CES LIVE! at StarScape Presents SFJAZZ

FSU's Cultural Events Series will present musical super group the SFJAZZ Collective on Saturday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall as part of CES' new LIVE! at StarScape series.

The SFJAZZ Collective is a jazz ensemble involving eight of the finest musicians from the current jazz scene. Created in 2004, the group has quickly established itself as one of the most electrifying and celebrated groups in the international jazz world. The 2011 ensemble features MacArthur Genius Grant winner Miguel Zenón on alto sax and flute, Guggenheim Fellow Edward

Simon on piano, Grammy Award-nominated vibraphonist Stefon Harris and leading jazz masters Mark Turner on tenor saxophone, trumpeter Avishai Cohen, trombonist Robin Eubanks, Matt Penman on bass and Eric Harland on drums.

During their visit to FSU, SFJAZZ will present an energetic performance that explores the enduring melodies of pop music icon Stevie Wonder. Wonder's impact on musicians and songwriters of all genres is presented to full effect in this stunning musical tribute.

Tickets are $24 for adults and $18 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available. For info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES' webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Theatre

American Classic Opens Theatre Season

Jacob McDonald as George Gibbs and
Nora Grider as Emily Webb

Theatre and Dance at FSU presents Thornton Wilder's 1938 Pulitzer Prize-winning play, "Our Town," on Oct. 6, 7 and 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

With direction by guest artist Greg Schuh, "Our Town" warmly depicts the small-town daily life of Grover's Corners, N.H., "just over the line from Massachusetts." Through an on-stage narrator, it tells the story of the Webb and Gibbs children as they fall in love, marry and eventually face one of life's darkest moments. Filled with humor and humanity, and described by famous playwright Edward Albee as "the greatest American play ever written," "Our Town" beautifully conveys that "there is something eternal in each of us."

Schuh is also an actor, teacher, dancer and choreographer. He has directed for Playwrights Center of San Francisco, California Conservatory

Theatre, Tri-Valley Repertory Theatre and Palo Alto Players. He comes to Frostburg from New York, and "Our Town" is one of his favorite plays.

Season subscriptions are available. The Main Stage subscription offers the general public five tickets to Main Stage shows (one ticket per show for Main Stage productions and the Fall Dance Concert) for $50, and the student subscription offers students five tickets to Main Stage productions for $25. Individual tickets are $12 for general admission and $6 for students.

For info, call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Dance

CES Presents the Paul Taylor Dance Company

Aileen Roehl and Sean Mahoney in "Orbs"

The masterful choreography of an American legend comes to FSU when FSU's Cultural Events Series presents the Paul Taylor Dance Company on Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre. Ticket holders will also have the opportunity to interact with company members in a post-performance discussion.

The 16-member company will perform three works from the Taylor repertory. "Oh, You Kid!" is an exuberant throwback to the days of vaudeville set to the music of the Paragon Ragtime Ensemble. "Mercuric Tidings" is an energetically joyful work set to the music of Schubert, while the darkly beautiful "Lines of Loss," featuring the music of six composers, sets a more sorrowful mood.

Taylor, one of the most revered American choreographers of the 20th and 21st centuries, helped to forge America's indigenous art form: modern dance. At age 81, Taylor continues to win praise for the vitality of his recent works as well as his classics. Since its inception over 50 years ago, the Paul Taylor Dance Company has become a celebrated and prominent member of the international dance community.

In support of the public performance, a free Arts for Enrichment event will be offered to community members. On Monday, Oct. 10, students of dance will have the opportunity to take a master class with one of the Paul Taylor company members. The class in modern dance technique is suitable for late beginner or early intermediate-level dance students. Space is limited and reservations are required. Interested dancers should contact cesoutreach@frostburg.edu to reserve a space.

Tickets are $18 for adults and $13 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available. For info, contact the Cultural Events Series box office at x3137 or visit CES's webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Music

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

FSU Wind Ensemble

The FSU Wind Ensemble will present its first concert of the fall on Sunday, Oct. 9, at 3 p.m.

The concert will feature “First Suite for Military Band” by Gustav Holst. Composed in 1909, it is one of the first major pieces written exclusively for the modern-day wind band and has become a cornerstone of band literature. Another featured piece, “Century Variants” by David Gillingham, is a contemporary introduction to the symphonic band, consisting of a theme and variations that feature all sections of the band. Also on the program is “Festival Overture on America’s National Air: The Star Spangled Banner” by Dudley Buck and “America’s Bravest, America’s Finest” by Lewis Buckley, a march dedicated to the police and fire fighters who lost their lives in the tragedy of 9/11.

Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for students and free for children 12 and under.

Ternent Junior Recital

Tenor Justin Ternent will present his junior recital on Sunday, Oct. 16, at 7:30 p.m. He will be accompanied by pianist Bomi Lim Tunstall.

Ternent will perform “Amarilli, mia bella” (“Amarylls, My Lovely One”) by Giulio Caccini; “Ah, mai non cessate” (“Ah, Never Cease From Your Talking”) by Stefano Donaudy; “O sole mio” (“My Sun”) by Eduardo di Capua; “An die ferne Geliebte” (“To the Beloved, Afar”) by Ludwig van Beethoven; “The Hermit Songs” by Samuel Barber; and “Weep You No More, Come Back!” and “Moonlight” by Roger Quilter.

Presentations

Philosophical Forum

The FSU Philosophy Department will hold its fall 2011 Philosophical Forum on Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. in the Lane

Atkinson Room (232). The lecture is titled “The Philosopher and the Guitar: Music, Freedom and Human Rights” and will feature Dr. Austin Dacey, philosopher, author and human rights advocate. The presentation, accompanied by a musical performance, will be followed by a free-ranging discussion among Dacey, the musicians and the audience.

This presentation reflects on the views of Plato, Xunzi, St. Augustine, Ibn Taymiyya and Schopenhauer in connection with the lives of musicians pursuing their art under authoritarian regimes such as the Islamic Republic of Iran. It will be followed by a special appearance by “The Casualty Process,” an electronic rock duo from the Tehran underground.

The lecture, music and discussion are free and open to the public. For info, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

A Reading of Banned Books

The English Honors Society Sigma Tau Delta and the Department of English at FSU will present an evening of readings from books deemed controversial enough to be banned or challenged. The reading will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. in Lane 133B-133C.

This event is held with the American Library Association’s annual Banned Books Week: Celebrating the Freedom to Read.

For info, contact Dr. Mary Anne Lutz at mlutz@frostburg.edu.

Lecture/Performance by Dr. Greg Latta

Dr. Greg Latta, a professor in the Department of Physics and Engineering, will give a lecture/performance titled “Music and Science” on Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. at Maplehurst Country Club in Frostburg.

The performance is free and open to the public. Latta will present a program featuring the hammered dulcimer, uilleann pipes, 12-string guitar, ocarina, banjo, limberjack, recorder and cittern. The program will feature performances on each instrument along with a discussion of the instrument, its origins and the science behind the instrument.

For info, contact Dr. Joanne Budzien at jbudzien@frostburg.edu.

Join Rockin’ Robins on Twitter!

Hey faculty and staff: have you been thinking about trying out Twitter, but are not sure where to begin?

Twitter is a popular social messaging website that lets a person send brief text messages (up to 140 characters) to a list of followers. It can be a great social media community for following current events and breaking news and networking with colleagues in your discipline or industry.

Join FSU’s Becca Ramspott, public information specialist in Technology and New Media, for two HR workshops this fall: Thursday, Oct. 27, and Friday, Nov. 11, both at 3 p.m. in Compton 101. Learn more about Twitter and how to use it effectively in this class for beginners, including basics such as how to build Twitter lists, create and follow hashtags and retweet (RT) and direct message (DM) your followers.

For info, visit the Employee Training website at www.frostburg.edu/hr/trainingapp/public.

AL Fall Seminar Series

Dr. Anna K. Henderson, Pennsylvania State University, will present “Tracking Seasonal Precipitation Contributions to Western USA Mountain Ecosystems With Hydrogen and Oxygen Isotopes” Thursday, Oct. 6, at 3:45 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

FSU/SAP Partnership Fosters Business and IT Careers

FSU has joined the SAP® University Alliances program, a global endeavor that provides university faculty members with the tools and resources to teach how technology can enable integrated business processes and strategic thinking. Students gain hands-on experience with state-of-the-art enterprise resource planning (ERP) software and develop skills relevant to their careers and chosen fields.

The partnership between SAP and FSU will embed the ERP curriculum into specific courses in business and computer science academic programs. Specifically, undergraduate courses in management information systems, accounting information systems and operations management within the College of Business, as well as computer-based information systems and knowledge-based systems in the Department of Computer Science will incorporate ERP coverage. The program is scheduled to be piloted as early as fall 2011.

Campus point people for the program are Dr. Sudhir Singh and Dr. Joanna Burley Shore in the College of Business and Dr. Brad Rinard and Dr. Joseph Hoffman in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

The SAP University Alliances program is a global initiative with more than 1,000 member campuses in more than 60 countries. Through the program, professors and students are given access to the same software used by SAP customers and partners, including SAP® Business Suite applications such as SAP® ERP. This comprehensive business software suite supports business and information technology programs, helping students put classroom theory into practice through demonstrations, exercises and problem solving, case studies and academic projects. SAP donates licenses for its software at no cost to member universities and technical institutes for use in disciplines such as management, operations research, accounting, finance, marketing and information technology and computer science.

SAP is the world's leading provider of business software, offering ERP, business intelligence and related applications and services that enable companies of all sizes and in more than 25 industries to become best-run businesses. Global demand for certified SAP professionals increases every year, and SAP is dedicated to helping universities enable students to hit the ground running at companies using SAP software.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Raises Money for Foundation

Alpha Sigma Alpha raised $136 at their bake sale last week. All the money that was raised went toward the Alpha Sigma Alpha Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to raising money for scholarships, educational and leadership grants and advancement for Alpha Sigma Alpha members.

English Majors Attend Lecture at ACM

English major Vincent Morton with writer Sherman Alexie

In late September, English majors and faculty attended the Sherman Alexie lecture at Allegany College of Maryland. The Maryland Humanities Council had selected Alexie's "Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian" for the One Book One Maryland read this year. Alexie entertained audience members with personal anecdotes, an overview of his career as a writer and some of his political leanings.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Treats Moms

In late September, Alpha Sigma Alpha invited their mothers to lunch at Sand Springs in Frostburg. Another lunch is planned to allow more mothers to come out and see their daughters.

Take Note Think Before You Post!

The Department of Student and Community Involvement's Social Marketing Team is offering a workshop on protecting your social reputation, "Think Before You Post," Oct. 3 at 7 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Attendees will learn about the pitfalls of social media, such as Facebook, and get advice on how to avoid them. The Internet is forever – think about the information you post on it.

Open House at USMH

The University System of Maryland at Hagerstown will hold an open house for students interested in FSU's undergraduate and graduate programs on Wednesday, Oct. 5, from 5 to 7 p.m. at USMH, 32 W. Washington St. in Hagerstown, Md.

The graduate programs offered at USMH include Master of Business Administration; Master of Education in Curriculum, Administration, Reading, Special Education and Interdisciplinary; and Master of Arts in Teaching, Elementary or Secondary. FSU at USMH also offers Bachelor of Science degrees in Sociology, Business Administration, Early Childhood/Elementary Education, Liberal Studies and Psychology.

For info, call 240-527-2741 or visit www.frostburg.edu/centers.

Blood Drive

The Pre-Professional Medical Society will have a blood drive on Oct. 6 in Lane Manicur Hall. Donors can sign up for a time slot on the second floor of Compton on Oct. 3, 4 and 5 at the Pre-med table. Walk-ins will also be accepted.

For info, contact Josh Elmore at jselmore0@frostburg.edu.

Get Your Flu Shot!

A flu vaccine walk-in clinic will be held Thursday, Oct. 6, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Brady Health Center. The cost is $20 for the flu shot or $25 for the nasal flu mist, payable by cash, check or Bobcat card – no insurance billing, debit or credit cards.

If you can't make this clinic date, call Brady Health at x4310 for an appointment.

Free Bio-medical Screenings!

FSU's popular student health and wellness initiative is hosting another round of annual bio-medical screenings this fall. Creating Healthy, Informed, Lasting Lifestyles (CHILL) will ask students to participate in their bio-medical screenings Thursday, Oct. 13, from 8 a.m. to noon each day. Students will be able to have their blood pressure, body mass index, body composition, blood sugar and cholesterol levels checked at no cost, all while earning CHILL prizes.

To complete the screening, students will need to refrain from eating or drinking anything but water for at least eight hours before the screening. The screenings involve having a vial of blood drawn to check the blood sugar and cholesterol levels.

Each student screened will be eligible to receive follow-up care at Brady Health Center, including free consultations with nursing staff and the CHILL dietician.

In exchange for the student's time, each participant will receive a complimentary breakfast and a free CHILL T-shirt, and will be entered in drawings for other free CHILL prizes. The first 25 students in line each morning for the screenings will also receive a special bonus CHILL prize.

To be eligible for the screening, students must be at least 18 and not have any previous diagnosis concerning their blood sugar or heart health. Students who do not qualify for this screening are encouraged to contact Brady Health Center to make an appointment to have the screening performed at a later date.

To learn more about CHILL, visit www.frostburg.edu/chill or email wellness@frostburg.edu.

Help for Students on Probation

- Tuesday, Oct. 11, 5 p.m., Compton 224
- Thursday, Oct. 13, 3:30 p.m., Compton 327

For info, call the Provost's Office at x4212.

Upcoming Majors Fair

Come learn about the various majors offered at FSU on Oct. 12 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. All academic departments have been encouraged to attend the Majors Fair and share the great opportunities available. See hands-on demos and interact with other FSU students who have chosen a major.

B.Y.O.G.

Bring Your Own Game day is back in the Lane Center Game Room on Wednesday from noon to 11 p.m.! The center will lock up the University's games and open the Xbox, Playstation and Wii gaming consoles for play and for students to share their own games. Admission is free. There is no charge to use the consoles. Next B.Y.O.G. days fall on Oct. 19 and Nov. 2, 16 and 30.

10th Anniversary of Leadership Studies Minor

During FSU's Leadership and Homecoming Weekend, come for an evening of celebration and networking with Leadership Studies alumni, students and FSU leaders on Friday, Oct. 21, from 7 to 9 p.m. in Lane 113. Those who helped found the minor as well as current and past students will share their perspectives at this social gathering.

RSVP by Friday, Oct. 14, to Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu.

Find FSU Activities on Facebook!

Student & Community Involvement can help enrich your University life with activities and opportunities to get involved, build your resume or blow off some steam. You can find information about all of these and more on Facebook. Find SCI at "FSU Department of Student & Community Involvement." You can also search "Frostburg State University Programming Council" for activities, shows and events or "Lane University Center" for all the happenings there. "FSU Volunteerism & National Service" can help you plan your time after college, and "FSU Leadership & Experiential Learning" helps you build your resume with valuable experience and leadership skills.

Want to Major in Business?

See Tammy Shockey in the College of Business Advising Center, Framptom 319, to declare a major in accounting or business administration. You can concentrate in finance, general management, human resource management, international business, marketing or small business entrepreneurship. To declare the economics major, see Dr. David Kiriazis in Guild 145.

Plan to Graduate in December?

The 139th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 20, in the Cordts PE Center. This is a change from previous years when it was usually held on a Saturday. The Colleges of Business, Education and Liberal Arts and Sciences will all present their graduates at 11 a.m. Tickets will be required for admission. The number of tickets allotted to each graduate will be determined at a later date.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now to receive information about the upcoming commencement.

The first commencement mailing is scheduled for mid-October and will be sent to students' local and permanent addresses. Update your address information in PAWS to receive all the details.

A Grad Fair will be held Monday, Oct. 24, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the University Store, where students can order caps and gowns and announcements.

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost and may be ordered at the University Store. Orders must be placed by Dec. 2.

The deadline for sign-up is Oct. 5.

Communion Worship Service will be held Sunday, Oct. 9, at 11:45 a.m. in Cook Chapel.

International

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. Students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Changsha, China – Spring 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. The cost of living is generally less than it is at FSU and courses are taught in English.

Limerick, Ireland – Spring 2011

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie/.

Deadlines

Graduation Exceptions

If your official degree progress report indicates you have not completed all requirements and you have a basis to request an exception, submit your written appeal letter and supporting letters and documentation to the Academic Standards Subcommittee, Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, by 4 p.m. on Oct. 13 for the October meeting or Nov. 17 for the November meeting (last chance for graduation exceptions and inclusion in the Commencement Booklet). For info, call the Provost’s Office at x4212.

Internships

Political Science/ Law & Society Majors

Tim Magrath will continue to conduct meetings for Political Science and Law and Society majors who plan to intern in spring or summer 2012 on the following Wednesdays at noon in Old Main 104: Oct. 19, Nov. 16 and Dec. 7.

Students must attend at least one meeting if they want to participate. It is recommended they attend all meetings. If unable to attend, students should contact Magrath in Guild 141, or at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg.edu.

Of special interest for spring is the Maryland General Assembly Intern Program. Applicants must be juniors or seniors and have a GPA of 3.0 or higher. A stipend is awarded for participation.
