

PN 4.013

FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY

Financial Aid is awarded by the University to an eligible student once the process of completing the necessary application forms has been completed.

A uniform, national needs analysis system is used by Frostburg State University to determine students' eligibility, based on information which the students (and parents, spouse, if applicable) provide on the Financial Aid form. The family's financial strength--income, assets, number of dependents, etc., contribution is determined.

Ref. BOR V - 3.00