Ruble has edited a dozen volumes and is the author of five monographic studies. His most recent monographic study – "Creating Diversity Capital" – examined the changes in such cities as Montreal, Washington, D.C., and Kyiv (Kiev) brought about by the recent arrival of large trans-national communities.

Visual Arts

Works on Paper by FSU Alum Shaffer to Be on Display at FSU

"On Second Thought: Recent Works on Paper," an exhibition featuring work by FSU alumnus Sam Shaffer, will be on display in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The exhibition will open on Friday, Feb. 5, with an opening reception from 7 to 9 p.m. The show will be on display through Wednesday, Feb. 24.

The collection features Recent Works on Paper as the basis for Shaffer's upcoming show, which are a broad representation of the works he has made over the past year. In this series, Shaffer has used scraps and images found on the floor or in some box. He has cut them out, pasted them together, moved them around, then moved them around some more. Combining drawing, spray paint and collage, he has made something free flowing and has looked for gestures – even awkward ones – that lead somehow from one image to the next. The images are emotional ones of circus scenes, artist friends, self-portraits and family portraits – sometimes ugly, sometimes beautiful – but always displaying motion, colors and textures and the touch of the hand on paper.

Shaffer graduated from FSU in 1978. He received a master's degree in fine arts (printmaking) from the Pratt Institute. He is a winner of the Liqueatex Excellence in Art Award.

The Roper Gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact Dustin Davis at ddavis@frostburg.edu or call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Writers are encouraged to submit their one-act plays (with a running time of 40-minutes or less) to the center by Thursday, April 1. Entries will be judged on plot, character development, dialogue and overall quality.

The first prize winner will receive $750 and production of his or her play at the Frostburg One-Act Playwriting Festival to be held on the FSU campus in September. Second and third prize winners will receive $250 and $100, respectively, and staged readings of their works.

Workshops

Center for Creative Writing to Hold Playwriting Workshop

The FSU Center for Creative Writing will host a 10-week playwriting workshop with local award-winning playwright Ty DeMartino. Sessions will begin on Feb. 11 and will be held on Thursday nights, starting at 7 p.m. at the center at 22 E. Main St. in Frostburg.

The workshop is open to novice and established playwrights who want to learn more about the craft and the art of writing for the stage. Participants will go over such topics as how to tell strong stories in a theatrical setting, create memorable characters and write natural-sounding dialogue. Over the 10 weeks, participants will develop their own play ideas and receive feedback and guidance from DeMartino and their fellow workshop participants.

A resident of Frostburg, DeMartino's plays have appeared on stages from Hollywood to off-Broadway in New York City and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. In 2007, he was named Best Playwright of the Year by the "Baltimore City Paper" for his political piece "The Blessed Mothers of War," and in 2008, his family drama "Finding Fossils" was honored as Best Production of the Baltimore Playwrights Festival. Over the past decade, he has been recognized by the Maryland States Arts Council with three Individual Artist Awards. Currently, DeMartino is working on two dramas for the stage – "Cluttered," a play about hoarding disorders, and "The Darling Siblings," a story about children dealing with the murder of a family member. Both plays are being workshopped for possible productions in 2010. In addition, he serves as the head writer for Reel Movie Kids, an initiative to train and showcase young actor-comedians.

The cost for the 10-week workshop is $100 per person, with partial proceeds benefiting the FSU Center for Creative Writing. For info or to register, contact the center at x4024 or visit www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter.

FSU to Offer Writing Workshop for Veterans

FSU's Center for Creative Writing will offer an opportunity just for veterans, a chance to participate in a mixed-genre creative writing workshop. The workshop, open to student veterans and veterans in the local community, is free and requires no purchase of materials. The workshop will meet on Wednesdays from Feb. 3 to May 5 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the center's home in the Lyric Building on Main Street in Frostburg.

The workshop will be led by local veteran and writer Clint Garner. The focus of the workshop will be to equip participants with some basic writing skills, tools and resources. Participants will discuss basic components and conventions of all three major creative writing genres (non-fiction, fiction and poetry), read successful works from each genre by veterans from various eras as well as discuss what makes them work and write original works of each genre. Participants will also have the chance to receive feedback from classmates and the instructor.

"Our hope is to provide interested veterans with an avenue for meaningful and productive expression," Garner says.

For info about the workshop or the FSU Center for Creative Writing, contact Garner at x4024 or cwgarner0@frostburg.edu.

Upcoming CHILL Events

For info, visit www.frostburg.edu/chill, or contact April Baer at x3035 or wellness@frostburg.edu.

Be Heart Smart This February

According to the Centers for Disease Control, heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States. Lack of physical activity can lead to heart disease at any age. CHILL wants FSU to increase its heart health this month by staying active despite these frigid temperatures.

From Feb. 1 to March 1, CHILL will host a "Be Heart Smart" program to encourage Bobcats to keep track of their daily fitness activities by using the American Heart Association's Start! program. This free online program will allow participants to join the FSU network and document the frequency and intensity of aerobic exercise.

Every participant is a winner! Each participant who accurately documents weekly required exercise, i.e., 2.5 hours a week of moderate-level aerobic exercise, will be eligible to receive a free CHILL T-shirt. This program is open to students, faculty and staff.

The Biggest Loser Returns to FSU

CHILL is bringing its "The Biggest Loser on Campus" program back to campus for the second year in a row.

"The Biggest Loser on Campus" is designed to promote student wellness by encouraging increased participation in aerobic activities and health programs on campus. During this two-month program, teams of four will be awarded points for completing tasks that aim to improve participants' overall well-being, including meeting with personal trainers, submitting nutritional analyses and engaging in campus programs.

This program rewards campus engagement and self-awareness, not weight loss. However, past participants noted that their shrinking waistlines were a benefit of their new diet, exercise and stress management techniques. In spring 2009, the top three teams lost a combined total of 114 pounds, and each accumulated multiple participation points by being involved in campus blood drives and walking in the annual Relay for Life event.

Students are encouraged to attend the interest meeting on Tuesday, March 2, at 7 p.m. in the Cordts Leake Room.

Check Out CHILL Reads

Do you enjoy reading as well as learning how to increase your overall health and wellness? CHILL Reads, the book club that meets twice a month, returns Thursday, Feb. 11. Participants will receive a copy of each book and will meet twice a month to discuss their thoughts about the author's approach to wellness. The program is open to students, faculty and staff.

Save the Date for FOCUS FROSTBURG!

FOCUS FROSTBURG, sponsored and organized by FSU's Learning Green, Living Green Sustainability Initiative, is FSU's annual Day of Learning on sustainability and climate awareness that is open to FSU students, faculty, staff and the community. On Wednesday, April 21, dozens of 50-minute presentations will be scheduled throughout the day on campus, along with visual displays and outdoor activities.

Faculty members are asked to encourage students to attend by incorporating this event into class activities and potentially including this in course syllabi. As in previous years, faculty may want to have students, as appropriate, attend a FOCUS FROSTBURG session in lieu of class attendance or to make any of the FOCUS FROSTBURG seminars and activities an extracredit assignment.

A "Call for Presentations" will go out in January. Hopefully, many of you will consider presenting a topic at this event. Student presentations are also highly encouraged and would make a great class activity. The LGLG Committee will keep the campus community posted as more information becomes available.
