General Information

Current Students

Current students can register for Interession through their PAWS account. Be sure to contact your faculty mentor or university advisor prior to registration for authorization. Additional registration information and processes are listed on page 6 in this booklet.

Visiting Students

Visiting Undergraduate students must complete the online undergraduate application on our website. A $45 non-refundable application fee is required when you apply. For more information concerning Undergraduate Admissions please call 301-687-4201.

Visiting and new Graduate students must complete the online graduate application on our website. A $45 non-refundable application fee is required when you apply. For more information concerning Graduate Admissions, please call 301-687-7053.

Cancellation

The University reserves the right to cancel classes due to insufficient enrollment. You will be notified on or about December 12, 2025, if a course is canceled.

Credit/Course Limit

Students are limited to six credits or two courses for the Interession. One three credit course is a full-time load. If you work during Interession or participate in an intercollegiate sport, one course should be the absolute limit. Before you enroll, see the course syllabus and instructor about course requirements.

Library Hours

The library’s online resources remain accessible via the webpage at www.frostburg.edu/library, and online reference and research help will be available at <https://frostburg.libanswers.com>. For additional information, contact the Library Services Main Desk at 301-687-4395 or email libref@frostburg.edu.

E-Mail - Official Communication Policy Statement

A University-assigned email account shall be used as one of the University’s official means of communication with all students attending FSU as well as Faculty and Staff employed by FSU. Students and employees are responsible for all information sent to them via their University-assigned email account. If a student or employee chooses to forward University email to another account, he or she is responsible for all information, including attachments, sent to the other email account.

Student Responsibilities

You are responsible for checking your University email account and reviewing relevant information on a daily basis. You will be given a maximum of 10 megabytes of storage on the email server. You must purge unnecessary messages from your account to avoid exceeding the storage quota. Exceeding the quota will prevent the delivery of additional email messages.

Requests for Accommodation

Frostburg State University is committed to making all of its programs, services, and activities accessible to persons with disabilities. You may request accommodation through the Office of Federal Regulatory Compliance, Hitchins 126, 301-687-3035.
