FSU Celebrates Leadership and Homecoming Weekend 2010

FSU will celebrate its past, present and future during Leadership and Homecoming Weekend 2010. Events are scheduled from Thursday, Nov. 4, to Sunday, Nov. 7, including the All-Campus Sing, tailgating, football and a chance to meet Washington Nationals manager and FSU alumnus Jim Riggleman.

The weekend activities begin with the Delta Chi Lip Sync on Thursday, Nov. 4, at 7 p.m. in the Auxiliary Gym of the Cordts PE Center.

The campuswide Career Expo kicks off Friday's events from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Office of Career Services invites alumni to the University to share life experiences and discuss possible career choices with FSU students. For info, contact Donna Sivic at x4403 or dsivic2@frostburg.edu.

The Bobcat Hall of Fame Ceremony and Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Cordts Main Arena, preceded by a cocktail hour beginning at 5 p.m. in the Cordts Hall of Fame Hallway. The ceremony will honor 2010 Hall of Fame inductees Tim Feldman '95, Dr. Bob Lewis, Kara Reed Nelson '98/M'08, Shannon Rexrode '00/'01 and athletic trainer Tony Zaloga. FSU Athletics will also commemorate the 40th Anniversary of the 1970-71 Men's Basketball team. The cost is $30 per person, $15 for children 12 and under.

Come to the All Campus Sing, sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota, on Friday at 8 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall, and check out the dance, instrumental and vocal acts by FSU students. General admission is $3 per person and $2 for anyone wearing the letters of a recognized Greek organization.

Catch up with friends at the Dance Party on Friday from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. in the Cordts Auxiliary Gym. The Dance Party is sponsored by the Student Government Association and the Black Student Alliance.

Saturday, Nov. 6, starts off with the Jim Anderson Memorial Baseball Breakfast at 8:30 a.m. in the Cordts Main Arena. The cost is $20 per person and $10 for children 12 and under.

Also on Saturday is Alumni Registration in the PAC Lobby from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Stop by to get your picture taken, update your address and register for the Bobcat Crawl scheduled for that afternoon. There will also be face painting, balloon artists and caricatures for the kids.

At 10 a.m. there will be a Track and Cross Country Alumni Brunch in the Cordts Leake Room. The cost $15 per person, $8 for children 12 and under.

The Children's Literature Centre will have an open house at 10 a.m. in Framptom 206. Then, at 11:30 a.m., meet Washington Nationals manager and FSU alumnus Jim Riggleman, class of '74, during a Q&A session in Compton 226. Both events are free and open to the public.

Also at 10 a.m. is the Friends of Music Steering Committee Meeting at St. John's Episcopal Church, 52 Broadway, Frostburg. For info, contact Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon at jdixon@frostburg.edu or x4115. The Friends of Music Brunch will also be in the church and will start at 11 a.m.

Get ready for the football game with a tailgating party from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Free parking spaces will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. For a complete list of tailgating rules and regulations, visit alumni. frostburg.edu and click on the "Leadership and Homecoming Weekend" link. Then cheer on the Bobcats during the Bobcat vs. the Apprentice School football game in Bobcat Stadium. The game starts at 1 p.m. and admission is free.

From 11:30 a.m.

to 1 p.m. is the Football Reunion in the tent in Bobcat Stadium. The reunion is $15 per person and $8 for children 12 and under.

The Roper Gallery in the FSU Fine Arts Building will feature the "Clay 20" Exhibition. The exhibit is open Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. and is free and open to the public.

The Black Student Alliance will sponsor a Making Connections and Networking Workshop and Reception on Saturday from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the Cordts Leake Room.

The Bobcat Crawl begins at 5 p.m. on Saturday. Advance registration is required from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the PAC lobby. Experience Frostburg's Main Street – receive a discount when you buy and be entered in a prize drawing.

The always-popular National Pan-Hellenic Council Step Show will be held in the Cordts Main Arena on Saturday at 8 p.m. The cost is $5 for students and $10 for non-students and alumni.

Alumni are welcome to come to the Alumni Association Board of Directors meeting on Sunday, Nov. 7, beginning at 9 a.m. in the Cordts Leake Room, and to join SGA for its Big Event at noon, cleaning up Frostburg's streets.

Advance registration is required for some events. For info, call the Office of Alumni Programs at x4068, e-mail alumni@frostburg.edu or visit www.frostburg.edu/homecoming.

Children's Novel to Take FSU Stage

(Lily) and Andrew Matthews as Jonas (front)

The Second Stage series at FSU will present an adaptation of Lois Lowry's Newberry Medal-winning novel "The Giver" on Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m., with matinee performances on Nov. 13 and 14 at 2 p.m.

In this story, directed by junior theatre major Alex Ferentinos, 12-year-old Jonas lives in a community where everything is the same. Everyone is assigned a mother, a father, a husband, a wife, a sibling. People do not experience pain, color, memory, choice or violence. Everyone is equal and happy.

In a rite of passage, Jonas is apprenticed to a man called The Giver, guardian of the most sacred of Life's gifts – memory. In his new role, Jonas is allowed to see all memories from the time before sameness. As he becomes aware of concepts like joy and color and pain, he realizes that his community was built on dark secrets, which forces him to make some difficult decisions.

Adapted by Eric Coble from the award-winning book by Lois Lowry, "The Giver" is a science fiction adventure about the power of knowledge and the courage it takes to embrace new ideas.

All performances will take place in the Performing Arts Center's F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre. Note that there is no late seating for Theatre and Dance productions.

For reservations and info, contact the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. All tickets are $6.

N Dance

Bayanihan Brings the Philippines to FSU

Bayanihan, the national dance company of the Philippines, will bring its breathtaking show to PAC Pealer Recital Hall

Thursday,

Nov. 11, at 7:30 p.m. The performance is part of the Cultural Events Series at FSU.

Bayanihan takes its name from an ancient Filipino tradition called "bayanihan," which means working together for a common good. Founded in 1957, the company works to educate audiences on the cultural traditions and folklore of the Philippines through dazzling theatrical presentations and traditional music. A nationally and internationally award-winning company, Bayanihan has awakened a new pride among Filipinos in their cultural heritage, added a new dimension to the country's dance tradition and built a rich reserve of international goodwill. Now the company will bring its unique presentation to Mountain Maryland.

The extravagant dances require a combination of precise movement, balance and skill from company members. Everything from the music to the choreography to the lighting to the costumes is intricately planned to show homage and patriotism to the motherland. Entertaining and emotional, it's a cultural experience that transcends borders.

Tickets for the Bayanihan Philippine National Dance Company performance are $20 for adults and $14 for those under 17. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or online at http://ces.frostburg.edu.

25 Artists Presented in 'Clay 20' Exhibition

FSU presents "Clay 20," a show featuring international, national and regional ceramic artists in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the Fine Arts Building.

The show features 25 artists who have presented workshops, demonstrations and lectures in ceramics at FSU over the last 21 years. The show celebrates 21 years of teaching ceramics at FSU for Jacqueline Brown, who curated the show.

In addition to Brown, the exhibition will feature Mark Bell, Josh Brown, Greg Browne, Deana Cohen, Joe Campbell, Barry Carpenter, Jack Doherty, Patrick Faville, Mark Goertzen, Gary (Greeny) Greenberg, Glenn Grishkoff, Linda Lee Kiepke, Ben Krupka, Lynn Lais, Teddy Latta, Dick Lehman, Shane Mickey, Shane Sellers, Lisa Sheirer, Lorie Skidmore, Ron Skidmore, Jason Stakem, Steve Sullivan and Ruthanne Tudball.

The exhibit will be on view until Nov. 7. The Roper Gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact Brown at jbrown@frostburg.edu or call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

F Music

Lagno to Perform Percussion Recital

FSU student Hannah Lagno will perform her senior percussion recital on Sunday, Nov. 7, at 3 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The performance is free and open to the public.

Lagno will perform compositions by Johann Sebastian Bach, Dustin Lowes, Todd Ukena and Gordon Stout. She will be assisted by Gregory Jaeger on drumset.

For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

Presentations Fones-Wolf to Speak on W.Va. Industry

FSU's Department of History welcomes guest speaker Dr. Kenneth Fones-Wolf, who will present "Blowing Glass in the Shape of the World: The Local, National and Global Contexts of West Virginia's Glass Industry" on Thursday, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p.m. in Dunkle 218. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Fones-Wolf's presentation is part of the FSU Department of History's Martha T. and Ralph M. Race Western History Lecture Series. Fones-Wolf is a professor of history and Stuart and Joyce Robbins Chair at West Virginia University. He has authored and edited several books and articles; his more recent book, "Glass Towns," explores the coal industry in the Appalachian region in the 19th century. Currently, Fones-Wolf is researching the intersection of religious and working-class history. He has received the Outstanding Researcher Award from the Eberly College of Arts and Humanities at WVU and WVU's Faculty Senate Research Award.

For info, contact Dr. Paul Charney at x3120.

Geography Awareness Week Presentations

The Department of Geography announces two upcoming presentations in celebration of Geography Awareness Week. Both are hosted by the Frostburg Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon (the student honor society in geography) and the FSU Geography Club. The events are free and open to the public

Dr. Don Zeigler, a professor of geography at Old Dominion University in Virginia Beach, will speak on "Persuasive Cartography and the Power of Place" on Thursday, Nov. 11, at 7 p.m. in Compton 226. Maps are rarely objective portraits of reality. They are often subjectively designed to change opinions, shape politics, alter reality and undermine the truth. Use the information from this presentation to apply your skills in critical thinking to maps of all varieties.

Dr. Bernard Hubbard, a research geologist with the USGS since 2001, will give a talk titled "From Alaska to Afghanistan: USGS Mineral Resource Investigations of Inaccessible Areas Using Spaceborne Remote Sensing Imagery" on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 6 p.m. in Gunter 208

Herbalist Series

The Appalachian Center for Ethnobotanical Studies' Mountain Herbalist Series is designed to increase awareness of useful plants and reconnect people with mountain traditions. Events are on Mondays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Mountain City Traditional Arts at 25 E. Main St. in Frostburg. The programs are free and open to the public.

Mimi Hernandez will teach you how to nourish your immune system on Nov. 8 with "Natural Immunity Support" to combat chronic fatigue, colds, yeast and viruses. Learn how to incorporate family-friendly foods and herbs into meals and home remedies for a healthy winter experience.

For info, contact Hernandez at x3136 or mhernandez@frostburg.edu.

Appalachian Lab Fall Seminar Series

Dr. Matthew B. Frieman, University of Maryland School of Medicine, will present "Host/Pathogen Interactions of the SARS Coronavirus" Thursday, Nov. 18, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, see www.umces.edu/al/ seminar/schedule.

Veterans Day Reading

FSU's Sigma Tau Delta (the English honors society) and the Veterans Affairs Office will sponsor a Veterans Day Reading on Tuesday, Nov. 9, at 7 p.m. at Main Street Books, 2 E. Main St. in Frostburg. There will be a candlelight walk before the reading at 6:30 p.m., starting from the clock tower on campus and proceeding to Main Street Books.

Students, faculty and members of the community will read selections from works of fiction, poetry, journals, letters and oral histories by and about veterans. These events are held to recognize and thank service men and women at FSU, in the community and nationwide.

The reading and candlelight walk are free and open to the public. For info, contact Dr. Mary Anne Lutz at mlutz@frostburg.edu.

$\overline{\mathbb{Y}}$ Points of Pride

Majors Fair Winners

Majors Fair 2010 was a great success and the student groups exceeded all expectations. Each year faculty, staff and student judges assess various aspects of the presentations to select three groups because of their outstanding efforts. The winners are:

- Ethnobotany for Best Overall Display
- Communications Studies for Most Informative Display
- · Recreation Society for Most Engaging Crew

Each group will receive $100.

Lessons in Leadership at Sloop Institute

The Sloop Institute for Excellence in Leadership is a capstone experience for juniors and seniors who collaborate to accomplish positive change in local and global communities. The institute, which has become a sought-after opportunity for FSU student leaders, works with several unique FSU programs that focus on leadership development. Each year, 50 juniors and seniors are nominated by FSU faculty and staff members for participation in the institute. The nominees, who are carefully selected through a rigorous application process, attend an advanced leadership experience at Bedford Springs Resort. During this weekend experience, student leaders refine their leadership skills by networking with alumni and other distinguished guests.

The Sloop Institute for Excellence in Leadership is the legacy of FSU education professor and TKE advisor, the late Dr. Richard Sloop. As a student mentor during his 35 years at FSU, Sloop had a profound impact on many FSU graduates who went on to become active leaders. To date, the Sloop Leadership Fund is one of the larger endowments at FSU and continues to provide additional opportunities for student leaders.

For info, visit http://involvement. frostburg.edu/olce/sloop.html.

Take 5 Back by Popular Demand

FSU's Frostburg: Take 5 includes two competitions (alums and students) and three top prizes this year as well as a People's Choice Award.

The People's Choice Award will be determined through an online vote on FSU's You Tube Channel. Winners will be announced during a screening and award ceremony Dec. 1 at the Lyric Theatre on Main Street.

The final deadline to submit a video is Nov. 12. Videos must be five minutes or less and fall under one of these themes:

I Chose Frostburg

Tell why you decided to go to school at FSU, why you're proud you're getting your degree at Frostburg!

Frostburg: The "Reel" Deal

Tell true stories about Frostburg that put it in a positive light.

My Heart Belongs to Frostburg

Tell why FSU is near and dear to vour heart.

For info, e-mail efrostburgcomm@ frostburg.edu or visit www.frostburg. edu/take5.

BTGLASS Hosts Transgender Performers

Transgender Awareness Month will begin with two events hosted by Breaking Through GLASS (Bisexuals, Transgenders, Gays, Lesbians and Straight Supporters) Monday, Nov. 1.

The first event will be a "Trans 101" workshop from 2 to 3 p.m. in Tawes 208.

This workshop – presented by transgender artists and activists Katastrophe and the Athens Boys Choir - will cover the basic information one needs to understand trans-identity and will review vocabulary, terminology and questions one should and should not ask. The presenters will recount stories from their personal journeys, which will be followed by an extensive O&A session.

Later that evening there will be a spoken word and hip-hop performance featuring the Athens Boys Choir and Katastrophe at the Lyric Theatre on Main Street in Frostburg. Doors will open at 7 p.m. and the show will start at 7:30 p.m. There will also be a free pizza party before the show at Giannis (sponsored by the Women's Studies Program).

Both events are free and open to the public.

For info about F to eMbody and to check out music videos from Katastrophe and the Athens Boys Choir, visit www.ftoembody.com.

/ Flu/Pneumonia Vaccines Available

In case you haven't had a chance to get your flu shot, Brady Health Center still has some of the injectable vaccine available at $25 per dose.

Also, for those who are eligible, the pneumococcal pneumonia vaccine is available for $10. This vaccine is usually given one time and is for individuals 65 and older or those younger than 65 with chronic heart disease, chronic lung disease (including asthma), liver disease and chronic kidney disease, or those with immune suppression. It is also for smokers.

These vaccinations are available to FSU students, faculty and staff. For info, call x4310.

Communication Studies Events

FSU's Student Communication Studies Association (SCSA) will host a resume workshop led by Dr. Brent Kice and Nada Abdulhaqq on Monday, Nov. 1, from 5 to 6 p.m. in Pullen 110. Resume guidelines will be discussed, as well as specific advice for student resumes. All Communication Studies (CMST) majors and minors are welcome, as well as anyone interested in learning more about the study of CMST. Attendees should bring a current version of their resume on a thumb drive.

SCSA will also host a Mock Interview Reception on Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 7 p.m. in the Osborne Newman Center. Professor Sheri Whalen will provide information on how to interview in a dinner context. Students will dress and act as job applicants alongside faculty members, who will act as employers during a mock interview experience over dinner. Members of SCSA will provide a potluck dinner for the event. Anyone interested in learning more about CMST is welcome. Advising information for the major and spring 2011 semester will be shared. RSVP to Whalen at sawhalen@ frostburg.edu by Nov. 1.

Two FSU CMST alumnae, Jennifer Hunt and Christine Yurko, will speak to students in the Department of Communication Studies on Friday, Nov. 5, from 11 to 11:45 a.m. in PAC 102 as part of Career Expo. They will discuss the relevance of their degrees to their current careers and answer student questions regarding career and course advice. All CMST majors and minors are encouraged to attend.

Prepared to Be a 21st Century Leader?

There will be a Leadership Studies Advising Information Session Thursday, Nov. 4, at 5:30 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center Leake Room.

Attend this informal session to discuss what is needed for 21st century leadership and to learn more about Leadership Studies at FSU from the faculty and students involved with the minor. For info, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480, or Dr. Jeff McClellan at llmcllellan@frostburg.edu or x4372.

Info Meetings for MAT/MBA Programs

FSU will present an informational meeting for prospective students for the Master of Arts in Teaching and Master of Business Administration programs at 6 p.m. (MAT) and 7 p.m. (MBA) on Tuesday, Nov. 9, at the University System of Maryland in Hagerstown, 32 W. Washington St.

The University will present another informational meeting, also at 6 p.m. (MAT) and 7 p.m. (MBA), on Tuesday, Nov. 16, on the FSU campus in Pullen 141.

FSU's full-time, intensive MAT program is NCATE accredited and designed to lead to teaching certification in one year. The MAT Elementary program is for those who have a bachelor's degree in any field and courses in various content areas; the MAT Secondary program is designed for those who have a bachelor's degree or equivalent coursework in math, science, art, social studies, English or a foreign language and want to teach middle or high school.

FSU's MBA program is accredited by AACSB International (the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) and offers a strong foundation in accounting, finance, marketing, human resources and management. MBA courses are offered in the evenings and online for business and non-business majors and full- or part-time students. The entire program is available online as well as face-toface. GetEducated.com, a consumer watchdog group that reviews and ranks online academic programs for cost, quality and credibility, has ranked FSU among its best values in AACSBaccredited online master of business administration degrees. FSU's online MBA ranks ninth on this national list. For info, contact the Office of

For info, contact the Office Graduate Services at x7053.

Share Your Thoughts with Dr. Gibralter

Join President Jonathan Gibralter from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16, for the next online chat session, part of his ongoing efforts to communicate and connect with FSU friends, alumni, faculty, staff and students. To participate, on the evening of the chat session, visit Blog From the Burg for details on how to log in with your FSU ID and post questions and comments. Alternately, you can post directly on the Blog itself in a chat feature box provided on the blog, but your comment will appear as "Anonymous."

An additional chat session is tentatively scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 14.

For info, e-mail burgblog@ frostburg.edu. Visit the blog at http://blogfromtheburg.blogspot.com/.

Graduating in 2010?

The 137th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 18, at 11 a.m. in the Cordts PE Center. The commencement ceremonies, which were previously held as two separate ceremonies, will be combined as one. The Colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business and Education will present their graduates at that time.

Tickets will be required for admission. The number allotted to each graduate will be determined later.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now to receive information about commencement!

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost to graduates and may be ordered at the bookstore in the Tawes Annex. Orders must be placed by Dec. 3.

Details are at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittni Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Gray Hall Renovations

Beginning in January, Gray Hall will undergo extensive renovation of bathrooms, student rooms and common areas. Similar to the scope of last year's renovations in Allen Hall, this project will run through the spring semester and summer sessions, with the hall scheduled to reopen in August 2011.

Gray Hall students will be displaced from their current rooms for the spring semester and will be given the opportunity to select another space on campus. Every effort will be made to assign students to a hall of their choice, and with a roommate of their choice; this includes the effort to place students with their current roommate(s) in an empty room. Residents of other halls who do not have roommates will be required to room with other such residents. Room changes will be completed before students leave for the holiday break in December.

Students with concerns are encouraged to speak with their hall staff or contact the Residence Life Office at x4121.

Get Involved Have You Gone Greek? Why Not!

Kappa Beta Gama is recruiting for the fall 2010 semester. Join them for an evening of fun on Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 6 p.m. in Tawes 208. For info, contact Shannon Bogle at srbogle0@frostburg.edu.

International

For info. visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@ frostburg.edu. Also check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Mexico, Malta, Botswana or many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs.

Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

Limerick, Ireland (Fall 2011)

Students can study for a semester at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. For info, go to www.mic.ul.ie/.

Changsha, China (Fall 2011)

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/). Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. Living costs are generally lower than at FSU and courses are taught in English.

Political Science/Law & Society Internships

The next meeting for Political Science and Law and Society majors planning to intern in spring or summer 2011 will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at noon in Old Main 205. The last meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 8, also at noon in Old Main 205.

Those who want to participate in a Political Science/Law and Society internship must attend at least one meeting. It is recommended they attend all meetings. If unable to attend, contact Tim Magrath (Guild 141) at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg. edu.
