

PN 4.007

RESIDENCE HALL DAMAGE DEPOSIT

It is the policy of the University to require students living in the residence hall to pay a damage deposit prior to moving on campus their first semester. The following charges may be processed against the deposit:

1. damage to the room and room furnishings;
2. damages to residence hall facilities or property; even if such damages are anonymous;
3. damages occurring in the smallest area securable by the resident's keys.

Ref. BOR V - 5.00