FSU to Participate in Second Annual ‘Enough Is Enough’ Campaign to End Campus Violence

FSU will participate in “Enough Is Enough,” the national campaign to end campus violence, the week of Monday, April 2, through Friday, April 6. Each day will have a different theme, and events, workshops and information will be offered throughout.

Monday is kickoff day, starting with the annual rally and Harmony Walk, beginning at 6:30 p.m. by the Martin Luther King waterfall in the Lane Center lower lobby. FSU alumna Theresa Harrison, president of George Street Services Inc., and C. Natasha Richburg, entrepreneur, preacher, teacher, author and speaker, will lead an interactive session on “Using Conflict as a Tool for Growth: Being Right and Doing Right Are Not the Same” at 7 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall.

Tuesday is Take the Pledge Day, in which members of the campus community can sign a pledge to take a stand against violence. The first of a series of brown bag lunches will be held from noon to 1 p.m. in Lane 111, beginning with an interactive presentation by the FSU No More Violence in My Life team, in which participants will discuss their own experiences with violence. BTGLASS will hold a screening of their “It Gets Better” video at 7 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). This video features footage from the spring 2011 semester in which members interviewed students, faculty and staff about their experiences with bullying and violence.

Wednesday, the anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., will kick off with the annual

Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration, honoring of the life of the Civil Rights leader, at 4 p.m. in the Atkinson Room. Student participants will share reflections on King’s work with the civil rights movement. The second workshop in the Campus and Community Dialogues series will also take place Wednesday. (See following article.)

Thursday will be Take Action Day. It will feature the second brown bag lunch series, “Closing the Gap: Creating a More Peaceful Frostburg,” by members of the CMST 345 Conflict Management class, in the Lane Atkinson Room from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. The presentation will offer insights on how to close the gap between long- and short-term Frostburg residents. That evening, “Welcome to the Party,” an interactive program by the President’s Advisory Council on Gender-Based Violence, will focus on sexual assault and alcohol abuse. It will be held in the Atkinson Room from 7 to 8 p.m.

Friday, for Beats for Peace Day, members of the FSU National Coalition-Building Institute team will present a workshop titled “FSU Building Community Through Diversity” from noon to 4 p.m. in Lane 111. Everyone is welcome, but seating is limited to 50 participants. Participation in a workshop may allow for training to become a diversity facilitator.

The week’s activities will be supplemented by information tables and displays. For info, contact Robin Wynder at x4050 or rwynder@frostburg.edu.

“Sustaining Campus and Community” Dialogue Series

As part of the “Sustaining Campus and Community” Dialogue Series, FSU will host the next dialogue session on Wednesday, April 4, from 6 to 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. The workshop will be preceded by a reception at 5 p.m.

Taking place during Enough Is Enough week, this dialogue will emphasize violence prevention and community conflict management. The focus of this dialogue will be on understanding perceptions and tensions within the student community, as well as between the year-round Frostburg residents and the student community. A greater understanding of what resources are available or needed for student and community conflict management will be the goal.

Two top scholar-practitioners in conflict resolution will offer their expertise: Dr. Frank Dukes, lecturer and director of the Institute for Environmental Negotiation at the University of Virginia, and Dr. Marvin Johnson, founder and executive director of the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution.

All members of the campus and surrounding community are encouraged to attend.

For info, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of Communication Studies at FSU and president of Mountainside Community Mediation Center’s board of directors, at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480.

FSU Honored Again for Community Service

The Corporation for National and Community Service has honored FSU as a leader among institutions of higher education for their support of volunteering, service-learning and civic engagement.

FSU was admitted to the 2012 President’s Higher Education

Community Service Honor Roll for engaging its students, faculty and staff in meaningful service that achieves measurable results in the community. FSU students’ service, in particular, covers a wide range of volunteer activities, including tutoring children, helping with tax returns, cleaning streets and shoveling snow, raising money for numerous charities, helping rebuild New Orleans, performing environmental projects and, particularly, serving areas of need in the Western Maryland region.

FSU students collectively average more than 30,000 hours of service each year, through programs such as ECHOSTARS (Empowering Communities, Helping Others), a first-year, living-learning-serving experience for students committed to making a change in the community. Other programs include the VOICE (Volunteer Opportunities in the Community Environment) Clearinghouse program, which connects students, faculty and staff with volunteer opportunities in Western Maryland, and Relay for Life, FSU’s best-attended annual event that raised $52,470 to support the American Cancer Society in 2011.

The President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll recognizes higher education institutions that reflect the values of exemplary community service and achieve meaningful outcomes in their communities. Inspired by the thousands of college students who traveled across the country to support relief efforts along the Gulf Coast after Hurricane Katrina, the initiative celebrates the transformative power and volunteer spirit that exists within the higher education community.

The Corporation for National and Community Service, which has administered the Honor Roll since 2006, admitted over 642 colleges and universities for their impact on issues from literacy and neighborhood revitalization to supporting at-risk youth. Of that total, 513 were named to the Honor Roll, 110 received the recognition of Honor Roll with distinction, 14 were identified as finalists and five received the Presidential Award.

FSU was a member of last year's Honor Roll, as well as in 2008, and in 2000, was awarded the first-ever Higher Education Award for Leadership in National Service by the CNCS.

For info, contact Patrick O'Brien in FSU's Office of Volunteerism and National Service at x4210 or pobrien@frostburg.edu.

Music

Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Peeler Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Department of Music at x4109.

Vocal Studio Recitals

The FSU Department of Music presents two Vocal Studio Recitals. Students from the studios of Mariana Mihai-Zoeter, Dr. William Koehler and Dr. Karen Soderberg will perform on Tuesday, April 3, and Thursday, April 5, at 8 p.m. Dr. Sean Beachy and Judith Brown will accompany the singers.

Spring Choral Concert

FSU's Chamber Choir and University Chorale will present their annual Spring Choral Concert on Sunday, April 15, at 3 p.m. The concert will be conducted by Dr. Karen Soderberg and accompanied by pianists Debbie and Sean Beachy. Tickets are $5 for general admission, $3 for students, and children 16 and younger are admitted free. Tickets will be available at the door.

The University Chorale's performance includes Maurice Durufle's "Requiem," featuring Jessica Knouse, mezzo soprano. They will conclude with Norman Luboff's "All My Trials" and Charles Albert Tindley's "The Storm Is Passing Over," arranged by Maryland composer Barbara W. Baker.

The Chamber Choir performance includes "Ecco Marmorar L'Onde" by Claudio Monteverdi; the Korean folk song "Arirang," arranged by Chen Yi, featuring tenor Lane Conklin; the beautiful New Zealand Maori lullaby "Hine e Hine," arranged by David Hamilton; and the lush eight-part arrangement of the American folk song "Shenandoah," arranged by James Erb.

Further selections include "Nox Arumque" by Eric Whitacre; "The Curse Upon Iron" by Estonian composer Veljo Tormis for 16-part chorus and shaman drum, featuring tenor Christopher Delgado and bass David Kincaid; and the gorgeous "Amor De Mi Alma" (You Are the Love of My Soul) by Z. Randall Stroupe. The program will conclude with "The Battle of Jericho" by Moses Hogan.

For more information, contact the FSU Department of Music at 301-687-4109.

Presentations

Leadership-in-Residence Program

Jonna Huseman and Larry Williams

The Leadership Studies Minor and the Amnesty International Chapter at FSU are sponsoring a leadership-in-residence program on Monday, April 2, and Tuesday, April 3. The two-day program will feature leaders and scholars who will participate in a forum, faculty workshop and classroom visits that focus on the discussion of leadership and the labor movement.

A forum titled "To Occupy or Not to Occupy? Leadership in the Labor Movement" will be held on Monday at 6 p.m. in Compton 226. An "Occupy Compton" reception featuring networking with guests will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the second floor atrium of Compton.

The forum will be initiated by five participants, including two representatives of organized labor, Jonna Huseman and Larry Williams; two FSU students, Brett Shepherd and Jacob Hutton; and two FSU faculty members, Dr. Greg Wood and Dr. Elesha Ruminski.

The guest speakers work within labor organizations and have experiences involving Occupy DC. Huseman, an advocate for workers' rights, spent three years as a communications specialist for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Williams, a seasoned employee of IBT's Organizing Department, has led courses of more than 100 Teamster leaders and representatives from around the country at the IBT national organizing conference.

As part of their visit to FSU, Huseman and Williams will meet with the President's Leadership Circle and participate in classroom discussions. A luncheon for faculty and staff will also be held, featuring discussion about "Teaching Students to be Citizen Leaders" and how the University offers experiential learning and leadership development activities.

For info about this program, contact Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu, or visit www.frostburg.edu/dept/lead.

Is It Just Men?

BTGLASS will hold a forum titled "Only Men Are Rapists?" Wednesday, April 4, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in Lane 111.

In this informative discussion, the group will examine the lesser thought of aspects of sexual assault.

Arbor Day Observance and Declaration

FSU will hold a Tree Campus USA Arbor Day Observance and Declaration on Wednesday, April 4, from noon to 1 p.m. on the Lane Center lawn or in the Lane Atkinson Room (232) if it rains.

Among the speakers will be Dr. Sunshine Brosi, chair of the Campus Tree Advisory Committee; Becky Wilson, who will speak on the importance of an Urban Tree Canopy; and FSU Sustainability coordinator Lawrence Gingerich and deans Dr. Joe Hoffman and Dr. Ahmad Tootoonchi, speaking on campus sustainability as well as interdisciplinary sustainability. Closing out the ceremony, President Jonathan Gibraltar will make a Declaration of Arbor Day followed by the Arbor Day Observance of Tree Planting. It will be accompanied by the FSU Chamber Choir under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg in a musical reflection of Arbor Day. Volunteers will meet for campus tree planting in front of the arboretum at 1 p.m.

For info, contact Brosi at slbrosi@frostburg.edu.

A Story of Courage

Dewey Bozella will come to FSU to share his story of perseverance, courage and faith on April 10 at 7 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall.

Bozella was a 24-year old amateur boxer when he was convicted of a murder he did not commit. With the help of the Innocence Project, Bozella was exonerated in 2009 after 26 years in prison, earned ESPN's 2011 Arthur Ashe Courage Award and recently won his first and only professional boxing match at 52 years old. Bozella has also established the Dewey Bozella

Foundation, working with kids to teach them discipline and the value of hard work and courage through boxing.

For info, contact the Black Student Alliance Office at x7402 or the Diversity Center at x4050.

Visual Arts

‘Eclectic’ Art Show

Eclectic

Come see a variety of artwork, including sculpture, painting, printmaking and illustration by senior artists Jodi Akers, Lindsey Crabtree, Kyler Daniels, Heather Miller and Linda Stewart at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the Fine Arts Building.

The show will run through April 4. The event is free and open to the public.

The gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m.

For info, contact the Visual Arts Department at x4797.

Film

Tri-Beta Movie Night

Tri-Beta will host a free movie presentation to all that are interested on April 5 at 5 p.m. in Compton 327.

The feature presentation will be an episode of “Human Planet”: “Jungles – People of the Trees,” a documentary of the human species and its relationship with the natural world that shows the remarkable ways humans have adapted to life in every environment on Earth. This episode focuses on how some cultures only live in trees and their struggles through life.

Points of Pride

‘Vagina Monologues’ Raises Over $2,600

Ticket sales for this year’s “The Vagina Monologues” exceeded $2,600 for the two shows! In addition, merchandise sales, including handmade scarves donated by community members and V-Day alums, brought V-Day’s 2011-2012 fundraising total to just over $3,400. All money raised will go to the Family Crisis Resource Center, the Dove Center and the Women and Girls of Haiti (this year’s V-Day Spotlight).

To increase the total before the end of the semester, V-Day@FSU will continue to man its table in the Lane Center through April. Be sure to stop by to make a donation or buy an item in support of local women’s shelters.

For info, contact faculty advisors Dr. Amy Branam at abranam@frostburg.edu.

edu or Dr. Jennifer Flinn at jaflinn@frostburg.edu.

Take Note

Career/Internship Fair

There will be a Career and Internship Fair Wednesday, April 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. Dress for success and bring resumes!

Massage Class Back by Popular Demand!

A free infant massage class for parents will be held every Wednesday in April from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Dance Studio in the Cordts PE Center. Instructors will be Dr. Megan Bradley of the Psychology Department and Linda Storm, executive director of Infant Massage USA. Classes are taught in small groups of parents/caregivers and their babies up to 1 year of age.

For info or to register, call or text 240-284-8543. Register early; class size is limited.

Eggtravaganza Day

Eggtravaganza, hosted by UCM, is an opportunity to create a unique bedazzled egg and contribute to the effort to end world hunger. The event will be held on April 3 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the UCM table in the Lane Center. A $2 donation will purchase a chick for a family start-up farm in a country of one’s choice. Heifer helps many families with a starter flock of 10 to 50 chicks.

For info, contact the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

Academic Scheduling and Religious Observances

It is FSU’s policy that the University’s academic programs and services be available to all qualified students who have been admitted to its programs, regardless of their religious beliefs. Students will not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays and will be given an opportunity to make up, within a reasonable time period, any academic assignment missed due to participation in religious observances. It is the student’s responsibility to notify his or her instructor of conflicts between religious observances and scheduled course activities.

Students should notify their instructors of conflicts and make arrangements for making up missed work before an absence due to religious observance.

All faculty and staff have been sent the link to a web-based interfaith calendar for reference.

Student Tradeshaw

The FSU Entrepreneurship Club will hold a Student Tradeshaw all day on April 30 in the Lane Atkinson Room (232).

For info, email FSUTradeshow@gmail.com or go to www.facebook.com/groups/fsuentrepreneurshipclub.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available. For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Changsha, China – Fall 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and room and board costs to Hunan Normal University.

Limerick, Ireland – Fall 2012

Students can study for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie.

Student Life

On-Campus Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the traditional residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they wish to live on campus, all students must submit an online housing application at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms before attending the room selection process. Students who register for a room will sign a contract that will be in effect for the entire academic year. Any students who are undecided may sign up at a later time.

The following is the Room Lottery schedule:
Single Room Sign-Up: If you wish to sign up for a single room, you will be permitted to do so according to your enrollment appointment for fall class registration. Come to the Residence Life Office any time after your course enrollment appointment to choose from available single rooms. Your lottery number is irrelevant.

Cluster/Group Sign-Up: Students who want to sign up in a cluster in Frederick or Westminster Hall (with at least three others), should come to Lane Manicur Hall on Wednesday, April 11, starting at 8 p.m.

Regular Room Lottery: Students who want to sign up for a room in Frederick or Westminster Hall or any other available rooms on campus should come to Lane Manicur Hall April 11, starting at 9:30 p.m.

Off-Campus Students and Other Students Who Did Not Take Part Earlier: These students can come to the Residence Life Office weekdays, beginning April 16, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons still has space for 2012-2013. All application forms are available on the website at www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com.

Stop by during the week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take a tour. For info, contact Edgewood Commons at 301-689-1370 or info@edgewoodcommonsapts.com.

‘Eyes on China’

The Frostburg Museum will present an exhibition and presentations titled “Eyes on China” by Dr. Sally dhruva’ Stephenson, an associate professor in FSU’s Department of Educational Professions, from April 3 through 28. The artist’s reception, with the first presentation – “Scenic and Historic Places,” will be held April 6 from 5 to 8 p.m., and is free to the public.

The following additional educational programs on Chinese culture and history will be featured on these dates:

- April 13, “3,000 Years of Education”
- April 20, “The Art of Poetry and Dance”
- April 28, “Chinese Music, Traditional to Today”

The event also involves several FSU exchange students, including artists Shuqin “Cathy” Cao and Jingyuan “Effy” Luo, dancer Le “Linsey” Xu and instrumentalist Lu “Tracy” Tan.

The museum is open Tuesday through Saturday from noon to 5 p.m., Admittance is always free; donations are appreciated. For more info, contact Garry Ritchie at 301-689-1195 or FrostburgMuseum@Verizon.net.

AAUW Meeting

James T. West will be the featured speaker at the next meeting of the Frostburg Branch of the American Association of University Women on April 4 at 7 p.m. at the United Methodist Church on Main Street. West has worked as a quality assurance manager for the rebuilding of the World Trade Center. His presentation will include current pictures of the rebuilding and will be followed by the annual meeting and election of officers. Members, their guests and the public are invited. For info, call Liz West at 301-697-4755.

Oil Meets Metal

The C. William Gilchrist Museum of the Arts reopens for its 2012 season with “Where Oil Meets Metal,” an exhibit of paintings by Mary Kollman and sculpture by Kenny Braitman.

The exhibits runs Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. through April 29.
