Maryland Symphony Orchestra Returns to Frostburg State University

The Cultural Events Series will present an inspired program of three classical works when the always-outstanding Maryland Symphony Orchestra returns to FSU on Friday, Oct. 12, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall.

Led by MSO's masterful musical director, Elizabeth Schulze, the orchestra will perform a program of notable last works from three major composers: "Symphony No. 104" by Joseph Haydn, "Tapiola" by Jean Sibelius and "Cello Concerto in E Minor, Op. 85" by Edward Elgar.

International guest artist Zuill Bailey, widely considered to be one of the world's finest cellists, will join the orchestra for the Elgar concerto.

Preceding the performance, the CES Educational Outreach program will present MSO's "Prelude." In this interactive session, Schulze and Bailey will share details about the evening's musical selections. This 7 p.m. event, also held in PAC Pealer Recital Hall, will be offered free to ticket holders.

For info, contact the Cultural Events Series box office at x3137 or visit CES's webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

FSU Celebrates Leadership and Homecoming Weekend

Homecoming season is here and FSU will celebrate from Thursday, Oct. 18, to Sunday, Oct. 21. Past, present and future students are encouraged to participate. Activities will include a pep rally, comedy show, tailgating, football and the Bobcat athletic reunion.

The weekend will begin with the Growl, the annual pep rally where the 2012 Homecoming King and Queen will be crowned on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center's Main Arena.

On Friday, the events will begin at 9 a.m. with a campuswide career expo. At 12:30 p.m., there will be a Career Expo luncheon held at Lane Manicur Hall. The Bobcat Hall of Fame cocktail hour, induction ceremony and dinner will begin at 5 p.m. in the Cordts Main Arena. There will be a $30 charge for adults and a $15 charge for children under 12. The RSVP deadline for both events is Friday, Oct. 5. Later, the Black Student Alliance invites everyone to Lane Manicur Hall at 7:30 p.m. to enjoy a comedy show. The cost of this event is $7 for students and $12 for visitors. There will also be an All Campus Sing at 8 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. This event costs $3, or $2 for students wearing letters from recognized Greek organizations.

Saturday events begin at 8:30 a.m. with the Jim Anderson Memorial Baseball Breakfast in Lane Manicur Hall. The charge for this event is $20 for adults and $10 for children under 12. The RSVP date for the event is Oct. 5. Following that at 9 a.m. will be the Captain James A. Graham Memorial Project Kick-Off on the library deck. Alumni can update contact information at the Welcome Center from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Bobcat Stadium. At 10 a.m. there will be a Friends of Music Steering Committee Meeting and Brunch at St. John's Episcopal Church, 52 Broadway.

The campus tour will begin at 11 a.m. in Lane's upper lobby. The President's Leadership Circle Reunion will also begin at 11 a.m. in the Lane South Addition. Those interested must RSVP by Oct. 5.

At 11 a.m. FSU's Volleyball team will take on the Salisbury Seagulls in the Cordts Main Arena. Afterward, come support the FSU Football team with a tailgating party from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Free parking will be available. For a list of tailgating rules and regulations, visit www.alumni.frostburg.edu. At noon, the Black Student Alliance will host a "Mentoring and Networking" workshop in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Cheer on the Bobcats during the football game in Bobcat Stadium, where the Bobcats take on the Buffalo Bengals. The game starts at 1 p.m. and admission is free. From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. is the Bobcat Athletic Reunion on the Lewis J. Ort Library's deck. The cost is $20 per person and $10 for children 12 and younger; an RSVP by Oct. 5 is required.

The family can enjoy a movie and popcorn at 1 p.m. in Lane 111. Immediately following the football game at 4 p.m. will be an Impromptu Alumni Step Show presented by FSU's National Pan-Hellenic Council. At 5 p.m., FSU's Men's Soccer team takes on the Marymount Saints in Bobcat Stadium.

The evening activities begin at 7:30 p.m. with a dance concert featuring FSU students in the PAC Drama Theatre. Admission for this event is $6 for students and $12 for guests. At 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall, join alumni and friends at a dance party featuring Queen City Funk and Soul. There is a $10 cover charge. The evening festivities will continue with Club Connections, co-sponsored by Frostburg Connections, at the Lyric Theatre on Main Street from 10 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. The night wraps up with a mixer hosted by the Black Student Alliance and Student Government Association from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. in the Cordts Main Arena. The cost is $10 per student and $15 for non-students.

On Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room, there will be an Alumni Association board of directors meeting. The Men's Alumni Basketball Game will begin at 11 a.m. There will be a worship service at 11:30 a.m. at Cook Chapel. The Bobcat Field Hockey team will play against the Salisbury Seagulls at noon in the Bobcat Stadium. Also at noon, the Student Government Association will hold its Big Event; everyone is invited to help clean up the streets of Frostburg.

To RSVP for any event listed, contact the Office of Alumni Programs at x4068, email alumni@frostburg.edu or register online at www.frostburg.edu/homecoming. Information is also available at www.facebook.com/frostburgstatealumniassn. Attendees can track events and athletic scores, as well as access maps and directories, using the free Frostburg2Go mobile app, available for iPhone, Android and Blackberry. Visit www.frostburg.edu/computing/mobile.

Entertainment

Comedy Night With Cristela Alonzo

The University Programming Council at FSU will present a Comedy Night featuring comedian Cristela Alonzo on Monday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. Alonzo, who got her first break writing for Comedy Central, has also appeared on NBC's "Last Comic Standing," FX's "Sons of Anarchy" and TBS' "Conan O'Brien Show" and has performed with Gabriel Iglesias. Alonzo compares her style of humor to that of Wanda Sykes, using her universally funny outlook on life to produce a comedy act described as "no holds barred." This show is free and open to the public.

For info, contact Robert Cooper at x4411 or rmcooper@frostburg.edu.

New York's beloved children's theatre company, TheatreworksUSA, will return to FSU on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 9 and 10, as part of the Cultural Events Series annual program, Arts for the School Day, when regional elementary school children will travel to the University to attend one of five school-day matinees of the exuberant musical, "Imogene's Antlers and Other Storybooks." A limited number of public tickets are available for the 4:30 p.m. performance on Oct. 9.

This family performance is a sparkling revue comprised of several mini-musicals based on popular children's books, including "Amazing Grace" by Mary Hoffman, "Owen" by Kevin Henkes, "If You Give a Mouse a Cookie" by Laura Joffe Numeroff, "Borreguita and the Coyote" by Verna Aardema, "Master Man" by Aaron Shepard, "Math Curse" by Jon Scieszka and "Imogene's Antlers" by David Small.

TheatreworksUSA has a distinguished history of providing young audiences with their first taste of the performing arts and giving young actors, writers, directors and designers an early opportunity to work in professional theatre.

For info or to purchase tickets for the Oct. 9 public performance, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES's webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Theatre and Dance Presents 'Angels in America'

Clockwise from top are Nora Grider (as Harper Pitt), Scott Turner (as Roy M. Cohn), Jacob McDonald (as Joe Pitt), Shelby Herbert (as Ethel Rosenberg) and Nick E. Carter (as Louis Ironson).

FSU's Department of Theatre and Dance continues its first show of the season with Tony Kushner's play "Angels in America Part One: Millennium Approaches" Thursday through Saturday, Oct. 11 to 13, at 7:30 p.m. Praised by Newsweek Magazine as "The broadest, deepest, most searching American play of our time," "Angels in America" tells the story of two co-workers whose lives come together in reality and fantasy. Set in the context of the Reagan administration and the AIDS crisis, this play is recommended for mature audiences. Performances will take place in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

Season subscriptions are on sale until Oct. 13. For $60, Main Stage subscribers receive six tickets (one ticket per show for Main Stage productions and the Dance Concerts), an overall 15 percent savings. In addition, season subscribers can reserve tickets in advance of the general public. Individual tickets are $12 for general admission and $6 for students unless otherwise noted.

For info, call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462 Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Presentations

Western Maryland Indie Lit Festival

The FSU Center for Creative Writing, in partnership with the Allegany County Library System, is bringing the sixth annual Western Maryland Indie Lit Festival to Main Street Frostburg on Saturday, Oct. 13, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Described as "a celebration of readers, writers and publishers," the event brings editors and publishers together with local writers and educators to discuss topics such as various creative genres, DIY publishing, self-publishing, promotion and marketing, writing local and reading and writing online.

In advance of the festival, a poetry slam will be held on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at Dante's Bar in Frostburg, and a reading featuring several authors from participating presses will be held Friday, Oct. 12, at 5 p.m. at Main Street Books. A reception for press and journal attendees at the Center for Creative Writing and a panel discussion on the author/editor relationship at the Frostburg Library will follow Friday's reading.

Interviews and info about participating presses and journalists, as well as registration information for publishers and editors who would like to attend, will be available at the Center for Creative Writing website at www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter.

The event is free and open to the public. For info, contact the Washington Street Library at 301-777-1200 or the Center for Creative Writing at x4340 or www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter.

Fall Philosophical Forum Discussion

The Philosophy Department will present a panel discussion titled "Economic Justice in America's Election Year" on Tuesday, Oct. 16, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Michael Mathias of the Philosophy Department will serve as the panel moderator. The following four panelists will contribute their views, drawing on their respective disciplines.

- John Neral, Economics Department: "The Elephant (and Donkey) in the Room: Property Rights and Rent-Seeking"
- Suzanne McCoskey, Economics Department: "Main Street versus Wall Street: Who's in Charge Here?"
- John O'Rorke, Department of Political Science: "The Consequences of the Growing Economic Divide on U.S. Political and Social Stability"
- Jean-Marie Makang, Philosophy Department: "The Eradication of Poverty in 21st-Century America: A Moral Imperative"

After the brief presentations, the audience will be invited to interact with the panelists.

For info, contact Makang at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Communication Class to Present Project

FSU students in the CMST 350 Intercultural Communication will celebrate National Conflict Resolution Day through a presentation on Thursday, Oct. 18, from 12:30-1:30 p.m. in the Lane South Addition.

Students will announce a new project they are launching about dispelling stereotypes. As experiential learners, they will lead a project linked to the Sustaining Campus and Community Dialogue Series in Frostburg that will be planned, announced, initiated and then passed on to other students. Advisors will be Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of the Department of Communication Studies and project manager for the dialogue series, and Victoria Snyder, assistant director of the Diversity Center.

For info, contact Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480 or visit the dialogue series website at www.frostburg.edu/news/searchnewsdt/?id\_number=6684.

🎵 Music

The Nontraditional Styles of Matt Corey

The FSU Programming Council will present saxophonist and music sensation Matt

Corey on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. This event is free and open to the public.

Corey has been named “Male Solo Artist of the Year” for two consecutive years by the Association for the Promotion of Campus Activities. He has opened shows for many artists, including Lil Wayne, Far East Movement, New Boyz and Bruce Springsteen. Corey has been called a combination of Travis Barker and Jay Z.

For info, contact the Lane Center information desk at x4411 or visit Corey’s website at www.mattcorey.com.

FSU Wind Ensemble

The FSU Wind Ensemble will play its first concert of the fall on Sunday, Oct. 14, at 3 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The band, under the direction of Philip Klickman, will perform some classic American concert band music, including “Variations on a Shaker Melody” from Aaron Copland’s ballet, “Appalachian Spring”; “Lassus Trombone” by Henry Fillmore; and “Pineapple Poll,” a suite of dance music by Charles Mackerras. Also featured is an arrangement of Aaron Copland’s “Hoe Down” from the ballet, “Rodeo.” The concert concludes with “Incantation and Dance” by John Barnes Chance. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for students and free for children 12 and under.

For info, contact the FSU Music Department at x4109 or go to www.frostburg.edu/dept/music/concerts.

Sigma Alpha Iota Seeks Talent for All-Campus Sing

The women of Sigma Alpha Iota Women’s Music Fraternity, as well as the FSU Department of Music, welcome all instrumental, vocal and dance talent to compete for cash prizes at the fifth annual All-Campus Sing on Friday, Oct. 19, at 8 p.m.

All-Campus Sing, one of SAI’s major projects, is a campuswide, musical talent show that has been a part of FSU’s Leadership and Homecoming weekend schedule for five years. Performers compete for first-, second- and third-place cash prizes as well as a runner-up award, known as the People’s Choice award. For students who don’t wish to compete but just want to perform for fun, there are exhibition spots in the program.

Tickets will be $5 for non-students, $3 for students and $2 for students wearing Greek letters from recognized organizations. Tickets will be available at the door.

The fee to compete is $10 an act. Exhibition acts can perform for free. Sign-up forms are in the Department of Music Office on the second floor of the Performing Arts Center. Forms and money can be turned in to the Music Office in the SAI Mail Box or to Joy Marsiglia or Samantha Flowers. For info, contact either Marsiglia at jamarsiglia0@frostburg.edu or Flowers at slflowers0@frostburg.edu.

Stonestreet to Present Senior Soprano Recital

Soprano Brittany Stonestreet will present her senior vocal recital on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 3 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. She will be accompanied by pianist Dr. Sean Beachy. The recital is free and open to the public.

Stonestreet will perform a range of works, from Baroque and Romantic to Classical and Contemporary, in Italian, German, French and English. Her recital opens with Antonio Lotti’s “Pur dicesti, o bocca bella” and Handel’s “V’adaro, pupille” (from “Julius Caesar”), followed by lieder (German art songs) by Schubert and Wolf, and the aria “Batti, batti” from Mozart’s opera “Don Giovanni.”

The second half of her recital will open with two French pieces: a lullaby, “Bonne Nuit,” by Jules Massenet, and the fun, lighthearted song “A des Oiseaux” (“To the Birds”) by Georges Hüe, followed by a couple of British folk songs by Benjamin Britten. Stonestreet will conclude her recital with Richard Hundley’s “Come Ready and See Me,” Michael Head’s “The Fairies’ Dance” and Rolf Lovland’s “Your Raise Me Up.”

For info, contact the Department of Music at x4109 or visit www.frostburg.edu/dept/music.

Readings

Poetrypalooza With Allan Wolf

“An Echo in the Hills: A Poetrypalooza With Allan Wolf” and Poetry Slam will be held on Monday, Oct. 22, at 7 p.m. at Mountain City Traditional Arts on Main Street in Frostburg. This event is free and open to the public.

Wolf, of Asheville, N.C., is an author, poet, performer and educator. After three years teaching at Virginia Tech, he became the educational director for Poetry Alive! a national touring company that presents theatrical poetry shows for all ages. Wolf is also a member of The Dead Poets, a musical trio that transforms classic poetry into toe-tapping tunes. An active organizer in the early days of the poetry slam competitions, Wolf has unfailingly worked to take poetry to the people.

Got rhyme? A slam isn’t your ordinary poetry reading but a head-to-head poetry competition. It’s a spoken word live performance during which the audience determines who rules the stage. Come out and see local poets take their art to the stage or take the stage yourself! Experienced poets and novices alike are welcome. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

This event is part of the AppIndie’s One Vision Many Voices Project.

For info, contact MCTA at 301-687-8040 or mountaincitytradarts@gmail.com.

Visual Arts

Kappa Pi to Present Community Art Show

The Kappa Pi art fraternity at FSU will present its community art show, “La Bella Vita,” on Saturday, Oct. 13, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Saville Gallery at 9 N. Centre St., Cumberland. This exhibit, reception and awards ceremony is free and open to the public.

The artwork showcased in the exhibit will be a collection from local artists.

For info about the Saville Gallery, visit www.alleganyartscouncil.org. For info on “La Bella Vita,” contact Robert Hein at x4354 or rmhein@frostburg.edu.

New Displays at the Ort Library

On the fifth floor is a display on Maurice Sendak, the author/illustrator of “Where the Wild Things Are,” which includes prints from books Sendak illustrated that are housed in the Special Collections Department.

On the third floor is a display on Clara Barton, Civil War nurse and founder of the American Red Cross. Also on that floor is a display for National Vegetarian Awareness Month, highlighting some of the books on vegetarianism that the library owns.

Finally, there is an ongoing display on the third floor, History of Cameras: From Brownies to Digital, highlighting some of the cameras used throughout the 20th century, including a Kodak Brownie and a Polaroid camera. This display will be available until January 2013.

MCTA to Feature Stained Glass Artist

Mountain City Traditional Arts will feature stained glass artist Elizabeth Braun during the Allegany Arts Council Studio Tour on Oct. 20-21 and 27-28.

For info, contact MCTA at 301-687-8040 or mountaincitytradarts@gmail.com.

Points of Pride

EHOSTARS Students Winners in Honor Rows Program

Tickets to the Ravens vs. Steelers game in Baltimore this December have been awarded to 65 students participating in EHOSTARS, a student service-learning group at FSU. This award comes as a result of EHOSTARS being recognized in the 2012 Honor Rows Program, which honors volunteer organizations in Maryland for their continuing efforts to improve their communities.

On game day the students will also receive an on-field pre-game photo and will be highlighted on the RAVENVISION video screen at the stadium during the game. Honor Rows awards are presented by M&T Bank and supported by the Ravens and the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism.

"When we informed them at a group meeting, the EHOSTARS students were excited to hear that they had been recognized for their service, and then they were even more excited to hear they will be going to a Ravens home game," said Patrick O'Brien, associate director of FSU's Office of Volunteerism and National Service.

"I am so proud of the members of the EHOSTARS Volunteer Program (Empowering Communities – Helping Others – Service Through Action, Resources and Sustainability) who are living, learning and serving so as to make change in their communities," said U.S. Sen. Barbara Mikulski in a letter of congratulations. "Your experience and achievements are exactly why I was one of the original sponsors of the 1990 National and Community Service Act which established AmeriCorps."

For info on EHOSTARS, visit www.frostburg.edu/sci/volunteerism/echostars.

Take Note Community Dialogue Series to Continue

The Frostburg community is invited to participate in the continuation of the Sustaining Campus and Community Dialogue Series in Frostburg. The first public dialogue session will be held Monday, Oct. 8, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Lyric Theater. This project supports existing collaborative efforts and promotes healthy relationships between campus and community, as well as a peaceful, non-violent culture in the Mountain City. Conflict resolution experts Drs. Frank Dukes and Marvin Johnson will continue their work with the community throughout the ongoing series, which is being funded by the Maryland Judiciary's Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office through 2014. The conversation will continue in the second session this fall on Thursday, Nov. 1, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Frostburg Community Center at 23 S. Water St.

If you would like to be listed as a formal partner of the dialogue series to show your support for efforts to promote a non-violent culture in the community, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480. Project information is available at www.frostburg.edu/dept/cmst/dialogue-series. Join the event on Facebook through the FSU Communication Studies Department group as well.

CMST and SCSA Fall 2012 Semester Events

In addition to the Community Dialogue Series, the FSU Communication Studies Department and the Student Communication Studies Association will hold the following events:

- CMST Majors Mixer, Wednesday, Oct. 17, 6 to 7 p.m., Lane 108. Come hang out with other majors and hear what's coming up.
- National Conflict Resolution Day, Thursday, Oct. 18, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., Lane South Addition. The Intercultural Communication class will present a new project about challenging stereotypes.

- CMST Career Expo Day, Friday, Oct. 19, 11 to 11:45 a.m., PAC 139. Ask CMST alumni about their professional experiences and how their degrees helped them succeed.

CMST faculty and students will also join DebateWatches with students and faculty in Political Science, traveling to Washington, D.C., to learn about political communication, and attending the Maryland Communication Association and National Communication Association conferences this fall.

For info on events or the major or minor, contact Dr. Elesha Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480. For info on SCSA, contact Genesis Martinz at ggmartinez0@frostburg.edu or Briana Calhoun at bnccalhoun@frostburg.edu.

Depression Screening Day – Help Is Here

National Depression Screening Day gives students the opportunity to complete a free questionnaire assessing their risk for mood/anxiety disorders, and receive immediate feedback from clinicians in the FSU Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) office. CAPS will administer screenings in the Lane upstairs lobby from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 11.

For info, contact Dr. Patricia Robison at x4234.

How Do You Compare?

According to the 2012 CORE Survey, FSU students who drink alcohol reported drinking an average of 3.9 drinks per week. How do your personal drinking habits compare?

For info on low-risk drinking strategies, visit www.frostburg.edu/realitycheck, or to speak with someone about your own drinking habits, visit www.frostburg.edu/counsel/group.

Don't Be a Zombie – Feed Your Brain!

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, but what if you just don't have the time? Eating a small healthy snack will tide you over until you have a break and can eat something more substantial.

For info on how to stay well, visit www.frostburg.edu/chill or www.facebook.com/FrostburgStateCHILL.

Community

Frostburg Museum Exhibition

The Frostburg Museum will present an exhibition by Christina Collins-Smith from Oct. 9 through Nov. 3. The artist's reception will be held on Oct. 13 from 5 to 8 p.m., and is free and open to the public.

Collins-Smith uses photography to "explore new ways to see." Her use of different mediums has resulted in unexpected examples of textual expression.

For info, call 301-689-1195 or email FrostburgMuseum@verizon.net. The museum is also on the web at FrostMuseum@allconet.org.

Activities for Life

For info and registration, contact AFL coordinator Amy Nazelrod at x7934 or anazelrod@frostburg.edu.

Swimming Lessons

Infant-toddler and pre-school swimming lessons (3 months to 3 years), as well as youth swimming lessons for ages 4 to 13, will be offered Mondays and Wednesdays from Oct. 15 to Nov. 5, in the Cordts PE Center swimming pool. There will be no class on Oct. 31. The infant-toddler and pre-school lessons will be held from 5:30 to 6 p.m., and the youth swimming classes will be from 6 to 6:50 p.m.

Water Aerobics

Water aerobics will be offered Tuesdays and Thursdays, Oct. 16 through Nov. 15, from 5:30 to 6:20 p.m., in the FSU pool in the Cordts PE Center. Participants may register for Tuesday or Thursday class, or both nights for a discounted price.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Study Abroad in Limerick, Ireland, During the Spring 2013 Semester

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid may be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie.

Study Abroad Fair

Study abroad program reps will be on campus on Thursday, Oct. 25, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Come meet international students and former study abroad students and find out what it’s like to study abroad.
