This Week on Campus

V-Day Activities Continue, Highlighted by 'Vagina Monologues'

FSU will present Eve Ensler's Obie Award-winning play "The Vagina Monologues" on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26, at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. FSU student Diana Moore directs the production. All proceeds will benefit the Family Crisis Resource Center in Cumberland and the Dove Center of Garrett County. The play is being performed as part of V-Day, a campaign to stop violence against women and girls around the world.

This is the fourth year FSU has marked V-Day. Through campaigns, local volunteers and college students, annual benefit performances of "The Vagina Monologues" are produced to raise awareness and funds for anti-violence groups within their communities. In 2004, FSU raised approximately $4,500.

FSU Women's Studies Program, the Feminist Majority Leadership Alliance, Amnesty International, Philosophy Club, The Center for Volunteerism and National Service and the Residence Hall Association will sponsor this benefit production. Tickets are $5 for students and $10 for non-students and may be reserved by calling x7462.

Other V-Day events include Taness Cline from the Family Crisis Resource Center speaking about "Dating Violence" on Monday, Feb. 21, at 6 p.m. in Dunkle Hall room 213. On Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 7 p.m., the "Philosophy Club Discussion" will take place in Lane University Center rooms 205-206. On Wednesday, Feb. 23, at 6:30 p.m. "Take Back the Night," a march across campus, will begin at the Echo Circle. On Monday, Feb. 28, at noon in Ort Library room 237, FSU Librarian Sean Henry will present "Provocateur and Radical Feminist: Elfriede Jelinek, 2004 Nobel Prize Winner in Literature."

For information about V-Day, contact Patty Gray at (301) 689-5652 or VDayFrostburg@hotmail.com or visit www.vday.org.

Music

UPC Presents 'Hidden in Plain View'

Hidden in Plain View, a New Jersey-based rock quintet, is performing at FSU on Friday, Feb. 25. The doors open at 7:30 p.m. and the show starts at 8 p.m. in the Lane University Center's Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall. The event is sponsored by the University Programming Council.

Comprised of Chris Amato, Rob Freeman, Spencer Peterson, Joe Reo and Mike Saffert, Hidden in Plain View has come up with its own style that is guitar-centered, melody driven and rhythmically complex. The band has performed all over the country, touring with MxPx and others. The opening acts will be The Get Down,

Hidden in Plain View

Derby Lane and Downtown Singapore.

The show is free to FSU students with their student ID; $5 for faculty, staff and the public. For more information, call the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

Celebrate St. Patty's in Manhattan (Bar & Grill)

Come out and celebrate St. Patrick's Day early as the newly-renovated Manhattan Bar & Grill in downtown Cumberland will host a benefit show for WFWM Public Radio on Friday, Feb. 25.

The benefit at the 69 Baltimore St. restaurant (corner of Liberty Street and Town Centre) will be highlighted by a performance by Shanty Irish, featuring Frostburg State's own Steve Owens and Woody Getz playing traditional Irish pub tunes. WFWM will also be giving away some Celtic music compact discs during the performance.

Doors will open at 9:45 p.m. and the music will start at 10 p.m. There is a $5 cover charge with all proceeds from the door going to benefit WFWM Public Radio. For more information, call x4143.

Presentations

Small Business Innovation Briefing

The Maryland Technology Development Corporation (TEDCO) will hold a free briefing session at FSU on the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) program. The session will be held Wednesday, Feb. 23, from 2 to 4:30 p.m., in room 224 of the Compton Science Center.

The meeting is directed toward small businesses and entrepreneurs involved in information technology, biotechnology, engineering and advanced research. The informational session will provide an overview of the SBIR federal funding program and describe how this special program can work with companies to help them compete more effectively for SBIR funding. The program is open to all interested faculty.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP to Linda Steele at x4137.

Acclaimed Journalist Ted Conover to Visit

FSU's Department of English and Center for Creative Writing will present acclaimed journalist Ted Conover on Monday, Feb. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cordts Physical Education Center Leake Room. The event is free and open to the public. A reception and book signing, sponsored by the FSU Office of Student and Community Involvement, will follow.

Ted Conover

Conover's most recent book, "Newjack: Guarding Sing Sing," describes his rookie year as a corrections officer inside New York's legendary Sing Sing prison. Initially banned by the NYS Department of Correctional Services, the book is still considered contraband unless several key pages have been removed. Conover, whose writings are frequently based on first-hand participation, contributes to the "New York Times Magazine" and many other publications.

For more information, please contact the Department of English at x4221 or the Center for Creative Writing at x4024.

Weekly Forums in Hadra's Honor Continue

The free weekly forums named for the late James Hadra will continue each Monday at noon in Ort Library room 237. The talks are free and open to the public; each program will last 50 minutes. Attendees are encouraged to bring a bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

Upcoming programs are as follows:

Feb. 21: Barbara Hurd, "Beyond Assessment: A Gathering of Poems About Teaching and Learning."

Feb. 28: Sean Henry, "Provocateur and Radical Feminist: Elfrieda Jelinek, 2004 Literature Nobel." "

March 7: Robert Doyle, "Non-Cognitive Issues in College Instruction."

The forum is sponsored by Catholic Campus Ministries, United Campus Ministries and Hillel. For information, contact Rev. Larry Neumark at x7490.

Literature

FSU Presents Def Jam Poet Mayda DelValle

University Programming Council presents "Poetry Slam" featuring Def Jam Poet Mayda DelValle on Thursday March 3, at 8 p.m. in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

DelValle was in the Tony Award-winning "Russell Simmons' Def Poetry Jam" on Broadway and traveled to Scotland with the show to perform at the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe Festival. The native of Chicago's South Side has also been featured in four of the five seasons of HBO's "Def Poetry Jam." Currently, she tours with "Def Jam Poetry" and legendary director Norman Lear's "Declaration of Independence" Tour.

Students will also have the chance to share their poetry and compete for the chance to perform at the April Poetry Night featuring J. Ivy. For more information, contact the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

Theatre

UT to Present 'Metamorphoses'

University Theatre will present Mary Zimmerman's "Metamorphoses" on March 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12 at 8 p.m. and March 5 at 2 p.m.

One of the most unusual and highly acclaimed contemporary plays, "Metamorphoses" is an evocative, beautiful retelling of selected myths from the Roman poet Ovid. The stories of King Midas, Orpheus and Eurydice, Cupid and Psyche, and Phaeton, among others, are included. Set in and around a large, shimmering pool of symbolic water, the play probes enduring questions about life, love, death and the inevitability of transformation and change.

In 2002, Metamorphoses received a Tony nomination for Best Play, and adapter/director Mary Zimmerman won the Tony for Best Direction of a Play.

Tickets are $5 for students and $10 for the general public. For reservations and information, please call the University Theatre box office at x7462, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Art

Visual Arts Presents 'Second Message'

FSU's Visual Arts Department presents the "Second Message" art exhibition through Sunday, Feb. 27, in the Stephanie Ann Roper Art Gallery in the Fine Arts Building on campus.

The exhibition, which showcases the works of area residents Ken Braitman, Mary McCunn, Kurt Bonello and Kate Keely, will feature different forms of artistic expression including paintings and sculptures.

Braitman's sculptures give new life or perspective to old discarded objects. Keely's paintings explore issues related to the human condition translated in a symbolic manner. McCunn's sculptures and jewelry are produced using mixed metals, creating an abstract metamorphosis on small insect-like elements in nature. Bonello's sculptures are influenced by or constructed from found objects or natural formations.

The Stephanie Ann Roper Art Gallery is open to the public 1 to 4 p.m., Monday through Wednesday.

Volunteers

Students Offer Free Tax Return Preparation

Free help preparing 2004 tax returns is available through the IRS-sponsored VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) Program at FSU.

Help with basic federal and Maryland income tax returns will be offered from early February through early April by FSU's College of Business students who have been trained and approved by the IRS. Faculty members will oversee these student preparers.

The VITA program offers this assistance to taxpayers filing Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or a basic Form 1040 federal tax return. Volunteers will alert taxpayers to special credits and deductions for which they may be eligible. Electronic filing will also be available this year.

Appointments must be made in advance by calling Joyce Middleton, VITA site co-coordinator, at x4154. Students will work Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in FSU's Framptom Hall (except for March 19 and 26). A drop-off service will also be available throughout the week.

Taxpayers arriving for an appointment should bring any tax packages mailed by the IRS and the state, Form W-2 from all employers, all Form 1099s, a copy of last year's returns, if available, and any other relevant information about income and expenses. Taxpayer and dependent social security numbers and birth dates are also required (especially for electronic filing).

International

Study Abroad Info at Lane University Center

Students who are interested in an overseas experience are advised to visit the Lane University Center foyer between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Feb. 21 or 23. The director of the Center for International Education and returning study abroad students will be available at a table to discuss study abroad options, costs, financial aid and how to apply. For more information, contact the CIE.

Summer in Honduras - Info Meeting Feb. 21

The CIE, in conjunction with the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, is pleased to announce a new summer study abroad program in La Ceiba, Honduras. Students will take SPAN 499 and volunteer through PeaceWork to help improve living conditions for inhabitants of Le Ceiba. Course dates are tentatively May 23 - June 17. An information meeting will be held on Monday, Feb. 21, at 4 p.m. in room 205-206 of the Lane Center. For further information, contact Dr. Maria-Luisa Sanchez (msanchez@frostburg.edu), Patty Gray (pgray0@frostburg.edu), or the CIE.

Fall 2005 in the UK - Info Meeting Feb. 22

Students who are interested in studying at Northumbria University next fall should plan to attend an information meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 4 p.m. in the CIE building (Fuller House). Northumbria University is located in Newcastle, three hours north of London by train and easily accessible to the rest of continental Europe. All participants register for "Colloquium on British History," a course that includes weekly field trips to sites of historical interest, such as Hadrian's Wall, Durham Cathedral and the Peak District. All credits transfer back to FSU. For further information, visit the Northumbria webpage: <http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/unn.htm>

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases, students register at FSU during a semester abroad and can take all financial aid with them and transfer credit back to FSU. For information on programs or scholarships, contact Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller

House on Braddock Road, x3091, asimes@frostburg.edu, or visit the CIE's Web page at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm.

Apply Now for Summer, Fall Study Abroad
