A Week of Variety at FSU

Poet Randolph Thomas to Present Reading

Randolph Thomas, writer and poet, will present a fiction and poetry reading on Wednesday, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ort Library, room 237.

Sponsored by the FSU Department of English and the Western Maryland Writers' Workshop, the reading is free and open to the public.

Thomas, a native of southwest Virginia, has received a grant from the Arkansas Arts Council and a Tennessee Williams Scholarship in fiction at the Sewanee Writers' Conference.

His work has been published in numerous literary journals and magazines. For more information, contact Brad Barkley, professor of English, at x4221.

African American Lecture Looks at Psychiatry

The African American Studies Lecture Series will present "African Americans and Psychiatric Practices: The Many Facets of Race, 1880-1920," a lecture by Dr. Connie McGovern, FSU professor of history. This lecture will be Wednesday, April 3, at 7 p.m. in Tawes Hall, Room 232 and is free and open to the public.

For more information, contact Jean-Marie Makang, FSU coordinator of African American Studies, at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Explore the Labyrinth

United Campus Ministry will sponsor "Experiencing the Labyrinth", Wednesday, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. in Manicur Assembly Hall.

This unique experience will offer the opportunity to walk the labyrinth, a universal spiritual tool for health and wholeness, open to all, regardless of religious background.

The workshop will be facilitated by trained labyrinth leaders, Rev. Jerry Wicklein, pastor of Mt. Vernon Place United Methodist Church, Baltimore, and his wife, Pam. This event is free and open to the public. Participants should wear comfortable clothing. For information, call Rev. Larry Neumark at x7490.

British Olympic Medical Centre Rep. to Speak

Dr. Greg Whyte, an international leader in human performance, will speak on campus on Thursday and Friday, April 4 and 5, as the 2002 Lillian M. Wellner Scholar, a program that brings acclaimed scholars to campus.

Greg Whyte

Whyte's presentations include "The Impact of Acute and Chronic Exercise on the Heart: Physiologic or Pathologic?" on April 4 at 9:30 a.m., "Performance in Extreme Environments" on April 4 at 2 p.m. and "The Role of the British Olympic Medical Centre in Elite Sport" on April 5 at 10 a.m. All programs will be in the Cordts P.E. Center Leake Room and are free and open to the public.

Whyte, now director of research at the British Olympic Applied Research Unit of the British Olympic Medical Centre in Middlesex, England, earned his M.S. in Human Performance from FSU in 1994 and was awarded the R. Bowen Hardesty Award. He came to FSU after completing his undergraduate degree at Brunel University in London, and returned to England for doctoral study at the University of Wolverhampton, where he served on the faculty until Dec. 2000. In Jan. 2001, he was named to his current post.

For information, call the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at x4461.

'Mind, Consciousness and Zen' to be Presented

FSU, in conjunction with the Center for International Studies' First Annual International Festival, will feature speaker Amala Wrightson, Rochester Zen Center of

New York, on "Mind, Consciousness and Zen," Friday, April 5, at 7 p.m. in the Cordts P.E. Center Leake Room. A workshop at the same location is scheduled for Saturday, April 6, from 9 a.m. until noon.

Amala Wrightson

Wrightson was born in New Zealand. Wrightson began her study of Zen with Roshi Philip Kapleau, the founder and then director of the Rochester Zen Center. She served in many capacities at the Center until 1996, when she was named Head of Zendo (Director of Training). In 1999, Wrightson was ordained as a Zen Priest of the Three Jewels Order.

At the Saturday workshop, Wrightson will offer an orientation to the zazen method of meditation for beginners. Participants are asked to wear loose clothing and bring two blankets to serve as meditation cushions.

For information, contact Dr. Paul La Chance, Department of English, x4225.

Spiker Brothers' Works Featured at Roper

The artwork of local brothers Shawn and Shane Spiker, students at FSU, will be featured at the Stephanie Ann Roper

Gallery in the Fine Arts Building at FSU.

An opening reception for their show, "Disposable Art," will be Saturday, April 6, at 7 p.m. in the Gallery, and is free and open to the public. Gallery hours are Sunday through Wednesday from noon to 4 p.m.

Inside:

The Spiker brothers, both graduates of Northern High School in Garrett County, began their college careers with different ambitions and only recently decided to change their majors to art and design. "Disposable Art," which includes both graphic design and fine art media, presents the artists' artwork as a fully interactive, artistic commentary. The show fulfills the Visual Arts Department's senior thesis requirement for both of the Spikers, who will soon graduate from FSU.

For information, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Andrews to Present Piano Recital

Kimberly Andrews, staff accompanist for FSU's Music and Dance Departments, will perform a piano recital on Sunday, April 7, at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall. The recital is free and open to the public.

Works on the program will include "Mazurka" by Clara Schumann, Ludwig Van Beethoven's "Waldstein Piano Sonata," the "Ballade in G Minor" by Frederic Chopin and Sergei Prokofiev's "Piano Sonata No. 7." She will also play the first movement of "Piano Sonata" by Jon Bauman, FSU professor of music.

Andrews has debuted works for the American Society of University Composers and for the National Music Teachers Association. She was first runner-up in the Missouri Music Teachers Association piano competition and a semi-finalist in the Young Keyboard Artists Association piano competition.

For more information, contact the Department of Music at x4109.

Plitnik to Present Trombone Recital

Brian Plitnik will give a faculty trombone recital on Tuesday, April 9, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall. Chris McCabe will accompany on piano.

The program will consist of: "Basta" by Folke Rabe, "Sonatina" by Kazimierz Serocki, "Concertino" by Lars-Erik Larsson, "Arie et Polonaise" by Joseph Jongen, "Cavatine" by Camille Saint-Saëns and "A Day in the City" by Howard Buss.

Plitnik holds two degrees in trombone performance, a B.S. from Frostburg State and a M.M. from West Virginia University. He now serves as adjunct music faculty at both FSU and WVU and has performed throughout the region with Stage Left Theatre, Apple Alley Players, Emmanuel Brass and the Johnstown Symphony Orchestra.

The recital is free and open to the public. For information, call x4109.

Singer-Songwriter Paul Skyland to Appear

Paul Skyland will bring his acoustic guitar and original songs to the Lane

University Center on Friday, April 12, at 8 p.m. as part of Center Stage's Live at the Loft! Series.

A favorite at college campuses around the U.S., Skyland is a multi-talented artist whose career spans a wide spectrum of the music and entertainment industry. Billings with artists ranging in style from Pure Prairie League and The Badlees to Michael Johnson and Orleans have established Paul as a proven commodity in the concert market.

Skyland has recorded two albums, "Songchild" and "One to One" on the Venture label. He has appeared on the nationally syndicated radio show "Mountain Stage."

For more information, call the Information Desk at x4411.

Art

Student Exhibition

"A Student Exhibition" continues at The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery through Tuesday, April 2. It is free and open to the public.

All FSU students were eligible to submit artwork in the 2-D, 3-D, Crafts and Graphics categories. More than $1,000 in awards were given for Best in Show, along with 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in each category. Some artwork is available for purchase.

Gallery hours are Sunday through Wednesday from 12 to 4 p.m. For information, call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Speakers

Mathematics Symposium

The 31st annual FSU Mathematics Symposium, entitled "The Spirit of Mathematics: Ideas, Investigations, Illuminations," will be held on campus on Friday, April 12. Designed to serve mathematics educators at all levels, the symposium usually brings to campus over 100 mathematics teachers from the Tri-State area.

The keynote speaker for this year's meeting is James Rubillo, executive director of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, who will talk on "Communicating the Spirit of the Math Standards to Adults."

In addition, the symposium will feature talks on cryptology, statistics, geometry, incorporating technology into teaching and many other topics. Among the speakers are Frostburg State professors Renny Azzi, Glynn Baugher, Laxman Hegde, Robert Larivee, Kurtis Lemmert and Gerard Wojnar, as well as FSU students Gareth Dimery-Anderson and Sherri Raley.

For information about the symposium, contact the Mathematics Department at x4384, e-mail Dr. Karen Parks at kparks@frostburg.edu or visit the Symposium Web site at www.frostburg.edu/dept/math/wojnar/mathsymp/2002.

The Mathematics Symposium is supported by grants from the FSU Provost's Office and the FSU Faculty Development Subcommittee.

Appalachian Lab Spring Seminar Series

"Effects of Nitrogen Additions on Temporal and Spatial Variability of Soil Nitrogen Transformation in a Central Appalachian Hardwood Forest" will be presented by Paul C. Pritchard, president of the National Park Trust, on Thursday, April 4, at 3:30 p.m. in Appalachian Lab room 109. The seminar is part of the continuing spring AL series.

Film

'Rodrigo D' Continues International Films

FSU's International Film Series continues with "Rodrigo D: No Future," slated for Tuesday, April 2, at 7 p.m. in the LUC's Atkinson Room on the second floor. The series is sponsored by Center Stage and the Department of Student & Community Involvement.

"Rodrigo D" is a shockingly accurate and timely portrayal of the reckless existence of youths in Medellin, Colombia, one of the most exciting and dangerous cities in Latin America. The film centers around Rodrigo, a would-be drummer and his friends who are trapped in the violence and drugs that characterize their turbulent lifestyle.

"Rodrigo D" is presented in Spanish with English subtitles, and has a running time of one hour and 33 minutes. For information, contact the LUC Information Desk at x4411.

Theatre

University Theatre to Present "Fuddy Meers"

University Theatre will present the play "Fuddy Meers" on Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20; and Thursday through Saturday, April 25 through 27, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre. A matinee is set for Saturday, April 20 at 2 p.m.

"Fuddy Meers" explores the strange dilemma of Claire, who loses her memory whenever she sleeps. Every morning, her husband explains her condition and gives her a book filled with essential information about her life. When a man in a ski mask enters her house and claims to be her brother coming to rescue her, Claire begins a strange journey to find her past and forgotten life. Her adventure brings her into contact with several outrageous characters, including a dimwitted thug, a claustrophobic policewoman and a crude hand puppet. Claire's virtual roller-coaster ride as an amnesiac in search of her fractured life is hilarious, yet disturbing and poignant.

"Fuddy Meers" has the feel of a collaboration between Jerry Springer and the Marx Brothers," says the Boston Globe about this work by contemporary playwright David Lindsay-Abaire.

Tickets are $3 for students and $7 for the general public. For reservations and information, call the Department of Theatre at x7462, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Take Note

Mideast Program Cancelled

The program "Israel and Palestine: Will There Ever Be Peace?" scheduled for Wednesday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m. has been canceled.

Due to continuing unrest in the Middle East, the unexpected unavailability of one of the speakers, and challenges concerning arrangements for the presentation, the committee was unable to finalize this event.

While this may be a disappointment to many people, the committee hoped to schedule a similar program in the future.

Spring Convocation Scheduled for April 18

Dr. Gira's Spring Convocation will be held on Thursday, April 18, at 3:30 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre.

MLK Convocation Culminates Residency

The Spring 2002 Martin Luther King Convocation at FSU will take place on Wednesday, April 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall, culminating several days of activities.

The keynote speaker is Dr. Lea Williams, executive director of the Women's Leadership Institute at Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C., and former vice president for Educational Services at the United Negro College Fund in New York. A scholar and writer, she is author of "Servants of the People: The 1960's Legacy of African American Leadership." Williams will participate in a series of workshops, discussions groups and other activities at FSU on April 15 through 17 as part of a three-day residency in leadership, non-violence and African American Studies.

Describing herself as "an educator by training and experience, a teacher by temperament and a writer by passion," Williams has received the Kentucky State University Distinguished Service Award, the Hilda A. Davis Award for Educational Leadership of the National Association for Women in Education and the Paducah Black Historian Achievement Award in Education. Her article "Missing, Presumed Lost: Teachers of Color in the Nation's Classrooms," published in Black Collegian, won the 1989 Unity Award in Media for education reporting.

As part of FSU's Scholar-in-Residence Program, Williams will meet with student leaders for a discussion and dinner on Monday, April 15. The sponsors for this event are the Department of Student and Community Involvement, the Communication Studies Program and the Leadership Studies Minor.

On Tuesday, April 16, she will present a lecture/discussion, "African American Leaders, Then and Now," from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the Lane University Center. This presentation, which is free and open to the public, will focus on African American leaders of the Civil Rights movement, their legacy for minority leadership and the role of campuses in emerging paradigms of minority leadership in the 21st century. A reception will immediately follow the program.

Later Tuesday evening, the MLK Speak Out Program will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Lane University Center Loft. Students, faculty, staff and the public are invited to this celebration of the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Participants will perform live musical selections, engage in creative readings and short stories and display artwork. Norma Blacke Bourdeau, a professor of African American Studies, English and Philosophy at FSU, will serve as the program facilitator.

On Wednesday, April 17, a Community Service Project is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the FSU Arboretum. For the fourth year, FSU's national service programs invite the public to serve alongside A STAR! and Allen Hall STARS! AmeriCorps members honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The day's service projects will include trail maintenance and placing and securing a gazebo for classroom instruction that will be available for faculty, staff and local teachers. For information, contact Sean King at x4210 or sking@frostburg.edu.

After Wednesday evening's Convocation, Williams will conduct a book signing in PAC lobby. Books will be available for purchase from Main Street Books of Frostburg.

For information, contact Bill Mandicott at x4151 or Dr. Philip Allen at x4141.

FSU Logos on Server

Digital copies of the FSU logo are now available on the university's server for the use of faculty and staff. The logos are located on the Campus$ drive (U drive) in a folder aptly named "FSU Logos." You will find two-color and one-color logos in tiff and eps formats, as well as a copy of the university seal in this folder. It is recommended that these digital images be used for print publications instead of the low resolution logos from the Web site. The tiff and eps logos are higher resolution and will print much sharper than the web logos. The images may still look "fuzzy" onscreen but should print clearly.

To place a logo in a Word document, you go to Insert>picture>from file and you then scroll to above-mentioned logo folder on the U drive and click on your selection. Click on the logo once it appears in your document, and then, while holding down the shift key, drag one of the corner handles to adjust the size.

Please note that the university seal is meant to be used only on official documents such as citations and certificates. The logo is the official emblem of the University.

An updated campus map will be available soon in the same folder.

A reminder: It is against University policy for departments to create their own letterhead.

Bookstore Running Sale

Monday, April 1, starts the "After Inventory Sale" at the FSU Bookstore. The clearance clothing racks and the sale table merchandise will be 50 percent off the lowest price. What a deal! What a bargain!! Bookstore hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Commemorative Quilt to be Raffled

An impressive collection of children's literature authors and illustrators have helped create a quilt that will be sold by raffle to commemorate the 20th anniversary of FSU's Children's Literature Festival.

The 2002 Spring Festival of Children's Literature, "A Patchwork of Story: Celebrating 20 Years of Children's Literature," will highlight the raffle as a fundraising effort to help support the Centre and its future events and activities. Set for April 26 and 27, the Festival features authors and illustrators Peter Catalanotto, Floyd Cooper, Patricia Reilly Giff and Martin Waddell.

Composed of 59 squares, each measuring six square inches, the quilt includes drawings, signatures and messages from many noted names in the world of children's literature. All contributors from the United States and around the globe have participated in previous events sponsored by the Centre. The quilt, which measures five square feet, will find a home when the raffle is completed next October.

For information about the raffle, the Spring Festival or the Centre, call Dr. William Bingman at x4420 or contact him by email at wbingman@frostburg.edu.

Van Driver's Training Sessions for April

• Tuesday, April 9, from 9 a.m. to noon, Lane Center Room 207/208

• Thursday, April 25, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Lane Center Room 207/208

You must register by calling x4897 to attend this training.

Annual Book Giveaway!

Do you love to read? Are you always looking for new books? If so, the A STAR! In Western Maryland book giveaway may be for you. In its fifth year, this year's giveaway will again be held at the Country Club Mall in LaVale, starting Friday, April 12, and continuing until we give away all of the books or until April 18, whichever comes first. The book supply is limited, so be sure to get there early! All books are free to community members and non-profits groups and organizations. Look for signs in the mall directing you to this year's location.

Contact Rhonda Schwinabart at x4191 with any questions.

Community

AAUW Sets Presentation on Emily Dickinson

The April meeting of the Frostburg Branch of the American Association of University Women will be held on Tuesday, April 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Frostburg United Methodist Church Hall. Branch president, Elizabeth West, will present the program on Emily Dickinson. A silent auction will also be held to benefit the General Fund. Refreshments will be served by the hostess committee—Colleen Rinard, Janet Harden, Dr. Alice Manicur and Dr. Gwen Brewer, chair. The public is welcome to attend. For more information, contact Gladys Faherty at (301) 689-8710.

Points of Pride

Cynthia Powers was promoted to UPO III on March 8. She is a graduate of Beall HS and FSU. She is an Air Force veteran, and began work here in 1979. She supervises the Night Assistant program, and has done so for many years. Now she will supervise the police third shift. She is a Rape and Sexual Assault instructor, as well as a Racial-Religious-Ethnic Incident instructor for our own police department and allied agencies. She serves on Staff Senate.

Deadlines

Grad Students - May 2002 Commencement

Attention graduate students: the deadline to have your name listed in the May Commencement Program is April 1.

Graduation applications and the FSU Bookstore cap and gown order forms are available on the display rack outside the Office of Graduate Services, 141 Pullen Hall. Commencement information is listed on the FSU Web site at www.frostburg.edu/events/commenc.htm.

Commencement Announcement

Students planning to complete their studies during the current semester (spring 2002) must first officially file for graduation. Undergraduate students should contact the Registrar's Office (x4349, 144 Pullen Hall), while graduate students should submit all necessary paperwork to Graduate Services (x7053, 141 Pullen Hall).

Mailings regarding Commencement are sent only to those students who have completed all filing requirements.

Caps and gowns are provided at no charge to all students cleared to participate in the Commencement Ceremony; however, each student is responsible for placing an order in advance. Orders should be submitted to the University Bookstore immediately.

Information about Commencement is always available on the University's Web site. Go to www.frostburg.edu, click on "current students," then on "academics." A drop-down screen will list Commencement. Click on this and it will connect you to full details on Commencement and related activities. (You may also go directly to www.frostburg.edu/events/commenc.htm.)

For information, contact Beth Deatelhauser in Special Academic Services, x3130, 127 Performing Arts Center, or via e-mail at bdeatelhauser@frostburg.edu.

Last Chance for Graduation Exceptions

April 11 is the last date for requesting exceptions to graduation and commencement participation requirements for undergraduates wanting to graduate or participate in the May 2002 commencement. After this date, the commencement booklet will be published and no further exceptions will be considered.

To request an exception, a written request, along with all documentation and support letters, must be received in the Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, no later than 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 11, for consideration at the last Academic Standards Subcommittee of this year.

If you have been informed by the Registrar's Office that you have not met graduation requirements, appeal by this date if you have a basis to do so, or tell your family that you are not eligible to participate in the May commencement.

Activities for Life

Youth and Advanced Swimming Lessons

Youth and advanced swimming lessons for children ages 5 to 12 will be offered on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, April 8 through April 24, from 6 to 6:50 p.m. in the Cordts P.E. Center Pool.

Youth swimming instruction is separated into skill levels. Advanced swimming lessons are for those interested in learning higher swimming skills or for preparation for swim team.

For information and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL Center Coordinator, x7934.

Lifeguard Certification, Instructor Courses

The Activities for Life Center, in conjunction with the Western Potomac Chapter of the American Red Cross, will offer Lifeguard Certification and Lifeguard Instructor courses to run concurrently beginning Thursday, April 4, from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Cordts P.E. Center pool.

The classes will be taught by FSU instructor Dr. Troy Strieby.

Additional class dates are as follows: Friday, April 5, 4 to 9 p.m.; Saturday, April 6, 9 a.m. to noon, 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Sunday, April 7, 9 a.m. to noon, 1 to 9 p.m.; Tuesday, April 9, 6 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, April 14, 6 to 9 p.m. There will be an additional Lifeguard Instructor class on Thursday, April 4 from 4:30 to 7 p.m. in Cordts Center Classroom 105.

These courses are for strong swimmers and dedicated students only. All participants must be available to complete the entire session. Refunds will not be given after the start of classes.

The deadline for registration for both courses is Tuesday, April 2. For further information and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL Center Coordinator x7934.

Spring Aerobics Classes

Spring aerobics classes will be offered beginning Monday, April 1 at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the Cordts P.E. Center Room 165. Classes will be held Mondays to Thursdays through May 9.

The class schedule is as follows: Mondays, 6 p.m., 20-20-20 (kickboxing, step and abs combo) and 7 p.m., kickboxing combo; Tuesdays, 6 p.m., step/body sculpting and 7 p.m., kickboxing; Wednesdays, 6 p.m., kickboxing and abs and 7 p.m., boot camp; Thursdays, 6 p.m., hi-lo and 7 p.m., 20-20-20.

For a small fee, participants can attend any of the above mentioned sessions. Class instructors are Eve Schott, Jo Mason and Ana Guterrez.

For information and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL Center Coordinator, x7934.

Golf Clinic

A golf clinic will be offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays, May 7 to June 13, from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Maplehurst Country Club. The instructor will be Rick Flowers, golf pro at Maplehurst.

The 12 sessions will include group and individual instruction and focus on the golf swing, putting, chipping, rules, etiquette and other aspects of the game. Beginner and intermediate golfers will benefit most from these classes.

Players will benefit most by having a full set of golf clubs. However, a 7 iron, wedge, putter and wood are adequate. Golf shoes are recommended, but sneakers will be sufficient.

The class is limited to 10 participants. There is a cost for the clinic and a small cost per class for range balls.

For more information and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL Center coordinator, at x7934.

Safety Message

Protect Electrical Panel Accessibility

The Office of Human Resources, Safety Office is asking for your help with an ongoing safety issue. Please help us to eliminate this potential safety issue:

The National Electrical Code requires there be a 30-inch clear work space in front of electrical equipment and panels. The 30-inch clearance will allow full access to the electrical panel in case of emergency. Please survey your work area and remove any furniture, storage boxes, equipment and alike items that may be blocking this access. For additional information please call x4897. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Attention Past Student Telemarketers

The Office of University Advancement, Office of Annual Giving will be conducting its 2002 Annual Fund Spring Telemarketing Campaign from Monday, April 8 (TRAINING) to Thursday, April 25. Student Telemarketers who helped with the 2001 Fall Campaign need to contact Chris Harmon (x4758 or cjhrmon@frostburg.edu) ASAP to let him know that they will be participating and to arrange their spring schedule. We will begin soliciting contributions from alumni, friends and parents for unrestricted gifts to the University beginning on Tuesday, April 9.

Student Telemarketing Positions

Twenty positions are available. The positions are part-time evenings for the months of April and May, paying $6.50 to $8.50 per hour. The Office of University Advancement, Office of Annual Giving is now hiring experienced telemarketers to help with the 2002 Annual Fund Spring Telemarketing Campaign. This is an excellent opportunity to earn extra money and gain experience in telemarketing. Candidates will be responsible for soliciting contributions from alumni, friends and parents for unrestricted gifts to the University.

The position requires prior telemarketing experience, excellent organization and communication skills. Advanced marketing and sales skills are a must. Candidates must be available to work Sundays through Thursdays from 5:30 to 9 p.m.

Interested candidates may pick up an application on or before April 1 at the Office of Annual Giving, Hitchins Building Room 228.

Candidates hired for the Spring Phonathon will be eligible for employment for the Fall Telemarketing Campaign in November.

International

Ireland Exchange Info. Meeting April 8

A second information meeting for students interested in the spring 2003 exchange program with Mary Immaculate College in Limerick is scheduled for Monday, April 8, at 5 p.m. in the Fuller House. All students are welcome to attend. Those who attended the first meeting in February may come to this meeting to ask further questions or hand in applications. Deadline for applications is April 30. For information, contact Amy Simes at x3091 or Dr. Ken Witmer at x4357.

Apply Now for Fall, Spring Study Abroad

A few spaces remain open for students who want to study abroad fall semester 2002 through UNN, AustraLearn, or some ISEP, AIFS or SIT programs. Deadlines are approaching in mid to late April. Student who want to study abroad spring 2003 need to apply as soon as possible. There are many overseas opportunities in a wide variety of locations. Students who are interested in studying through the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) during spring 2003 are urged to apply now. Deadline for spring is Sept. 1.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu, or visit the CIE web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm.

School for International Training

FSU is affiliated with the School for International Training (SIT). This enables FSU students to study through SIT in over 50 locations while remaining registered at FSU. All financial aid will transfer. SIT offers programs in Africa, Asia, South America, Europe and Austral-asia. This is a fantastic opportunity for students who would like to spend a semester, year or summer off the beaten track.

Study in Limerick, Ireland, Spring 2003

Students interested in taking part in the Ireland Exchange Program in Limerick during spring 2003 are encouraged to pick up an application at the CIE office. Participants in the program study at Mary Immaculate College and take one FSU class and three MIC classes. Next spring, Dr. Kenneth Witmer (Educational Professions) will accompany the group and will teach three classes. All financial aid will transfer and scholarships are available.

Study Down Under: Australia, New Zealand

FSU is affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, an orientation program on the Great Barrier Reef, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a range of courses at campuses in exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustraLearn. Applications for fall 2002 and spring 2003 are now being accepted.

Study in Newcastle, England

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for spring 2003 semester. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam, and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Courses are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost is about the same as one semester at FSU and all financial aid will transfer.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of more than 200 locations. Students may take financial aid with them and apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught in English or other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit toward an FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Apply now for spring 2003.

Choose from Over 20 Locations to Study

FSU affiliates with the American

Institute for Foreign Study, which offers study abroad programs at a variety of universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Study in Prague, South Africa or Japan. Register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs. AIFS offers scholarships to qualified students. Apply now for spring 2003.

Do Your Student Teaching in Copenhagen

Education majors who would like to earn a semester of FSU credits while studying in Denmark should apply now for the spring 2003 semester's exchange program with the KDAS School of Teacher Training in Copenhagen. Students complete projects and spend several weeks in Danish schools practicing student teaching skills. All courses are in English. Financial aid transfers and scholarships are available.
