

StateLines

www.frostburg.edu/news/statelines.htm

For and about FSU people

A publication of the FSU Office of Advancement

Volume 38, Number 27, April 21, 2008

Copy deadline: noon Wednesday, 228 Hitchins or reramspott@frostburg.edu

Author of 'Curveball: Spies, Lies, and the Con Man Who Caused a War' to Speak Monday

Bob Drogin, author of "Curveball: Spies, Lies, and the Con Man Who Caused a War," will speak at FSU on Monday, April 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall of the Lane University Center.

Drogin describes a con-man, dubbed "Curveball" by the Western intelligence community, whom Drogin claims was lying when he sketched out Saddam Hussein's germ warfare program to American intelligence, driving America to begin a war. Drogin shows how those who doubted Curveball's evidence ignored their doubts because it fed a theory they had already believed.

Rev. Larry Neumark of United Campus Ministry is looking forward to Drogin's presentation. "We are very fortunate to have Bob Drogin, an award-winning national security reporter for the Los Angeles Times, as our speaker. If people want to know how and why America's intelligence was so wrong and how we were deceived into war, they will want to hear Bob Drogin speak."

Following the presentation, Drogin will be available to sign his book. For more information, contact Neumark at x7490.

Bob Drogin

Theatre

Robin Wynder, playing Lena Younger ("Mama") and Paul-Michael Rushton, who plays her grandson, Travis Younger, are featured in "A Raisin in the Sun."

'Raisin in the Sun' Closes UT Main Stage

University Theatre will tie up the Main Stage series with Lorraine Hansberry's American classic, "A Raisin in the Sun," on April 24, 25, and 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

In her 1950s story of a family living and struggling on Chicago's South Side, Lorraine Hansberry created one of the first honest depictions of a black family on the American stage. In an age when predominantly black audiences simply did not exist, Hansberry was the first African-American woman to be produced on Broadway and, according to the "New York Times," her play "changed American theatre forever." A fiercely moving portrait of people whose hopes and dreams are constantly deferred, "A Raisin in the Sun" has been hailed as "one of a handful of great American plays - it belongs in the inner circle along with 'Death of a Salesman,' 'Long Day's Journey Into Night' and 'The Glass Menagerie.'"

For reservations and information, please call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462 (M-F, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.), or stop by the box office in the Performing Arts Center Lobby (M-F, 12 - 2 p.m.).

Tickets are $5 for students and $10 for non students.

Play Addresses Truths of Child Maltreatment

Don't miss "A Rough Life: One Child's Story of Maltreatment." Explore the truths of child maltreatment and discover the harsh reality through the eyes of a child. Come out and support local charities and raise awareness to stomp out child maltreatment. The event will take place at the Palace Theatre on Main Street in Frostburg, kicking off April 29 at 6 pm. Refreshments will be provided. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. and admission is free. Sponsored by the Center for Children and Families and funded by the Catherine Gira Campus to Community Fund. For more information please contact Arnold McNeal at amcneal0@frostburg.edu or Britney Gladhill at bagladhill0@frostburg.edu.

Comedy Class Presents 'Nite O'Comedy'

Need a good laugh before finals? Need to take off the edge? University Theatre's Physical Comedy class will present a series of comedic sketches that embrace the art and silliness of falling down and slapstick, as well as clowning, Shakespearean verse and bearbaiting. The event will take place on Tuesday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. in room 224 of the Performing Arts Center.

Admission is free, although donations will be graciously welcomed at the door to support theatre scholarships. Seating is limited, so please arrive early.

Music

'Die Fledermaus' ('The Bat') Flies into FSU

"Die Fledermaus" ("The Bat") will fly into FSU's Pealer Recital Hall in the Performing Arts Center on Friday, April 25, and Saturday, April 26, at 8 p.m. The operetta, a comedy by Johann

Inside:

Theatre	1	Literature	3	Community	4-5
Music	1-2	Take Note	3-4	Get Involved	5
Entertainment	3	Points of Pride	4	Calendar	6

Strauss, tells the story of a man's revenge after a practical joke is played on him.

The collaboration between the Music and Theatre departments include Dr. Jonathan Hodel, director of the Opera Workshop course, who serves as conductor and Betty Jane Phillips, who will provide the accompaniment. Jennifer Clark provides costumes and the scenery; furniture and props are provided by Conrad Maust. The production will also feature the talents of Lane Conklin, Krystle Hutton, Ryan Bowie, Alexandra Cozart, Olivia Hartman, Chris Akinbuwa, Chris Delgado, Jessie Ragland, Adam Pomeroy, Colin Shultzaberger, Brandon Strawther and members of FSU's internationally acclaimed Chamber Choir, under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg-Sarnaker.

Tickets are $5 and will be available at the door. For more information, visit the Department of Music Web site at www.frostburg.edu/dept/music or call x4145.

FSU Percussion Ensemble to Perform

FSU's Percussion Ensemble, directed by Dr. Ronald Horner, will perform on Tuesday, April 22, at 8 p.m. in the Pealer Recital Hall of the Performing Arts Center.

The program, presented by the Department of Music, will include "Raptures of Undream" by Bruce Hamilton, "The 'O' Zone" by Jack Stamp, "Bonham" by Christopher Rouse, "Mitos Bresileiros" by Ney Rosauero, "Air for the G String" by J.S. Bach and arranged by J. Moore and "Walk Like an Egyptian" by Liam Sternberg and arranged by C. Crockarell.

The Percussion Ensemble includes students Milton Alexander Jr., Ryan Atlow, Emily Finch, Mark Gauthier, Greg Harris, Hanna Lagno, Trevor Seits, Colin Shultzaberger, Justin Smith, Rebecca Snow and Jilia Vilece. Guest artists include Jared Miller on guitar, and Wayne Schmidt on bass.

The performance is free and open to the public. For more information, contact the Department of Music at x4109.

Percussion Ensemble members, from left, Hannah Lagno, Milton Alexander, Trevor Seits, and Ryan Atlow prepare for their April 22 concert.

Weatherholt to Perform Organ Recital

FSU senior Daniel Weatherholt will perform an organ recital at 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 27, at St. John's Episcopal Church, 52 Broadway in Frostburg.

Weatherholt, an organist and choir-master at St. Johns, is pursuing an education in music and is expected to graduate this May. He is also the organist at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Lonaconing and the organist and cantor on Saturday afternoons for St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Little Orleans. Aside from his church duties, Weatherholt is a residential mentor at Edgewood Commons at FSU.

He is a member of the FSU Chamber Choir, University Chorale, United Campus Ministry, Episcopal Campus Ministry and the Cumberland Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

His program will include pieces by John Blow, J.S. Bach, Johannes Brahms, Fred Bock, David M. Cherwien, Ralph Vaughn Williams, Emma Lou Diemer, John Bacchus Dyles, Jean-Joseph Mouret and FSU faculty member Joan DeVee Dixon.

Weatherholt's performance is free and open to the public. For more information, contact FSU's Department of Music at x4109.

UPC Council Presents Black Violin

The urban/neo-classical musical group Black Violin will perform at FSU's Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall in the Lane University Center on Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p.m. The concert is sponsored by the University Programming Council.

Black Violin, made up of two classically trained musicians, won the Showtime at the Apollo 2005 Legend title, which launched them to international fame. These two gentlemen, KeV Marcus and Wil b, along with their DJ, TK, have created the ultimate synergy between classical and hip-hop music. Their ardor for music and neo-classical, innovative, urban style of violin mixtures and funk has exploded onto the music scene with audiences demanding more.

Black Violin's notoriety has risen with their amazing performance accompanying Alicia Keys at the 2004 Billboard Awards and by performing with some of the industry's biggest artists, including Aerosmith, P. Diddy, Jessica Simpson, Lil Kim, Brooke Hogan, The Eagles, Stevie Nicks, Linkin Park, 50 Cent, Lloyd Banks, Nas, Fabulous, Ciara, Fat Joe, Lil Wayne, Tony Touch and Miami's own Iconz and Wrecognize.

Tickets are $5 for non-FSU students and $2 for FSU students and can be purchased in the FSU Lane University Box Office. For information, call the Lane University Center Info Desk at x4411.

Flute Recital at FSU Rescheduled for May 7

FSU Department of Music's Faculty Recital Series presents Kristin Bacchiocchi-Stewart performing a flute recital at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 7, in FSU's Performing Arts Center Pealer Recital Hall. This recital has been rescheduled from its original April 20 date.

She will be performing works by Blavet, Beaser, Zyman, Rae, Mower and Borne, the latter an arrangement of Bizet's "Carmen," which will be assisted by Peabody Conservatory pianist Sheng-Yuan Kuan and FSU faculty member Timothy Powell on saxophone.

Bacchiocchi-Stewart's performance is free and open to the public. For more information, contact FSU's Department of Music at x4109.

Musical Group Ewabo to Perform at Loft

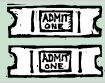

The musical group Ewabo will perform at FSU on Thursday, April 24, from 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. in the Derenzinski Lounge/The Loft in the Lane University Center, sponsored by the National Residence Hall Honor Society and the University Programming Council.

Ewabo, originating from Trinidad and Tobago, the Virgin Islands and St. Martin, has a particular emphasis on the steel drum, better known as "pan" to the people of their native land. Their skill and dedication to this Caribbean art form has propelled them to success in the mainstream of international contemporary music.

With the benefit of a variety of backgrounds in the arts, the musicians utilize their experiences to entertain and educate audiences to the Caribbean culture. The success of Ewabo is attributable to their strong belief in the positive ideals that they are committed to uphold. Their motto, "Let's Get Together and Feel Alright," is demonstrated by Ewabo as they perform a variety of musical arrangements.

Their performance is funded by the FSU Student Government Association and is free and open to the public. For information, contact the Lane University Center Desk at x4411.

Entertainment

SNL Comedian, 'Goat Boy' Coming to FSU

Want a chance to see "Goat Boy" in the flesh? One of "Saturday Night Live's" superstars will soon have Western Maryland audiences rolling in the aisles with laughter—Jim Breuer is coming to FSU 8 p.m. Saturday, April 26! The comedian has established himself as one of the most outrageous comedians in the United States through his stand-up performances, stage antics and impressions; he is especially famous for his "Goat Boy" skit and his impression of actor Joe Pesci.

Tickets are $10 for FSU students; $20 for general admission, and are available for purchase at the Lane University Center Box Office. All seating is general admission. For more info, call the Lane University Center at x4411.

Literature

Spring Festival of Children's Lit This Week

Celebrate the joys of children's literature and learn ways to share children's books with readers of all ages when FSU's Spring Festival of Children's Literature returns to scenic Western Maryland Friday, April 25, and Saturday, April 26. The theme for the much-anticipated event, which draws tons of librarians, educators, parents and students to FSU every year, is "Open a Book—Free a Mind," and an impressive group of award-winning authors and illustrators—Betsy and Ted Lewin, Kadir Nelson and Deborah Wiles—headline the festivities.

The Festival will focus on creative ways to inspire children to enjoy reading, in a personal and relaxed "share and learn" environment that allows adults who direct children's learning to interact first hand with authors and illustrators who bring characters to life. The weekend's diverse array of educational activities include informative small group sessions and large group presentations covering topics such as using children's literature in the classroom, using an iPod to learn more about authors and many more. Participants are invited to mingle with fellow educators and exchange ideas, purchase books from an extensive selection and embrace the wisdom and experience that the visiting authors have to share. The program will also offer one-to-one interaction with colleagues and featured authors and illustrators, as well as autographing opportunities.

A special feature of the Festival, The R. Margaret Hamilton Children's Hour, will be held on Friday, April 25, beginning at 4:15 p.m. for children ages 4 to 13. Authors will present age-specific workshops during which they will share their work with children, as well as the process of writing, illustrating and the enjoyment it can bring. Open autographing and book sales are scheduled for 4 to 4:30 p.m. Registration is required for the sessions and can be arranged by contacting Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

Admission to the Festival is by registration only and is limited in number. Pre-registration is required. For more information, contact Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Writer's Conference at FSU This Summer

The FSU Center for Creative Writing is holding its first Nightsun Summer Writer's Conference for local and regional writers from July 31 to Aug. 3, at Failing's Gunter Hotel in Frostburg.

The conference will feature workshops with creative non-fiction writer Barb Hurd, poetry writer Gerry LaFemina and fiction writer Richard Peabody. The weekend will also include readings by participants, workshop faculty and special guests including Dustin Smith, author of "Key Grip: A Memoir of Endless Consequences," and Steven Dunn, author of "The Insistence of Beauty and Everything Else in the World" and winner of the 2001 Pulitzer Prize in poetry.

Students also have the opportunity to meet with workshop facilitators for a personal one-on-one consultation to discuss their work.

The program is designed to provide participants with workshop opportunities, individualized attention and feedback to their work, and to initiate a larger writing community for Frostburg and the surrounding region. During this workshop, all students will have an opportunity to generate new material for publications.

Registration is required. Forms are available at the center's Web site at www.frostburg/cwcenter. For more information, contact Gerry LaFemina, Department of English at FSU at nightsun@frostburg.edu or x4024.

Film

CAST YOUR VOTE in Frostburg: Take 5

The Division of Communications and Media Relations and the Department of Mass Communication will announce the TOP FIVE WINNERS of the Frostburg: Take 5 YouTube contest during a screening of winning entries from 6:30 to 8 p.m., Tuesday, April 29, in Dunkle 218 on the FSU campus. Join us in congratulating the winners and check out how creative our students and alumni can be. Stick around for an informal discussion about YouTube and its role in communicating FSU to the rest of the world.

The campus community is also invited to cast their votes for their favorite entries: we have added a "People's Choice Award," which will be determined by an online vote. Go to www.youtube.com/groups_videos?name=FrostburgTake5 and vote for your favorite entry, using the star ranking: Simply click on the video, look right below the video for the line that says "Rate" with stars next to it, and using your mouse, click on how many stars you think the video should get. You can only vote for a video once, and if you decide to leave a comment, please be tactful and show respect for our contestants. We will evaluate the ratings and announce the "People's Choice" award, along with all the other Take 5 winners, at the video screening April 29. Online voting for the People's Choice Award ends at 5 p.m. April 28.

Got questions? E-mail frostburgtake5@frostburg.edu or visit www.frostburg.edu/take5.

Scholarships

New AFSCME Scholarship at FSU

Members of the FSU Local 239 chapter of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees and the FSU administration gathered recently to sign papers establishing the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Pass-Through Scholarship, which will provide scholarships to full-time FSU students who are members or dependents of members of AFSCME's FSU Local 239. The funds, donated by members of the local, will provide an annual award of at least $500.

Take Note

Reception Honors CLAS Alumni Award Recipients

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will be recognizing alumni with outstanding professional achievements, presenting them with the Alumni Circle of Excellence award. A reception, sponsored by the FSU Alumni Association, will be held on Thursday, May 1 at 3:30 p.m. in the Compton Science Center second floor atrium. Faculty, staff, and students are welcome to attend. At 4 p.m., there will be a question-and-answer session in Compton 226.

Alumni award winners to be honored are Mary Clapsaddle, a sociology and geography graduate now employed as a Legislative Manager for the Maryland Department of Legislative Services; Shirley Giarritta, an art education graduate who is owner and manager of Connoisseur Interiors and Gallery; Daniel Hunt, a mathematics graduate now serving on the faculty of Harvard Medical School and as Director of Inpatient Clinician Educator Services in the Department of Medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital; and Richard Whelan, a political science graduate and president of Marketing General, Inc.

Upcoming Changes to Financial Aid Process

The Financial Aid Office would like to notify all students about changes in the financial aid process for the 2008-2009 academic year. The Financial Aid Office will begin sending all financial aid award notifications to current students via email around the first week of June. Due to a change in federal regulations, every student will now be required to sign and return a form confirming that they wish to accept their loan(s) each year. This is a change from the 2007-2008 award year. No loans will appear as anticipated financial aid and no loan funds can be disbursed until the Financial Aid Office has received written confirmation from each student expressing his or her wish to have a student loan processed. A loan confirmation form will be attached to your award notification email. Please complete this form and return it to the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible to avoid processing delays.

In addition to signing and returning a loan confirmation form to the Financial Aid Office, some students will also have to complete a new Master Promissory Note (MPN) for their loans due to recent changes in federal legislation and the banking industry. These students will be notified by the Financial Aid Office in the next few months. If you receive this notice, you must go onto the Financial Aid Office's website, choose a new lender, and complete a new MPN. You will need your FAFSA PIN and two references to complete this process. Please watch your mail and check your email for these and other important documents and announcements.

Praxis I Options for Teacher Ed Candidates

Attention Teacher Education Candidates. You have the option of using SAT or ACT scores instead of Praxis I, if you meet the following conditions:

- SAT taken after 2005, math and critical reading composite score of 1100;
- SAT taken between 4/95 and 2005, math and verbal composite score of 1100;
- SAT taken prior to 4/95, math and verbal composite score of 1000;
- ACT composite score of 24.

For further information, check with the office of unit assessment, Frampton 203-3.

Planning to Graduate?

If you are planning to graduate at the end of this semester, please note the following:

- The 132nd Commencement Ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, May 17, in the Harold J. Cordts Physical Education Center. The College of Business and College of Education ceremony is at 10 a.m.; the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will present its graduates at the 2 p.m. ceremony.
- Please complete your graduation application at the Registrar's Office now. This will enable you to receive information about your upcoming Commencement.
- The first Commencement mailing was scheduled for the first week in March and will be sent to both your local and your permanent addresses. Please update your address information in PAWS to assure that you will receive all the details.

• Full details about Commencement are on the FSU Web site. Go to "Current Students." Commencement information is under "Academics" on the left side.

For other Commencement info, please contact Brittnei Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

News for Grad Students

Summer and Fall Registration

All graduate students should register on line at <http://paws.frostburg.edu/students>. Payment for summer is due at the time of registration. Payment deadline for fall 2008 is Aug. 8. If you have any questions or need assistance with registration please contact the Graduate Services office at x4595.

May 2008 Commencement

Students who plan to graduate in May 2008 need to complete the "Application for Graduation" as soon as possible. The forms are available at the Office of Graduate Services 141 Pullen Hall, or by calling x7053. Please remember that tickets will be required for entrance into the commencement ceremony on Main Campus on Saturday, May 17, 2008- see www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement/ for more details.

Points of Pride

As part of the ORIE instruction which includes students answering questions about the library and how to find items in the library in a team environment;

Ort Library has instituted a drawing to be held at the end of each semester for a prize in which students who answer the questions correctly are eligible to have their name entered in a drawing for a prize. The prize is a 1 GB Flash Drive. The winner for this semester is Thomas Kennedy!

Internships

Disney College Program Available in Anaheim

A new opportunity for an incredible internship with Disneyland is available, plus, we still have some availability in Walt Disney World for FSU students. Arrival dates for (Disneyland) interested students are May 19 and May 22, departing on Jan 3. Students can learn more about the program and how to apply by visiting the website at: www.disneycollegeprogram.com or you can contact Amy Shimko at alshimko@frostburg.edu or x4403 for more information. Hurry, these are filling up fast!

Living Green

Greening of FSU

For Earth Day, April 22, the Geography Club will plant three American

Chestnut Trees on the hill in front of Gunter Hall at 6 p.m. These trees were donated by Dr Craig Caupp and Dr Francis Precht of the Geography Department. They will also serve as a replacement for Gunter Hall's hemlock tree that was cut down due to Hemlock Woolly Adelgid disease. The chestnuts will be a great addition to the upper quad, providing some shade and making our campus greener.

Community

Latta to Speak, Perform At AAUW Dinner

Greg Latta, FSU faculty member, Department of Physics/Engineering, and musician extraordinaire, will be the featured speaker/performer at the annual dinner meeting of the Frostburg Branch, American Association of University Women. The dinner will be at the Acropolis Restaurant, Frostburg, on Tuesday, May 6, at 6 p.m.

Dr. Latta is a mesmerizing singer, songwriter, and award-winning performer on the hammered dulcimer, banjo, guitar, Irish bouzouki, cittern, harmonica, recorder, Appalachian dulcimer, and concertina. A hammered dulcimer virtuoso and champion, he is a three-time winner of the Mid-Eastern hammered dulcimer championships and has twice been a runner up in the National Hammered Dulcimer Championships held at Winfield, Kansas.

He performs an eclectic mix of carefully chosen Irish, traditional and contemporary folk, Broadway, bluegrass, and original music. His repertoire includes original works, old coal mining songs, whaling songs, contemporary and traditional topical songs and children's songs, to name just a few. His diverse performances have included a private performance for the Hungarian Presidential Cabinet, and performances at the US Olympic Canoeing and Kayaking Trials, the Rocky Gap Country Bluegrass Festival, the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, numerous school performances, and a performance with the prestigious modern dance company Dance Alloy of Pittsburgh celebrating the centennial of FSU.

Dr. Latta is a finger style guitar player who has played guitar nearly his entire life. He plays both 6- and 12-string guitars, and open tunings on the 12 string guitar are a particular specialty of his. He is also an award winning banjo player, having won second or third place five years in a row at the banjo competitions held in Friendsville, Md. His banjo style is a combination of traditional bluegrass, old-timey, melodic, and contemporary styles. He has even been known to let a Beatle tune or two slip out on the banjo!

He has released two recordings, "Headed for Home" and "My Favourite Things." Dr. Latta is accredited as a Visiting Performer in the Maryland State Arts Council Artists in Education program. In addition to his stage performances and recordings, he is also host and producer of the popular radio show "Just Plain Folks", which can be heard Saturday afternoons on WFWM - 91.9 FM, the FSU public radio station.

Officers for the upcoming year will be installed after the dinner. Hostesses for the evening will be Teddy Latta, Catherine Goldsworthy and Marilou Sowers. Dinner attendees will order from the Acropolis menu, but for a dinner count and for reservations, please call Sharon Robinson no later than Thursday, May 1, at 301-689-9347. For questions and additional information, call president Amy Meek at 301-689-5740.

Applications Sought for Summer Math Center

Applications are now being accepted for children who will be entering grades five through nine in fall 2008 for the "Maryland Summer Center for Mathematics: Art of Problem Solving, Algebra, Statistics, and Geometry with Technology." The program will be held at FSU from July 21 through Aug. 1 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The program provides students with the opportunity to form friendships and be challenged by other students with similar interests and talents. Students will participate in activities covering interesting content that is not offered in school curriculum. They will also use and receive the computer software "Terrapin Logo" to explore basic geometric concepts. Students will also learn to use other high-powered mathematical software, such as Maple and Minitab.

Dr. Laxman Hegde, from the FSU Math Department, and a teaching team of two other FSU mathematics professors, a high school mathematics teacher and three teaching assistants will direct the camp. There will also be two or more guest lectures from experts in the field of mathematics.

The program is non-residential; the cost is $225.00. Scholarships are available. For more information, contact Dr. Laxman Hegde at x4384, or e-mail him at lhagde2@frostburg.edu. You may also visit the program Web site at www.foundationmath.com.

It's a Family Thing

The Family Junction, Inc. is seeking volunteers, riders, walkers and sponsors for this years Walk 'n Roll, which benefits the fight against child abuse. Walk 'n Roll '08 will take place on Sunday, May 4, at 1:30 p.m., with a 5-mile walk on The C&O Canal Towpath or a 4-, 12-, 16-, 24- or 32-mile bike ride on the Great Allegheny Passage.

Walk 'n Roll '08 will begin and end at Canal Place in Cumberland, with an awards ceremony at 3:30 p.m. at center stage. Any participant raising $25 will be registered for a chance to win a loaded iPod and qualify for incentive gifts. Raffle tickets are available to win a "Specialized Expedition" bicycle valued at $350 donated by Cumberland Trail Connections plus various other prizes.

Tickets may be purchased at any First Peoples location and Cumberland Trail Connections. Individuals or groups wishing to register for Walk 'n Roll '08 should call 301-777-2858.

Get Involved

Learn About Passover

United Campus Ministry, with Rabbi Stephen Sniderman of the B'er Chayim Temple in Cumberland, will host a Seder Celebration on Tuesday, April 22, at 5:30 p.m. in the Osborne Newman Center. Sniderman will lead a model Seder as an educational experience. Stop by to learn about Passover and enjoy delicious food! For more information, please call the Rev. Larry Neumark at x7490.

Non-Traditional Students, Unite!

ENCORE is the group for non-traditional students. Meet with us to discuss issues and exchange ideas. Full- and part-time students welcome. Contact mmoran@frostburg.edu.

Speakers

Appalachian Lab

The University of Maryland Center for Environmental Science Appalachian Laboratory will offer a series of seminars during the spring semester. Two seminars are planned for the coming weeks.

The next seminar is titled, "Analytical tools for identifying the causes of biological degradation in streams," presented by Lester Yuan of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and hosted by Bob Hilderbrand. It is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 24, in room 109.

On the following Tuesday, April 29, at 10:45 a.m. the Terrestrial Biogeochemistry Seminar will present "Belowground responses to global change in hardwood forests: linking pattern and process." It will be hosted by Keith Eshleman.

Refreshments follow in the lobby. For more information, visit www.al.umces.edu/seminar/schedule.

Volunteers

Read to Succeed Needs You

Read to Succeed is currently accepting applications for new tutors. Everyone is welcome. This is a great opportunity for education and social work students to earn service hours. Read to Succeed provides two hours a week of tutoring for children in the surrounding communities in grades K-12. Tutoring sites and hours include:

- FSU Ort Library, Monday through Thursdays, 5-7 p.m.
- St. Michael's School, Tuesdays & Wednesdays, 2:45-4:45 p.m.

• South Cumberland Library, Monday & Wednesday, 6-8 p.m.

Training workshops are provided throughout the month of February. Transportation is also provided for sites. For more information, please contact Lesley Baker, Read to Succeed Program coordinator, at x7599. (can cut if needed)

Premiering today....

FSU TV3's newest program, "Human Geography: People Places and Change" is a 30-minute series of shows that will feature communities around the world that are coping with major socio-economic change, these programs will help students understand present-day events within the scope of clearly recognizable trends, and realize the impact that government, corporate, and individual decisions may have on people and places near and far. This series targets high school students through adults and will air weekly on Mondays at 4 & 7 PM. For more information about the shows, log onto: <http://www.learner.org/resources/series85.html>.

For more information about FSU TV-3 programming visit www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/index.htm or contact Cable Channel Manager, Melanie Lombardi at mlombardi@frostburg.edu or at x3011.

Schedule for April 21- 25

Monday:

- 3 p.m. NASA SCI Files "The Case of the Galactic Vacation"
- 4 p.m. Human Geography: People, Places and Change "Imagining New Worlds"
- 4:30 p.m. Connecting with the Arts: "Breathing Life Into Myths"
- 5 p.m. Frostburg City Council Meeting taped on Thursday, April 17th

Tuesday:

- 3 & 6 p.m. FSU This Week
- 3:15 & 6:15 p.m. Insights: Featuring Arun Gandhi
- 3:30 & 6:30 p.m. Lecture by Author: Daniel Mark Epstein
- 4:30 & 7:30 p.m. The Chamberlin Trio

Wednesday:

- 3 & 6 p.m. NASA "Destination Tomorrow"
- 3:30 & 6:30 p.m. FSU Brass Ensemble Concert, Spring 2002
- 4:30 & 7:30 p.m. American Cinema: "Film in the TV Age"
- 5:30 & 8:30 p.m. American Passages, A Literary Survey: "Southern Renaissance"

Thursday:

- 3 & 6 p.m. FSU This Week
- 3:15 & 6:15 p.m. Insights: Featuring Brian McAllister & Mike Marriner, two of the three founders of Roadtrip Nation
- 3:30 & 6:30 p.m. FSU Gospel Choir Concert, Spring 2004
- 5 & 8 p.m. Office Ergonomics Seminar

Friday:

- 3 & 6 p.m. NASA Connect, "The A Train"
- 3:30 & 7 p.m. NASA "Destination Tomorrow"
- 4 & 7:30 p.m. Social Studies in Action:

"Public Opinion and the Vietnam War"
5 & 8 p.m. Exploring the World of Music:
"Form: Shape of Music"
5:30 & 8:30 p.m. FSU Jazz Ensemble,
Spring 2004

FSU Events Calendar

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Edgewood Hiring for Summer

Need a summer job? Edgewood Commons is now hiring for summer. Positions include apartment preparation, apartment painting, and summer community assistant. Please go to www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com to view job descriptions and to print off an application. Housing can be provided as part of compensation. Contact Margaret or Greg at 301-689-1370 for more information.

MONDAY, APRIL 21

- * Greek Advisory Board 11:00 a.m. Lane 203-204
- * UCM Lecture: Bob Drogin 7:30 p.m. Lane ARMAH

TUESDAY, APRIL 22—Earth Day

- * Sierra Student Coalition: 5th Annual Earth Day Celebration 10:00 a.m.-9:30 p.m. Lane University Center
- * Leadership Development Workshop Series: Transitioning Leadership Skills Into a Career Field 7:00 p.m. Lane 201
- * Women's Lacrosse: Washington & Jefferson College 7:00 p.m. Home
- * FSU Percussion Ensemble 8:00 p.m. PAC Pealer Recital Hall

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23

- * Education Job Fair 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Lane ARMAH
- * Baseball: University of Pittsburgh-Greensburg (DH) 1:00 p.m. Home
- * Student Recital Series #10 3:00 p.m. PAC Pealer Recital Hall
- * Greek Council 4:30 p.m. Lane 202
- * Spring Fest Planning Meeting 7:00 p.m. Lane 202

THURSDAY, APRIL 24

- * Colleges Against Cancer Luminaries Thursday 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Lane Lobby
- * Women's Softball: Shenandoah Univ. (DH) 3:00 p.m. Home
- * University Theatre: A Raisin in the Sun 7:30 p.m. PAC Studio Theatre
- * SGA Meeting 7:30 p.m. Lane 201

FRIDAY, APRIL 25—Annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature

- * Annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature 5:45 p.m. Lane University Center
- * University Theatre: A Raisin in the Sun 7:30 p.m. PAC Studio Theatre
- * FSU Opera Theatre 8:00 p.m. PAC Pealer Recital Hall

SATURDAY, APRIL 26—Annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature

- * PRAXIS 6:45 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Dunkle Hall
- * Annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature 8:00 a.m. Lane University Center
- * Women's Lacrosse: The College of New Jersey 1:00 p.m. Away
- * University Theatre: A Raisin in the Sun 7:30 p.m. PAC Studio Theatre
- * Paparazi Perfect: Fashion Show 7:30 p.m. Lane ARMAH
- * FSU Opera Theatre 8:00 p.m. PAC Pealer Recital Hall
- * CES Concert Commission & UPC Comedy: Jim Breuer 8:00 p.m. Cordts PEC Main Arena

SUNDAY, APRIL 27

- * CCM Mass noon & 8:00 p.m. Cook Chapel
- * Women's Softball: Hood College (DH) 2:00 p.m. Away
- * Planetarium: Animal Sky Stories 4:00 p.m. & 7:00 p.m. Tawes Hall
- * Faculty Artist Series: Brian Plitnik, Trombone, Logan Lindsey, Tuba 7:00 p.m. PAC Pealer Recital Hall

* Open to the public – Questions? Call 301-687-4411. All information subject to change
FSU is committed to making all of its programs, services, and activities accessible to persons with disabilities. You may request accommodations through the ADA Compliance Office, 302 Hitchins, (301) 687-4102, TDD (301) 687-7955.

Before You Do It,
Take Time to Think Through It!

