Maryland Symphony Orchestra Returns to FSU

Under music director and conductor Elizabeth Schulze, the critically acclaimed Maryland Symphony Orchestra, with special guest pianist Angela Cheng, will return to FSU on Friday, Oct. 15, at 8 p.m. The highly acclaimed MSO, now in its 29th season, will perform works from Beethoven and Schubert in PAC Pealer Recital Hall as part of the University's Cultural Events Series and its partner, the Allegany Arts Council.

The orchestra will present Beethoven's "Piano Concerto No. 4 in G Major" and Schubert's "Symphony No. 9," featuring Cheng. A resident of Canada, Cheng has been heralded for her "brilliant technique." She has performed with countless symphonies across North America and has released several classical CDs to glowing reviews. Cheng was a Gold Medal winner at the Arthur Rubinstein International Piano Masters Competition and the first Canadian to win the prestigious Montreal International Piano Competition. For her outstanding interpretations of Mozart, Cheng was honored with the Medal of Excellence at the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria.

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra attracts the finest musical talents from the Baltimore and Washington metro area. Under Schulze – whom the Washington Post called "a superb conductor" – the MSO has become a first-class orchestra of exceptional artistic quality.

As part of the Cultural Events Series' Art Outreach program, Schulze and Cheng will host an interactive discussion on the evening's musical selections at 7 p.m., before the orchestra presents its concert. While there is a ticket charge for the concert, the discussion is free and open to the public. It will be held in the Performing Arts Center as well.

Tickets are $30 per person. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or online at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

Music Dept. Presents FSU Wind Ensemble

The FSU Department of Music presents the FSU Wind Ensemble in concert Sunday, Oct. 17, at 3 p.m. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students; youth 17 and under are admitted free.

The program will feature the winners of the 2010 Wind Ensemble Solo Competition held last spring: Sarah Galvin and Lane Conklin. On the program will be pieces by Mozart, Giacomo Puccini, Robert Russell Bennett and Eric Whitacre.

Gallagher to Perform Clarinet Recital

The FSU Department of Music's Faculty Artist Series presents Dr. Mark Gallagher performing a clarinet recital with Robert Frankenberry on piano and Pamela Murchison on flute. The recital will take place Sunday, Oct. 31, at 7 p.m. The performance is free and open to the public.

The performance will feature works by Bach, Debussy, Schubert, Hindemith and Lutoslawski.

Literature

Small Press Festival

The FSU Center for Creative Writing, in partnership with the Allegany County Library System, will hold its fourth annual Western Maryland Small and Regional Press Festival Saturday, Oct. 16, from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Main Street in Frostburg.

The event brings together editors and publishers with writers and educators of the local community. Participating journals and presses will display books, submission guidelines and other promotional materials inside Frostburg's Lyric Theater. Panel discussions and roundtable sessions will include topics on writing and getting published, teachers and students, blogging and new media publishing, using social media for promotion and multi-genre craft discussions.

This year the festival will include several partnering locations on Main Street, including MCTA and the Frostburg Public Library.

Participants include Mammoth Books, CityLit Press, Lines + Stars, Kestrel, Gargoyle Magazine, No Tell Books and The Broadkill Review.

On Friday, Oct. 15, the festival will kick off with a reception for the press and journal attendees at the Center for Creative Writing from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and a panel discussion on forging a literary community at 7:30 p.m.

Leading up to the festival, interviews and information about participating presses and journals will be featured on the center's website (www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter) and Wordpress blog.

Poetry Reading by Nancy Krygowski

As part of its Small and Regional Press Festival kickoff, the FSU Center for Creative Writing will present a reading by poet Nancy Krygowski on Friday, Oct. 15, at 5:30 p.m. at Main Street Books. The reading is free and open to the public.

Winner of the 2006 Agnes Lynch Starrett Poetry Prize for her first book of poems "Velocity," Krygowski is co-founder and assistant artistic director of the Gist Street Reading Series. Her poems have appeared in Prairie Schooner, River Styx, Southern Poetry Review, 5 A.M. and other magazines. She is the recipient of a Pennsylvania Council on the Arts Individual Artist Fellowship, a Pittsburgh Foundation Grant, awards from the Academy of American Poets and the Association of Writers & Writing Programs, plus residencies from Jentel, The Kimmel Harding Nelson Center for the Arts and Virginia Center for Creative Arts. Krygowski's subject matter deals with major life events.

For info, contact Gerry LaFemina at 4024 or glafemina@frostburg.edu.

Theatre

‘Bent’ Kicks Off Theatre Season

The 2010-2011 season of FSU Theatre will begin with the Main Stage production “Bent” by Martin Sherman. The performance dates are Oct. 14, 15 and 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

This play depicting the Nazis’ persecution of many groups in the years leading up to World War II focuses on lovers Max and Rudy. After a night of debauchery, they are faced with a Gestapo raid, which sends them on a nightmare odyssey through Nazi Germany. In the camps, since homosexuals are ranked lower than Jews, Max bribes a guard to obtain a Jewish star to replace his pink triangle. There Max meets Horst, who makes him confront his own humanity.

Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Presentations

Bobby Petrocelli Returns to FSU

Bobby Petrocelli will return to FSU to present his motivational speech, “10 Seconds Can Change Your Life,” Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 7 p.m. in FSU’s Performing Arts Center.

Petrocelli has traveled the country sharing his inspirational message and life experiences to motivate and empower crowds all over the United States. The title of his speech comes from the 10 seconds that changed his own life: the night he awoke to find that a drunken driver had driven a truck through his bedroom wall, killing his wife. Since then, Petrocelli has taken this dreadful event and turned it into an inspiring speech on life and its fragility.

This will be Petrocelli’s 14th appearance at FSU. His speech is sponsored by the BURG Peer Education Network and is free and open to the public. For info, call the SAFE office at x4761.

Learn to Fight Right!

FSU and the Allegany Conflict Resolution Center will celebrate National Conflict Resolution Day on Thursday, Oct. 21. A presentation will be held at 6 p.m. in the Leake Room at the Cordts PE Center. The event is free and open to the public and is part of a Leadership Workshop Series at FSU.

The presentations will bring the campus and local community together to learn about “The Value of Conflict.” They will feature students from Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski’s CMST 345/Conflict Management class, who are organizing, promoting and presenting the event with ACRC. The students will provide an interactive overview of what conflict is, why it is valuable to face rather than avoid it and basic strategies and resources for managing conflict.

ACRC, with nearly 20 other community mediation centers in Maryland, provides free and low-cost conflict resolution services, including mediation of family, neighborhood and business conflicts, and training and education about conflict resolution.

A Basic Mediation Training is tentatively planned for spring. The center is recruiting participants for the unique 50-hour training program.

For info on the event or about volunteering with ACRC, contact Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480. For info about using community mediation, contact ACRC at 240-727-0408 or conflictresolutioncenter@allconet.org. Info is also available at www.marylandmediation.org.

Herbalist Series

The Appalachian Center for Ethno-botanical Studies’ Mountain Herbalist Series is designed to increase awareness of useful plants and reconnect people with mountain traditions. Events are on Mondays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Mountain City Traditional Arts at 25 E. Main St. in Frostburg. The programs are free and open to the public.

The third of the series will take place Oct. 11. In “Making Topical Salves,” learn to make salves for everyday skin issues while becoming familiar with local plants.

For info, contact Mimi Hernandez at x3136 or mhernandez@frostburg.edu.

Visual Arts

Kappa Pi/Saville Present ‘Identity’

FSU’s Kappa Pi Art Fraternity and the Saville Gallery in Cumberland present the second annual Community Art Juried Exhibition, “Identity,” which will be on view from Tuesday,

Oct. 12, to Saturday, Oct. 16, at the Saville Gallery at 9 N. Centre St.

A reception and awards ceremony for the contributing artists will be held Oct. 16, from 6 to 8 p.m. The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public.

The artwork showcased in the exhibit will be a collection from local artists judged by Alexander Heilner, a professor of photography and digital imaging at the Maryland Institute College of Art.

For info about the Saville Gallery, visit www.alleganyartscouncil.org. For info on “Identity,” contact Robert Hein at x4354 or rmhein@frostburg.edu.

Science Special Effects in the Movies

As part of National Chemistry Week, the Western Maryland section of the American Chemical Society will put on a show with film clips and demonstrations followed by workshops on science special effects in the movies Thursday, Oct. 21, at 6 p.m. for the show and 7 p.m. for the workshops at Allegany College Theater. The event is free and open to the public.

RSVP by Oct. 18 to Joanne Budzien at jbudzien@frostburg.edu or 7072.

Points of Pride

USM-Hagerstown Holds Meet the Dean Night

Meet the Dean Night was hosted Sept. 13 by the FSU departments offering programs at the University System of Maryland at Hagerstown.

Held in the USM-H atrium, FSU faculty from the main campus and USM-H gathered for an informal reception to meet students.

Traveling from Frostburg were Dr. Cindy Herzog, associate dean, College of Liberal Studies and Sciences; Dr. Clarence Golden, associate dean, College of Education; Dr. Ahmad Tootoonchi, dean, College of Business; and Dr. Michael Monahan, chair, Department of Management.

They were joined by the Hagerstown faculty: Dr. Martha Mattare, director, FSU at USM-H business program; John Stoothoff, master of arts in teaching program coordinator; Christopher Masciocchi, psychology program coordinator; and Gary Austen, liberal studies and sociology adviser.

“Our goal with Meet the Dean Night is to foster a sense of community with the College of Business and to meet the leaders of the college – people our students don’t get to see very often,” Mattare said. “It is also the students’ opportunity to provide feedback and suggestions to the dean.”

You can view the full story at www.herald-mail.com/?cmd=display_story&story_id=253602&format=html. For info, go to www.hagerstown.usmd.edu.

Take Note

Take 5 Back by Popular Demand

FSU's Frostburg: Take 5 includes two competitions (alums and students) and three top prizes this year as well as a People's Choice Award.

The People's Choice Award will be determined through an online vote on FSU's You Tube Channel. Winners will be announced during a screening and award ceremony Dec. 1 at the Lyric Theatre on Main Street.

The final deadline to submit a video is Nov. 12; however, clips submitted by Oct. 15 will be considered for an early screening that may be held at Homecoming to promote the contest. Videos must be five minutes or less and fall under one of these themes:

I Chose Frostburg

Tell why you decided to go to school at FSU, why you're proud you're getting your degree at Frostburg!

Frostburg: The "Reel" Deal

Tell true stories about Frostburg that put it in a positive light.

My Heart Belongs to Frostburg

Tell why FSU is near and dear to your heart.
For info, e-mail efrostburgcomm@frostburg.edu or visit www.frostburg.edu/take5.

FSU Celebrates Women in Sports

FSU will showcase women's sports achievement with "Celebrating Women in Sports" on Monday, Oct. 18, at 6:30 p.m. in Compton 224.

The panel will feature Nina Kuscsik, a former long distance runner and activist. Other participants include Pamela Boteler, the first American woman to compete in sprint canoeing against men and president of WomenCAN; Jody Pepple, senior women's administrator and women's basketball coach at FSU; and Dr. Mihaela Wood, an FSU history faculty member who specializes in sports history.

Jessica O'Neil, an FSU student and member of the FSU Cross Country and Track teams, initiated, coordinated and organized this panel discussion to showcase women's sports achievements and highlight actions needed for promoting gender equality in sports.

The panel discussion will be followed by a question-and-answer session and an opportunity for one-on-one interactions with the participants. This presentation is free and open to the public.

The event is sponsored by the FSU Student Government Association, Queen City Striders, the FSU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and the FSU Women's Studies Program. For info, contact Jessica O'Neil at jmoneil0@frostburg.edu or 240-427-8053, or Dr. Randall Rhodes at rrhodes@frostburg.edu or x4047.

Communication Studies to Host MCA Conference

FSU's Department of Communication Studies will host the 26th annual Maryland Communication Association conference "Let's Chat: Negotiating Communication Today," Friday and Saturday, Oct. 22 and 23.

Two events are open to the public. The first is a "Let's Chat" preconference celebration on Friday, Oct. 22, at 7 p.m. at Mountain City Traditional Arts (25 E. Main St.) in Frostburg, featuring live musical entertainment from Kathleen and Ed Myers of Keyser, W.Va. The second is the keynote address on Saturday, Oct. 23, at 11:30 a.m. by Dr. David Westerman on "Negotiating Communication Technologies: Technology as a Tool." Westerman is an assistant professor in the Department of Communication Studies at West Virginia University and specializes in impression formation and telepresence in online environments. To attend either event, RSVP by Oct. 13 to Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of Communication Studies at FSU and first vice president of MCA, at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu.

FSU Communication Studies faculty and students play a prominent role in the MCA conference. In addition to Ruminski's role as conference organizer, Professor Sheri Whalen serves as MCA's second vice president and Dr. Brent Kice serves as webmaster. Communication Studies alumnus Eric Chaney and major Anastasia Otranto helped organize the conference as part of internships fulfilling major requirements. Members from the Student Communication Studies Association and other student organizations at FSU will be featured in a roundtable titled "Chatting About Student Leadership and Communication in Campus Organizations: Frostburg State University Student Perspectives." Communication Studies alumnae Shavonne Shorter and Christine Yurko, now graduate students at Purdue University and West Virginia University, respectively, will present during the conference, as will FSU public information specialist Becca Ramspott.

Along with the FSU Department of Communication Studies, the conference is being sponsored by the FSU Department of Mass Communication; Pearson, McGraw Hill; and Cengage Publishers, as well as local establishments, including RC Theatres and Baltimore Street Grill.

For info, contact Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu. Visit www.marylandcomm.org for conference details. A tentative program is posted on the website.

Science & Engineering Festival Satellite Event

FSU will be the site of a satellite event of the national USA Science and Engineering Festival on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to noon. The event will be held on the Upper Quad, and demonstrations will take place at the University of Maryland Center for Environmental Science Appalachian Laboratory in Frostburg. A shuttle will be available.

The event is open to K-12 students in public or private schools and their parents. There will be numerous hands-on activities, including wildlife forensics, origami and math, build a bat, geocaching and a critter corner. Students can also participate in paper airplane design, catapult and forensic mystery. The Allegany County event is sponsored by FSU, Allegany County public schools and the UMCES Appalachian Lab.

The Inaugural USA Science and Engineering Festival is hosted by Lockheed Martin. The goal of the festival is to reinvigorate the interest of the nation's youth, future scientists and engineers in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM).

Displays by high school student clubs and organizations are welcomed. For info, contact Karen Bundy at karen.bundy@acps.k12.md.us, Kristen Lennon at kalennon@frostburg.edu or x4397, or Dr. Eric Moore at ejmoore@frostburg.edu or x4500.

Share Your Thoughts with Dr. Gibraltar

Join President Jonathan Gibraltar from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 26, for the next online chat session, part of his ongoing efforts to communicate and connect with FSU friends, alumni, faculty, staff and students. To participate, on the evening of the chat session, visit Blog From the 'Burg for details on how to log in with your FSU ID and post questions and comments. Alternately, you can post directly on the Blog itself in a chat feature box provided on the blog, but your comment will appear as "Anonymous."

Additional chat sessions are tentatively scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 16 and Dec. 14.

For info, e-mail burgblog@frostburg.edu. Visit the blog at frostburg.edu.

The last day for undergraduate grade changes for spring and summer 2010 is Oct. 12. This includes removal of incomplete grades.

Graduation Exceptions

If your official degree progress report indicates you have not completed all requirements and you have a basis to request an exception, submit your written appeal letter and supporting letters and documentation to the Academic Standards

Subcommittee, Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, by 4 p.m. on Oct. 14 for the October meeting or Nov. 11 for the November meeting (last chance for graduation exceptions and inclusion in the Commencement Booklet). For info, call the Provost's Office at x4212.

Get Involved

'Wittgenstein's Beetle'

The Philosophy Club will meet on Monday, Oct. 11, at Dante's Bar on Main Street. The topic of discussion will be "Wittgenstein's Beetle," a classic thought experiment by Dr. Ludwig Wittgenstein, a 20th century philosopher. Everyone is welcome.

Through this curious analogy, Wittgenstein attempted to understand how words are used in ordinary language and clarify some of the problems involved in thinking of the mind as something over and above behavior.

For info, contact Andrew Minnick at ajminnick0@frostburg.edu.

Come Join SCSA!

The Student Communication Studies Association, a relatively new organization, is making its presence known on the FSU campus. SBDC Recognizes 'State Star'

Lora Brown, assistant state deputy director, Maryland SBDC, and Chris Olson

The Maryland Small Business Development Center Network and the American Society of Small Business Development Centers recognized Chris Olson, Frederick County SBDC consultant, as the Maryland "State Star" on Sept. 24 in San Antonio. ASBDC "State Stars" are recognized for exhibiting exemplary performance, making a significant contribution to their state or regional SBDC program and showing a strong commitment to small business.

FSU sponsors the Western Region SBDC, which includes Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett counties. The SBDC office is in the Allegany Business Center, adjacent to the FSU campus.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer

The local American Cancer Society office is preparing for the annual Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event to be held at Canal Place on Saturday, Oct. 16. Registration begins at 9 a.m. and the 5k walk begins at 10 a.m. (from Canal Place up the Great Allegheny Passage almost to Cash Valley Road and back).

The week of Oct. 4-9 will be "Paint the Town Pink" week. Decorate your business, home, vehicle or anything in support of breast cancer research and to celebrate all breast cancer survivors.

Participants are also encouraged to wear something pink and to take pictures of their activities. Send them to the American Cancer Society at strideswesternmd@gmail.com.

The American Cancer Society also has “pink ribbon dangles” that businesses can sell for a $1 donation.

It's not too late to sign up for the walk or to form a team. There is no minimum amount of donations or pledges needed to walk in the 5k.

For info, contact the Tina Warnick, at 301-722-2145 or tina.warnick@cancer.org. The website for this year's event is www.strideswesternmd.org. Teams can also register online.

Interns

Beall Internships

The Beall Institute is accepting applications for its Annapolis internship program. The Beall Internship is available to any applicant expressing an interest in a public service career, or as a manager, planner or policy analyst.

Up to four internship slots are available; depending on housing needs and the quality of applicants, more may be available. The selected intern will serve in a Maryland delegate's or a Maryland state senator's office in Annapolis during the legislative session from early January through the middle of April 2011. Democratic and Republican officeholders are represented. Internships are full-time, earn 15 credit hours and are available only during the spring semester.

Depending on housing needs, the applicants selected will be awarded a stipend to assist with lodging and transportation costs during the internship. These stipends are being paid from the J. Glenn Beall Jr. Public Affairs Institute, a foundation established by Sen. J. Glenn Beall Jr. and his family and other contributors.

Interns selected for the General Assembly may also be awarded up to a $1,000 stipend paid directly from the General Assembly and separate from the Beall Institute stipend. Applicants must be either juniors or seniors and have a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

For info, contact the Political Science Department or Tim Magrath at x4080. The deadline for applications is Friday, Oct. 22.

Political Science/Law & Society Internships

A meeting will be held for Political Science and Law and Society majors planning to intern in spring or summer 2011 on Wednesday, Oct. 20, at noon in Old Main 205. Subsequent meetings will be held Wednesday, Nov. 17, and Wednesday, Dec. 8, also at noon in Old Main 205.

Those who want to participate in a Political Science/Law and Society internship must attend at least one meeting. It is recommended they attend all meetings. If unable to attend, contact Tim Magrath (Guild 141) at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg.edu.

Students can study at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. For info, go to www.mic.ul.ie/.

Changsha, China (Spring 2011)

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/). Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. Living costs are generally low and courses are taught in English.
