FSU Children’s Literature Centre Celebrates Annual Storybook Holiday

The FSU Children’s Literature Centre and FrostburgFirst come together to present the ninth annual Frostburg Storybook Holiday Saturday, Dec. 1, from 8 a.m. to 9:45 p.m. This is a daylong event of seasonal family activities.

The opening celebration will occur at Failing’s Historic Hotel Gunter on Main Street, where guests can enjoy Breakfast With the Elves for $6 per person from 8 to 9:30 a.m. Tickets are available at the Hotel Gunter. The annual Elf Olympics will begin at 9:30 a.m., followed by the Storybook Holiday parade on Main Street. After the parade, children’s illustrator S.D. Schindler will present his holiday book, “The Snow Globe Family,” at the Frostburg Community Library, followed by a craft activity.

The sidewalks of Frostburg will feature carolers and wandering elves, and Frostburg’s City Place, on Water Street, will host various activities throughout the day, including free holiday trolley rides from 1 to 4 p.m. From 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., children may visit the Elves’ Secret Workshop to choose a craft to make and wrap as a “secret” gift. They may also visit the Letter to Santa station, where they can write and mail their letter to the North Pole. Children will also have the opportunity to have their picture taken with an elf. From 2 to 3 p.m., visitors can purchase one of S.D. Schindler’s books and have it autographed. Holiday craft vendors and a miniature railroad will also be at City Place from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Take the time to celebrate the season through literature during the holiday storybook readings from 1 to 1:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of

Celeste Bartlett ’11, participating as an elf during a previous Frostburg Storybook Holiday, helps Jessalyn Bartlett with a craft.

St. Paul’s Lutheran Church. Also, from 1:30 to 3 p.m. the Soroptomist Holiday Auction will take place at the Community Center. Once again, the Hotel Gunter will house the Holiday Cookie Contest starting at 1:30 p.m., and free cookie decorating will begin at 1:30 p.m. in Hotel Gunter as well.

Following the Festival of Trees in City Place at 6:30 p.m., Potter’s Place will carol in Saint Michael’s Courtyard at 7:30 p.m. The Palace Theatre will host an 8 p.m. showing of the holiday classic, “Miracle on 34th Street.” Tickets are $5 and are on sale at Main Street Books and the Children’s Literature Centre in Framptom 206.

Storybook Holiday, created by Dr. William Bingman and Dr. Barbara Ornstein, keeps alumni returning to Frostburg every year. Many alumni volunteer as elves, assist children, work in the Elves’ Secret Workshop and participate in the Elf Olympics.

Storybook Holiday’s major sponsors are PNC Bank, FrostburgFirst, the City of Frostburg Parks & Recreation, Frostburg Student Education Association, FSU College of Education and the Children’s Literature Centre of FSU. Additional sponsors are Main Street Books, Lorenzo’s Bakery, McFarland’s Candies, the Princess Restaurant, Allegany Arts Council and Collegiate Flats.

For info, contact the Children’s Literature Centre at x3133 or clc@frostburg.edu. Visit the Centre’s website at www.frostburg.edu/projects/clc.

Volunteers Needed!

Volunteers are needed for various activities to once again bring the magic of Storybook Holiday to the streets of Frostburg. The Children’s Literature Centre need elves and mere mortals to help with Breakfast With the Elves, the Elf Olympics, Storybook Holiday Parade, Sticker Stops, Caroling, Photo With an Elf, the Elves’ Secret Workshop, Letters to Santa, the Cookie Contest and Cookie Decorating, as well as prep activities in the weeks leading up to this wonderful University and city collaboration.

Last year, 400 children, as well as over 400 parents, participated in this free event for the community. Be a part of the magic!

To sign up for an activity, stop by the Children’s Literature Centre in Framptom 206 Mondays through Thursdays from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. or Fridays from 9 a.m. to noon.

Theatre

Department of Theatre and Dance Presents ‘Civil War Christmas’

Principal ensemble members Kristen Demers and Chris Evans

FSU’s Department of Theatre and Dance will celebrate the holiday season with the musical production, “A Civil War Christmas: An American Musical Celebration,” playing on Friday, Nov. 30, and Saturday, Dec. 1, and Wednesday to Saturday, Dec. 5 to 8, at 7:30 p.m., with matinees at 2 p.m. on Dec 1 and 8.

Directed by Mairzy Yost-Rushton, with musical direction by Chris McCabe, performances will take place in the PAC Drama Theatre.

Called “A rich and moving play with music,” by Variety, “A Civil War Christmas” uses traditional songs, spirituals, poetry and folk tales to stitch three stories together. Set in Washington, D.C., on Christmas Eve 1864, a fugitive from slavery desperately searches for her lost daughter, the ideologies of Confederate and Union soldiers are challenged and President and Mrs. Lincoln plot to give one another the perfect Christmas gift.

By Paula Vogel, the Pulitzer Prize-winning author of “How I Learned to Drive,” this epic play moves with the urgency of battle, but with an ending focused on community, family and hope.

To make reservations, call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Individual tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group reservations are available when booked in advance.

🎵 Music

CES to Host the von Trapp Children

The Cultural Events Series at FSU will present a heartwarming holiday performance from the von Trapp children Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall.

These grandchildren of Captain von Trapp continue the musical traditions of their famous family, which was portrayed in the timeless movie, “The Sound of Music.” These young siblings – Sofia, Melanie, Amanda and Justin – will perform folk and classical songs from European and American traditions, as well as holiday classics and timeless pieces from the Rogers and Hammerstein musical that turned von Trapp into a household name.

Tickets are $26 for adults and $21 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available.

For info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES’ website at ces.frostburg.edu.

Music Dept. & Handel Chamber Players to Perform in ‘Messiah’

Celebrate the holiday season with the FSU Department of Music and the Handel Chamber Players in their presentation of George Frederic Handel’s “Messiah.” The two performances will be Saturday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 2, at 3 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall.

Handel composed the “Messiah” in 1741 based on a text compiled by Charles Jennens, taken from the Psalms and the “Book of Common Prayer.” The opera was first performed in Dublin in 1741 and had its London debut in 1743. The first U.S.

performance took place in Boston on Christmas day, 1818.

These performances, conducted by Dr. Karen Soderberg, will feature the following FSU students: sopranos Olivia Hartman and Britany Poindexter; altos Stephanie Laut, Jessica Knouse and Mikayla Young; and tenor Lane Conklin. They will be joined by faculty artist, bass-baritone Dr. Steven Soebbing. The Handel Chamber Players comprise professionals from the Baltimore and Washington, D.C., area, as well as FSU faculty and students.

Soebbing received his doctorate in vocal performance from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln where he studied with William Shomos. Soebbing’s performance background has been rich and varied. He has performed the opera roles of Seneca in “L’incoronazione di Poppea” by Monteverdi, Mercutio in “Roméo et Juliette” by Gounod, the Count in “Le Nozze di Figaro” by Mozart, Nick Bottom in “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” by Britten, Jupiter in “Cast and Crew” by Jacques Offenbach and Sparafucile in “Rigoletto” by Verdi. He is also at home on the concert stage, having frequently performed in Handel’s “Messiah.”

Tickets for the “Messiah” are $10 for general admission, $5 for students and senior citizens and free for children 12 and younger. Tickets may be purchased at the door or reserved by calling x4110.

Preserve the Music Concert

The Collegiate Interfraternity Music Council will hold a concert featuring musical students and organizations on Wednesday, Nov. 28, from 8:30 to 10 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall.

Also, during the week of Nov. 26 to 30, CIMC will host Preserve the Music week to promote music and help raise money for FSU’s Music Department. During this time, there will be a table set up in Lane where people can drop by and make a donation.

For info, contact Joel Watson at 410-430-0736 or jawatson0@gmail.com.

Presentations

CMST Colloquium Dinner

The Department of Communication Studies (CMST) will hold this semester’s colloquium dinner on Friday, Dec. 7, at 6 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). CMST majors Monica Stubbings and Olivia Flisher will deliver capstone presentations, and students who were part of the CMST 355 Political Communication field trip to Washington, D.C., will present about their experiential learning. The Student Communication Studies

Association will honor graduating seniors as well. The event is open to CMST majors and minors, those who would like to support presenters or those who are interested in learning more about the CMST major or minor.

To attend, email department assistant Olivia Flisher at oflisher0@frostburg.edu by Friday, Nov. 30.

Visual Arts

Ort Library Presents Three New Displays

“From Kites to Jets: The History of Flight” on the fifth floor through Jan. 31, 2013, highlights historic events associated with aviation from the early use of kites in China to determine weather patterns, to the 15th-century designs of Leonardo da Vinci, to the development of the airplane by the Wright Brothers. In addition, it highlights some of the print resources the library offers on aviation.

“Helping Others: Organizations That Help Those in Need” on the third floor highlights some of the local, national and international organizations that are working to end hunger. The library is also collecting food donations for the Frostburg Food Bank through the end of the semester.

“Serving Our People, Serving Our Nations; Honoring Those That Served Our Country” on the third floor honors Native American Heritage Month. The display highlights eight Native Americans who served their country during World War II, the Korean War or the Vietnam War. Based on their heroism, they were awarded the Medal of Honor. Additionally, the display honors the Native American code talkers of World War I and World War II who used their native languages as a communication tool among the Allies and as a code, which was never broken. The display will be available through the end of November.

Points of Pride

Ruminski Honored for Leadership

FSU’s Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of the Department of Communication Studies, received the 2012 National States Advisory Council (NSAC) Administrator of the Year Award. NSAC is affiliated with the National Communication Association (NCA), which promotes the widespread appreciation of the importance of communication in public and private life.

Ruminski has been honored for her experience as a leader for many projects at FSU and her involvement with the Maryland Communication Association (MCA). She served as the first vice president of MCA, an organization in which her mentors served as leaders as well. During her first year at MCA, she took a bold step and volunteered to organize the conference.

Ruminski is pleased at the positive attention the award brought the FSU Communication Studies Department and the substantial opportunities it offers students to get involved.

"It's more about the way the work is connected," she said.

For info about the FSU Communication Studies Department, call x4145. For info about NCA, visit www.natcom.org.

New Student Veterans Group at FSU

For info, contact McCarty at blmccarty0@frostburg.edu or 240-522-2022.

Take Note Md. Charity Campaign Pledge Drive

The 2012 Maryland Charity Campaign pledge drive is under way. This year's theme, Today's Gift ... Tomorrow's Difference, reflects the responsibility people have in Maryland to help friends and neighbors in need, ensuring that help will be available for those who ask for it.

The MCC effort at FSU has gone green, reducing the amount of paper used. Each department is receiving President Gibraltar's campaign kickoff memo with one copy of the charity directory via campus mail. Although individual employees will not get printed pledge sheets or their own copies of the charity directory, convenient online pledging is available.

Online pledging by payroll deduction or credit card makes it easy to contribute to a charity of one's choice. Just $1 per pay period ($26 annually) helps someone in need. Go to www.mdcharity.org to find a charity and make a pledge. Select CONTRIBUTE, then select Pledge Online and follow the on-screen directions to log in. Next click Donate Now and follow the prompts to enter a pledge amount and charity designations. When finished, print a copy of the pledge form.

To make a one-time donation by check or cash, or if you prefer not to pledge online, contact Kelly Durst, FSU's MCC head coordinator, at x7487 or kdurst@frostburg.edu for a printed pledge sheet and a charity directory.

For info, contact Durst or any of these site coordinators:

- Annapolis Hall – Bonnie Jackson
- Compton Science Center – Linda Steele
- Framptom Hall – Linda Brumage and Tammy Shockey
- Guild Center – Stacy Wassell
- Lowndes Hall – Carla Boone
- Performing Arts Center – Beth Andrews
- Pullen Hall – Anita McGregor
- Stangle Building – Kathy Leck

Make a pledge online at www.mdcharity.org or return the completed pledge sheet to Durst in the Office of Human Resources or to a nearby site coordinator no later than Wednesday, Nov. 28.

Environmental Communication

Interested in Environmental Communication? Dr. Brent Kice will offer CMST 490 Special Topics: Environmental Communication during the 2013 Winter Intersession. The course will be fully online, and students will evaluate environmental campaigns to learn the various means of communicating messages regarding environmental issues. Some campaigns the class will examine are BP and the Gulf of Mexico oil spill, the Sea Shepherd organization from the Animal Planet show "Whale Wars" and perceptions of residents concerning wind farm construction.

For info, contact Kice in the Department of Communication Studies at bkice@frostburg.edu or x4709.

USM Staff Awards

The Council of University System Staff (CUSS) is again accepting nominations for the Board of Regents' University System of Maryland Staff Awards. These awards represent the highest honor bestowed by the regents for achievements of exempt and nonexempt employees from USM institutions, and are presented to staff members who have demonstrated excellence in one of the following categories: (1) contribution to the institution and/or unit to which the person belongs, (2) service to students in an academic or residential environment, (3) public service to the university or greater community or (4) effectiveness and efficiency in academic or administrative transformation. Two employees are recognized in each category for a total of eight awards.

Nominations are first considered at an institutional level before being forwarded to the CUSS Awards Review Committee for final selection. An internal Staff Awards Review Committee made up of the following staff employees will select nominees from FSU:

- Kelly Durst, Office of Human Resources, x7487, kdurst@frostburg.edu
  - Nancy Frost, Ort Library, x3058, nfrost@frostburg.edu
  - Jay Hegeman, Student and Educational Services, x4738, jhegeman@frostburg.edu
  - Jesse Ketterman, Student and Educational Services, x4311, jketterman@frostburg.edu
  - Dean Bolden, Physical Plant, x7004, djbalden@frostburg.edu
- Contact any of these committee members with the name of a potential candidate and reasons why you believe that staff member to be worthy of an award nomination. The committee members then will work with you to complete a competitive nomination packet. FSU's selected nominees are due to be submitted to the CUSS Committee in early December.

FSU has had staff award winners in the past, including award recipients in 2011 and 2012.

Graduation Will Be Here Soon!

It's not too early to think about graduation, especially if you intend to graduate on Wednesday, Dec. 19, at 2 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center.

The Colleges of Business, Education, and Liberal Arts and Sciences will present their graduates during a single ceremony. Tickets will be required for admission. Each graduate will be allotted six tickets.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now and check with the Registrar's Office to ensure everything is in order.

The first of two Commencement mailings was sent in mid-October to your local and permanent addresses. If necessary, update your information in PAWS to ensure upcoming mailings will be sent to the correct locations.

Full details about the ceremony can be found on the Commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittni Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Photographer Needed

An experienced photographer interested in building his or her portfolio is needed to document the Spring Semester Sustaining Campus and Community Dialogue Series. The sessions promote a thriving, non-violent culture in Frostburg by bringing the campus and community together to discuss issues constructively and develop actions that help resolve these issues.

This is a grant-funded position paid hourly through support from the Maryland Judiciary’s Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office. Candidates must have their own equipment, be available for all four to six events and coordinate sharing of media with the videographer and project manager.

Send a resume and portfolio information to videographer Kelly Courtney at kmcourtney0@frostburg.edu by Monday, Dec. 3, to be considered for an interview.

For info, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of the Department of Communication Studies and project manager of the Dialogue Series project, at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Study Abroad in Limerick, Ireland, During the Spring 2013 Semester

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid may be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie.

Impact China, Summer 2013

FSU students now have an opportunity to experience Chinese culture, history and economic development via a two-week trip to visit four major Chinese cities while earning FSU credits. The faculty-led trip is a component of IDIS 350 China in the 21st Century and MGMT 490 Special Topics in Business Administration – Management, which will be offered in the first six-week session of summer 2013. Students will have the option to enroll in either course for three credits, or in both courses for six credits. The application deadline is Feb. 1, 2013.

Community

Frostburg Museum
Holiday Open House

The Frostburg Museum invites its members, friends and community to its annual open house Friday, Nov. 30, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the museum.

The open house is the kickoff event for Frostburg’s Storybook Holiday weekend and is followed immediately by the Christmas tree lighting downtown.

A display of menorahs, traditional and modern, from the collection of Betsey Hurwitz-Schwab will once again be exhibited.

Music will be provided by three groups.

- Morbheanna at 5:30 p.m.
- Concert Antigua at 6 p.m.
- Academic Probation at 6:30 p.m.

The Frostburg Rotary will decorate a tree with its collectible Christmas ornaments. Proceeds from the sale of ornaments help the club fund its community projects. A second tree decorated with the Children of the World dolls is being presented by Kitty Davis, a museum board member.

For the delight of children of all ages, the museum will once again showcase the Santa Claus outfit worn by the Rev. William Preston. It will be on display in the Cooke Children’s Toy Room.

The Frostburg Museum is a nonprofit organization located at the corners of Hill and Oak streets and is open Thursday through Saturday from noon to 4 p.m. Admittance is free; donations are appreciated.

For info, call 301-689-1195 or email FrostburgMuseum@Verizon.net.

Art for Giving
Exhibition at the
Gilchrist Museum

The C. William Gilchrist Museum of the Arts, at 104 Washington St. in Cumberland, will host the annual Art for Giving Exhibition through Dec. 23. The exhibition consists of two- and three-dimensional artwork, including jewelry, sculpture, fiber art, painting and others.

For info, email gilchristgallery@atlanticbb.net or contact Shirley Giarritta at 301-777-3337.
