Award-Winning Playwright and Cumberland Native to Speak

Playwright Kia Corthron, whom The Village Voice called “one of the most adventurous young women now writing,” will speak at FSU Tuesday, March 27, at 8 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre.

She will also hold a Playwrighting Workshop Monday, March 26, from 11 to 11:50 a.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

A Cumberland native, Corthron is known for her plays that “give voice to a segment of society that she finds to be voiceless.” American Theatre magazine said her characters “are men, women and children who, for whatever reason, society would like to forget, and Corthron is determined to put them on stage and let them tell their stories.”

She was quoted in The New York Times recently about how openly she embraces the issues she writes about. “I consider myself a political writer with a political point of view ... I think the point gets across much stronger if the audience feels something rather than being told something intellectually. But every play of mine starts from a socio-political issue.”

Corthron graduated from Allegany High School in 1979 and attended Frostburg State before transferring to the University of Maryland to earn a degree in communications. She later earned a master of fine arts degree at Columbia University in New York.

Her plays include “Breath, Boom,” “Millennium Mambo (Safe Box),” “Splash Hatch on the E Going Down,” “Digging Eleven,” “Seeking the Genesis.”

Blind Hiker Irwin to Speak of Trail Journey

Author Bill Irwin, the only blind person to hike the entire Appalachian Trail, will speak Tuesday, March 27, at 7:30 p.m. in Manicur Assembly Hall.

Accompanied by his Seeing Eye dog Orient, Irwin completed the 2,168-mile trek from Georgia to northern central Maine in about nine months. His odyssey, an inspiring example of overcoming odds, was the single most publicized human endeavor that year.

Now Irwin has embarked on a journey to inspire others as a motivational speaker. With homespun humor, he offers insights gained from his life experiences, which include 30 years in the corporate world, recovery from alcoholism, adventures on the Trail and experience as a family counselor.

Irwin’s appearance is free and open to the public. For information, call the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411.

You’re Invited to Spring Convocation

Dr. Gina’s Spring 2001 Convocation will be Tuesday, April 3, at 3 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre. All members of the University community - faculty, staff and students - are invited to attend. (This is a change from the original date.)

UT Presents Kids’ Show, “Quest for the Dragon”

The Spring University Theatre Children’s Show at FSU, “Quest for the Dragon,” will be presented on Saturday, March 31 and Sunday, April 1 at 2 p.m. both days in the Performing Arts Center’s F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre.

Directed by Jennifer Null of FSU’s theatre department, this whimsical play tells the tale of a kingdom plagued by a dragon. The king (Sonie Mathew) sends forth some of his subjects to slay the dragon (Tony Washington). Things don’t go exactly according to plan, but the players find an unusual and satisfactory solution. Besides the king and the dragon, the cast consists of Debby Sellers as the princess; Scott Deans and Jennifer Bonner as the jesters; Joe Higdon as the farmer and Dominick Massino as the knight.

Tickets are $1. For reservations, call x4145, Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Natl’l Players Present “Comedy of Errors”

One of William Shakespeare’s most beloved comedies, the “Comedy of Errors,” will be performed by the National Players Friday, March 30, at 8 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students. For information, call x4145, Monday through Friday, between 10

The National Players, the oldest classical touring company of its kind, is an educational acting troupe from the Olney Theatre Center for the Arts in Olney, Md. Selected from among the most talented graduates of the country’s top college and university theatre programs, the Players embrace the idea of young actors engaging young audiences, and instilling in them an appreciation for the theatre-going experience. Throughout its 51-year history, the troupe has appeared in a vast repertoire including works by such playwrights as Shakespeare, O’Neill, Molière, Kafka, Sophocles, Aristophanes, Tom Stoppard and Peter Shaffer. They have been the resident company of the Department of Theatre, University of Maryland at College Park since 1992.

A Mini-Playwrighting Festival on Sunday will offer students who completed their original plays the opportunity to direct and work with the actors in preparation for an evening presentation. A public play reading and discussion will be held that afternoon from 2 - 3:30 p.m. in the Drama Theatre of the Performing Arts Center. The play reading is free and open to the public.

MUSIC

Ethos Percussion Group Show Rescheduled

The Ethos Percussion Group’s performance at FSU has been rescheduled for Sunday, April 1, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center’s Pealer Recital Hall, due to inclement weather. Tickets issued for the originally scheduled March date will be honored. This concert is part of FSU’s Cultural Events Series.

As part of the performance, FSU’s Collegium Musicum will present “Missa Luba” in a special guest appearance. The “Missa Luba” is a Mass in Congolese (Zairian) style for mixed chorus with tenor solo and percussion accompaniment.

A dinner theatre special in partnership with Giuseppe’s Italian Restaurant is available before the performance. The special includes a five-course meal with tax and tip included. Transportation is available.

For information, reservations and menu selection for the dinner-theatre, contact the Lane Center Box Office at x4411. Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. The CES Box Office can now take Bobcat Cards for payment of tickets. Based on availability, tickets may also be purchased at the PAC box office one hour prior to curtain.

ART

Art Band The Pears to Perform at Roper

The Pears (art band) will perform at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery Saturday, March 31, between 8 and 11 p.m. during the Photography Exhibition.

The band is donating its time and talent to help raise money for the gallery and to promote the arts. The cost of the event is free but donations will be accepted.

The concert is sponsored by the FSU Art Club.

Brazilian Guitar Quartet to Perform at FSU

Spring brings the Brazilian Guitar Quartet to FSU for a performance on Friday, April 6, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall.

The concert is part of FSU’s Cultural Events Series and is sponsored by the Center for International Education.

Coming from the land of the samba and the bossa nova, the Quartet will present little-known works by Brazilian classical composers, whose music reflects native folk music traditions, in celebration of the 500th Anniversary of the Discovery of Brazil.

Along with pieces by Villa-Lobos, Mignone, Guarnieri and Miranda, the Quartet will honor the 250th Anniversary of J.S. Bach’s death by performing several of his most famous compositions.

This “dream team” of Brazil’s finest guitar virtuosos promises to transform a wealth of formal training, concert appearances and distinctive styles into a heartfelt tribute to the Brazilian spirit.

The quartet’s members are Paul Galbraith, Edelton Gloeden, Everton Gloeden and Tadeu do Amaro. Local music lovers may recall Galbraith’s solo performance at FSU in August 1999.

Galbraith’s 1998 double CD “The Complete Solo Bach Violin Sonatas and Partitas” was nominated for a Grammy Award, chosen as one of the two best CDs of 1998 by Gramophone Magazine, received a four-star rating from Stereo Review and was in the Top 10 Classical Charts in Billboard. The recording features his unique guitar, with custom features that allow Galbraith to extend its range through the addition of two strings and varied string lengths.

A dinner theatre special in partnership with Giuseppe’s Italian Restaurant is available with the performance. The special includes a five-course meal with tax and tip included. Transportation is available.

For information, reservations and menu selection for the dinner-theatre, contact the Lane Center Box Office at x4109.

BROYLES TO PERFORM AT FSU

Broyles to Present Piano Recital

Dr. Joan Dixon Broyles of the FSU Department of Music will present a piano recital on Sunday, April 1, at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center’s Pealer Recital Hall. Her performance, which is free and open to the public, is presented in conjunction with FSU’s Spring Piano Festival.

Entitled “100 Years of American Music,” selections include Scott Joplin’s “Maple Leaf Rag,” “The Easy Winners” and “The Entertainer,” “Rhapsody in Blue” by George Gershwin; “George Rochberg’s “Nach Bach,” “Rhythms from the North Country” by Gwneth Walker and the Piano Sonata by Emma Lou Diemer. Dr. Ellen Grolman Schlegel, also of the FSU Department of Music, will join Dr. Broyles in the Maryland premieres of “Improvisations for Cello and Piano” by Diemer. nurse, and John-Michael Rolnick, who portray as Crystal Rice, Robert Prato, Chris Hill and Jennifer Arnold as Miep Gies, as well as Russo as the son, Peter. Supporting roles include Andrea Dian Smith as Anne, David Lowe as her father, Aideen McDonnell as her mother and Jennifer Johnson as her sister, Margot. Portraying the Van Daan family is the actor’s attempt to lift herself out of a mire of poverty and rejection. Played by Emile DeQuenne, Rosetta is a desperate, socially awkward young woman living with her alcoholic mother on a seedy caravan park. She finds it impossible to even maintain a menial job.

To emphasize the mundane bleakness of Rosetta’s life, the directors use real-time action and a handheld camera, which gives shakier as the emotional pitch rises. By the time the film ends, the story of Rosetta hits resonant depths.

This showings is free and open to the public. “Rosetta” is presented in French with English subtitles and has a running time of about 90 minutes. For information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411.

The stage crew consists of Megan Adams, stage manager; Justin Seward, set designer; Jennifer Null, costume designer; Chris Dudeck, lighting designer and David Fox, sound designer.

For information and reservations, call x4145 Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Tickets are $3.

Set Sail Aboard S.S. Bobcat for Family Day
Bon Voyage! The FSU Parents Association will host Family Day on Saturday, April 21. This annual special event is sponsored by the FSU Parents Association during spring semester to bring families to the FSU campus to enjoy planned activities. The Association is hosting a “family-style” Italian Dinner and Care Package Contest/Give-Away. In addition, we’ve asked some of our science faculty to participate in the “Nutty Professors’ Family Institute,” a chance for family members to have some hands-on experience in the sciences! A unique feature of Family Day is to include parents and family members in the existing programs planned for the weekend. A vast array of activities, including student athletics, theater and music, service and “sibling weekend” in the residence halls have been planned. Advance registration/payment is required for the Parents Association Italian Dinner and several other events. Registration information and a detailed schedule for the weekend will be mailed to all PARENTS ASSOCIATION MEMBERS at the end of March. If your family is not a member, but would like more information about the FSU Parents Association, or if you have questions regarding Family Day, please call Lynn Ketterman, coordinator, at x7588.

Attention All Students in Teacher Education
The application deadline for students entering Phase I or Phase II of the Teacher Education Program will be Friday, March 30. All applications should be returned to the Office of Unit Assessment, Pramptom Hall room 215. If you need an application form or have any questions please contact Felicia Lukenbill at x7953 or stop by the Office of Unit Assessment.

Week of the Young Child
The FSU Children’s Center will be celebrating the Week of the Young Child during the week of April 2-6, with an Open House between 8:45 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. Enrollment packages will be available for pick-up during this time. For more information, please call x4027.

Attention Graduating Grad Students
“Applications for Graduation” for those who wish to participate in the May 2001 Commencement must be returned to the Graduate Services Office, 141 Pullen Hall, no later than Friday, April 6. The applications are available either by calling the Office of Graduate Services (x7053) and on the hall display rack outside of the office door (141 Pullen Hall).

Alcohol Fines Purchase Fitness Equipment
Most FSU students make healthy decisions and a new piece of equipment will help students improve or maintain their fitness levels. A Landice L8 Sport Trainer treadmill has been added to the Cordts Center fitness room. It’s a high-quality, durable model with variable training features for different fitness levels. Revenues from the University’s Alcohol Fine Fund were used to purchase the equipment. Those students who made unhealthy choices are helping support the positive healthy lifestyle of the majority of FSU students.

Dr. Spencer Deakin said that using the fine money for the treadmill is an appropriate way to support student wellness and to meet the University’s need for additional fitness equipment.

Society Club to Sponsor Cancer Walk
The FSU Sociology Club is sponsoring a Cancer Awareness Walk in Frostburg on Saturday, April 28. With this event, the Sociology Club is hoping to raise $5,000 to fund various American Cancer Society programs and services.

The walk will begin at 1 p.m. Tables are set up in the Lane Center for registration and information.

Companies and student organizations may buy banners with their logos to show support for Awareness Walk participants. Company banners are available for $75, while student organization banners are available for $50.

Donations are also appreciated by those who would like to show support without participating in the walk.

The deadline for registration is April 2. For registration and information, contact Tracy Smith at (301) 689-2797. Thank you in advance in our quest to help fight hunger in our area.

FSU Students Offer Free Tax Prep Assistance
Free help preparing 2000 tax returns is available through the IRS-sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program at FSU.

Help with basic federal and Maryland income tax returns will be offered through early April by volunteers from FSU’s College of Business students who have been trained and approved by the IRS.

The VITA program offers this assistance to taxpayers who file Form

Drop Off Food Tuesday at Braddock House
This Tuesday, March 27, is the day to drop off donations of non-perishable food at the Braddock House to benefit the Western Maryland Food Bank Inc. Items needed are peanut butter, canned goods, dry cereal, canned meat, pasta noodles and spaghetti sauce, just to list a few. April 24, May 22 and June 26 are the next drop-off dates.

Karate, Anyone?
Wanted: six dedicated students to join FSU karate team to represent FSU in the East Coast Collegiate Union (ECKU) tournaments. No karate experience is required. Training will be provided. The team will travel to John Hopkins University, Temple University/Drexel University, West Chester University and other designated members universities to participate in six tournaments in all. These non-contact tournaments will begin in November and end in April of each academic year. The team that earns the most points goes to the National Championship. If you have the desire to learn and to persevere, call Avalon Ledong at x7085 for information and appointments.

Do your Student Teaching in Copenhagen
Education majors who would like to earn a semester of FSU credits while studying in Denmark should apply now for next spring's exchange program with the KDAS School of Teacher Training in Copenhagen. Students complete projects and spend several weeks in Danish schools practicing student teaching skills. All courses are in English. Financial aid transfers and scholarships are available.

Study in Australia or New Zealand
FSU is affiliated with AustralLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at a variety of universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustralLearn arranges cheap flights, a weeklong orientation program, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustralLearn. Applications for fall 2001 are being accepted through April 10.

National Scholarships for Study Abroad
Now is the time to begin the application process for a number of scholarship programs available to students who want to study overseas. Applications are available at the CIE office for the National Security Education Program (NSEP), the Fulbright program, and the Rotary Club. All three programs offer awards that generously cover all study abroad costs and usually lead to employment after college. Fulbright applications are available from Dr. John Neral in Economics (130 Guild Center, x4265). Come by the CIE to see how you may qualify for thousands of dollars in scholarship funds, or check out our financial aid web page: http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/finaid.htm

Study Abroad Programs
The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester, and take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu. Students

English Department Internships
English majors and Writing minors are encouraged to attend an informational meeting on internships, March 27th, 3:30 p.m., in DH 104. Qualified students can register for 3, 6, or 12 credits—for summer or fall semester. Contact Zita McShane, x4293, for additional information.

Developmental Math Instructors
FSU’s Learning Center Seeks student instructors for its Developmental Math Program. Earn $500, Receive 3 EDUC field experience credits, and build your resume! Students who are interested in education or mathematics are encouraged to apply; however, the search is open to all students interested in helping other students build their math skills.

Fall Program Deadlines Nearing
Study in Newcastle, England
Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for next fall, spring or the full academic year. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Course offerings are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost is the same as one semester (in-state) at FSU, and all financial aid will transfer. Application deadline for fall is March 30.

Study in Limerick, Ireland Next Year
Applications are due April 30 for the spring 2002 Ireland Exchange Program in Limerick, Ireland. Students study at Mary Immaculate College and take one FSU class and three MIC classes. Applicaare also advised to visit the CIE web page at: http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of over 200 foreign locations. Students may take financial aid with them and may apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught in either English or in other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit towards your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Some spaces for fall 2001 are still available in the UK through ISEP II.

Choose from over 20 Locations to Study

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS) which offers study abroad programs at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Study in Prague, South Africa or Japan. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs. AIFS offers scholarships to qualified students. Apply now for summer and fall 2001.

Gain Valuable Work/Volunteer Experience

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1-2 months) to longer experiences (4-12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Information Sessions about Study Abroad

Students who would like to learn more about study abroad opportunities and how they fit into a degree program may come to the CIE any Tuesday at 3 p.m. for an information session. The CIE staff will provide an overview of study abroad programs and requirements and have application forms available. Scholarship and financial aid information will also be available. Students may use the CIE library and computer to search for programs. Many videos are also available.

Music From Around the World

Tune in to the university’s commercial free radio station, WEWM (91.9), every Wednesday between 7 to 8pm for “Planet Frostburg.” Listen to both traditional and contemporary world music and get the latest announcements about study abroad opportunities.

Audience Notification Requirement

This is a reminder to all departments and organizations that schedule public activities that will be attended by 50 or more people:

It shall be the duty of the person in charge of any theater or place of public assembly to call the attention of those present, immediately before the beginning of the event, to the number and location of the exits in the immediate area, and to state that the doors to all exits in the immediate area are unlocked. It shall be the duty of that person to make the following statement after informing the audience the exits:

* "FOR YOUR OWN SAFETY, LOOK FOR YOUR NEAREST EXIT. IN CASE OF EMERGENCY, WALK, DO NOT RUN, TO THAT EXIT."

For a copy of the State Fire Code, Audience Notification Requirement, please call x4897. Thank you for making the campus a safe place to learn, teach, work and visit.
