Special for Seniors

Send-off at Gandalf's

The FSU Foundation Inc. and the Office of Annual Giving would like to cordially invite all graduating seniors to the First Annual Senior Send-off at Gandalf's, 16 W. Main Street in Frostburg on Thursday, May 25, from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is free with your SeniorPass. Food and beverages, door prizes and gifts provided.

How to get your SeniorPass

Your SeniorPass can be picked up by dropping off your completed Senior Survey (received in the mail) at the Lane Center information desk from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

HallSTARS! Shine on TV

The Allen HallSTARS! program at FSU will be featured on the Maryland Public Television's "Maryland State of Mind" premiering on Thursday, May 25 at 8 p.m. Check local listings for the MPT channel in your viewing area.

A camera crew visited the campus in late March to film the segment which focuses on the efforts of this unique "service-learning" hall and its members. Tune in and see our HallSTARS shine! Way to go, guys!

It's All "Greek" to Me

The Greek Awards Reception was held May 4th to honor the outstanding achievements of the nationally recognized sororities and fraternities and to recognize the individuals therein for their leadership and commitment to the University and surrounding community.

The Office of Greek Life presented the following awards in the fraternity division: Delta Chi Fraternity was presented the Academic Award, the Fundraising Award and the Philanthropy Award. The Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity was presented the Educational Programming Award. Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity received the Athletic Award and the Recruitment Award.

The following awards were given in the sorority division: Alpha Sigma Tau was awarded the Philanthropy Award. Delta Zeta sorority received the Academic Award, the Recruitment Award and the Educational Programming Award, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was presented the Fundraising Award.

Individual awards were given to Jesse Ketterman for Outstanding Fraternity Advisor for Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and to Kelly Morgan for Outstanding Sorority Advisor for Alpha Xi Delta.

The Greek Man of the Year recipient was David Gurzick from the Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity and the Greek Woman of the Year was awarded to Beth Shroeder from the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority.

The Outstanding Fraternity Award was presented to Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the Outstanding Sorority Award was given to the Delta Zeta Sorority. The Delta Zeta Sorority was also awarded Chapter of the Year honors.

The Office of Greek Life would like to congratulate all of the winners and nominees of these various awards. The reception placed emphasis on community service, campus involvement and leadership, both academically and philanthropically.

Royalty Wanted!

The deadline for Homecoming King & Queen nominations will be Friday, Sept. 15. The Student Organization Competition Registration deadline is Sept. 22. Due to the early date of Homecoming, October 5 to 8, the Office of Alumni Programs and Student Government Association are providing copies of FSU's Homecoming Student Competition Handbook. The competition booklets are available in student mailboxes and at the Lane Center Information Desk. Stop by and pick one up before summer break.

Registration will be accepted beginning fall semester. Get involved in "An All-American Homecoming 2000!" Questions concerning competitions may be directed to the SGA Office at x4304.

Student Organizations planning alumni activities or other events during Homecoming Weekend should contact the Office of Alumni Programs at x4068 before May 26 to have your event listed in the Homecoming Brochure. The brochure will be mailed to over 21,000 alumni later this summer - don't miss out on this opportunity to advertise your event!

WWII & VE Displays in Library

The World War II displays in the Ort Library for Victory in Europe are still in place. The display will remain through Memorial Day. Stop by and see the great display done by Mark de Jong and MaryJo Price with loaned items from members of the community. It is an eye-catching and informative display.

Partnership of Safety

Electrical hazards: Do not stand on wet floors while using any electrical tool or equipment. Keep extension cords in good repair and use three-prong grounded type plugs. Be careful not to overload outlets.
