

Undergraduate Learning Objectives—Homes and Points-of-Contact (Fall, 2012)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Undergraduate Learning Objective	Course/Department	PoC-Faculty Contact
Communication: We want our students to demonstrate skill and competence in written communication and in oral communication.	Professional Development II Approved Rubrics	Ryan Kentrus (Fall, 2012)
Problem Solving (Quantitative): We want our students to demonstrate skill and knowledge in solving problems of a quantitative nature (analysis, computation).	FINA 370 (MKTG &FINA) Corporate Finance In-Class Case Analysis	Dr. Tae-Nyun Kim (Fall, 2012)
Problem Solving (Qualitative): We want our students to demonstrate skill and knowledge in solving problems of a qualitative nature (analysis, computation).	MGMT 485 (MGMT) Business Policy and Strategy Approved Rubric (Excel)	Dr. Tom Sigerstad (Fall, 2012)
Leadership-General Skills/Teamwork and Collaboration Skills: We want our students to demonstrate skill and knowledge in leading groups to successful outcomes and results; and in collaboration, focus of goals and the like.	MGMT 356 (MGMT) Leadership Approved Rubric	Dr. Jeffrey McClellan (Fall, 2012)
Business Ethics and Values: We want our students to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of theories and concepts of ethics, the application of ethical principles, and the expectations and needs of stakeholders.	MGMT 405 (MGMT) Business Ethics	Dr. Evan Offstein (on-going)
Business Knowledge—Practice and Application: We want our students to demonstrate skills and knowledge appropriate to different business disciplines in capstone course project work of an applied nature.	MGMT 485 (MGMT) Business Policy Strategy Approved Rubric (same as Qual Excel)	Dr. Tom Sigerstad (Fall, 2012)
Core Business Knowledge and Concentration Knowledge	PD II (pre) and MGMT 485 (post)	Kentrus, Sigerstad, Offstein