On Campus This Week

Schlegel plays Whitman in 'The Good, Gray Poet'

Keith Schlegel

The premiere of "The Good, Gray Poet: A Reading by Walt Whitman," a one-man show created and performed by FSU English professor Dr. Keith W. Schlegel, will be presented on Monday, Feb. 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Schlegel's monologue is a historical characterization of America's most well-known poet as he might have appeared to the public during America's Centennial. Following the monologue, "Walt Whitman" will respond to questions from the audience. After that, Schlegel will step out of the Whitman character to respond to further questions. FSU English professor Dennis Gartner will moderate.

Schlegel is chair of the FSU Department of English. Researching and scripting "The Good, Gray Poet" was the major project of his fall 2002 sabbatical.

For information, contact the Department of English at x4221.

Walt Whitman

Open Mic Poetry Slam

Center Stage will sponsor an Open Mic Night Poetry Slam on Monday, Feb. 17, at 7 p.m. in the LUC Loft. Participants should sign up at the LUC Information Desk. Prizes will be awarded.

'Wilderness and African American Experience'

The African American Studies Program will sponsor a lecture, "Wilderness and the African American Experience: A Journey of the Soul" on Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 7 p.m. in Lane University Center room 142. The presenter will be Norma Blacke Bourdeau, professor of African American Studies, English and Philosophy. This event is part of the AAST Lecture Series as well as our celebration of African American History Month. The lecture is free and open to the public.

For information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, coordinator of the African American Studies, at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Int'l Film Series to Present 'Kandahar'

FSU's Center Stage will present "Kandahar" at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 18, in the Lane University Center's Atkinson Room as part of its International Film Series.

Shot on the border of Iran and Afghanistan, "Kandahar" is inspired by the true story of actress Niloufar Pazira, who plays the part of the main character, Nafas, a journalist who has escaped from Afghanistan with her family. Her sister, maimed by an exploded land mine and distraught by the constant persecution she experiences as a woman, has threatened to commit suicide by the next solar eclipse. Nafas must return and race against time to rescue her sister.

This film, which runs for about 85 minutes, is free and open to the public. For information, contact the LUC Information Desk at x4411.

Survivors of Pa. Coal Mine Accident to Speak

John Unger and Randy Fogle, two of the nine coal miners trapped last summer in a mine near Somerset, Pa., will speak at FSU on Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lane University Center's Manicur Assembly Hall.

Sponsored by United Campus Ministry and Catholic Campus Ministry, this event, titled "Nine for Nine: The Heroic Rescue of the Pennsylvania Miners," is free and open to the public.

Unger, who lives in nearby Somerset, and Fogle, who was the crew chief, will tell their own dramatic story of how they and the seven other miners managed to survive the traumatic accident and rescue that caught the nation's attention last summer. Their successful rescue lifted the spirit of the entire nation.

For information, contact Larry Neumark at x7490.

Engineering Day at FSU

In honor of National Engineers Week, the Department of Physics and Engineering will host Engineering Day on Wednesday, Feb. 19. The day's events will begin at 10 a.m. in Lane University Center 140-141 and should conclude by 1:30 p.m. The program will include videos on engineering careers, hands-on demonstrations by faculty and a Planetarium show. The activities are free and open to the public, but pre-registration is requested. If interested, contact Linda Steele at x4137.

Roundtable Discussion on War with Iraq Set

A roundtable discussion on the looming prospect of war with Iraq will be Thursday, Feb. 20, at 7 p.m. in the Leake Room of the Cordts Physical Education Center. Speakers will share insights from a variety of disciplines. The public is invited to attend and participate.

The panel will include the following members of the FSU community:

- Skott Brill, Department of Philosophy, will analyze the proposed war from the perspective of the Just War Theory.
- James Hagen, Department of History, will examine the implications of a possible war for the Middle East.
- Steve Hartlaub, Department of Political Science, will present the case for going to war.
- Larry Neumark, United Campus Ministry, will discuss the reaction of church leaders to the prospect of war.
- Steve Twing, Department of Political Science, will discuss the risks of war.
- FSU Provost Steve Simpson will serve as moderator. The panelists will present brief presentations designed to stimulate an interactive discussion

CAB to Present 'Sex Signals' Lecture

FSU's Campus Activities Board will present "Sex Signals" at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 20, in the Lane University Center's Manicur Assembly Hall. This program is free and open to the public.

Blending a unique combination of improvisational comedy, education and audience participation, "Sex Signals" provides a provocative look at the issues of dating, sex and date rape on college campuses. The show explores how mixed messages, gender role stereotypes and unrealistic fantasies contribute to misunderstandings between the sexes.

Although the message is serious, "Sex Signals" uses humor to engage audiences in candid discussions about interpersonal relationships.

For information, contact the LUC Information Desk at x4411.

Appalachian Laboratory

"Rarity, Fragmentation and Extinction Risk in Desert Fishes" will be presented by William F. Fagan from the University of Maryland Department of Biology on Thursday, Feb. 20, at 3:30 p.m. in AL room 109. It is part of the spring seminar series offered by Appalachian Laboratory.

Print Exhibition on Display at Roper Gallery

On/Off/Over the Edge, a traveling exhibition from the American Print Alliance, will be on display at FSU through Wednesday, Feb. 26.

The prints, paperworks and bookworks selected for this traveling exhibition by the Alliance explore the concept of the edge in all of its possibilities, from figurative to literal, formal to conceptual, psychological to physical. Judges accepted all print, papermaking and book arts techniques from low tech to high tech, including computer or digital printmaking. Entries came from subscribers to the Alliance's journal, "Contemporary Impressions," and from members of the printmakers' councils in the Alliance.

For information, contact FSU's Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

V-Day Events Include 'Vagina Monologues'

FSU will present a variety of events to mark V-Day, a global movement that helps anti-violence organizations throughout the world continue and expand their core work while drawing public attention to the larger fight to stop worldwide violence against women and girls. The theme this year is "From V-Day to V-World: Envisioning a World Without Violence."

On Wednesday, Feb. 26, and Thursday, Feb. 27, there will be an information festival at 7 p.m. and a benefit performance of "The Vagina Monologues" each evening at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall. "The Vagina Monologues" dives into the mystery, humor, pain, power, wisdom, outrage and excitement buried in women's experiences. Based on interviews with a diverse group of hundreds of women -- from a Long Island antiques dealer to a Bosnian refugee -- "The Vagina Monologues" brazenly explores questions often pondered, but seldom asked.

Tickets cost $5 for students and $10 for non-students. Call x7462 for reservations. Donations are requested to help fulfill the "wish lists" of our V-DAY beneficiaries, Family Crisis Resource Center and Dove Center. Wish lists can be obtained by contacting Nicole Mattis at x3212 or nmattis@frostburg.edu. Those who bring donations to the performances can be entered in a raffle.

Other V-Day events include Clothesline Project on Tuesday, Feb. 18, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., and Monday, Feb. 24, from 6:30-9 p.m., in Manicur Assembly Hall; a meeting of the Philosophy Club to discuss "Female Genital Mutilation" on Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 6:30 p.m.; and a "Take Back the Night March" Friday, Feb. 28.

For more information, please call Mattis at x3212.

Theatre

University Theatre to Present 'The Women'

FSU Theatre will present the play "The Women" by Clare Booth Luce on March 7, 8, 13, 14 and 15 at 8 p.m. and on March 8 at 2 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

A comedy classic, "The Women" premiered on Broadway in 1936, ran for two years and caused a sensation as it shattered cozy myths about matrimony. Described as "gleefully malicious," the play satirizes a group of 30s-era New York socialites, their twisted marriages and the delicious gossip that is their undoing. A large, all-female cast of characters provides some of American theatre's juiciest roles for women.

Tickets are $4 for FSU students and $10 for the general public. For reservations, call x7462 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

'Golden Pond' Matinee Added March 19

Because of overwhelming response to the FSU Cultural Events Series' special theatrical performance of "On Golden Pond," a 3 p.m. matinee performance has been added on Wednesday, March 19, in addition to performances on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre.

Jack Klugman, one of television's favorite curmudgeons, will appear with Anita Gillette. "On Golden Pond," a critically acclaimed Broadway production by Ernest Thompson, is a touching, funny and perceptive story of a family.

Tickets are $29 and are selling quickly. To purchase tickets or for information about Arts Getaway or Dinner Show packages, contact the CES Box Office,

Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in LUC 235, x3137 or toll-free at 1-(866) TIXX CES. Online ticketing powered by CyberSeats is available at the FSU's Cultural Events Series Web site at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

Alumni Association Sponsors Theatre Events

Tickets are still available for two theatre events sponsored by the FSU Alumni Association this spring. On Sunday, March 2, at 8 p.m., Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella will be presented at The Maryland Theatre in Hagerstown. The Alumni Association will host a FREE reception at the FSU Hagerstown Community Center at 7 p.m. Tickets are $52 per person and must be reserved by Feb. 21.

On Saturday, April 12, the award-winning musical 42nd Street will be performed at The National Theatre in Washington, D.C. Tickets are $55 per person (mezzanine/front balcony) and must be reserved by March 21.

To reserve tickets for either performance, contact Becky Coleman at x4068 or rcoleman@frostburg.edu.

Speakers

Kroeger-Mappes to Present Lecture

The African American Studies Program, the Philosophical Forum and the Woman Studies Program present "Black Womanist Thought and White Feminism," a lecture by Dr. Joy Kroeger-Mappes from the Philosophy Department. The lecture will be Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in LUC 142 and is free and open to the public.

For more information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, coordinator of African American Studies at x3089 or at jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Music

Singer Chinua Hawk to Perform Feb. 25

Pop-soul singer Chinua Hawk will perform Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 8 p.m. in the PAC Drama Theatre. This performance is free and open to the public.

Chinua is Nigerian for "God's Own Blessing." The name Hawk reflects the singer's Native American heritage. Combining these influences with those of Whitney Houston, Donny Hathaway and Stevie Wonder, Hawk uses his powerful voice to convey lyrics with universal appeal. He has recorded a CD, "First Love," and is now engaged in a national college tour.

For information, contact the LUC Information Desk at x4411.

Amanda Garrigues to Sing Live! at the Loft

FSU's Center Stage will present singer Amanda Garrigues Live! at the Loft on Thursday, March 6, at 8 p.m. in the Lane University Center. This performance is free and open to the public.

Hailing from Gainesville, Fla., Garrigues is a seasoned performer with extensive touring experience. Her influences range from Ani DeFranco to Joni Mitchell, from the Indigo Girls to Suzanne Vega. Garrigues has built a reputation as a strong singer and guitarist with a passionate delivery style that sets her apart. She pays tribute to themes of home, family and independence in her original songs.

For information, contact the LUC Information Desk at x4411.

Gandalf's to Host WFWM Fund-Raiser

Gandalf's Restaurant and Pub on Main Street in Frostburg will hold a fundraiser for WFWM Radio on Friday, Feb. 28, starting at 8 p.m.

The benefit will feature three of the Western Maryland area's best bands: Pickin'@Bluegrass, a bluegrass band featuring Tim Custer, Shanty Irish with a set of traditional Irish pub tunes and blues courtesy of the Channel Cats Blues Band.

There will be a $5 cover charge, with the proceeds going to WFWM. There will also be numerous compact disc giveaways and drawings. You must be 21 or older to attend. For more information, contact Gandalf's at (301) 689-2010 or www.gandalfs.org or WFWM at x4143.

Entertainment

Comedienne Tammy Pescatelli to Perform

FSU's Center Stage will present comedienne Tammy Pescatelli Live! at the Loft on Thursday, Feb. 27, in the Lane University Center. Her appearance is free and open to the public.

Pescatelli is this generation's voice of sarcasm. Having grown up in a family full of "Tonys," she holds her own on the topics of sports, television and the bare realities of life. As "The Godfather's Favorite Daughter," Tammy presents fresh, positive comedy with insights on such theories as "how a dumb friend can enhance your quality of life" and "mafia pensions." She has appeared on "Evening at the Improv" and in comedy clubs throughout the U.S.

For information, contact the Lane University Center at x4411.

Literature

Jacobs to Read Poetry

Bruce A. Jacobs, poet, author and Visiting Writer at FSU for spring 2003, will read his poetry on Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cordts Physical Education Center Leake Room. Included will be new poetry as well as poems from his 1997 book Speaking Through My Skin, which won the Naomi Long Madgett Poetry Prize. The event is free and open to the public.

Jacobs is also the author of the nonfiction book Race Manners: Navigating the Minefield Between Black and White Americans, and he was the keynote speaker at FSU's 2001 Martin Luther King, Jr. Convocation.

Jacobs travels regularly to campuses and communities across the nation giving readings and speaking about racial politics. He is a Harvard graduate whose writing has appeared in Beloit Poetry Journal, African-American Review, American Writing, Atlanta Review, Many Mountains Moving and many other journals and anthologies. He is a native of Rochester, N.Y., and now lives in Baltimore. This semester he is teaching poetry at FSU as part of the creative writing curriculum.

Take Note

Maryland Budget Alert

The Maryland Governor's FY 2004 budget for the University System of Maryland is $105 million below the FY 2003 budget that began on July 1, 2002. While the USM comprises only 7 percent of the state's overall budget, the USM cuts represent 30 percent of the state's budget reductions.

The Department of Legislative Services analyst is recommending ADDITIONAL USM cuts of $38 million for FY 2004. The General Assembly is now considering these recommendations for FY 2004. Those who would like to contact their legislators and express concerns about additional budget cuts can log on to <http://mlis.state.md.us>. Go to the "Find a Legislator" link. You can also send an e-mail directly from this site by clicking on the "Contact a Legislator" link.

On-campus Room Lottery Coming Up

On-campus Room Lottery for returning students will begin the last week of February. There are three significant changes to this year's process. First, additional single rooms will be made available in Cambridge Hall for the 2003-2004 academic year. Second, the Housing Contract will be in effect immediately for the entire academic year, through May 2004.

This means that, as long as the student is enrolled during 2003-2004, he/she will be bound by this housing agreement and will not be allowed to break the contract to move off campus. Third, students currently assigned on campus will not be required to pay any deposit in order to sign up for a room for the coming year; students moving from off campus will be required to pay a $100 damage deposit.

Following are the room lottery dates:
Same Room Sign-up: Feb. 24 -28, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m., Residence Life Office

In-Hall Changes/Displaced Students: March 3, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. Residence Life Office

Single Room Lottery: March 5, 5 p.m., Lane University Center

Cluster/Group Sign-up: March 6, 8 p.m., Lane University Center

Regular Room Lottery: March 6, 9:30 p.m., Lane University Center

Room Sign-up for Off Campus Students: Beginning March 10, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m., Residence Life Office

Please contact the Residence Life Office at x4121 with any questions.

Spring Diversity Retreat

FSU students interested in diversity issues have the opportunity to participate in the fifth annual Spring Diversity Retreat at Herrington Manor State Park in Garrett County. The event is scheduled from Friday, Feb. 28, through Sunday, March 2. Offered by the Black Student Alliance, the FSU Campus Chapter of the National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI) and the Diversity Center, the retreat will include the award-winning NCBI Welcoming Diversity Workshop and other related activities intended to promote student awareness and empowerment in diversity issues and coalition building.

Applications are available at the Lane University Center Information Desk and in the Diversity Center, (temporarily located in Dunkle Hall 309). Completed applications must be submitted by Feb. 20. Those selected must participate in all retreat activities, starting at 3:45 p.m. Friday to 1 p.m. on Sunday. Participants will be asked to pay $5 for the retreat as well as a $5 refundable fee to hold their spaces. Those concerned with the cost are encouraged to speak with the retreat coordinator, Robin V. Wynder.

For more information about the retreat, contact Ms. Wynder at x4050.

Commencement Announcement

All students planning to complete their studies during the current semester (May 2003) must first officially file for graduation. Undergraduate students should contact the Registrar's Office (x4349, 144 Pullen Hall). Special mailings and notices regarding Commencement are sent only to those students who have completed all filing requirements. The initial mailing will be sent the third week of March.

Caps and gowns are provided at no charge to all students cleared to participate in Commencement; however, students are responsible for placing orders in advance. Orders should be submitted to the University Bookstore by March 14.

Information is always available on the University's Web site. Go to www.frostburg.edu, click on "current students," then on "academics." A drop-down screen will list Commencement. Click on this for full details on Commencement and related activities: (You may also type in www.frostburg.edu/events/commenc.htm.) For information, contact Beth Deatelhauser in Special Academic Services, x3130, 127 Performing Arts Center, or via e-mail (bdeatelhauser@frostburg.edu).

Graduate Students: May 2003 Commencement

Students who plan to complete graduate level degree programs must complete the "Application for Graduation" and return it to the Office of Graduate Services, 141 Pullen Hall, x7053. These forms should be completed and returned as soon as possible, in order to be included in the mailing lists for commencement information. "Application for Graduation" forms and Cap & Gown ordering forms are both available on the display rack outside the Graduate Services Office at 141 Pullen.

Grad Fair

Attention May graduates: The spring semester Grad Fair will be held on Tuesday, March 11, in the Manicur Assembly Hall at the Lane University Center from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is the day to order your regalia (cap and gown), personalized graduation announcements, class ring, diploma frame, as well as, visit with the Alumni, Graduate and Career Services offices. Don't miss this opportunity to take care of all your graduation needs, enjoy some refreshments and sign up to win prizes!

Points of Pride

Barbara Hurd, a professor of English, has been awarded the 2002 Towson University Prize for Literature. Hurd received accolades for her collection of essays Stirring the Mud: On Swamps, Bogs and Human Imagination, and Alenier for her book, Looking for Divine Transportation.

Hurd's winning entry was also chosen a Best Book of 2001 by The Los Angeles Times. She has taught at Frostburg State since 1986 and is the author of a collection of poetry and a second collection of essays is forthcoming. Her essays and poems have appeared in numerous journals and collections, and she is the 2002 recipient of the National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship in Creative Nonfiction. The Towson Prize was also awarded to Karren Alenier, a poet and fiction writer.

Kathy Powell, Social Work, and Peggy Dalton, Economics, recently had their article, "Co-Production, Service Exchange Networks, and Social Capital," accepted for publication in an upcoming issue of the Social Policy Journal.

Tom Bowling and John Lowe, Student and Educational Services, Jamie Winters, Campus Police, and Kathy Powell, Social Work, were recently appointed to serve as FSU representatives to the Town and Gown Committee, an entity created by a new City of Frostburg ordinance to work on improving the relationship between FSU and the city at-large. FSU students Danielle Startwell, Wayne Porter and Jeremy Wyatt, will represent the student body on the committee.

Dr. Spencer Deakin, Director of Counseling, recently co-presented the IACS Field Visitor training workshop at the Association of University and College Counseling Center Directors annual conference. Deakin is beginning his sixth year as a member of the Board of Accreditation for the International Association of Counseling Services. He co-authored with other IACS board members the 2000 revision of the Accreditation Standards for University and College Counseling Centers.

Deakin is a nominee for president of the accrediting association for a term beginning in 2004. The FSU Counseling and Psychological Service is IACS accredited.

Dr. Paul R. LaChance, English Department, traveled to Honolulu, Hawaii January 12-15 to deliver a paper on "Mysticism in Virginia Woolf" at the Sheraton Hotel in Waikiki. The morning of the opening day of the Conference, heard a condensed version of the paper; however, the entire 30-page article was selected for inclusion in the Conference Proceedings, making the case for Asian mysticism at the core of Virginia Woolf's unimaginable silence. Co-sponsored by HIC (the Hawaii International Conference) and the University of Hawaii at Oahu, the entire conference on the Arts and Humanities brought together over 800 educators from 30 countries.

Volunteers

Students Offer Free Tax Preparation Assistance

Free help with basic federal and Maryland 2002 tax returns will be offered through the IRS-sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program. The service is available through early April from College of Business students, trained and approved by the IRS.

VITA offers this assistance to taxpayers filing Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or a basic Form 1040 federal return. Volunteers will alert taxpayers to special credits and deductions for which they may be eligible. Faculty members will oversee the student preparers.

Appointments must be made in advance by calling Joyce Middleton, VITA site co-coordinator, at x4154. Students will work Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Framptom Hall (except for March 22 and 29). A drop-off service will also be available during the week.

Taxpayers should bring any tax packages mailed by the IRS and the state, Form W-2 from all employers, interest and dividend statements (Form 1099), a copy of last year's returns, if available, and any other relevant information about income and expenses. Taxpayer and dependent social security numbers and birth dates are also needed.

Deadlines

Attn: Education Students

The application deadline for students entering Phase I, Phase II or Phase III of the Teacher Education Program will be Friday March 14. All applications should be returned to the Office of Unit Assessment, Framptom Hall room 206-6 no later than March 14. If you need an application form or have questions, contact Felicia Leary at x7953 or stop by the Office of Unit Assessment.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Help Wanted – Developmental Math

FSU's Learning Center seeks student instructors for its Developmental Math Program. Earn $500, receive three Field Experience credits and build your resume. Students who want to help others build better skills are encouraged to apply.

For information or applications, contact Beth Stallings at The Learning Center, 150 Pullen Hall, x4442, bstallings@frostburg.edu

Deadline for applications is March 12.

Supplemental Instructors Wanted

FSU's Learning Center is looking for students to participate in the Supplemental Instruction (SI) Program. A Supplemental Instructor attends a selected course, models good student behavior (like reading the book, taking notes, asking questions) and coordinates a weekly lab where students participate in structured activities designed to improve classroom and test-taking performance.

Current positions include History 100, Sociology 100, and Political Science 113.

Students interested in teaching or tutoring are encouraged to apply, but the positions are available to any student willing to share study tips and motivate students.

An SI Leader receives a stipend of $250 and Education Field Experience credits. Job duties include class attendance, weekly supervisor conference, and a one-hour per week lab. Opportunities for additional service and pay are available.

For applications or information, visit the Learning Center, 150 Pullen Hall, or contact Sandy Eckard at x3064 or seckard@frostburg.edu.

Internships

Dept. of Transportation Fellows Internship

The Maryland Department of Transportation (MDOT) Fellows Internship Program is designed to introduce Maryland's most promising college students to the rewards and challenges of working within Maryland's integrated transportation system. Interns can gain experience in policy development, marketing, international relations, computer networking, engineering, planning and financing, public relations and neighborhood conservation. Placements are available at the Aviation Administration, Port Administration, Transit Administration, Motor Vehicle Administration, State Highway Administration, Transportation Authority and The Secretary's Office.

Participating students earn $3,500 during eight weeks this summer (June 9 to Aug. 1) and $10 per hour in a part-time internship during the fall 2003 or spring 2004 semester. The application process is open to all students entering their senior year during the fall 2003 semester with a GPA of 3.0 or higher. All majors are encouraged to apply. Application information can be found at www.shrivercenter.org/mdot. Submit applications to the Shriver Center directly by Monday, March 24.

Brochures may be picked up from John Bambacus, Department of Political Science, Guild Center 139 or 136. For information, call him at x4283 or e-mail jbambacus@frostburg.edu

Governor's Summer Internship Program

The Governor's Summer Internship Program will introduce college students to the unique challenges and rewards of working within Maryland State Government. This summer's program runs from June 2 to Aug. 8 and will have placements in Annapolis and Baltimore.

Applicants must be entering their junior or senior years during the fall 2003 semester, with a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Interns are selected on the basis of their leadership skills, academic achievement and creativity in their essays. All majors are encouraged to apply. The on-campus deadline to apply is Monday, March 3.

For information and an application, contact John Bambacus, Guild Center 139, call x4283 or jbambacus@frostburg.edu.

International

International Dinner

Students, faculty and staff are invited to the CIE's annual International Dinner Monday, Feb. 24, at 6 p.m. in City Place on Water Street. Either bring an international dish or buy a ticket and sample the cuisine. For information, contact Tom Carr at x4747 or tcarr@frostburg.edu

Latin American Forum

The CIE will host a forum on Latin America on Tuesday, Feb. 25, in Manicur Assembly, from 7 p.m. Panelists include both faculty and returning study abroad students who will address a variety of themes focusing on their experiences and research in Latin America: Dr. MacGregor O'Brien (Ecuador), Dr. Paul Charney (Peru and Bolivia), Dr. Miguel Cardinale (Colombia), Andrew Cooke (Argentina), Ben Russo (Brazil).

Social Work Field Experience in Ireland

In conjunction with Salisbury University and Hood College, FSU will sponsor a fieldwork experience for Social Work majors this summer in Limerick, Ireland. Students will enroll for the FSU course SOWK 498 and will complete 100 hours of field work at a social services agency. Side trips to Dublin and other parts of the country take place on weekends. For more information, contact the CIE or Dr. Maureen Connelly at x4998.

Study in Germany This Summer with FSU

Students interested in spending the first part of the summer taking an FSU course in Germany are encouraged to apply. The course is SOCI 450, "Classic Sociological Theory" and will be taught by Dr. Anthony Crosby (x4391, 022 Guild Ctr.). Crosby will also supervise independent studies for students who want to focus on German culture. Approximate cost for program, including tuition, housing, some meals, airfare, Eurail pass and other fees is $2,700 (in-state) or $3,000 (out of state). Deadline is late February, early March.

Intensive Language Programs Through ISEP

The International Student Exchange Program is offering three intensive language programs this summer for students interested in improving their Spanish (Chile), French (Chambéry, France), or German (Braunschweig, with excursions to Berlin and Hamburg). Link to <http://www.isep.org/nus/summer.html> or contact the CIE.

Art in England

Students who would like to spend three weeks in Oxford, England, taking an FSU art course are encouraged to apply now for the summer in Oxford program, sponsored by FSU, Indiana University in Pennsylvania and a consortium of other area institutions. The program normally takes place during the last three weeks of August. For information, contact Dr. Judy Dieruf in the Visual Arts Dept. at x4320.

Study Spanish, Earn TEFL in Ecuador

Apply now for Augustana College and the Centers for Interamerican Studies' Summer Spanish Program in the Andes, June 5 to Aug. 20, and the Summer Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) Certificate Program, June 19 to July 28. CIS is in Cuenca, in the mountains of Ecuador. Students who participate may stay enrolled at FSU. For information, contact the CIE or visit the CEDEI Web site at <http://www.augustana.edu/foreignterm/ecuador/>

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases, students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu, or visit the CIE's new and improved Web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm or the updated newsletter at <http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/newsletter.htm>

Study in Non-traditional Locations

FSU is affiliated with the School for International Training. This enables FSU students to study through SIT in over 50 locations while remaining registered at FSU. All financial aid will transfer. SIT offers programs in Africa, Asia, South America, Europe and Austral-asia. This is a fantastic opportunity for students who would like to spend a semester, year or summer off the beaten track.

Study Down Under

FSU is affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, an orientation program on the Great Barrier Reef, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a broad range of courses at campuses in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustraLearn.

Study in Newcastle, England

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for the fall 2003 semester. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam, and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Courses are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost of the program is about the same as one semester at FSU (in-state) and all financial aid will transfer.

Financial Aid for Studying Overseas

FSU students are able to transfer all federal financial aid overseas to help pay for study abroad programs, along with state and institutional aid for most FSU sponsored programs. The CIE also awards study abroad scholarships of $500 and $1,000 to qualifying students. Scholarship deadline for summer, fall and academic year programs is March 15. Many other state and national scholarships are also available to help cover overseas costs.

Gain Work/Volunteer Experience Overseas

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (one to two months) to longer experiences (four to 12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (one to three years). Destinations are available throughout the world.
