

StateLines

For and about FSU people
A publication of the FSU Division of Communications and Media Relations

Volume 49, Number 7, October 8, 2018

Copy deadline: noon Wednesday, Candis Johnson at statelines@frostburg.edu

FSU's Department of Theatre and Dance to Present 'Detroit '67'

From left, Kahri Blackman (Lank), Dazinsky Muscadin (Sly), Jha'Neal Stoute (Chelle) and Najah James (Bunny) rehearse a scene from "Detroit '67."

FSU's Department of Theatre and Dance will kick off its 2018-19 season with Dominique Morisseau's play, "Detroit '67," on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12 and 13, and Thursday through Saturday, Oct. 18 to 20, at 7:30 p.m., with a matinee on Oct. 13 at 2 p.m. Directed by FSU's Nicole Mattis, the performances will take place in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Pealer Center.

"Detroit '67" begins in July of that year, when siblings Chelle and Lank host an unlicensed after-hours joint in their basement to make ends meet. While the vibrant sounds of Motown create a soundtrack for dreaming, hope and escape, the Detroit streets erupt with racial divide, police brutality and chaos. When Lank offers shelter to a mysterious stranger, tensions in the family rise and the dangers of the streets creep closer to home. Winner of the Edward M. Kennedy Prize for Drama Inspired by American History, this riveting play looks back to a turbulent time in history and guides us to reflect on the issues of today.

Season subscriptions are available until Oct. 20. For $60, Season Subscribers receive discounted tickets to five shows, as well as reserved seats for all performances. Individual tickets are $15 for general admission and $7 for students.

For info, call the Theatre and Dance box office at 301-687-7462, Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

CES Opens On the EDGE With Jeff Coffin and Roy Wooten

Saxophonist Jeff Coffin, left, and percussionist Roy "Futureman" Wooten

CES at FSU will open its 2018-19 On the EDGE series on Wednesday, Oct. 17, with an upbeat performance by two multiple Grammy Award-winning musicians: saxophonist Jeff Coffin from the Dave Matthews Band and percussionist Roy "Futureman" Wooten from Béla Fleck and the Flecktones. (Due to unforeseen circumstances, Rashawn Ross will not appear.) The 7:30 p.m. performance, which will be held in Lane Manicur Hall, features informal table seating, comfortable couch and armchair seating, and food and beverage options.

The evening of funky, jazzy music will also feature guest appearances from the FSU Jazz Orchestra and FSU Department of Music jazz faculty.

Coffin, a three-time Grammy winner for his work as a member of the celebrated jazz fusion quartet, Béla Fleck and the Flecktones, began touring with the Dave Matthews Band in 2008 and officially joined the group in 2009. When not on the road with the band, he fronts his own group, Jeff Coffin and the Mu'tet. Masterful percussionist Wooten is also an inventor, scientist, composer and five-time Grammy Award winner. In addition to his work as a member of Béla Fleck and the Flecktones, he is a prolific solo musician.

Community members are also invited to observe Coffin and Wooten as they lead a master class with student musicians from the FSU Department of Music. The 3 p.m. event will take place in room 213 of FSU's Pealer Center. Space is limited to 50 observers; contact ces@frostburg.edu for reservations.

Performance tickets are $15 and may be ordered by visiting ces.frostburg.edu or calling 1-866-849-9237 or 301-687-3137. The CES box office, located in the Lane Center, is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Music

Unless otherwise noted, events will take place in Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact FSU's Department of Music at 301-687-4109.

FSU Wind Ensemble to Perform Fall Concert

FSU's Wind Ensemble, conducted by Shannon Shaker, will present its fall concert on Sunday, Oct. 14, at 7 p.m.

The program will include "Dance the Joy Alive" by Dr. Nicole Piunno, "Three Ayres From Gloucester" by Hugh M. Stuart, "Poem of the Wind" by Hirokazu Fukushima and "Amparito Roca" by Jamie Texidor, arranged by Aubrey Winter.

"Dance the Joy Alive" won the 2018 composition contest for the Arizona State University concert band. Piunno is a composer who views music as a vehicle for seeing and experiencing the realities of life.

The three-movement suite, "Three Ayres From Gloucester," composed by Stuart in 1969, captures the early English folksong style with moods and dances of the common folk.

Fukushima is an active composer and arranger of band and orchestra music. His "Poem of the Wind," composed in 2013, was written for ensemble and band in eight parts.

"Amparito Roca," which means "the sheltered cliff," was written in 1925 by Teixidor, a Spanish musician and composer who named it after one of his piano students, then 12-year-old Amparito Roca. It is a Spanish military march and one of the better-known pieces of Spanish music.

Admission is $10 for the general public, $5 for FSU faculty and staff, seniors and members of the military, $3 for students and free for children 12 and younger. Tickets will be available at the door.

Vocal Studio Recitals

FSU's Department of Music will present two recitals by students from its vocal studios, both at 7:30 p.m. Vocal Studio Recital No. 1 will be held on Monday, Oct. 15, and Vocal Studio No. 2 will be on Tuesday, Oct. 16. The recitals are free and open to the public.

Each performance features music majors from the vocal studios of Gregory Stuart and Francesca Molinaro, performing a mix of classical, opera, jazz and musical theatre styles. The groups will be accompanied by Dr. Joseph Yungen on piano.

Musical Group Josephine County Returns to MCTA

FSU's Mountain City Traditional Arts will once again host acoustic powerhouse Josephine County on Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 7 p.m. at 25 E. Main St. in Frostburg. The live entertainment is free and open to the public with a suggested donation of $15.

Josephine County offers a bit of everything, including French Canadian, bluegrass, Irish, country music and more. Featuring award-winning fiddler and singer Erica Brown Shipman, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Matt Shipman, traditional Irish flute player and singer Hanz Araki and guitarist, bodran player and singer Colleen Raney, Josephine County combines the talents of four powerful traditional musicians into one exceptional musical experience.

For info, email MCTA at mountaincitytradarts@gmail.com or call 301-687-8040. To view the complete release, visit https://events.frostburg.edu/event/mcta_josephine_county.

Weber and Yungen to Perform in Faculty Artist Series Concert

Dr. Brent Weber (left) and Dr. Joseph Yungen

FSU's Department of Music will present Dr. Brent Weber on saxophone and Dr. Joseph Yungen on piano in a Faculty Artist Series concert on Friday, Oct. 26, at 7:30 p.m.

Weber and DeWire will perform "Sonata, Op. 166" by Camille Saint-Saëns, arranged by Weber; "Sonata for E-flat Saxophone and Piano" by Bernhard Heiden; "Divertimento" by Paul Boutry; and "Oboe Concerto" by Richard Strauss, also arranged by Weber.

Saint-Saëns was a French composer, organist, conductor and pianist of the Romantic era. For him, music of the Baroque and Classical periods was a touchstone throughout his career. "Sonata, Op. 166" was the first of three wind sonatas written in 1921, the last year of his life.

"Sonata for E-flat Saxophone and Piano" was written by German-American composer Heiden in 1937. It is considered the first major American saxophone sonata.

As a musical genre of the 18th century, it is unusual that a light and entertaining divertimento would be composed for the alto saxophone, a 19th century instrument. Yet French composer, conductor and pianist Boutry, who wrote "Divertimento," in 1963, combined the early style and later instrument for a thrilling performance.

"Oboe Concerto" was written by the German composer Strauss in 1945 and was one of the last works he composed near the end of his life. As with his other late works, Strauss built up the music from a series of small melodic ideas "which are the point of departure for the development of the entire composition."

Junior Percussion Recital by Cheyenne Jeffries

Cheyenne Jeffries will perform her junior percussion recital on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 3 p.m. She will be joined on one piece by student percussionist Hunter Diehl.

Jeffries will perform "Marimba Dances" by Ross Edwards, "Skyhook" and "Mid-range J" from "Five on 5" by Adam Hopper, "Shh ..." by Benjamin Fraley, "Rockin' Pauken" by Darin Kamstra, "Strive to Be Happy" by Ivan Trevino and "Nice Work if You Can Get It" from "Damsel in Distress" by George Gershwin.

Presentations

African American Lecture Series – 'Migration in Africa' by the Rev. Dr. Michael Okyerefo

As part of the African American Lecture Series, the African American Studies Program will host the Rev. Dr. Michael Okyerefo on Thursday, Oct. 11, for a lecture titled "The Dynamics of Internal and International Migration in Africa." The lecture will take place from 7 to 8.30 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). The event is free and open to the public.

Okyerefo, a cultural sociologist and sociologist of religion, is an associate professor and head of the Department of Sociology at the University of Ghana. He has more than 16 years of teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Okyerefo has also published a book, a number of book chapters and journal articles. He has authored more than 25 publications in his areas of teaching and research.

For info, contact Dr. James Saku, coordinator of the African American Studies Program, at 301-687-4724 or jsaku@frostburg.edu.

Dr. Hallie Liberto to Discuss 'Coercion and Consent' in Philosophical Forum

FSU's Department of Philosophy will present Dr. Hallie Liberto in a Philosophical Forum, "Coercion and Consent," on Tuesday, Oct. 16, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in room 397 of FSU's Gira Center. The event is free and open to the public.

There is a lot of controversy in the literature regarding what type of threat, when used as part of a coercive strategy, can undermine consent. The relationship between coercion and consent is important in many domains, e.g., sexual consent, biomedical consent and consent to labor relations.

In this presentation, Liberto, an associate professor of philosophy at the University of Maryland, will evaluate a variety of theories regarding which threats do and do not undermine consent. She will pose objections to each of these theories and explain a more general problem for all of them – one she calls moral debilitation. Liberto will then propose a possible solution to this problem and provide a novel way of theorizing the relationship between coercion and consent.

For info, contact Dr. Michael Mathias at 301-687-3094 or mbmathias@frostburg.edu or visit the Philosophy Department's webpage at www.frostburg.edu/dept/phil/events.

Women's Studies Presents 'Black (Women) Power'

FSU's Women's Studies Program will host writer Tamara Winfrey-Harris in a presentation on black (women) power on Thursday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m. in Lane 111. This presentation looks at ways black women are harnessing their power to make societal change.

Winfrey-Harris specializes in the ever-evolving space where current events, politics and pop culture intersect with race and gender.

Well-versed on a range of topics, including Beyoncé's feminism, Rachel Dolezal's white privilege and the black church and female sexuality, Winfrey-Harris has been published in The New York Times, Cosmopolitan, New York, Ebony, The American Prospect and Ms. She pens a regular column, "Some of Us Are Brave," for Bitch magazine. Her work, including "No Disrespect: Black Women and the Burden of Respectability," which first appeared in Bitch magazine, has been republished in textbooks, including The Arlington Reader (Bedford/St. Martin's, 2013).

Winfrey-Harris has also shared her analysis on NPR's "Weekend Edition" and Janet Mock's "So Popular" on MSNBC.com, as well as university campuses nationwide, including Princeton University, Purdue University and The Ohio State University.

Her first book, "The Sisters Are Alright: Changing the Broken Narrative of Black Women in America" (Berrett-Koehler Publishers, 2015), won the Phyllis Wheatley Award, IndieFab Award, Independent Publishers Living Now Award and the IPPY Award.

For info, contact Dr. Jennifer Earles at jearles@frostburg.edu.

AL Presentation to Focus on Restoration of American Chestnut

Around the turn of the 20th century, a blight destroyed billions of American chestnut trees and continues to kill new shoots that grow from the still-living root systems. On Thursday, Oct. 18, at 6:30 p.m., as part of the Watershed Moments Community Learning Series, Dr. Katia Engelhardt will give a presentation on current research efforts to restore the American chestnut, and citizen scientists William O'Neill and Mary Kahl from the Citizens Restoring American Chestnuts project will share their experiences as part of a volunteer effort supporting American chestnut research.

Engelhardt is an associate research professor at the Appalachian Laboratory. She also serves as science lead for AL's Citizens Restoring American Chestnuts project. Trained as an aquatic ecologist, her areas of expertise include restoration ecology, maintenance of biodiversity and invasion ecology.

Citizens Restoring American Chestnuts, which began in 2013, is a citizen science project that distributed American chestnut seeds and seedlings to interested community members. In exchange for these seeds and seedlings, community members agreed to collect and submit data regularly to AL researchers.

This event is free and open to the public. For info, visit <https://www.umces.edu/watershed-moments> or call 301-689-7102.

FSU Student to Present Documentary 'Written Off'

As part of his leadership project, Matthew Wood, a student from FSU's Department of Management, will present the video "Written Off" on Monday, Oct. 29, at 6:30 p.m. in Compton 224. His guest speaker will be Melody Stotler, the founder of "Life or Drugs, Tri-State Support," which offers support to those struggling with addiction as well as to their loved ones.

"Written Off" is the true story about Matt Edward's journey from being a star in a high school play to battling drug addiction. His battle began while he was still a teenager after an innocent introduction to a prescription pain medication following a routine toe surgery. The story follows him, his friends and his family over the next decade through his struggle for survival.

For info, visit <https://www.videoproject.com/Written-Off.html>.

Readings

Center for Literary Arts Hosts Reading by Author and Poet Gerald Duff

FSU's Center for Literary Arts will host a reading by author and poet Gerald Duff on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lyric Theatre at 20 E. Main St. in Frostburg, as a part of the 2018 Fall Reading Series.

Duff has published 18 books, which include short stories, novels, poems and nonfiction. One of his most impactful works, "Nashville Burning," was released in September 2017. The book is set in the months of April of 1967, '68 and '69 after an event held by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Stokely Carmichael and other prominent leaders of the Civil Rights Movement. The book also deals with the riots that took place each year, including the ones after King's assassination. Other recent works include "Memphis Mojo," "Playing Custer," "A Crop of Circles" and another upcoming book in the "Memphis" series called "Memphis Luck."

Duff's travels influence his fiction. He has worked in cotton and oil fields and as a TV cameraman, an English professor and a college dean. He also spent a little time as a bit actor and even a janitor. All of these experiences, jobs and locations play a huge role in the creation of his stories.

Duff has won the Cohen Prize for Fiction from Ploughshares and the St. Andrews Prize for Poetry. Other recognitions include Editor's Choice for Best American Fiction and Pushcart Prizes.

For info, contact the Center for Literary Arts at cla@frostburg.edu or 301-687-4340.

Center for Literary Arts Presents Historian Peter Stark

FSU's Center for Literary Arts will present writer Peter Stark on Thursday, Nov. 1, at 7 p.m. in the Lyric Theatre at 20 E. Main St. in Frostburg. This event is free and open to the public.

Stark is a historian and adventure writer. He is the author of the New York Times bestseller "Astoria," as well as "The Last Empty Places," "Last Breath" and "At the Mercy of the River." He is a correspondent for Outside Magazine, has written for the Smithsonian and The New Yorker and is a National Magazine Award nominee. His latest book is "Young Washington."

For info, contact the Center for Literary Arts at cla@frostburg.edu or 301-687-4340.

Points of Pride

FSU's Greg Latta Receives Third Individual Achievement in the Arts Award

Dr. Greg Latta, a professor in FSU's Department of Physics, has won his third Individual Artist Award from the Maryland State Arts Council. He was awarded $3,000 in the category for Non-Classical Music: Solo Performance.

Latta submitted two recordings for the award that showcased his singing voice and his multi-instrumental skills. "The Butcher Boy," a traditional American/Irish song, and "Tir Na Nog," a ballad from Irish folklore.

Latta performs an expansive list of genres, including Irish, traditional and contemporary folk, Broadway, bluegrass and original music. His discography includes original works, old coal-mining songs, whaling songs, contemporary and traditional topical songs and children's songs. He has performed for the Hungarian Presidential Cabinet, the U.S. Olympic Canoeing and Kayaking Trials and with the prestigious modern dance company Dance Alloy of Pittsburgh celebrating FSU's centennial.

In addition to his role as an FSU faculty member, Latta is a singer, songwriter and award-winning performer on the hammered dulcimer, banjo, guitar, Irish bouzouki, cittern, harmonica, recorder, Appalachian dulcimer and concertina. He is also the host and producer of the radio show "Just Plain Folks," which can be heard Saturday afternoons on WFWM, 91.9 FM, FSU's public radio station.

FSU Students Participate in AASHE Student Sustainability Summit

The FSU campus sustainability leaders pictured here took time to enjoy the roof garden of the David L. Lawrence Convention Center during a break from the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE) Conference held recently in Pittsburgh. Pictured, from left, are Vanessa Mukendi (earth science), Myia Huggins (earth science), Dylan Redman (political science/international studies), Louis Walden (earth science), Jessica Thayer (law and society/political science), Sarah Sprouse (interpretive biology and natural history), Brittany Wandless (wildlife and fisheries), Cassie Conklin (geography), Octavia Scott (recreation and parks management) and Abigail Forman (earth science). Students were accompanied by Tracy Edwards, a lecturer in FSU's Department of Geography.

FSU is a master host of the AASHE Conference. The Student Summit brings together hundreds of sustainability student leaders from around the globe to discuss and envision strategies to make positive change on their campuses, in their communities and in their lives.

FAEYC Members Support Childhood Conference

Pictured at left are student members of the Frostburg Association for the Education of Young Children who recently participated in the Western Maryland Early Childhood Conference in Hagerstown. The students attended professional development workshops and supported the conference by managing registrations and documenting workshop participation.

For info, contact Dr. Janet Mattern at jamattern@frostburg.edu.

Take Note

Take a Walk for Walk Maryland Day!

Did you know that walking is the official state exercise for Maryland? FSU's Office of Human Resources invites all University employees to join together to celebrate Walk Maryland Day on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 11:45 a.m. at FSU's Clock Tower.

The group will meet at the Clock Tower and follow the signs posted on campus that mark the Bobcat Walking Trail. The trail covers a 1-mile route, which begins near the Clock Tower, runs along University Drive through the Arboretum and ends at the lower level of the Hitchins Building. For a copy of the trail, visit <https://www.frostburg.edu/brady-health/files/pdfs/fsu-walking-trail-map.pdf>.

For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at 301-687-4398 or lnightingale@frostburg.edu.

Fall Career and Internship Fair

The Fall Career and Internship Fair will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 10, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. More than 40 employers have registered to attend. Visit your College Central Network account at www.collegecentral.com/frostburg to view the employer directory for the fair. If you are not registered, visit the link included to register, click activate account and use your student ID number as the user ID and your FSU email to complete your registration.

All class levels and majors are welcome.

Be sure to dress for success and bring plenty of resumes.

For info, contact Dr. Robbie Cordle at rcordle@frostburg.edu or 301-687-4403.

First SAS Meeting of Fall 2018

The Sustainability Awareness Society will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 11 a.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Plans will be proposed for sustainability initiatives for the campus and beyond for the fall and spring semesters, SAS leadership roles will be reviewed and attendees will have the opportunity to earn some cool bling through completion of a sustainability-themed scavenger hunt.

For info, email Michala Garrison at magarrison0@frostburg.edu or Tracy Edwards at tedwards@frostburg.edu.

HR to Host Open Enrollment Benefits Fair

FSU's Office of Human Resources will host a 2019 Open Enrollment Benefits Fair on Tuesday, Oct. 16, from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Lane Atkinson Room (232).

Employees and retirees of the state of Maryland are welcome to attend to meet with the plan vendors to ask questions about the plans and see what's new for 2019.

For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at 301-687-4398 or lnightingale@frostburg.edu.

Free Walk-In Flu Vaccine Clinics

The Garrett County Health Department will conduct free walk-in flu vaccine clinics at the Brady Health Center on Wednesday, Oct. 17, Friday, Nov. 9, and Friday, Dec. 7, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Bring your insurance card, but if you have no health insurance, there will be no out-of-pocket expense.

For info, contact Darlene C Smith at dcsmith@frostburg.edu.

Attention Honors Students

Dr. Greg Wood will be available in his Fuller House office to assist with priority registration choices on Monday, Oct. 22, and Wednesday, Oct. 24, from 9 to 11 a.m. on both dates. No appointment is necessary.

Free Overdose Response Program Training

The C.O.A.T. Program invites FSU faculty and staff to attend the free Overdose Response Program training program on Monday, Nov. 5, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232).

Certified trainers from the Allegany Health Department will facilitate the training, which takes approximately 90 minutes. At the conclusion, all participants will be given a free voucher for naloxone (the reversal agent for opiate/opioid overdose), which can be redeemed at the Pharmicare pharmacy located inside the Western Maryland Health System, and a certificate of attendance.

For info, contact Misty Schurg at mdschurg@frostburg.edu or 301-687-4210. You must complete the Overdose Response Program Trainee Registration Form and turn it in to her in Lane 234 no later than Thursday, Nov. 1, at noon.

Women's Basketball Seeks Managers

Women's Basketball is looking for managers for the 2018-19 season. If interested, contact Olivia Callan at ocallan@frostburg.edu.

Burg Peer Education Network Events

Burg events for the week are as follows:

- STAR: Stop the Abusive Relationship Program, Tuesday, Oct. 9, 7 to 8 p.m., Gira Center 156
- General Body Meeting, Thursday, Oct. 11, 6:30 to 8 p.m., Pullen 107
- BURG Bash: Neon Nights, Saturday, Oct. 13, 10 p.m. to 1 a.m., Lane Manicur Hall

In addition, Burg will host motivational speaker Bobby Petrocelli on Wednesday, Oct. 24, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232).

For info, contact Sophia Stagers at srstagers0@frostburg.edu.

Dining Services Survey

Chartwell's requests you take a few minutes to complete its survey at <https://www.bvfpulse.com/prod/pulse.site/t/5VA0>. Your feedback is important and will be used to improve your dining experience on campus. For your participation, you will be emailed a coupon for a free beverage.

Before you start the survey, note that:

- It's confidential. Individual data is not released to anyone; survey answers are entirely anonymous.
- It's quick. The survey should take less than 7 minutes to complete.

The deadline for completing the survey is Wednesday, Oct. 31.

For info, email diningservices@frostburg.edu or call 301-687-3079.

Graduation Will Be Here Before You Know It!

It's not too early to think about graduation, especially if you intend to graduate on Wednesday, Dec. 19, in the Cordts PE Center.

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Colleges of Business and Education will present their graduates at 2 p.m. Tickets will be required for admission. The number of tickets will be determined later, based on the number of graduating students.

If you have not yet done so, contact the Registrar's Office to complete your graduation application and check that your home mailing address is accurate in PAWS, so you'll receive all the necessary upcoming info.

Follow @FrostburgGrad on Twitter or Frostburg Graduation on Facebook for updates and important info throughout the semester.

Full details about the ceremony can be found on the Commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Christie Bohn at 301-687-4423 or clbohn@frostburg.edu.

Get Involved

Mass Is Back on Campus

Catholic Campus Ministry announces that mass will be held on campus beginning Sunday, Oct. 14, at 6 p.m. in the Osborne Newman Center and every Sunday thereafter at the same time and location.

Confession, counseling, anointing and prayer are also available at the Newman Center Monday through Thursday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Other activities include movie nights, Bible studies and adoration.

For info, contact the Rev. Fr. Dr. Godswill Agbagwa at g.agbagwa@frostburg.edu or 240-284-2079.

Deadlines

Attention Teacher Education Candidates

Online applications for phases 1, 2 and 3 for the spring 2019 semester are to be submitted on or before Friday, Oct. 19.

For info, stop by Framptom 217.

Study Abroad

Where in the World Would You Like to Study Abroad?

For info, contact Kara Hotchkiss at 301-687-4747 or kihotchkiss@frostburg.edu.

Rose Gause in Italy (summer 2018)

FSU students have the opportunity to study abroad all over the world.

Financial aid can be used for overseas experiences during the fall and spring semesters.

There are also exchange programs available that allow students to pay FSU tuition prices.

Study Abroad and International Fair

All FSU students, faculty and staff are invited to attend the Study Abroad and International Fair on Tuesday, Oct. 23, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. Representatives from various study abroad programs and former study abroad students will be available to answer questions about overseas opportunities. In addition, FSU's international students will display information about their countries and will be available to talk about their cultures. There will be drawings for free prizes! Faculty are encouraged to attend to learn more about faculty-led study abroad trips.

Spring Break 2019 – England, Ireland and Wales

Dr. Greg Wood, an associate professor in FSU's Department of History and director of the Honors Program, will lead FSU students to England, Ireland and Wales over spring break 2019. The cost for the trip is $3,395, but the FSU Foundation is offering $200 to each student participating. That brings the price down to $3,195. The Center for International Education has some scholarships available, but applications must be filed soon.

Stops include Killarney, Blarney and Dublin in Ireland; North Wales; and Stratford-upon-Avon, Oxford and London in England.

For info or an itinerary, contact Wood at gwood@frostburg.edu or 301-687-4998.

FSU-TV3

Meet the Staff of FSU-TV3

Joseph McKenzie is the channel's graphic designer and is a senior mass communication major with a minor in graphic design. Look for his updates to the channel's Message Board and website soon.

Kaylah Calvert is the channel's public relations specialist and is a senior mass communication major with a focus in marketing. She also minors in graphic design and communication studies. You may have seen her out filming videos to post to the channel's Facebook page or taking photos to use on its social media platforms.

For info about the students, visit www.frostburg.edu/fsu-tv3/staff.

Follow FSU-TV3 on social media on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/FSUTV3>, Twitter at <https://twitter.com/fsutv3> and Instagram at <https://instagram.com/fsutv3>.

FSU Events Calendar

For info on FSU events, go to <http://events.frostburg.edu/calendar>.

Questions? Call 301-687-4411. All information is subject to change.

Note: FSU is committed to making all of its programs, services and activities accessible to persons with disabilities. To request accommodations through the ADA Compliance Office, call 301-687-4102 or use a Voice Relay Operator at 1-800-735-2258.

Stop Fires Before They Start!

Install a smoke alarm on every level of your home and test it monthly.

Don't overload circuits or extension cords.

Make sure there is ample space around any portable heating unit.

Clean the lint filter every time you use the dryer.

VALUES AND VISION: FROSTBURG STATE UNIVERSITY IN 2023

CORE VALUES

- Frostburg State University is a place where every student can experience a myriad of opportunities both in and out of the classroom, fostered by a sense of inclusion and close mentoring relationships with faculty and staff.
- Frostburg State University is committed to developing cultural competence and cultivating understanding of and respect for a diversity of experiences and world views that encourage each person's ability to "take the perspective of the other."
- Frostburg State University is committed to a system of shared governance that allows faculty, staff and students to learn about the issues the University confronts and that provides a structure for meaningful input into University decisions.

OUR VISION FOR FROSTBURG STATE UNIVERSITY IN 2023

Frostburg State University is a regionally acclaimed and nationally recognized academic institution that provides distinctive programs to support state and regional workforce needs. Faculty, staff and students foster collaboration in a welcoming and inclusive campus culture.

Students value the opportunities open for them at FSU and form close mentoring relationships with faculty and staff, who are committed to their success and well-being. Students apply knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to internship, civic engagement, study abroad and research experiences to meet the challenges of a complex and changing global society.

The University is integrated into the fabric of the community as a valued and respected regional asset. We are committed to making changes that secure our future while celebrating the values that reflect our history.

STRATEGIC GOALS

- Focus learning on the acquisition and application of knowledge.
- Provide engaging experiences that challenge our students to excel.
- Expand regional outreach and engagement.

-
- Align University resources – human, fiscal and physical – with strategic priorities.

To view FSU's Strategic Plan 2018-2023 online, visit <https://www.frostburg.edu/about-frostburg/strategic-plan-2018-2023/index.php>.