Alice Fiedlerová and Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon to Perform Concert

FSU's Department of Music and the FSU Foundation will present Czech pianist Alice Fiedlerová and Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon, a professor of music at FSU, in a program for duo piano on Friday, Sept. 30, at 8 p.m. at the Lyric Theatre at 20 E. Main St. in Frostburg. The concert will celebrate renowned composer Antonín Dvořák as part of the 2011 Mutual Inspirations Festival of the Embassy of the Czech Republic in Washington, D.C.

The program will feature "Concordien Polka," "Zlonice Sugar Polka" and "Grand Cacilien Galopp" by Antonín Liehmann; "Můj Máj, Opus 20" by Vítězslav Novák; "Czech Dances" by Vítězslav Novák; and "Slavonic Dances, Opus 46" by Dvořák.

Fiedlerová is a featured artist for the International Dvorak Society's American Spring Festival. She has made a number of recordings for Czech radio and television and has performed in Germany, France, Switzerland, Belgium and the U.S. In 2000, she was invited to collaborate on "In Memory of the Czech Terezín Composers Project" as the featured performer for the opening concert of the project. She is on the faculty of New York University in Prague and the Conservatory of Music in Prague.

Dixon has conducted extensive concert tours in the U.S., England, France, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Israel, Palestine and Japan. She is a featured artist for the International Dvorak Society's American Spring Festival and performs numerous concerts throughout the Czech Republic each year. She has released 12 CDs, featuring both piano and organ, and is frequently heard on National Public Radio and programs such as "Pipedreams." For info, visit www.joandeveedixon.com.

The concert is free and open to the public. For info, contact Dixon at x4115.

The Mutual Inspirations Festival extends from September through October 2011 and forms a unique bridge between Czech and American cultures. In all, the two-month event will feature more than 500 musicians from the U.S. and the Czech Republic. For a full lineup of events, visit www.mutualinspirations.org.

CES Presents the Paul Taylor Dance Company

Aileen Roehl and Sean Mahoney in "Orbs"

The masterful choreography of an American legend comes to FSU when FSU's Cultural Events Series presents the Paul Taylor Dance Company on Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre. Ticket holders will also have the opportunity to interact with company members in a post-performance discussion.

The 16-member company will perform three works from the Taylor repertory. "Oh, You Kid!" is an exuberant throwback to the days of vaudeville set to the music of the Paragon Ragtime Ensemble. "Mercuric Tidings" is an energetically joyful work set to the music of Schubert, while the darkly beautiful "Lines of Loss," featuring the music of six composers, sets a more sorrowful mood.

Taylor, one of the most revered American choreographers of the 20th and 21st centuries, helped to forge America's indigenous art form: modern dance. At age 81, Taylor continues to win praise for the vitality of his recent works as well as his classics. Since its inception over 50 years ago, the Paul Taylor Dance Company has become a celebrated and prominent member of the international dance community.

In support of the public performance, two free Arts for Enrichment events will be offered to community members. On Friday, Sept. 30, and Saturday, Oct. 1, at 7 p.m. in Lane University Center 111, CES will present the Academy Award-nominated film, "Dancemaker," which focuses on Taylor's career and gives a behind-the-scenes look at life in the modern dance world. On Monday, Oct. 10, students of dance will have the opportunity to take a master class with one of the Paul Taylor company members. The class in modern dance technique is suitable for late beginner or early intermediate-level dance students. Space is limited and reservations are required. Interested dancers should contact cesoutreach@frostburg.edu to reserve a space.

Tickets are $18 for adults and $13 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available. For info, contact the Cultural Events Series box office at x3137 or visit CES's webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Theatre

Theatre and Dance to Present 'Our Town'

FSU's Department of Theatre and Dance will open its 2011-2012 season on Sept. 30 with "Our Town." Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1938, "Our Town" depicts the small-town daily life of Grover's Corners, N.H. Through an on-stage narrator, it tells the story of the Webb and Gibbs children as they fall in love, marry and eventually face one of life's darkest moments. Performance dates will be Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, 6, 7 and 8 at 7:30 p.m. with a matinee performance on Oct. 1 at 2 p.m. in the Drama Theatre.

Season subscriptions are available. The Main Stage subscription offers the general public five tickets to Main Stage shows (one ticket per show for Main Stage productions and the Fall Dance Concert) for $50, and the student subscription offers students five tickets to Main Stage productions for $25. Individual tickets are $12 for general admission and $6 for students.

For info, call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Music

SOREA Dance, Music

SOREA will perform at FSU Saturday, Oct. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. This free performance is sponsored by the Allegany Arts Council and FSU Department of Music Guest Artist Series with World Artist Experiences and the Korean Embassy.

The name SOREA comes from "Sound of Korea" and "Symbol of Korea." SOREA plays modernized Korean traditional music and kicked off its debut by winning the gold award in the Creative Korean Traditional Music competition in 2005. Its original composition "Beautiful Korea" was selected to be included in the music textbooks of junior high schools. SOREA has also been chosen as an honorary ambassador to represent the Korean Ministry for Health, Welfare, and Family Affairs for 2010-2011.

Recently, SOREA's "Restart the Show" was selected as the title theme for the 13-episode documentary called Kimchi Chronicles by America's PBS TV.

LIVE! at StarScape Presents SFJAZZ

FSU's Cultural Events Series will present musical super group the SFJAZZ Collective on Saturday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall as part of CES' new LIVE! at StarScape series.

The SFJAZZ Collective is a jazz ensemble involving eight of the finest musicians from the current jazz scene. Created in 2004, the group has quickly established itself as one of the most electrifying and celebrated groups in the international jazz world. The 2011 ensemble features MacArthur Genius Grant winner Miguel Zenón on alto sax and flute, Guggenheim Fellow Edward Simon on piano, Grammy Award-nominated vibraphonist Stefon Harris and leading jazz masters Mark Turner on tenor saxophone, trumpeter Avishai Cohen, trombonist Robin Eubanks, Matt Penman on bass and Eric Harland on drums.

During their visit to FSU, SFJAZZ will present an energetic performance that explores the enduring melodies of pop music icon Stevie Wonder. Wonder's impact on musicians and songwriters of all genres is presented to full effect in this stunning musical tribute.

Tickets are $24 for adults and $18 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available. For info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES' webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Center for Creative Writing Hosting Poet Irene McKinney

FSU's Center for Creative Writing will host a reading by poet Irene McKinney on Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lyric Theater at 22 E. Main St.

The reading is free and open to the public.

McKinney was appointed poet laureate of West Virginia in 1994 and received a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship in Poetry and two West Virginia Commission on the Arts Fellowships in Poetry. She is the author of five books of poetry, with the most recent being "Unthinkable: Selected Poems" released in 2009. McKinney has been writer-in-residence at Western Washington University, the University of New Mexico, University of California and Hamilton College. She was most recently appointed Thornton Writer-in-Residence at Lynchburg College for 2010. McKinney is a professor emerita at West Virginia Wesleyan College.

For info, call the Frostburg Center for Creative Writing at x4340 or view the website at www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter/.

Water School Founder to Speak

The founder of the Water School, a global organization striving to provide cleaner water and better sanitation in the developing world, will speak at FSU on Wednesday, Sept. 28. Robert Dell will present "The Water School: A Little Bit of Science, a Lot of Common Sense" in the Lane Atkinson Room (232) at 7 p.m. His presentation is free and open to the public.

According to the World Health Organization, 3.5 million people die each year from inadequate access to safe drinking water and poor hygiene, and one and a half million of these are children. The Water School empowers communities through a three-step program that integrates sanitation and hygiene education with a simple and sustainable water treatment technology called Solar Disinfection (SODIS), creating independence and sustainability in the countries in which they are currently working – Haiti, Kenya and Uganda.

The presentation will include a discussion of ways to become involved in this nonprofit organization.

For info on the presentation, contact the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411. For info on the Water School, visit www.waterschool.com.

A Reading of Banned Books

The English Honors Society Sigma Tau Delta and the Department of English at FSU will present an evening of readings from books deemed controversial enough to be banned or challenged. The reading will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. in Lane 133-B-133-C.

This event is held with the American Library Association's annual Banned Books Week: Celebrating the Freedom to Read.

For info, contact Dr. Mary Anne Lutz at mlutz@frostburg.edu.

Philosophical Forum

The FSU Philosophy Department will hold its fall 2011 Philosophical Forum on Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room

(232). The lecture is titled "The Philosopher and the Guitar: Music, Freedom and Human Rights" and will feature Dr. Austin Dacey, philosopher, author and human rights advocate. The presentation, accompanied by a musical performance, will be followed by a free-ranging discussion among Dacey, the musicians and the audience.

This presentation reflects on the views of Plato, Xunzi, St. Augustine, Ibn Taymiyya and Schopenhauer in connection with the lives of musicians pursuing their art under authoritarian regimes such as the Islamic Republic of Iran. It will be followed by a special appearance by "The Casualty Process," an electronic rock duo from the Tehran underground.

The lecture, music and discussion are free and open to the public. For info, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Lecture/Performance by Dr. Greg Latta

Dr. Greg Latta, a professor in the Department of Physics and Engineering will give a lecture/performance titled "Music and Science" on Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. at Maplehurst Country Club in Frostburg.

The performance is free and open to the public. Latta will present a program featuring the hammered dulcimer, uilleann pipes, 12-string guitar, ocarina, banjo, limberjack, recorder and cittern. The program will feature performances on each instrument along with a discussion of the instrument, its origins and the science behind the instrument.

The lecture is preceded by a dinner at 6 p.m. RSVP to Dr. Don Weser at dweser@frostburg.edu or Dr. Ben Norris at bnorris@frostburg.edu by Sept. 30. For info, contact Dr. Joanne Budzien at jbudzien@frostburg.edu.

Upcoming MCA Conference

Points of Pride

FSU Honors Three With Staff Awards for Excellence

FSU honored three outstanding employees, April Baer, Stacy Wassell and James Imes, at its recent Fall Convocation. The annual Staff Awards for Excellence recognize outstanding service to the institution, and the recipients are nominated and chosen by their colleagues.

Baer was honored in the Exempt (salaried) employee category. Employed by FSU for the past three years, Baer is the coordinator for University Wellness. In her position, Baer actively promotes the University's strategic plan by engaging students in Wellness initiatives through the CHILL (Creating Healthy, Informed, Lasting Lifestyles) program. It was through her grassroots efforts with CHILL that FSU was recently recognized by the American Heart Association as a Gold Standard Workplace winner.

Wassell was honored in the category of Nonexempt employee. Wassell began her employment at FSU eight years ago. In 2006, she was hired as an executive administrative assistant in the College of Business. In addition to her employment at FSU, she is enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration program and will graduate in May 2012.

James Imes was recognized under the Nonexempt employee/facilities/maintenance category. Imes has been employed at FSU for 39 years. In 1971, he was hired as a temporary service worker in the Physical Plant. Soon after that, he was hired as a locksmith and continues to serve in that capacity almost four decades later. In his free time, he is a member of the Piney Mountain Sportsmen's Association where he serves on their Board of Directors.

Award recipients were given a plaque, a certificate commemorating their dedication and a monetary award. Staff Awards for Excellence are funded by the FSU Foundation's Annual Fund Campaign.

Tootoonchi Published

Pearson-Prentice Hall has published the third edition of a book Dr. Ahmad Tootoonchi co-authored with Dr. Danny Arnold four years ago. The new title of the book is "Foundation and Practical Elements of Leadership." It is available at www.amazon.com and is a good reading book for all supervisors and managers.

New Faces at the College of Business

The College of Business recently added four new faculty members and one staff member to their team for the new academic year.

- Dr. Tae-Nyun Kim, assistant professor of finance
- Dr. Mark Lennon, assistant professor of international business
- Dr. Suzanne McCoskey, assistant professor of economics
- Chelsea Wassell, lecturer, Department of Management
- Karin Tedesco, administrative assistant, Department of Marketing and Finance

Upcoming Majors Fair

Come learn about the various majors offered at FSU on Oct. 12, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. All academic departments have been encouraged to attend the Majors Fair and share the great opportunities available. See hands-on demos and interact with other FSU students who have chosen a major.

Find FSU Activities on Facebook!

Student & Community Involvement can help enrich your University life with activities and opportunities to get involved, build your resume or blow off some steam. You can find information about all of these and more on Facebook. Find SCI at "FSU Department of Student & Community Involvement." You can also search "Frostburg State University Programming Council" for activities, shows and events or "Lane University Center" for all the happenings there. "FSU Volunteerism & National Service" can help you plan your time after college, and "FSU Leadership & Experiential Learning" helps you build your resume with valuable experience and leadership skills.

Social Media in the Classroom

FSU faculty, are you interested in using social media in the classroom, as part of how you connect with students and help them understand ideas, collaborate and critically reflect on their coursework? Are you already using social media as part of your teaching? If so, FSU's Social Media Group would love to hear from you.

The group is interested in adding educational resources about social media to the eFrostburg Community website (www.frostburg.edu/socialmedia) and would appreciate your input. For info, contact the group at efrostburgcomm@frostburg.edu and visit www.facebook.com/efrostburgcomm.

Free Bio-medical Screenings!

FSU's popular student health and wellness initiative is hosting another round of annual bio-medical screenings this fall. Creating Healthy, Informed, Lasting Lifestyles (CHILL) will ask students to participate in their bio-medical screenings on Wednesday, Sept. 28, and Thursday, Oct. 13, from 8 a.m. to noon each day. Students will be able to have their blood pressure, body mass index, body composition, blood sugar and cholesterol levels checked at no cost, all while earning CHILL prizes.

To complete the screening, students will need to refrain from eating or drinking anything but water for at least eight hours before the screening. The screenings involve having a vial of blood drawn to check the blood sugar and cholesterol levels.

Each student screened will be eligible to receive follow-up care at Brady Health Center, including free consultations with nursing staff and the CHILL dietician.

In exchange for the student's time, each participant will receive a complimentary breakfast and a free CHILL T-shirt, and will be entered in drawings for other free CHILL prizes. The first 25 students in line each morning for the screenings will also receive a special bonus CHILL prize.

To be eligible for the screening, students must be at least 18 and not have any previous diagnosis concerning their blood sugar or heart health. Students who do not qualify for this screening are encouraged to contact Brady Health Center to make an appointment to have the screening performed at a later date.

To learn more about CHILL, visit www.frostburg.edu/chill or email wellness@frostburg.edu.

Blood Drive

The Pre-Professional Medical Society will have a blood drive on Oct. 6 in Lane Manicur Hall. Donors can sign up for a time slot on the second floor of Compton on Oct. 3, 4 and 5 at the Pre-med table. Walk-ins will also be accepted.

For info, contact Josh Elmore at jselmore0@frostburg.edu.

Get Your Flu Shot!

A flu vaccine walk-in clinic will be held Thursday, Oct. 6, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Brady Health Center. The cost is $20 for the flu shot or $25 for the nasal flu mist, payable by cash, check or Bobcat card – no insurance billing, debit or credit cards.

If you can't make these clinic times, call Brady Health at x4310 for an appointment.

Plan to Graduate in December?

The 139th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 20, in the Cordts PE Center. This is a change from previous years when it was usually held on a Saturday. The Colleges of Business, Education and Liberal Arts and Sciences will all present their graduates at 11 a.m. Tickets will be required for admission. The number of tickets allotted to each graduate will be determined at a later date.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now to receive information about the upcoming commencement.

The first commencement mailing is scheduled for mid-October and will be sent to students' local and permanent addresses. Update your address information in PAWS to receive all the details.

A Grad Fair will be held Monday, Oct. 24, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the University Store, where students can order caps and gowns and announcements.

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost and may be ordered at the University Store. Orders must be placed by Dec. 2.

Full details can be found on the commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement.

For info, contact Brittnei Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

For an application and appointment, contact Zirlott at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu as soon as possible.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. Students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Changsha, China – Spring 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. The cost of living is generally less than it is at FSU and courses are taught in English.

Limerick, Ireland – Spring 2011

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie/.
