FSU Homecoming Court Raises Nearly $5,000 for Charities

Homecoming Queen Sarah Thomas, Homecoming King Eric Stinchcomb and President Jonathan Gibralter

Six FSU Homecoming Court candidates representing five organizations raised a total of $4,775.46 for charities as part of FSU’s Leadership and Homecoming festivities this year.

For the seventh year in a row, candidates for FSU’s Homecoming King and Queen and the organizations they represent raised money for charities as a way to support local and national organizations in need of financial support.

Students raised the money within a three-week time frame, and the candidates were interviewed. Then the student body was given a chance to vote for the King and Queen during the days leading up to Leadership and Homecoming Weekend. The winners were selected based on the student popular vote and were crowned at the Bobcat Growl Pep Rally on Oct. 20, which kicked off the Homecoming festivities.

Sarah Thomas, representing Delta Zeta, was crowned 2011 Homecoming Queen. Her organization raised $1,696.96 for the American Cancer Society. Eric Stinchcomb of Phi Mu Delta was crowned 2011 Homecoming King. His group raised $1,101.50 for SAFE (Saving Animals From Euthanasia).

In addition to reigning over the Leadership and Homecoming Weekend, the King and Queen received the Foundation Royalty Award, $250 each given to them by the FSU Foundation, Inc.

Other participants for the 2011 Homecoming Court were:
- Jonathan Williams, representing the Student Government Association, who raised $47 for the FSU Foundation
- Mary Bisce, also representing SGA, who also raised $47 for the FSU Foundation
- Kandice Lenhart of Alpha Sigma Alpha, who raised $1,415 for the Karsin Raine Valentine Memorial Fund
- Valerie Rivera of Alpha Sigma Tau, who raised $515 for Habitat for Humanity

For info, contact the SGA office at x4304.

MCA Conference Draws Crowd

At the conference reception, former Gov. Robert Ehrlich was the featured political communication practitioner. The reception highlighted cross-disciplinary collaboration with the Departments of Communication Studies (CMST), Mass Communication (MCOM), Music and Political Communication as well as the J. Glenn Beall, Jr., Institute for Public Affairs. With piano performance by music professor Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon, a singing performance by communication studies professor Sheri Whalen with music majors Erin Wheeler on piano, and a full performance by the Walker Magnath, the event showcased the outcomes of experiential learning projects and honored local Appalachian culture.

The conference also brought together more than 80 MCA members from 24 colleges and universities from within and outside Maryland for an academic panel, roundtable and debate sessions. The keynote address was by Dr. Ted Sheckels, a political communication scholar.

CMST alumna Shavonne Shorter ‘08 received MCA’s first graduate student Founders’ Scholarship. Shorter is working on a doctorate in communication studies with an emphasis on organizational communication at Purdue University.

Company sponsors were McGraw Hill, Pearson, Bedford/St. Martin’s, Cengage Learning and RC Theaters.

For info on the conference or MCA, go to www.marylandcomm.org, or the CMST major/minor, www.frostburg.edu/dept/cmst.
FSU Students to Work on Museum Mural

Garry Ritchie, curator of the Frostburg Museum, discusses the desired finished result for a “trompe l’oeil” (“deceive the eye”) mural being painted at the Frostburg Museum. Some students from Kappa Pi, the art fraternity at FSU, Vanessa Gerstenberger, Alexander Brawn, Hannah Ehelman and Amber Hanigan, will work on the painting under the direction of Dennis Sherald, an art faculty member, local artist and muralist.

Social Marketing Team Visits College Park

In mid-October, FSU’s Social Marketing Team visited their peers at the University of Maryland at College Park. SMF explored marketing with the Adele H. Stamp Student Union Marketing Team and its assistant director of marketing, Andy Musko. The team also benchmarked its program with the University of Maryland’s. The FSU students returned with fresh ideas for promoting student and community involvement.

Jonathan Franklin, Matt Gerwin, Stephanie Giles, Carolyn Maxim, Michael McNair, Brandie Shackelford, Rose Trimmer, Bobbie Watson and SMF advisor Missy Martz attended the event.

StateLines/

Fair at FSU for state employees on Tuesday, Nov. 1, from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Representatives from Aetna, CareFirst, United Healthcare, United Concordia, CatalystRx and APS will be available to provide information about various wellness topics. A representative from the Allegany County Health Department will also be available to provide information about smoking cessation. For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at x4398.

Geography Dept.

Welcoming Event

The FSU Department of Geography will hold a welcoming event for new and current students Wednesday, Nov. 2, at 7 p.m. in Gunter 208. Interested students can get info about the department’s major programs: geography, earth science, environmental analysis and planning, and urban and regional planning. Info about student organizations and internship opportunities will also be available.

B.Y.O.G.

Bring Your Own Game day is back in the Lane Center Game Room on Wednesday night from 11 p.m. to 11 p.m.. The center will lock up the University’s games and open the Xbox, PlayStation and Wii gaming consoles for play and for students to share their own games. Admission is free. There is no charge to use the consoles. Next B.Y.O.G. days fall on Nov. 2, 16 and 30.

Want to Earn a Ph.D.?

Students who aspire to receive a Ph.D. and faculty and staff who can recommend students with Ph.D. potential are invited to attend an information session on the 2012 McNair Scholars Program on Tuesday, Nov. 8, in the President’s Board Room, Hitscherich 188.1 D. Terri Wright, the director of the University of Maryland, College Park McNair Program, will speak at 11 a.m. and repeat her presentation at noon.

The Ronald E. McNair Program serves students from groups under-represented in Ph.D. programs and is designed to prepare future college teachers and researchers. To be eligible, students must be low-income, first-generation college students, or members of a group under-represented in Ph.D. programs. Under-represented groups include African-Americans, Latinos and Native Americans in all fields, and women in science and technology fields.

Students should be sophomores or juniors by May 2012 with a cumulative GPA of 2.8 or above. FSU partners with UMCP to offer the program, which provides a paid summer research experience and workshops on graduate school preparation. Interested students should contact Harriet Douglas at bdouglas@frostburg.edu or x4598, Mary Gartner at mgartner@frostburg.edu or x4212 or Tam Lowry at tlowry@frostburg.edu or x4841.

For info and an online application, go to the UMCP McNair website at www.sapp.umd.edu/mcnairprogram.html. Applications are due soon after the first of the year.

Social Media in the Classroom?

The Social Media Group invites FSU faculty to complete a short survey about social media in the classroom. The group is interested in hearing about the pros and cons of using social media as a teaching tool, and whether more info and resources are needed. The long-term goal is to host a panel this spring featuring FSU educators who can share their knowledge on the topic. Access the survey at www.surveymonkey.com/s/2ND699K. The deadline for completing the survey is Nov. 11.

Five participants who complete this survey will be awarded a free gift certificate for a medium coffee or smoothie from Java City in the Lane Center. A Frostburg2Go T-shirt will also be given away. P.S. Interested in how higher education is using social media? Be sure to check out the Frostburg Community Facebook page at www.facebook.com/efrostburgcom for a daily digest of social media news and updates.

Intercultural Conversations Mixer

The Student Communications Studies Association will hold an Intercultural Conversations Mixer on Monday, Nov. 14, at 6 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). The event will focus on learning the ways various cultures communicate. There will be an interactive ice-breaker that will lead into the main event, during which students will be divided into six tables to mix “speed dating style” but with the purpose of building cross-cultural awareness and friendships. Each table will have one or two “cultural” representatives who will talk about a communication topic placed on the table. Information relevant to intercultural and international education will be provided.

For info, contact Jennifer Cruz at jrcruz@frostburg.edu or Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at elruninski@frostburg.edu.

Burg Peer Education Network Activities

Great American Smokeout, Nov. 16 and 17, all day. This information/awareness booth will allow you to enter the world of a non-smoker! There will be all kinds of treats and gimmicks to help and support you to be smoke-free. The non-smokers will also be recognized and encouraged to continue to make healthy choices. You can toss those packs in the Lane Center lobby box!

Maryland Charity Campaign

The 2011 Maryland Charity Campaign pledge drive is under way. This year’s theme, “We Are All Connected,” is a reminder that each one of us can make a difference in the lives of people in our communities, ensuring that help will be available for those who ask for it.

The MCC effort at FSU is “going green” and reducing the amount of paper used. Each department is receiving President Jonathan Gibralter’s campaign kick-off memo with one copy of the charity directory via campus mail. Although employees will not get paper pledge sheets or their own copies of the charity directory as in past years, donating is more convenient than ever.

Online pledging by payroll deduction or credit card makes it easy to contribute to a charity of one’s choice. Just $1 per pay period ($26 annually) helps someone in need. Go to www.mcdcharity.org to find a charity and make a pledge.

To make a one-time donation by check or cash, or if you prefer not to pledge online, contact Kelly Durst at x7487 or kdurst@frostburg.edu for a printed pledge sheet and a charity directory.

Now this year, Evergreen Pledging gives one the option to continue the MCC payroll deduction amount and charity designations for the 2012 and 2013 calendar years. Be sure to indicate a preference when pledging online or completing a pledge sheet.

For info, contact Durst or any of the site coordinators:
- Annapolis Hall – Bonnie Jackson
- Compton Science Center – Linda Steele
- Frampton Hall – Linda Brumage and Tammy Shokey
- Guild Center – Stacy Wassell
- Linwells Hall – Carla Boone
- Performing Arts Center – Beth Andrews
- Pullen Hall – Anita McGregor
- Stangie Building – Kathy Leck

Make a pledge online or return your completed pledge sheet no later than Monday, Nov. 28.

Psychology Club at USMH

The next Psychology Club meeting at USM Hagerstown will be on Monday, Nov. 28, from 6:15 to 8:30 p.m. The group will watch the film “Thank You for Smoking” and focus on the role of critical thinking in the film and the depiction of nicotine.

For info, contact Dr. Christopher Masicocchi at cmmasiococchi@frostburg.edu. The club is open to FSU psychology majors, as well as anyone else with an interest in psychology.

Plan to Graduate in December?

The 139th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 20, in the Cordts PE Center. This is a change from previous years when it was usually held on a Saturday. The Colleges of Business, Education and Liberal Arts and Sciences will all present their graduates at 11 a.m. Tickets will be required for admission. The number of tickets allotted to each graduate will be determined at a later date.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now to receive information about the upcoming commencement.

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost. They may also be ordered at the University Store, but orders must be placed by Dec. 2.

Full details can be found on the commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittini Teter at x4423 or bketter@frostburg.edu.

Get Involved

Become a Member of the Tech Crew

Join the Lane Center Tech Crew today for an opportunity to obtain a behind-the-scenes experience associated with supporting conferences and events and how to set up and operate professional sound and lighting systems.

Experience is strongly preferred but all applications are encouraged. Apply online at http://involvement.frostburg.edu/. Submit applications by Nov. 2.

The Arboretum Needs You!

Special Arboretum Committee Meeting

Members of the FSU Arboretum Committee invite any faculty, staff or students interested in helping to attend a special meeting on Thursday, Nov. 3, from 3 to 4 p.m. in Compton 237. Come to learn about current plans for the Arboretum, find out how you can join the Arboretum Committee and help coordinate its efforts, and provide ideas and suggestions.

Arboretum Work Day

A work day is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 5. The group will meet at the gazebo near the stadium parking lot at 2 p.m. and work until 5 p.m.

For info, contact Dan Fiscus at x4170 or dfiscus@frostburg.edu, or go to the Arboretum website at www.frostburg.edu/dept/biol/arboretum.

Social Work Alliance

Social Work Alliance meetings are held every other Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in the Guild Center conference room basement.

Oxfam Hunger Banquet

The Oxfam Hunger Banquet will be held Monday, Nov. 14, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. The banquet is an amazing way for students, faculty and staff to learn about world hunger and ways they can help.

The event is sponsored by the Office of Volunteerism and National Service and AmeriCorps.

Attendees are asked to bring cans of food or a cash donation for the Frostburg Food Pantry.

For info, contact Ashley Daniels at amdaniels@frostburg.edu.

Thanksgiving Sponsor-a-Family

Through the 12th Annual Sponsor-a-Family Program, departments and organizations on campus can help make a difference by providing a food basket to a needy family in Western Maryland. Over the past 11 years, the Sponsor-a-Family Program has provided Thanksgiving baskets for more than 400 families! Last year FSU helped more than 70 families have a wonderful meal.

All baskets will be delivered on the Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

For info on the program or to sign up your office or organization to sponsor a family, contact Clarissa Lang at x4320 or calang@frostburg.edu.

Upcoming UCM Events

Group meetings are in Tawes 161. For info, contact the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

The Frostburg Chili Cook-off will be held Friday, Nov. 4, from 5 to 8 p.m. at Frostburg United Methodist Fellowship Hall, 48 W. Main St. (dine in or take-out available). Get your tickets and sign up to enter your chili in the contest! Cook-off competition can be a team/group/department or individual for the People’s Choice Award for Best Chili in Frostburg title. Tickets are $10 for an adult, $12 for a family ticket (which includes an adult and all children under 12) and $6 for students. Entertainment is included.
Spiritual Study Break
Contemporary Vesper Service is on Wednesdays from 9 to 9:45 p.m. The group will continue the series, "Building a Life That Counts – Why Am I Here?"

True North is a Sunday evening gathering of FSU students and other young adults in the Frostburg area who come together for conversational encounters with scripture. The group gathers at 6:45 p.m.; the new study series, "God + the Arts," starts at 7 p.m.

Internships

Political Science/ Law & Society Majors
Tim Magrath will continue to conduct meetings for Political Science and Law and Society majors who plan to intern in spring or summer 2012 on the following Wednesdays at noon in Old Main 104: Nov. 16 and Dec. 7.

International Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. Students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x7417 or email Victoria Gearhart at vggearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/studyabroad.htm.

Changsha, China – Spring 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student-e bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. The cost of living is low and courses are taught in English.

Limerick, Ireland – Spring 2011

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie/.
Resident Assistants

The Residence Life Office and Edgewood Commons seek resident assistants for the spring semester.

Applications can be picked up at the Residence Life Office or Edgewood Commons; completed applications are due Nov. 9.

Admissions Counselor

The FSU Admissions Office seeks applications for an admissions counselor. This is a full-time, exempt position with benefits.

Responsibilities are to assist in the recruitment of new undergraduate students, conduct interviews with prospective students and families, review undergraduate applications and assist with recruiting activities. Evening and weekend hours are required.

Minimum qualifications are a bachelor's degree, excellent written and oral communication skills, the ability to work as part of a team as well as independently and the desire to travel.

This is an entry-level position and recent graduates are encouraged to apply. To apply, email a letter of interest; resume; and the names, addresses and phone numbers of three professional references by Nov. 29 to humanresources@frostburg.edu.

Include “Admissions Counselor (Position No. 12-010445)” in the subject line.

AAUW Meeting

The American Association of University Women will hold a meeting at the Frostburg United Methodist Church Hall on Main Street Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 7 p.m.

The speaker will be John McMullen of Comfort Keepers. Members and guests are invited to attend. For info, call Liz West at 301-722-6445.
