

PN 2.012

DIAGNOSTIC/PLACEMENT TESTING

All entering freshmen (including students transferring 29 or less credits) will be administered diagnostic placement tests in reading, writing, and mathematics to determine their strengths and weaknesses in those areas.

All students earning below a predetermined standard on these examinations will be required to participate in specified courses in their first semester to develop their skills to a level which is expected of all entering freshmen.

Ref. BOR III - 4.00