

Frostburg State University Student Government Association Senate Resolution 5-2025 SGA Student GPA Requirement Appeal

10	A RESOLUTION CONCERNING: Amendment of SGA's Senatorial GPA Requirements
20	To ensure diversity, equity, and inclusion in all facets, SGA will put forth an appeals process for the
30	grade point av	verage requirements that determine the eligibility of student senators.
40
50	WHEREAS:	Ensuring equitable access for student participation in student government is
60		essential for a successful student government.
70
80
90	WHEREAS:	While Frostburg State University is an academic institution, it is important to note
100		that incoming and current senators are not defined purely by their academic achievements, although academics are an important part of collegiate life.
110
120
130	THEREFORE B	BE IT RESOLVED THAT:
140		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an
150		appeal to remain on SGA. This appeal is open to senators that are first and second-
160		year students and that are not on academic probation. Additionally, if a student fails
170		to demonstrate academic growth, measured by their grade point average during the
180		semester of their appeal, they shall be dismissed from office.
190
200
210	THEREFORE I	T BE FURTHER RESOLVED:
220	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an
220 230	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator
220 230 240	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and
220 230 240 250	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or
220 230 240 250 260	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor,
220 230 240 250 260 270	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch
220 230 240 250 260 270 280	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by
220 230 240 250 260 270 280	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290	THEREFORE I	Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300 310		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by the SGA President, Vice-President, and advisors.
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300 310 320		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by the SGA President, Vice-President, and advisors.
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300 310 320 330		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by the SGA President, Vice-President, and advisors.
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300 310 320 330 340		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by the SGA President, Vice-President, and advisors.
220 230 240 250 260 270 280 290 300 310 320 330 340 350		Senators that fail to meet the cumulative grade point average of 2.5 shall submit an appeal that includes the following: a letter, written or typed, by the senator describing the circumstances that led to the decline of their grade point average and their plans for improvement; a letter of recommendation from one professor, or high school teacher or counselor; a letter from a professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional entity that may vouch for the circumstances a senator has outlined that resulted in the decline of their grade point average. This criteria will be reviewed and outcomes will be decided by the SGA President, Vice-President, and advisors.

390	senator must provide a letter outlining the circumstances that led to their inability
400	to meet the minimum cumulative grade point average, as well as a letter from a
410	professor, doctor, therapist/counselor, academic advisor, or other professional
420	entity that can verify the integrity of the senator's letter of circumstance, and lastly,
430	a letter of recommendation from one professor or high school teacher or counselor.
440
450
460	BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT: Upon its passage, copies of this resolution shall be sent to
470	Al Delia, Interim President,
480	Dr. Weill, Interim Provost
490	SPONSORS:
500	Rachael Michalski, Student Body President
510	Hailey Unger, Student Body Vice President
520	Hailie Toro, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Chair