to Read," are designed with educators in mind and may focus on helping to get new literature into the hands of students, or to help teachers and school districts to publish a student literary magazine.

The poetry slams are another new addition to the event. Poets are asked to perform their work to an audience, and their work is scored by a panel of judges. The top contestants of the first round go to a second and sometimes even a third round, and it's not unusual to see poets scribbling a new poem when they are surprised to get to the finals. It's an audience participation event, too. Judges get booed, poets get cheered and cash prizes are given to the top three writers in each category.

The event is free and open to the public. For info, contact the Washington Street Library at 301-777-1200 or the Frostburg Center for Creative Writing at x4024, or visit the center Web site at www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter.

Upcoming Activities

Tuesday, Sept. 1, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.: Mocktails on the Lawn. Come to the Lower Quad for a mocktail served in a souvenir stadium cup. Everyone who comes to the table will walk away with a free gift!

Tuesday, Sept. 8: BURG Barb-B-Que Info Day. Stop by the Lower Quad for a juicy cheeseburger and a mocktail. Learn more about peer education at FSU and how you can be on the team! Grilling is from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Take Note

Important Bookstore Info

Fall 2009 textbooks are available for purchase at the bookstore Web site at <http://bookstore.frostburg.edu> or at the bookstore in the Lane Center. Pickup orders placed for fall are now available at the bookstore side hallway (photo ID required).

Bookstore rush hours are Monday, Aug. 31, through Friday, Sept. 4, from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. The bookstore will be closed Saturday, Sept. 5, through Monday Sept. 7.

The book buyback will be held Wednesday, Sept. 2, and Thursday, Sept. 3, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the bookstore side hallway.

Get Your Flu Shot!

Seasonal flu vaccine clinics will be held Wednesday, Sept. 2, from 2 to 5 p.m. (students only); Tuesday, Sept. 8, from 2 to 5 p.m. (students, faculty and staff); and Monday, Sept. 14, from 8 to 10 a.m. (students, faculty and staff) in the Brady Health Center. (Note: This is the annual seasonal flu vaccine, not the H1N1 vaccine.) The cost is $20 for the flu shot or $25 for FluMist. Accepted method of payment is cash, check or Bobcat Express Card.

Nominations for Staff Awards

One of FSU's goals is to reward outstanding service to the institution. Again this year the FSU Foundation will fund three $500 Staff Awards for Excellence. All FSU exempt/nonexempt staff are eligible to be nominated, whether contractual, full-time or part-time.

Detailed award categories, nomination criteria and nomination forms have been distributed to all employees via campus e-mail. Complete nomination packets will be due no later than 4 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 14. The awards will be presented with Dr. Gibraltar's Fall Convocation. For info, contact Kelly Durst at x7487 or kdurst@frostburg.edu, or Patrick McLane at p.m.clane@frostburg.edu.

Points of Pride

Summer Success With Nanotechnology

Dr. Kasif Teker, Physics and Engineering, and his student, Joseph Oxenham, have developed a novel synthesis technique for making silicon carbide (SiC) nanowires in the FSU Nanotechnology Lab, which has been established through Appalachian Regional Commission funding. SiC nanowires are used for applications in nanoelectronics, field emission devices, nanocomposites, high-temperature sensor applications, etc., due to their excellent mechanical and electrical properties. In addition, SiC nanowires can emit blue-green light, so they have great potential as light-emitting devices. Therefore, developing new synthesis techniques for SiC nanostructures is scientifically and technologically very significant.

For info, contact Teker at x4339 or kteker@frostburg.edu.

Get Involved

Diversity Retreat

FSU students interested in diversity issues can participate in the 11th Annual Diversity Retreat from 4 p.m., Friday, Sept. 11, through 2 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 13. Offered by the Black Student Alliance, the Diversity Center and the President's Advisory Council on Diversity, this year's theme is "Building Community: Got Courage?" The retreat will include workshops on diversity and related activities intended to promote student awareness and empowerment in coalition building and social justice.

Former participants are welcome; however, new students are strongly encouraged to attend. This is an excellent opportunity to spend quality time with students from various cultural, ethnic and racial groups to develop relationships and understandings that reach beyond the surface.

Applications are available at the Lane Information Desk and in the Diversity Center in Hitchins 126. Completed applications must be submitted before Sept. 4. Participation is limited and a selection process is based on information provided in the application. Those selected will be required to complete additional forms to confirm their commitment to attend and participate.

For info, contact Robin Wynder at x4050.

UCM Welcome Events

UCM invites students, faculty and staff to participate in a variety of welcome events.

On Tuesday, Sept. 1, and Wednesday, Sept. 2, find out about UCM at the Welcome Table in the Lane Center. The Welcome Table provides an opportunity to meet the chaplain and peer ministers and get information on all the fall activities UCM sponsors. Also, a sign-up for UCM's small groups will be available at the table for both C-Groups and FCA Huddle Groups.

On Tuesday, Sept. 8, in the Sand Spring Hall front yard (big tent), UCM will kick off its fall programs with a "Pink Panther" movie marathon and picnic. All are welcome to attend and bring a friend. Stay as long as you like or through the last film. Rain contingency plans are to move indoors to Library 237 (down the steps).

On Saturday, Sept. 19, there will be an off-campus study break day trip to DelGrosso's Amusement Park in Tipton, Pa. Rides, go-carts and miniature golf are all included in the $5 registration fee. You are responsible for food and incidentals. Seating is limited and advance registration is required. Registration is available at the UMC Welcome Table in the Lane Center on Sept. 1 and Sept. 2 or at the Welcome Picnic/Movie Night.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Student Job Opening

The Office of Admissions is looking for motivated, reliable and enthusiastic students to represent FSU as a Bobcat ambassador! Students are responsible for assisting at Saturday Open House programs (eight this academic year), giving campus tours, attending Open House meetings and team building/leadership workshops.

For info, contact Julie Rando at x4201 or jrando@frostburg.edu.

Activities for Life

For info and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL coordinator, at x7934 or anazelrod@frostburg.edu. Advance registration is required.

Kundalini Yoga Class

A Kundalini Yoga class will be offered Mondays, Sept. 14 to Oct 19, from 5 to 6 p.m. The classes will be conducted in Corrts 106.

Yoga provides practitioners with experiences of health, flexibility, balance, strength and stamina. Yoga has something to offer regardless of age or abilities.

Students must provide their own mats. A minimum of 10 students is required.

Infant-Toddler, Preschool and Youth Swimming

Infant-toddler, preschool and youth swimming lessons will be offered Mondays and Wednesdays, Sept. 14 to Sept. 30, in the FSU pool. The infant-toddler and preschool lessons will be from 5:30 to 6 p.m., and the youth classes will be from 6 to 6:50 p.m.

The infant-toddler class is for children ages 3 to 36 months and the preschool class is for children 3 and 4 years old. Both classes require parents to be in the water and participate with their children.

The youth swim lessons are for children ages 5 to 12 and are separated into skill levels.

Community

Upcoming AAUW Meeting

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) Frostburg Branch will kick off its 2009-10 business year Tuesday, Sept. 1, at 6 p.m. with a covered dish dinner at the United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall on Main Street in Frostburg.

The meeting will include a presentation by Toni Quesenberry, RN, Western Maryland Health System's stroke care manager. She will discuss signs and symptoms of impending stroke, risk factors and prevention, current best practices and nationally recognized treatments in managing this condition. Also on the agenda is a discussion of AAUW's one-day seminar in October promoting national lobbying efforts.

Members are encouraged to bring a dish to serve 10-12 people. The public is invited to attend but must make reservations. For info, contact Yvonne Beal at 301-689-6849.

Soccer Officials Needed

The local American Youth Soccer Organization is looking for referees. For info, contact Rita Hegeman at x4285 or rhegeman@verizon.net, or Paul Yearling at pry2004@verizon.net.

How to Watch FSU-TV3

FSU-TV3 is on Channel 3 on the Comcast Cable System in Frostburg, Lonaconing and Mt. Savage from 2 to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday. FSU-TV3 is on 24 hours a day on campus for the student and faculty of the University. FSU-TV3's program schedule can be seen on the Web site at www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/pschedule.htm.

Not near a TV when programming is on? FSU-TV3's "Live Online" offers a simulcast of what is airing on the channel. When selecting the Live Online option, mms://fsutv3live.frostburg.edu:8080, a Windows Media Player will open and show what is airing on FSU-TV3. Ninety-five percent of programming is available for simulcast. If a program is not available, Windows Media will not open, or if you are watching a show that is unavailable, Windows Media

Player will shut down the feed until the next program becomes available.

If you missed a show during its regular air time, you can visit the program schedule to see if it is offered as a Video on Demand (VOD) option. If "view" appears below the program title, it is available. Click on "view" and a Windows Media Player will open the television program selected for viewing. Apple users: If you don't have Windows Media Player, you will have to download it from Microsoft and install it before viewing.

If you have questions about how to watch FSU-TV3, log on to www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/watch_programming.htm for further instructions.

Message Board

FSU-TV3 cablecasts an automated educational and community message channel when it is not showing video programming. The message channel provides information about FSU events, non-profit organizations and community events. If you have an activity announcement to advertise on the FSU-TV3 message board, log on to www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/admin-pic/cf_upload.cfm, enter the information and click submit. A graphic or pre-made message can be loaded as well. If possible, submit requests at least one week in advance.

For info, contact Melanie Lombardi at x3011 or mlombardi@frostburg.edu.
