Performing Arts This Week on Campus

‘A Midsummer Night’s Dream’

Nora Grider as Puck (the fairy), with Nick Carter and Shelby Herbert

University Theatre will present William Shakespeare’s “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” on Friday, April 15, and Saturday, April 16, and Thursday through Saturday, April 21 to 23, at 7:30 p.m., with a Saturday matinee on April 16 at 2 p.m. in the Drama Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

One of Shakespeare’s warmest comedies, FSU’s “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” is set in the roaring ‘20s jazz era of New Orleans, where deep in a bayou on a moonlit night, three stories of love and aspiration intertwine when love potions take hold in a fairy world and go feverishly awry.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

Opera Theatre

FSU’s Department of Music will present its Opera Theatre performance, “Forever Love,” on Friday, April 15, and Saturday, April 16, at 8 p.m. The theatre will perform various scenes from the operas “La fille du regiment” (“The Daughter of the Regiment”) by Gaetano Donizetti, “Lakme” by Leó Delibes, “Rodelinda” by Georg Frideric Handel, “Le nozze di Figaro” by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, “Faust” by Charles Gounod, “La Boheme” by Giacomo Puccini and “La cenerentola” (“Cinderella”) by Gioachino Rossini, as well as two scenes from the famous operettas “The Count of Luxembourg” by Franz Lehar and “Die Fledermaus” (“The Bat”) by Johann Strauss.

The Opera Theatre director and stage director for the production is Mariana Mihai-Zoeter, and Sean Beachy is the accompanist. The opera performers are Adam Pomeroy (Bertarido in “Rodelinda”), Allison Moses (Susanna in “Le nozze di Figaro”), Bailey Kerr (Clorinda in “The Bat”), Britany Poindexter (Lakme in “Lakme,” Marguerite in “Faust,” Angele in “The Count of Luxembourg” and Thisbe in “La cenerentola”), Christopher Delgado (Alidoro in “La cenerentola”), Jessica Schimming (Adele in “The Bat”), Jiaqi Xu (Marie in “La fille du regiment”), Joy Marsiglia (Marcellina in “Le nozze di Figaro”), Lane Conklin (Tonio in “La fille du regiment,” Rodolfo in “La Boheme” and Rene in “The Count of Luxembourg”), Lauren Huyser (Mimi in “La Boheme”), Robert Brown (Eisenstein in “The Bat”) and Stephanie Laut (Malika in “Lakme,” Cherubino in “Le nozze di Figaro” and Cenerentola in “La cenerentola”).

Annual Spring Choral Concert

The FSU Chamber Choir will present its Annual Spring Choral Concert, Sunday, April 17, at 4 p.m. at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 16 Washington St. in Cumberland. The concert is part of the Betty Jane Phillips Memorial Concert Series and this year is dedicated to FSU voice instructor Patricia Kelby, who died last month.

The Chamber Choir’s performance includes Ola Gjeilo’s eight-part arrangement of “Unicornis Captivatur,” “Nunc Dimittis” by Alexander Gretchaninoff, “Io son la primavera” for 10-part chorus by William Hawley, “Suite de Lorca” by Einojuhani Rautavaara, “Coenantibus autem illis” by Juan de Lienas, “Flower of Beauty” by John Clements featuring guest conductor Ryan Mullaney of Cumberland, “Song to the Moon” by Z. Randall Stroope and “River Snow” by Ying Zhang featuring Jiagi Xu from Changsha, China.

The program will conclude with U2’s well-known arrangement of “MLK” arranged by Bob Chilcott featuring Darren Ross, Andre Wilson and Lane Conklin, tenors, and the lively gospel spiritual “Ask the Watchman” by Sean Caldwell and Taylor Ivory.

Donations in support of the Chamber Choir will be gratefully accepted.

Faculty/Guest Artist Series: Flute, Viola & Piano Recital

The FSU Department of Music will present an hour of music with the flute, viola and piano as part of its Faculty/Guest Artist Series. FSU faculty flutist Pamela Murchison, West Virginia Symphony Orchestra violist Anne Hamilton and Fairmont State University pianist John Morrison will perform in a program of 20th-century music. The recital will take place on Sunday, April 17, at 7 p.m.

The trio will open with the inviting “Concertino” by Ernest Bloch. They will next perform Howard Buss’ “Tennessee Suite,” told in four picturesque movements: “Mystic Dawn,” Treetop Capers,” “Cades Cove” and “The Trail to Abrams Falls.” Murchison and Hamilton will then perform the charming British work “Duo for Flute and Viola” by Sir Malcolm Arnold, and the recital will close with a taste of French music with the tonal and expressive “Prélude, Récitatif et Variations, opus 3” by Maurice Duruflé.

Music

MSO to Perform Verdi’s ‘Requiem’

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra, led by Conductor Elizabeth Schulze, will return to FSU to finish out the Cultural Events Series season with a performance of Giuseppe Verdi’s 90-minute masterpiece, “Messa da Requiem,” featuring the FSU University Chorale and the Cumberland Choral Society. The two performances will be held on Saturday, April 30, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 1, at 3 p.m.

The large orchestra sound of the MSO will complement the classical “Requiem,” which is a Roman Catholic funeral mass written in remembrance of the Italian writer, Alessandro Manzoni. Written for four soloists, double choir and orchestra, the MSO will be accompanied by 120 choral musicians from the Cumberland Choral Society and the University Chorale. Additional guest artists will include soprano Lisa Williamson, mezzo-soprano Maria Dolan Barnes, tenor Jonathan Hodel and baritone Eugene Galvin. This event will bring together some of the most talented musicians in Western Maryland to produce one of the most recognizable, enjoyable and emotionally charged music pieces of all time.

“Requiem” was first performed in 1874 in the church of San Marco in Milan, Italy, and was conducted by Verdi himself. Throughout the work, Verdi used vigorous rhythms, inspirational melodies and dramatic contrasts to express powerful emotions.

Tickets for Verdi’s “Requiem” are $30 for adults and $21 for those under 17. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or online at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

Mind Culture Music Project Returns

Each year the Department of Mass Communication organizes the Mind Culture Original Music project through which students help established and/or aspiring musicians grow their visibility through various promotional activities.

Students first solicit original music from local and regional musicians to be used on a compilation CD. A concert will also be held Friday, May 6.

If you have an original song (already produced) that you’d like to have considered for this year’s CD, submit it to Guild 119 on or before April 15.

All submissions will be considered for the CD. As many artists as possible will be invited to perform at the concert.

Theatre

‘The Importance of Being Earnest’

Oscar Wilde’s “The Importance of Being Earnest” will be presented through April 17 at the Cumberland Theatre.

Nicole Mattis, an associate professor in the Department of Theatre and Dance at FSU, directs this comic masterpiece of romantic entanglements that revolve dizzily around a most ingenious case of mistaken identity.

Mairzy Yost-Rushton plays the supercilious Lady Bracknell. Alums Shea-Mikal Green and Coty Warn square off as Cecily and Gwendolyn with Matthew Cooper, another FSU alum, and Ryan Mullaney playing their suitors. Rounding out the cast are Nicole Halmos, an FSU graduate student, Ron Growden and Don Whisted. Student and group prices are available.

For info, call 301-759-4990 or e-mail boxoffice@cumberlandtheatre.com.

Presentations

Forum on Building Global Diplomacy

Student and Educational Services, the Leadership Studies minor and the J. Glenn Beall, Jr., Institute for Public Affairs will sponsor a forum titled “Building Global Diplomacy and Careers Through Campus Leadership Development Opportunities”

Wednesday, April 13, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Lane South Addition (244). This forum will feature presentations and a documentary excerpt by FSU students who traveled as part of a leadership delegation to Hunan Normal University in March. Tom O’Herron, a retired Foreign Service officer, will then share his experiences and suggestions about Foreign Service employment and international public service opportunities.

Increasingly, universities are engaging in a form of global diplomacy as they build global relationships through students involved in international education opportunities. FSU is offering more opportunities to participate in this type of diplomacy building, and this forum offers a way to learn more about them. Other FSU students and faculty who have traveled to HNU as well as HNU students attending FSU will be present. Resources that support leadership development opportunities at FSU will be available.

For info, contact Dr. Elesha Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu, or Timothy Magrath at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg.edu.

Panel on How to Start Your Own Business

The FSU Entrepreneurship Club will host the panel discussion “How to Start Your Own Business in Western Maryland” Wednesday, April 13, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in Guild 104. The panel, featuring guest speaker Terri Hast from Western Maryland SCORE, will discuss opportunities available for people interested in starting businesses in Western Maryland. All are welcome!

For info, contact Chris Malloy at cpmalloy0@frostburg.edu.

Spring Festival of Children’s Literature

FSU will present the 29th annual Spring Festival of Children’s Literature on Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30.

The theme for the weekend will be “Children’s Literature: Inspiring Compassion, Courage, Friendship and Love.” Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge are the award-winning authors and illustrators headlining the event.

The agenda for the festival includes informative small-group sessions and large presentations offered in a personal and relaxed environment. Topics range from literature circles to teaching reading with Smart Boards.

Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to the R. Margaret Hamilton Children’s Hour on Friday afternoon beginning at 4:15 p.m. This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. Age-specific workshops are presented by the authors, in which they share their work with children, as well as the process of writing, illustrating and the enjoyment they can bring. Open autographing and book sales will be available from 4 to 4:30 p.m. To register, contact Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

Appelt is a member of the faculty at Vermont College’s Master of Fine Arts program. She is the author of over 30 books for children and young adults.

Buckley is a co-founder of the Elephant Sanctuary in Hohenwald, Tenn. Her children’s picture books, “Travels With Tarra,” “Just for Elephants” and “Tarra and Bella: An Elephant and Her Dog,” reflect her love of elephants.

Deedy was born in Cuba and came to the U.S. as a refugee when she was a child. She has been telling and writing stories for over 20 years. Some of her books include “Martina the Beautiful Cockroach,” “The Library Dragon,” “The Yellow Star” and “14 Cows for America.”

Judge is an Alaskan native who has written and illustrated various picture books for children. Her works include “One Thousand Tracings,” “Pennies for Elephants” and “Yellowstone Moran: Painting the American West.”

For info, contact the Centre at x3113 or Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Pre-orders are available for the books that will be featured at the festival. Autographing will also be available.

AL Seminar Series

Dr. Martha Nizinski, NOAA, National Marine Fisheries Service, will present “Beneath the Blue: Exploration, Discovery and Ecosystem Complexity Within Deep-Sea Coral Habitats Off the Southern United States” Thursday, April 14, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

FSU Students Chosen for ‘War on the Floor’

This year, four video production students from FSU’s Mass Communication Department were chosen from a nationwide search as one of two teams to participate in the National Association of Broadcasters’ 2011 “War on the Floor” event at NAB’s annual convention in Las Vegas. Over five days, Asia Taylor, Kelly Courtney, Jaleesa Gregg and Emma Sisk (a Mary Immaculate College, Ireland, exchange student) will interact with vendors and learn about the entire media production cycle. The team is also required to shoot and edit a one- to two-minute video segment each day that will be broadcast on NAB’s closed-circuit video feed seen around the convention floor.

To view the FSU team’s winning submission video, go to www.vimeo.com/mcom.

Students Present Program at BACCHUS

The BURG Peer Education Network recently traveled to College Park to attend the Annual BACCHUS Region 12 Area Conference. Students presented their award-winning program, “Perception IQ.” They also won the “Outstanding Extended Program” for their Red Zone Campaign. The campaign, held during the fall semester, included weekly activities to help create awareness about sexual assault.

Take Note

Take Back the Night Rescheduled

FSU’s Take Back the Night march, originally scheduled for March 9, has been rescheduled for April 19. The march will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Upper Quad and end with an open mic speak-out in the Leake Room of the Cordts PE Center.

Employee Appreciation Day April 19

The Office of Human Resources invites faculty and staff to Employee Appreciation Day Tuesday, April 19. The day has also been designated as a casual dress day.

The day includes a discounted lunch with music and entertainment from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Local merchants will provide discount coupons for employees, and there will be prize drawings and giveaways.

Employees can also give back to the community by making donations to benefit the Allegany County Animal Shelter.

Special Topics Class

Students enrolled in CMST 490 Special Topics: “Propaganda and Society” (fall 2011, MWF, 10-10:50 a.m.) will examine the persuasive elements of propaganda regarding war, totalitarian governments, democratic governments and pop culture consumerism.

Students will explore the techniques used to create propaganda messages, as well as the impact these messages have on intended audiences by recognizing emotional appeals through such concepts as ideology, scapegoats, nationalism and identification.

For info contact Dr. Brent Kice at bkice@frostburg.edu or x4709.

Thank You Students!

The Residence Life Office thanks the 920 students who participated in the recent online satisfaction survey. Of the residential population, 60 percent completed this survey – up from just over 51 percent two years ago. Results of the survey will be available in June.

RLO also congratulates grand prize winner Daniel Bald from Frost Hall who received a $200 prize card from Walmart.

Call for Submissions

Submissions – poetry, creative writing, essays, digital pieces, basically anything creative that complements the theme – will be published in the Appalachian Independent (www.appindie.org) and selections will be displayed as part of a Smithsonian exhibit from May 6 to June 26 hosted by Spruce Forest Artisan Village via the Maryland Humanities Council.

Advising Sessions

The Center for Advising and Career Services will offer the following Group Advising Sessions to discuss General Education Program requirements and answer questions. All students are welcome; freshman and undeclared students are encouraged to attend.

- April 11, 2 to 3 p.m., Compton 226
 - April 13, 2 to 3 p.m., Compton 226
 - April 15, 3 to 4 p.m., Compton 224
- For info, call x3132.

Academic Scheduling/ Religious Observance

It is FSU’s policy that its academic programs and services be available to qualified students who have been admitted to its programs, regardless of their religious beliefs. Students will not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays and will be given an opportunity to make up, within a reasonable period, any academic assignment missed because of religious observances. It is the student’s responsibility to notify his or her instructor of conflicts between religious observances and scheduled course activities.

Students should notify their instructors of conflicts and make arrangements for making up missed work before an absence due to a religious observance.

Health Benefits Fair

A Health Benefits Fair will be held Tuesday, April 12, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Lane 111. Representatives from FSU's various health plans (Aetna, CareFirst BC/BS and UnitedHealthcare), United Concordia (dental plan) and FSU's prescription plan will be available as well as other plan vendors – ConnectYourCare, MetLife, Prudential and APS. Additional representatives will include the Department of Budget and Management, SECU, College Savings Plans of Maryland, AFSCME, MCEA, Nationwide, TIAA-CREF and Fidelity. There will be giveaways and door prizes.

For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at x4398.

Buy a Ticket and Win a Painting!

Visual Couture is auctioning off a painting donated by Sen. Ronald Young. Alongside will be paintings from FSU students. If interested, stop by Tawes Hall from 12:30 to 5 p.m. to purchase a raffle ticket. Tickets will be available until April 16.

Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they want to live on campus, students must preregister for the process online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms. Students who register during this process will sign a contract that will be in effect for the academic year.

The lottery schedule is as follows:

- Single room sign-up – new this year: You will be permitted to sign up according to your enrollment appointment for fall class registration. Come to the Residence Life Office any time after your course enrollment appointment to choose from available single rooms.
- Cluster/group sign-up for students who want to sign up in a cluster in Frederick or Westminster Hall (with at least three others): Wednesday, April 13, starting at 8 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room (232).
- Regular room lottery for students who want to sign up for a room in Frederick or Westminster Hall or any other available rooms: Wednesday, April 13, starting at 9:30 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room.
- Off-campus students and any other students who did not take part earlier: weekdays beginning April 18, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Residence Life Office.

LGLG – Save the Date

The following dates have been set for the LGLG Committee Meetings: April 19 and May 17. All meetings will take place from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Lane 113.

For info, contact Lawrence Gingerich at x4360 or lagingerich@frostburg.edu.

Graduating in May?

The 138th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, in the Cordts PE Center. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will hold its service at 9 a.m., while the Colleges of Business and Education will present their graduates at 2 p.m. Tickets will be required for admission.

Full details about commencement are on the University's website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittni Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Note: The December 2011 commencement will be held Tuesday, Dec. 20.

Nature-Related Business Directory

If you’re involved in a nature-related business or organization, you may list it in a comprehensive new regional directory to be released this spring. The regional economy includes south-central Pennsylvania, Western Maryland and north-central West Virginia. Listing is free, and the directory will be available to the public online and in print at no cost.

The directory is being produced by Allegheny Mountain Naturally, a program of the Appalachian Center for Ethnobotanical Studies and the Center for Regional Progress, both at FSU. The purpose is to make people aware of the scope of area businesses that relate to nature, as well as supporting enterprises. The directory will be followed by initiatives in education, outreach, organizational support and grant writing.

To help compile the directory and develop the Allegheny Mountain Naturally program, directory applicants are asked to fill out a short survey questionnaire at www.amnaturally.com. (Or call Mimi Hernandez at x3136 to request a hard copy.)

Deadlines

Graduation Exceptions

Planning a May 2011 graduation? If your official degree progress report indicates you have not completed all requirements and you have a basis to request an exception, submit your written appeal letter and supporting letters and documentation to the Academic Standards Subcommittee, Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, by 4 p.m. on April 14 for the April meeting (last chance for graduation exceptions and inclusion in the Commencement Booklet). For info, call the Provost’s Office at x4212.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Summer Jobs at Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons is hiring summer resident assistants and apartment preparation/painting workers for the summer season. Free housing will be offered as part of the compensation, as well as hourly wages. Check out the website at www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com or stop by the office for application forms and job descriptions. The deadline for applications is April 17. For info, call 301-689-1370.

Student Life

Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons still has space for spring 2011! Application forms are available at www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com. Return completed forms to the Edgewood office with the application fees. Stop by during the week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take a tour. For info, call 301-689-1370 or e-mail info@edgewoodcommonsapts.com.
