FSU's CES LIVE! at StarScape Presents Luciana Souza & Romero Lubambo

The Cultural Events Series at FSU will present a LIVE! at StarScape clubstyle performance, titled Luciana Souza and Romero Lubambo: Brazilian Duo, on Saturday, April 20, at 8 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. Audience members will have the opportunity to interact with the artists in a question-and-answer session immediately following the performance.

Hailing from Sao Paolo, Brazil, Grammy-winning jazz vocalist Souza is one of the leading singers and interpreters in the Latin jazz genre. Entertainment Weekly says "her voice traces a landscape of emotion that knows no boundaries." A fellow Brazilian, skilled guitarist Lubambo was praised by Jazziz magazine as perhaps being "the best practitioner of his craft in the world today." Together, they create an outstanding musical experience for their audience, and The Los Angeles Times praised their show for its "inspired excellence [and] utter musical involvement ... a must-hear musical destination."

For ticket info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES' webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Spring Choral Concert

The FSU Chamber Choir and Vocal Jazz Ensemble will present their Spring Concert on Sunday, April 21, at 4 p.m. at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 16 Washington St. in Cumberland. The concert will be conducted by Dr. Karen Soderberg, accompanied by pianist Dr. Jay DeWire. The concert is free and open to the public.

The Chamber Choir performance will include the sacred works "Miserere" by Gregorio Allegri, "Veni, sancte Spiritus" by David Hamilton and "Lamentations of Jeremiah" by Z.
Randall Stroope. The last will feature
Catherine Mayhew, student conductor.
The secular selections of the concert feature Australian composers: Stephen Leek's "Ngana" and "Ngayulyul" and Sarah Hopkins' "Past Life Melodies."
These works echo Aboriginal culture and spirit.

The Vocal Jazz Ensemble will perform "Straighten Up and Fly Right" (arranged by Kirby Shaw), Sammy Nestico's "Wind Machine" (Paris Rutherford), "Black Is the Color" (Jacques Rizzo), Charlie Parker's "Anthropology" (Rutherford), "A Nightingale Sang in Berkley Square" (Gene Puerling), "Blues for Elise" (Ken Kraintz) and Dave Barduhn's "A Case of the Mondays."

The program will end with Sam Cook's "A Change Is Gonna Come," featuring tenor Andre Wilson, and two rousing spirituals by Sean Ivory and Paul Caldwell: "Daniel in the Lion's Den," featuring Britany Poindexter, student conductor, and "John the Revelator" with DeWire on piano.

West Shore Piano Trio

FSU's Department of Music will present the West Shore Piano Trio as part of its Faculty-Guest Artist Series on Friday, April 12, at 8 p.m. The trio includes Dr. Jay DeWire, piano; Diana Flesner, cello; and Heather Haughn, violin. The performance is free and open to the public.

Since their first performance on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay in 2008, WSPT has brought passion, color and penetrating insight to the works they perform through their playing as well as their commentary and interaction with audiences.

WSPT believes that education and live performance enhance each other, and that the better informed an audience is about a work, the more deeply they will appreciate its performance. To this end, the members of the trio accompany each concert with brief verbal commentary, providing biographical details about the composer, framing the work in the context of its time and highlighting thematic and compositional elements of the piece, as well as connections shared between each work on the program.

An Opera of 'Forbidden Love'

FSU's Opera Theatre will present two performances with the theme of "Forbidden Love" on Saturday, April 13, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, April 14, at 3 p.m.

'Tales of a Civil Warian' Lecture

FSU's History Department will present a lecture by Michelle A. Krowl, "The Tales of a Civil Warian: Creating 'The Civil War in America' Exhibition at the Library of Congress." The lecture will be on Thursday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Dunkle 218. This event is open to the public and will be followed by a reception.

The lecture is about the experiences of historians and librarians who put together the exhibit at the Library of Congress commemorating the 150th anniversary of the Civil War - what themes they focused on, how they selected materials and problems they encountered.

Krowl is the Civil War and Reconstruction specialist in the Manuscript Division at the Library of Congress. She is the author of several articles and books on the Civil War and the World War II Memorial in Washington, D.C. She has also worked for the Historical Society of Washington, D.C., and as a research assistant for historian Doris Kearns Goodwin. She received her doctorate in history from the University of California, Berkeley.

The Library of Congress houses some of the most important and rare Civil War records and artifacts, including photographs, presidential papers, soldiers' accounts, maps, music and rare manuscripts.

Center for Creative Writing to Host Writers Conference

The Frostburg Center for Creative Writing is celebrating the sixth annual Nightsun Writers Conference on Thursday, July 25, through Sunday, July 28, in downtown Frostburg. The program provides participants with workshop opportunities, individualized feedback on their work and craft sessions and is designed to generate new material for publication, hone the participants' creative writing skills and initiate a larger writing community.

The conference will feature workshops with Bruce Weigl (poet and author of "The Abundance of Nothing"), Heidi Ruby Miller (sci-fi, fantasy and horror writer and the author of "Ambasadora"), Dinty Moore (creative non-fiction writer and author of "Between Panic and Desire"), Ty DeMartino (screenwriter and writer and producer of the film "Doughboy") and Jessica Anya Blau (fiction writer and author of "Summer of Naked Swim Parties"). The registration deadline is July 18, and the cost of participation is $300, plus accommodations and some meals. There will be an opportunity for a one-on-one faculty conference for an additional cost of $25.

The conference will be held in classrooms spread throughout downtown Frostburg locations. It will provide seminars, memorable readings by faculty and participants and the unique opportunity for participants to mingle with special guests, as well as share their work at a reading at the end of the weekend.

For info, visit www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter or contact Gerry LaFemina at x4340 or glafemina@frostburg.edu.

Alumni Reception

The Student Members of the American Chemical Society (SMACS) will host an Alumni Reception on Saturday, April 13, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). All members of the campus community are invited to attend the event, but the focus of the afternoon will be on connecting students majoring in science-related fields to successful alumni.

At the start of the program, attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy free refreshments while mingling. Presentations will begin immediately afterward and will include a brief welcoming, alumni panel discussion and student organization presentations.

The alumni panel discussion is the highlight of the event as students will get the opportunity to ask a selection of alumni about their life experiences, as well as for advice on being successful or obtaining a job in a particular field.

Students majoring in a science-related discipline are highly encouraged to attend. It is recommended that attendees dress in business casual attire and bring business cards and/or resumes.

At the end of the event, there will be a surprise presentation and a drawing for door prizes.

Funding for the program was provided by a generous grant from the Alumni Association to SMACS.

Community Dialogue Series to Celebrate Achievements

Participants of the FSU Sustaining Campus and Community Dialogue Series will celebrate achievements to date at a picnic on Saturday, May 4, from noon to 3 p.m. at City Place, an event that will link to the annual service day in Frostburg, "Beautify the 'Burg," formerly the Day of Caring and Sharing. Grilled lunch and live music will be featured.

The dialogue sessions, initiated last spring, convene students, year-round residents, local officials and University leaders to discuss a variety of issues and create new opportunities for collaborative problem-solving and coalition-building in Frostburg.

Details and documentary segments capturing the Sustaining Campus and Community efforts can be seen at www.frostburg.edu/dept/cmst/dialogue-series.

Those interested in being part of this community-building effort should contact project manager Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x4480. Ruminski is the chair of the Department of Communication Studies and coordinator of Leadership Studies at FSU, as well as the president of the Mountainside Community Mediation Center, a local partner of the dialogue series that offers free mediation services.

Scholarships Awarded to Area Musicians for DelFest Academy

Five scholarships to this year's DelFest Academy were recently awarded to local youth musicians. WFWM, public radio from FSU, and the Tri-State Community School for the Arts awarded two scholarships from among five finalists, who were selected by a panel of judges that included Rob McCoury of the Del McCoury Band and his wife, Lisa McCoury, who runs the DelFest Academy. As a result of that process, three more scholarships have been sponsored by Dr. Michael Harpold, Walsh & Hare PC and WFWM that will allow the remaining finalists to attend the academy.

The scholarship winners are Bill Bower and Caleb Carter of Cumberland, Walker Magrath of Spring Gap, Brent Dumas of LaVale and Hanna Livingston of Frostburg. Bower, Carter and Dumas will study guitar; Magrath and Livingston will study fiddle.

The DelFest Academy will be held at the Allegany County Fairgrounds

May 20 through 23 before the annual DelFest, a music festival hosted by bluegrass legend, Del McCoury. It is a three-day experience that gives musicians the opportunity to work with some of the finest bluegrass musicians, including the members of the Del McCoury Band. Instruction is available for banjo, bass, fiddle, guitar and mandolin.

For info, contact Chuck Dicken at x4143 or cdicken@frostburg.edu.
