

Employment Clearing

An employee who leaves Frostburg State University employment for any reason is expected to return any and all university property including assigned keys, ID card, Diners Club/procurement card, cell phone, computer, and any other equipment or items in the employee's possession. Full-time employees who retire, resign, or are terminated will receive a memo advising them of the request to return all university property to their department or the Office of Human Resources.