There has been a recent change affecting your FSU email. The following instructions explain the steps you must take to access your web email account. Note you will see the following sequence of windows the first time you access your web email on the new system.

Go to the e-mail login page - www.frostburg.edu/mail

Click on the http://Outlook.com/frostburg.edu link.
You may see this window. If so, select a time zone ‘US Eastern Time’.
