Harold R. Rowe International Scholarship Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must be enrolled or accepted for full-time enrollment at FSU. If a student drops below full-time status, he or she is no longer eligible. Undergraduate or graduate F-1 degree-seeking international students or FSU undergraduate or graduate degree-seeking students who have been approved by the Center for International Education to participate in a credit-bearing study abroad program may apply. International Fellows and Graduate Assistants are not eligible. The recipient(s) must have an overall grade point average of at least 2.5. Previous recipients may re-apply annually as long as he/she is eligible. Preference will be given to applicants having demonstrated financial need.

Types of scholarships available:

1.) New F-1 International students Scholarships: Awarded to international students applying to attend their first year at Frostburg State University.

Criteria:

- Student meets all admissions criteria (including issuance of an I-20 from the Center for International Education)
- Student can demonstrate financial need, with specific reference to family/national economic situation
- A written 500-word essay (see Part II).

2.) Continuing F-1 International Students and Study Abroad Student Scholarships: Awarded to students who have completed at least one semester at FSU and are returning to continue their studies at the University or have been approved to participate in a study abroad program.

Criteria:

- Student is in good academic standing (FSU transcripts required)
- Student can demonstrate financial need, with specific reference to family/national economic situation
- A written 500-word essay (see Part II).

Award amounts: Amount of each scholarship will be determined in units of $1000 based on the number of applicants and total amount of funds available for award.
