

A QUICK GUIDE FOR HELPING STUDENTS

WHOM TO CONTACT ...

Counseling Center

Cumberland Hall
301-687-4234

WHEN ...

- Communication reflects suicidal thoughts or actions, depression, hopelessness, anxiety or difficulty dealing with grief
- Communication indicates loss of touch with reality
- Behavior is peculiar or alarming

PASS Office

Disability Support Services/
Learning Specialist

Pullen Hall 150, 301-687-4441

- Student is having academic difficulty due to chronic medical, physical, psychological or learning disability
- Communication indicates a need for academic assistance

Student Affairs

(Student Conduct)

Hitchins 116, 301-687-4312

- Behavior substantially impairs, interferes with or obstructs orderly processes and functions of the University
- Behavior deliberately interferes with instruction or office procedures
- Behavior is lewd or indecent

Title IX

Hitchins 126
301-687-3035

- Student reports an incident or reports that they have been a victim of stalking, sexual assault or relationship violence
- Student reports an incident or that they have been a victim of gender-based harassment, gender-based discrimination or sexual harassment

FSU Police

University Police Building
301-687-4222

- Student is threatening the safety of self or others
- Student is acting in a frightening or threatening manner
- Student is not leaving the classroom after being asked to leave
- Student communicates that they have been a victim of crime

Center for Student Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Hitchins 116, 301-687-4050

- Student has witnessed or has been a victim of a hate/bias incident